St. James's, March 30, 1803.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the undersigned Inhabitants of the City and Liberty of Westminster, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our warmest Congratulations on your Majesty's late happy Escape from a traitorous and detestable Conspiracy against your Majesty's Person and Government, as established by the Verdict of an English Jury in a British Court of criminal Judicature.

As we do most sincerely feel, so it is our most earnest Wish to convey to your Majesty, our deep and heartfelt Execration at this flagitious Design; and we cannot in stronger Terms express our Sense of it than by declaring, that no Language is capable of sufficiently describing our utter Abhorrence of so wicked and abominable an Attempt.

Heartily concurring with our Fellow-Subjects in Reprobation of this base Conspiracy, and Exultation at its Failure, we do most ardently wish to your Majesty a long and happy Life.

[Presented by the Honorable Charles James Fox, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common-Council of the City of Gloucester, in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Corporation of the City of Gloucester, animated with unfeigned Regard for your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, presume respectfully to offer our Congratulations on the providential Deliverance from the late wicked, traitorous, and malignant Conspiracy.

Permit us, Sir, to avail ourselves of this Occasion to repeat the high Sense we entertain of your Majesty's auspicious, just, and benignant Sway, which requires not the additional Lustre it receives from the political Confusion to which, unhappily, neighbouring States have been exposed.

Earnestly praying that your Majesty's Government may ever proceed undisturbed by foreign or domestic Enemies, we confidently trust that the United Kingdom, duly impressed with your Majesty's paternal Care, will grow in Attachment whilst it advances in Welfare, Prosperity, and Renown.

Given under our Common-Seal at the Tolsey, in the said City, the Sixteenth Day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by H. Howard, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Right Worshipful the Mayor, the Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common-Council of the City of Canterbury, in Burghmote assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common-Council of your ancient City of Canterbury, in Burghmote assembled, humbly beg Leave to express to your Majesty our most cordial and sincere Congratulations upon your Majesty's providential Deliverance from a dreadful Conspiracy formed against your Majesty's most sacred and invaluable Life, and the Foundation of our excellent Constitution.

Revering, as we do, your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, we could not have supposed that even an Individual could have been found in your Majesty's Dominions so depraved, as to have harboured a Thought tending to its Subversion and Overthrow. And we sincerely hope that the awful and just Sentence of the Law, lately carried into Execution against those Persons convicted as Traitors to their Country, will more firmly unite all Ranks of your Majesty's Subjects, in the Protection of your Majesty's Royal Person, and in the Maintenance of our dearest Rights and Liberties both Civil and Religious.

We fervently pray, that your Majesty's Life, rendered dear to us by your many and transcendent Virtues, may be long continued a Blessing to your People, and that the Providence of the Almighty, so often peculiarly manifested in the Preservation of your Majesty's most sacred Person, may be continually watchful over it, and that the Imperial Crown of your United Kingdom may descend through your Royal House to the latest Posterity.

Given under the Common Seal of the said City, the Fifteenth Day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by the Honorable George Watson, Esq; and John Baker, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the City of Durham, in Common-Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the City of Durham, humbly offer our most heartfelt Congratulations on the providential Discovery and Prevention of the late traitorous Designs against your august Person, and the Stability of the State.

Truly sensible of the Happiness we enjoy under your wise and paternal Government, and justly appreciating the inestimable Value of our excellent Constitution, which secures to us all the Blessings of a rationally free and happy People, it is with mingled Horror and Detestation that we review those diabolical Projects, which, by depriving us of a revered and beloved Sovereign, and subverting a Government founded in Wisdom and Justice, would have plunged a prosperous Nation into Misery and Destruction.

That the same kind Providence, which has hitherto frustrated the Machinations of your Enemies, may ever watch over and protect your Majesty and your illustrious Family, is our most earnest and sincere Prayer.

Given under our Common-Seal the Sixteenth Day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

By Order of the Court,

Wilkinson, Town Clerk.

[Presented by Richard Wharton, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the ancient Town and City of Peterborough and its Vicinity.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the ancient Town and City of Peterborough and its Vicinity, humbly presume to participate in the general Joy diffused through an affectionate, loyal, and united Nation in testifying our most heartfelt Congratulations on the timely Discovery and Prevention of the traitorous Designs recently formed against your Majesty's sacred Person and our inestimable Constitution.

We acknowledge with reverential Awe the signal Interposition of Divine Providence, which averted the impending Danger; and offer to your gracious Majesty our Assurances of inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

May that Almighty Power, which hath vouchsafed to frustrate this foul Conspiracy, long grant your Majesty to reign the Monarch of your People's Affections, and the Guardian of true Religion and the Laws.

[Presented by Doctor Lawrence, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful, loyal, and affectionate Subjects, the High Steward, Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Citizens of your ancient City of Chichester, beg Leave to approach the Throne with the most fervent Congratulations on the providential Detection and Defeat of the late iniquitous Design against your Royal Person.

Had not the most unequivocal Evidence proved, beyond the Possibility of a Doubt, the Existence of so foul a Treason, we could hardly have credited that there was in these Kingdoms a Heart so diabolical as to conceive, or a Hand so daring as to execute such a horrible Design against your Majesty's sacred Life; and, considering how nearly connected the dearest Interests of this Country are with that Life, we cannot sufficiently thank Eternal Providence for warding off the Blow of the Assassin, and prolonging to us the Blessings which, under your Majesty's mild Government, we have for such a Series of Years enjoyed.

We humbly beg your Majesty to believe, that we shall be ever ready, vigorously to defend your Majesty's august Person, and strenuously to support our happy Constitution, and that we will at all Times exert ourselves in bringing to light the Machinations of Traitors which may be aimed at the one, and in repelling the insidious Designs of the secret, or the open Attacks of the avowed Enemy which may be levelled against the other.

In Testimony whereof, we have caused the Common Seal of our said City to be hereunto affixed, this Fifteenth Day of March, in the Forty-third Year of your Majesty's most auspicious Reign.

[Presented by Major-General Lennox, Mayor.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

IMPRESSED with the strongest Abhorrence of the late traitorous Attempts against the sacred Person of your Majesty, and animated with the warmest Gratitude to Almighty God for his protecting Care, we, your Majesty's dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Citizens, and Inhabitants of the City of Gloucester, humbly presume to offer our sincere Congratulations on your providential Deliverance; and to assure your Majesty that we shall be always ready to stand forth in Support of your Majesty's Government, as well against the insidious Machinations of domestic Treason as against the open Attacks of foreign Hostility.

May the same Divine Goodness, which hath brought to Light this wicked Conspiracy, still be your Defence; and may your Majesty long continue to guard and protect the Rights of a free and happy People.

[Presented by Henry Howard, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of your ancient and loyal City of Hereford, in Common-Council assembled, amidst the Acclamations of your Majesty's other loyal Subjects, beg Leave to approach your Throne, and join in the universal Joy at your Majesty's happy Deliverance; by the Mercy of God, from the Hands of those traitorous and Bloody Wretches, who lately sought an Opportunity of taking away your most precious Life, and of subverting the happy Constitution of this Country. Nothing but the Instigation of some evil Demon could suggest so horrid an Idea, which otherwise cannot even be supposed to enter into the Minds of a People in a civilized Country, living under so mild a Government and such salutary Laws, which, Thanks to the Almighty have so fortunately overtaken them in their infernal Machinations, and made them pay the Penalty so justly due to their intended Crimes; and may the same Divine Protection and Laws ever defend your Majesty from the evil Designs of all false Friends, as well as open Enemies, and you, O Sir! ever victoriously triumph over all, and continue to bless this Country with a long, happy, and prosperous Reign.

Given under our Common Seal, the Tenth Day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by Sir G. Cornewall, Bart. attended by the Earl of Essex, Lord Sommers, the Honorable Andrew Foley.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Yeomanry, Freeholders, and others, Inhabitants of the County of Kent, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majesty to express our Congratulations, that, by Divine Providence, a Plot has been detected, which was founded on the most atrocious Guilt and Treachery, and whose Object was the Destruction of whatever ought to be most sacred, most dear to the Hearts of Britons.

With the deepest Regret we have seen a few desperate Persons, in Pursuit of their malignant and visionary Designs, endeavouring to blast the present Happiness, and endanger the future Security, of their Country.

We feel, however, with Pride and Satisfaction, that our Attachment to our Constitution, the Dictates of our Duty, our Veneration for the Public, and enthusiastic Love for the private Virtues of your Majesty, and our own dearest and most sacred Interests, have inspired this County, with the warmest Wish, to express in our Language, and to evince in our Actions, a firm Determination to defend to the last Extremity those Blessings, which, resulting from the most invaluable Constitution, are enjoyed under the best of Sovereigns.

We assure your Majesty that we shall always be equally zealous to detect, and active to defeat, the lurking Efforts of domestic Treachery; or should the unprovoked Jealousy or unlicensed Ambition of a foreign Enemy suggest an Attack upon our native Rights, the same patriotic Energy, by which the Interest and Honor of your Majesty and your Dominions have been hitherto secured, will, in Support of the same glorious Cause, always concentrate and invigorate the Exertions of your loyal, grateful, and affectionate People.

Signed at the Request and on Behalf of the County of Kent, at a public Meeting held at Maidstone on Wednesday the Sixteenth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three.

Christopher Cooke, Sheriff.

[Presented by the High Sheriff, attended by the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord Lieutenant, and Representatives for the County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Essex, entreat Permission to offer our most sincere Congratulations upon your Majesty's late providential Deliverance, continuing under the same Divine Protection, we trust, that the sacred Life of your Majesty will long be preserved to us, affording the best Security for the Happiness of your People.

Sensibly impressed with the Constitutional Blessings that we have long enjoyed under your Majesty's mild and parental Government, we cannot but deeply deplore, that they should have been endangered for a Moment, by the foul Designs of a few discontented and evil-minded Men.

We presume, Sir, with Pride and Confidence to assure your Majesty, that the steady Loyalty of your Maritime County of Essex will ever manifest itself in a zealous Defence of your Royal Person and Dignity; faithful to its Allegiance, it will at all Times be found united to maintain the enviable Prosperity of your Majesty's Dominions against the insidious Projects of domestic Conspirators, or the more open Hostilities of a foreign Foe.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of York.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of York, beg Leave to approach the Throne with the most heartfelt Sentiments of Congratulation upon the late Detection and Failure of a most wicked and horrible Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government.

Whilst we deplore the treasonable Spirit that has actuated some worthless and misguided Individuals, we contemplate with Gratitude the signal Interposition of a gracious Providence, so often manifested in the Preservation of a Life justly dear to your Subjects.

Duly sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, and zealously attached to that glorious Constitution under which we live, we cordially express our Readiness to join Hand and Heart in Defence of your Majesty's Person and Dominions against every Attempt of treasonable Conspiracy; and we earnestly pray that your Majesty may long continue to reign in undisturbed Security over a happy, free, and loyal People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Suffolk, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our warmest Congratulations upon your Majesty's happy and providential Escape from the late wicked and treasonable Conspiracy formed against your Majesty's Person and Government.

Impressed, as we are, with the manifold Blessings derived to all your People from your Majesty's mild and beneficent Reign, we want Words to express our Horror and Detestation of the execrable Plan levelled against your sacred Life, and the Existence of our Constitution.

Deign, Sir, to accept our zealous Professions of Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and our Resolution to sacrifice every Thing dear to us to defend your Majesty from all Attacks of your Enemies, foreign or domestic.

Signed by Order of a Meeting of the County of Suffolk, assembled at Bury Saint Edmunds, Twenty-sixth March One thousand eight hundred and three.

H. Parker, Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the County Palatine of Chester, beg Leave to approach your Majesty, with our sincerest Congratulations on the Failure of the late dangerous Conspiracy against your sacred Person, and the happy Constitution of this United Kingdom.

Whilst we reflect with Horror on the atrocious Designs of desperate Men against your Majesty's Person, we feel assured that they will but serve to unite the loyal and well-affected Part of your Subjects more firmly in the Defence of a Life so dear to them. And we trust that the same Providence, which has hitherto rendered abortive the Schemes of traitorous Conspirators, will still extend its watchful Care over your Majesty, and long preserve you as the Guardian of the Rights and Liberties of your People. And we beg Leave to add, that should any Circumstances oblige your Majesty to call forth the Strength of this United Kingdom, we shall most zealously co-operate with the Rest of your Majesty's loyal Subjects in defending your Majesty, and that Constitution, under which we have so long prospered, against all Attempts foreign and domestic.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Devon.

SIR E,

WE, the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Devon, assembled at a General Meeting, being strongly impressed with Gratitude and Thankfulness to Almighty God, for the providential Discovery of the late horrid Conspiracy against your Majesty's Person and Government, beg Leave most humbly to offer to your Majesty our warmest Congratulations on your Majesty's most happy Escape.

Sensible as we are of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, we entreat your Majesty to accept our Assurances that we will continue to exert our utmost Endeavours in Support and Defence of our excellent Constitution, of your Majesty's sacred Person, and of your illustrious House, against the Attempts of all foreign and domestic Enemies; and we fervently pray, that your Majesty may long live to reign over a grateful, united, and loyal People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Freeholders, Deputy Lieutenants, Commissioners of Supply, and Justices of the Peace of the County of Aberdeen.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Deputy Lieutenants, Commissioners of Supply, and Justices of the Peace of the County of Aberdeen, most humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty's sacred Person, with Sentiments of the deepest Anguish, and in common with our Fellow-Subjects, we cannot fail to lament, that notwithstanding the bright Influence of your august Example, the conciliating Moderation and Equity of your Government, and the many alarming and dangerous Situations you have happily lifted your People above, during a long disturbed Reign, and a tempestuous Period in the History of Nations, there could exist in all your Dominions, one Heart so vile, in which the horrid Idea could arise and be fostered against your Majesty's sacred and invaluable Life. With the most unfeigned Grief we deplore, that our Constitution, hallowed and approved by Time, and revered even by its Enemies, in the Tendernefs of its Rectitude, and Love of avoiding, even the Appearance of Severity, should produce and nourish in its Bosom, a Monster capable of perpetrating its Destruction.

But if we have Reason to be astonished at the inscrutable and possible Wickedness of the human Heart, we thank the Almighty in having infinitely higher Cause to be glad; the Omnipotent Arm of Providence has long been extended over our Country, and has enabled us to rejoice in the continued Protection of a beloved Sovereign, and powerfully directing the Wisdom and Firmness of the Rulers and Counsellors of the Nation, has thrown additional Justice and Strength on the beautiful Columns of the British Constitution.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, and in our Presence, at Aberdeen, the Twenty-second Day of March, in the Year Eighteen hundred and three, by Huntly.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Salop, beg Leave most humbly to offer to your Majesty our heartfelt Congratulations upon the Discovery and Failure of the late most wicked and treasonable Conspiracy formed against your sacred Person and Government. Contemplating the Virtues which adorn the revered Character of your Majesty, and reflecting on the paternal Care and Solicitude which you have uniformly evinced for the Welfare and Prosperity of your People, we view with the greater Indignation and Horror Attempts of such atrocious Enormity, and feel our Hearts glow with Gratitude to Almighty God, who, in Mercy to your faithful and affectionate Subjects, hath graciously directed to the Detection of so foul a Treason. Permit us, Sir, with Confidence, to assure you, that, zealously attached as we are to our excellent Constitution, and deeply impressed with a just Sense of its invaluable Blessings, which, under the vigorous but mild Government of your Majesty, have hitherto been wonderfully preserved to us, we shall ever be found ready to stand forth in Defence of that Constitution, and of your Majesty's Person and Government, against every Danger with which they may be threatened, whether proceeding from the secret Designs of dark and desperate Conspirators, or the more open but wild and daring Projects of a restless and ambitious Foe.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants, of the County of Cambridge, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our most unfeigned Congratulations on the Detection of the late detestable and traitorous Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government.

Inviolably attached as we are to our inestimable Constitution, and sensible of the Happiness this favored Nation enjoys under a Government affording equal Security and Protection to every Member of the Community, we rely with Confidence that the late atrocious Attempt will animate the Vigilance of your Majesty's Subjects to check the Extension of those Principles which are subversive of all social Order and good Government, and can only tend to the Introduction of a System of Anarchy and Confusion.

Happily for your Majesty's Subjects the Design of abominable Conspirators have been frustrated; and we devoutly supplicate the Great Disposer of all Events to continue to watch over and preserve to your faithful Subjects a Monarch whose chief Solicitude has ever been the Happiness and Welfare of his People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Suffex.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty, our most sincere and fervent Congratulations, on the Discovery and Failure of the late daring and atrocious Conspiracy directed against your Majesty's sacred Life and Government.

We are truly thankful to Divine Providence for thus happily frustrating the wicked Designs of desperate Traitors, and are duly impressed with a just Abhorrence of those detestable Principles which tend to such atrocious Crimes, and militating against all regular Government, are destructive of the Happiness and Security of every Rank of Life, and adverse to the Enjoyment of all practical Liberty.

Most sensible of the manifold Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, we earnestly implore the Almighty long to protect you and your illustrious Family as a Source from whence those Blessings are dispersed under the Influence of just and equitable Laws to a loyal and grateful People.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

EXCITED not less by zealous Inclination, than obedient to the Call of public Duty, we, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Hereford, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence with our affectionate Congratulations on the signal Mercy of Divine Providence lately vouchsafed to you.

The desperate Attempt on the sacred and invaluable Life of our Sovereign, (the Protector and Ornament of Society,) had it not been seasonably defeated, would have therewith destroyed the Laws and Liberties of our Country. We cannot but perfectly detest those Principles, whose Influence has formed traitorous Designs against your Majesty and the Constitution; and we trust that the awful Sentence of the Law, together with the Loyalty of an united Nation, will deter others from engaging in these sinful Courses. We are too well convinced that all we hold dear as Britons depends on the Preservation of our Constitution, not to promise the Exertion of our utmost Energies in its Defence. Long may your Majesty reign enthroned in the Hearts of your People; and may our patrimonial Inheritance of rational Liberty preserve us in Safety through the Storms by which so great a Part of Europe has been overwhelmed.

It is our earnest Prayer to Him by whom Kings reign, that the powerful Hand which has guided your Majesty through Dangers unexampled, may still guard the Throne from the Assaults of foreign Hostility, and the insidious Attacks of domestic Treason.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects of the County of Worcester, beg Leave to offer our sincere and cordial Congratulations upon the timely Discovery and Defeat of the traitorous Conspiracy lately intended against your most valuable Life.

Truly sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, we cannot but utterly detest those nefarious Designs, deliberately contrived to destroy such a great Example of private and public Virtue, and to involve your Family and Subjects in one general Calamity.

May that Providence which has so signally preserved your Majesty from the late Conspiracy be always your Shield and Safeguard, and disappoint the Contrivances of wicked and desperate Men; and may your Majesty long continue on the Throne of this Kingdom, reigning in the Hearts of a faithful and united People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Huntingdon.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Huntingdon, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our sincere Congratulations on the Discovery and Defeat of the atrocious Designs aimed at your Majesty's sacred Person by a desperate Gang of Traitors.

We trust that the just and firm Execution of the Laws upon these Traitors will strike Terror into the Breasts of their Associates, (should any still exist in this United Kingdom,) and that from their Example they will learn, that, however artfully and secretly such their horrible Designs may be carried on, the offended Laws of their indignant Country will inflict that Punishment which the Contrivers of such detestable Conspiracies so eminently deserve.

That the protecting Arm of the Almighty may be stretched out in the Defence of a Life so connected with our glorious Constitution, and that your Majesty may long continue to reign over this United Kingdom, is the earnest and fervent Prayer of a free and happy People.

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Nottingham.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Nottingham, unite in the general Voice of National Joy and Congratulation at the Detection and Defeat of the late traitorous Conspiracy, levelled against the Safety of your Royal Person, and intended to subvert our invaluable Constitution. We contemplate with Indignation and Horror Attempts of such atrocious Enormity, and return our grateful Thanks to that overruling Providence, which has enabled your Majesty's Councils to detect and frustrate so foul a Treason. We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that, fully sensible of the Happiness which we enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Reign, we are unalterably attached to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government; and that it is our earnest Wish and constant Prayer, that your Majesty's invaluable Life may be long preserved to govern a grateful People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Somerset.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Somerset, humbly beg Leave to offer our sincere Congratulations to your Majesty, upon your happy Escape from a desperate and atrocious Conspiracy against your Royal Person.

When we mark, in the strongest Terms, our Abhorrence and Indignation at such base and treasonable Designs, we cannot sufficiently express our Gratitude for the Interposition of Divine Providence repeatedly manifested in averting a Blow which would have proved so calamitous to your United Kingdoms.

The more we reflect upon the incalculable Blessings we enjoy under our present mild and happy Constitution, the more fervently ought we to implore the Almighty to protect your Life against the Designs of both foreign and domestic Foes, it being of such inestimable Value, and so highly conducive to the Happiness and Prosperity of all your Majesty's Subjects.

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergymen, and Freeholders of the County of Stafford.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergymen, and Freeholders of the County of Stafford, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty, on the providential Discovery and Failure of the late desperate and wicked Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person.

Impelled at once by Duty and by Inclination, we cannot omit this Opportunity of offering our ardent and sincere Assurance of our Zeal and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

Sensible of the Value and Importance of your Majesty's Life to the Prosperity of this Kingdom, and grateful for the numerous Blessings which we enjoy under your Majesty's benign and paternal Government, we are thankful to that Being, who has granted his Almighty Protection to your Majesty, and who has thus averted a Calamity, which, in common with all your Majesty's faithful Subjects, we should greatly deplore.

Permit us to add our fervent Prayers, that your Majesty may long continue to reign over a free, united, and prosperous People; and that your Majesty's Descendants may transmit the Blessings which we now enjoy, to the latest Posterity.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the County of Glamorgan, impressed with a Sense of the Divine Interposition in preventing the late Conspiracy against your Royal Person, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our most heartfelt Congratulations on your late providential Escape. Considering, as we do, the inestimable Blessings we enjoy under our most excellent Constitution, (of which your Majesty forms so conspicuous a Part,) and for the Destruction of which, the Life of our beloved Monarch was to have been attempted, we conceive it to be our Duty, in common with our Fellow-Subjects, to assure your Majesty (that while we lament that such wicked and diabolical Designs have existed) we are at all Times ready to stand forth in Defence of your Majesty's Person and Government. And we implore that Almighty Power which has preserved the Life of a Sovereign, so essential to the Happiness of his People, that He will still bless them with a long Continuance of it.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Durham, most humbly approach your Majesty, with our sincerest Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the traitorous Designs of desperate Men.

The timely Discovery of the Treason, and the Punishment of the Traitors, are Events most happy for these Kingdoms; but we are particularly thankful, and deeply affected with Gratitude to Divine Providence for the Preservation of your Majesty's Royal Person, amidst the Dangers that impended. We are fully sensible of the Blessings we enjoy from your Majesty's paternal Care and exalted Virtues. We look on all Treason with Horror and Detestation, and most humbly offer to your Majesty the fullest Assurances of our Affection, Attachment, and Fidelity.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Southampton, assembled in the Common-Hall of the said County, entreat Permission to approach your Majesty's Throne with the most heartfelt Expressions of Gratitude to Almighty God, and of Congratulations to your Majesty and to our Country upon the continued Goodness of his Divine Providence, so recently manifested in the Protection of your Royal Person, and in the Preservation of our Constitution and Liberties.

It is impossible to reflect upon the Consequences of Success to any traitorous Designs against the sacred Life of your Majesty without being deeply sensible of the fatal Shock, not only to our general Security but to our individual Happiness. The fervent Prayers which we therefore offer to God for the Preservation of your Majesty's Life, and the Protraction and Glory of your Reign, make an inseparable Part of our zealous Solicitude for the uninterrupted Prosperity of the Empire, and the Blessings of all Ranks of your Majesty's Subjects.

We thankfully acknowledge the Vigilance and Decision of Government, which tended in this Instance, under the gracious Guidance of Heaven, to the Detection and Punishment of the Conspirators, and to the Extinction (so may God grant) of all remaining Treason.

The ardent Devotion of our Lives and Families in Aid of every Means which the Wisdom of the Legislature, and of your Majesty's Government, may provide for the Protection of your Majesty's Life, the Security of your Dominions, and the Welfare of your People, is not a new Token of our grateful Attachment to your Majesty's Person and to our invaluable Constitution. But we feel, in the present unprecedented Period of flagitious Attempts to poison and destroy the best Principles, and the dearest Bonds of Virtue, social Order, Loyalty, and Religion through the World, an irresistible Call upon our Hearts and Spirits again to declare our confirmed Resolution to defend your Majesty's Person, and the Constitution of our Country, against every Enemy foreign or domestic, with an Animation and Perseverance to end but with our Lives.

May the Example of your Majesty's private Virtues, and of the Blessings of your Reign, long continue the present Object of our Admiration and Gratitude; and may it be traced hereafter, for the Happiness of our Posterity, in its undiminished Influence upon the Character and Conduct of your Royal Descendant, to the last Generation.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Aldermen, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Morpeth, in General Meeting assembled, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne to convey to your Majesty our sincerest Congratulations on the Discovery and Defeat of the late traitorous and wicked Conspiracy.

Conscious that we are ruled by a Monarch distinguished for Mildness, Humanity, and every Virtue that can adorn a Throne; sensible that we live under a Government, which, for the Excellence of its Laws, the Wisdom and Justice with which they are administered, is perhaps unequalled in the History of ancient or modern Nations, permit us then to assure your Majesty of our ardent Determination to oppose every Danger that may arise, whether from the Depravity of the domestic Traitor, or the Ambition and Injustice of a foreign Enemy.

Penetrated with these Sentiments, we offer up to Providence our warmest Prayers that your Majesty's Reign may be long continued; and that your Majesty's illustrious House, and our present Constitution, which to us have been the Sources of so many Blessings, may descend uninterrupted and uninjured to the latest Posterity.

In Testimony whereof we have, at the Request of the Meeting, caused the Common-Seal of the Corporation to be hereunto affixed the Twenty-second Day of March, in the Forty-third Year of your Majesty's most gracious Reign.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Stratford-upon-Avon, in the County of Warwick, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty, our most sincere and unfeigned Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Preservation from a most daring and horrid Conspiracy, formed to destroy the sacred Life of our beloved Sovereign, and to overturn the Constitution and Government of these Realms. Reflecting with Horror and Indignation on the diabolical Designs of those Traitors, whose Hearts could conceive the Perpetration of a Crime of such Enormity, we cannot but offer our sincere Thanks to that Almighty Providence which, in this as in former Instances, has guarded and protected your Majesty's sacred Person. Fully sensible of the Blessings of your Majesty's Government, constantly and uniformly directed to the Prosperity and Happiness of your People, and to those amiable Virtues which adorn your Majesty's Character, we trust that the Spirit of Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, which animated the Breasts of your loyal Subjects, will continue firm and unabated: And we hope that the Punishment of those daring Traitors, whose Lives have been so justly forfeited by the Laws of their Country, may be the Means of suppressing those destructive Principles to which Europe has been so long a Prey, and which are subversive of all Order and good Government. Happily for your Majesty's Subjects the Designs of Conspiracy have, through the Vigilance of Government, been frustrated; and we sincerely hope and pray that that Providence, which has never failed to watch over your sacred Life, will continue to guard and protect it, and preserve to your faithful Subjects a Monarch renowned for every Virtue, and whose great and most important Object has ever been the Happiness and Welfare of his People.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal Subjects, the Portreeves, Clergy, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Ashburton, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the providential and happy Termination of the late traitorous and horrid Conspiracy against your august Person. We acknowledge with Gratitude that we have enjoyed, under your Majesty's just and mild Government, the fullest Protection of our Persons, Rights, and Properties. May you, Sir, long live to reign over a free and happy People, and rest assured that we not only utterly detest all those Principles that may have given your Majesty Uneasiness, but that we shall on all Occasions be ready to come forward in Defence of your most valuable Life, and for the Preservation of our excellent Constitution in Church and State.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Borough of Berwick-upon-Tweed, in Guild assembled, beg Leave to offer our sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's late providential Escape from a horrid Conspiracy, formed to destroy the sacred Life of our beloved Sovereign, and to overturn the Constitution and Government of these Kingdoms. While we reflect with Horror on the diabolical Plan of those Traitors, we are thankful to the Almighty who has, by his kind Interposition, protected your Majesty from their Hands, and the Nation from the greatest Confusion. Feeling, as we do, the Blessings derived from your Majesty's mild and good Government, and from your paternal Care, constantly directed to the Welfare of your

People, we admire those Virtues which adorn your sacred Character; we hope the Number of Disaffected in your Majesty's Dominions are very small; and that the Spirit of Loyalty will ever remain firm and unabated in the Breasts of your Subjects to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government; we hope the Lives of those Traitors, which have been so justly forfeited, will be the Means of checking those destructive Principles which they were desirous of disseminating amongst your Majesty's Subjects; we most sincerely pray that your Majesty may long remain a Blessing to your faithful People.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Borough-Bailiff and Burgesses of the Borough of New Malton, beg Leave to approach the Throne with our sincere Congratulations upon the Suppression of a traitorous Conspiracy most wicked in its Principles, and destructive in its Views.

While we admire the vigilant Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils in the Detection, the impartial Administration of Justice in the Trial of the Traitors, and your Lenity displayed in Mitigation of their Sentence, we are led to contrast the Mercy of the Christian with the hardened unrelenting Rancour of the Infidel.

Sensible of the Blessings which we enjoy in so superior a Degree over every other Nation, we thus publicly desire to express our Abhorrence of Sedition, and our steady Resolution to support that Constitution by which it is our Happiness to be governed.

Be pleased, Sir, to accept our fervent Wishes, that you may long continue to reign in Peace over loyal and flourishing Dominions: But if the great Object, Peace, cannot be maintained without Degradation of our National Character, may the Bravery of your Subjects be as conspicuous and successful in future as in former Contests; and may you at length partake of those Blessings yourself which your mild and just Government so studiously dispenses to others.

WE, your Maſteſty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Common-Council, and Livery of the Town and County of the Town of Nottingham, in Common-Hall aſſembled, beg Leave to approach your Maſteſty's Throne to expreſs to you our ſincere Congratulation on your Maſteſty's late happy and providential Eſcape from the Machinations of a Band of wicked and deſperate Traitors, who conſpired againſt your Royal Life.

We entreat your Maſteſty to be aſſured of our firm Attachment to your Maſteſty's Perſon, and that Conſtitution of Government eſtabliſhed within theſe Realms, which has aſſured to all your Maſteſty's Subjects ſuch a Portion of Liberty, Proſperity, and Happineſs, as have long rendered them the Envy and Admiration of ſurrounding Nations. We implore the Supreme Diſpoſer of Events continually to protect your Maſteſty's ſacred Life, and the civil Conſtitution of theſe Kingdoms, ſo that your Maſteſty may long reign in the Hearts of a People free and happy in the Rights ſecured to them by juſt and equal Laws, and united by Gratitude and Principle to repel foreign Aggreſſion and domeſtic Treason.

Gen. Colclum, Town-Clerk.

[Preſented by the Honorable Charles James Fox]

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Maſteſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Jurats, Common-Councilmen, and Inhabitants of your Maſteſty's Town and Pariſh of Maidſtone, in the County of Kent, beg Leave to preſent our moſt ſincere Congratulations to your Maſteſty on your providential Eſcape from the late wicked and traitorous Conſpiracy againſt your Maſteſty's Perſon.

We feel, in common with all your Maſteſty's loyal Subjects, the utmoſt Abhorrence of the Conduct of thoſe Perſons, who, concealing the worſt Intentions under the moſt artful Diſguiſe, intended by one deſperate Blow to ſubvert our excellent Conſtitution, and deſtroy the Happineſs we daily experience under your Maſteſty's mild and benevolent Government.

We think it our bounden Duty on this Occaſion to renew the Aſſurances of our unſhaken Loyalty to your Maſteſty, and our firm Reſolution to ſupport and maintain our free Conſtitution againſt the Attacks not only of domeſtic Traitors but of foreign Enemies.

May that Almighty Power, which has protected your Maſteſty in former Dangers and Difficulties, always vouchſafe to guard and defend you, and make your Maſteſty's Reign long continue to be a Source of Felicity to a grateful and affectionate People.

Signed at the Town-Hall, at the Requeſt and on Behalf of the Meeting, this Twenty-fourth Day of March One thouſand eight hundred and three.

Edward Argle, Mayor.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Maſteſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Maſteſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town of Taunton, deeply impreſſed with the warmeſt Sentiments of Gratitude to the Almighty for the providential Detection and Defeat of the late atrocious and treaſonable Conſpiracies againſt your ſacred Perſon, and the Conſtitution of this Kingdom, do humbly preſume to offer our heartfelt Congratulations on your Safety. Venerating the diſtinguiſhed Virtues which adorn your Maſteſty's private Character, firmly and affectionately attached to you by the long Experience of your paternal Attention towards us, and ſenſible of the many Bleſſings we enjoy under your juſt and mild Government, our moſt fervent Wiſhes are, that your Reign may be long and proſperous, that the Efforts of Faction may be rendered as impotent as they are diſgraceful, that every Attempt to ſubvert our glorious Conſtitution may be criſhed by the ſteady Loyalty and Patriotiſm of your Subjects, and that your Enemies, both public and private, may always be defeated.

Signed at the unanimous Requeſt of a very numerous and reſpectable Meeting of the Inhabitants of Taunton.

James Coles, Chairman.

[Preſented by William Morland and John Hommett, Eſqrs. Representatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Maſteſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Inhabitants of the Town of Plymouth-Dock, in the County of Devon.

May it pleaſe your Maſteſty,

WE, your Maſteſty's loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town of Plymouth Dock, duly impreſſed with the moſt unfeigned Attachment and Allegiance, beg to approach your Throne to offer to your Maſteſty our moſt heartfelt Congratulations on the Diſcovery and Failure of the late flagitious and treaſonable Conſpiracy, directed againſt your Maſteſty's ſacred Perſon and Government. By the Divine Goodness the horrible Effects of those detestable Machinations have been happily prevented; and we feel ourselves called upon to acknowledge, with the utmost Gratitude, the Power of that Omnipotent Being, who has so seasonably crushed so foul a Conspiracy, which had for its Object the Downfall of our happy Constitution, and with it the Destruction of all Comfort and Security among every Class of Society.

We most earnestly renew our Expressions of Regard and Loyalty towards your Majesty's august Person and Family, and implore a long Continuance of your Majesty's Reign over a loyal, peaceable, and happy People.

[Presented by Sir John St. Aubyn, Bart.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of Wolverhampton.

May it please your Majesty,

OUR Loyalty has always stimulated us to address your Majesty when any Attempts by foreign or domestic Enemies have attacked your Royal Person, your Family, or the Constitution of this Country, so intimately interwoven with the Welfare of the Brunswick Line that they must exist or perish together.

Animated by the most cordial Affection, we now beg Permission to present an Address on your Majesty's late happy Deliverance; and we return our grateful Thanks to that superintending Providence which protected your Royal Person from the traitorous Attempts of desperate and insatiable Assassins, and frustrated the atrocious Conspiracies against our invaluable Constitution.

At this momentous Crisis, when the Existence of our Country is at Stake, we beseech your Majesty to condescend in our Attachment to your Royal Person and Family, and in our determined Resolution to live or die free or unconquered Britons.

Geo. Molinieux, Chairman.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Leverston Goswer and Sir Edward Littleton, Representatives in Parliament for the County of Stafford.]

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, in pursuance of the Powers vested in His Majesty, by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to continue, until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and four, several Laws relating to the prohibiting the Exportation and permitting the Importation of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision without Payment of Duty; to the Relief of Captors of Prizes, with respect to the bringing and landing certain Prize Goods in this Kingdom; and to the regulating the Trade and Commerce to and from the Isle of

"Malta;" His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council, bearing Date the Thirty-first of December last, to order, and it was thereby ordered, That the Prohibition laid, by Order of His Majesty in Council, bearing Date the Twelfth Day of December One thousand eight Hundred and one, upon the Exportation from any Port or Place in Great Britain of any Wheat, Rye, Barley, Beer or Bigg, Pease, Beans, Cats, or any Meal or Flour, or Bread, Biscuit, or Malt made thereof, or of any Indian Corn or Maize, or Meal or Flour made thereof; and also the Liberty, granted by the said Order in Council, bearing Date the Twelfth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and one, to import and take out of Warehouse Foreign Corn and other Articles as aforesaid, and likewise to import sundry other Articles of Provision Duty free, should be further continued until the Thirty-first Day of this instant March inclusive, save and except the Importation, Duty free, of the Articles of Rice and Malt; and save and except, as it was declared by the said Order, that nothing therein contained was intended to extend, or should be construed to extend, to affect or apply to any Exportation of Seed Corn from Great Britain to Ireland, or any Importation of Malt from Ireland to Great Britain, in the Manner authorized by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for continuing, until the First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, an Act made in the Forty-second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for regulating, until the Fifteenth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and three, the Prices at which Grain, Meal, and Flour may be exported from Great Britain to Ireland, and from Ireland to Great Britain; and for permitting, from and after the passing thereof, until the said First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, the Exportation of Seed Corn from Great Britain to Ireland, and the Importation of Malt into Great Britain from Ireland:"

And whereas it is judged expedient that the said Prohibition to export, and the said Permission to import, should be continued for some Time longer, His Majesty, therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance of the Powers given by the First of the above-recited Acts, passed in the present Session of Parliament, hath thought fit to order, and it is hereby ordered, That the said Order in Council, bearing Date the Thirty-first of December last, and all the Exceptions, Provisoos, Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions, specified and enforced by the said Order, respecting such Exportation and Importation, and taking out of Warehouse, shall be, and continue in Force until the Thirtieth Day of April next inclusive, in the same Manner as the same are now in Force by the said

Order, bearing Date the 31st Day of December last.

And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

W. Fawkenor.

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, in pursuance of the Powers vested in His Majesty by an Act, passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to continue, until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and four, several Laws relating to the prohibiting the Exportation and permitting the Importation of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision without Payment of Duty; to the Relief of Captors of Prizes, with respect to the bringing and landing certain Prize Goods in this Kingdom; and to the regulating the Trade and Commerce to and from the Isle of Malta;" His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance of the Powers given by the said Act, was pleased, by His Order in Council, bearing Date the Thirty-first of December last, to order, That, from the First Day of January then next, until the Thirty-first Day of this instant March, no Person or Persons whatsoever should export, or should load or lay on board any Ship or Vessel, with the Intent to export from any Port or Place of Great Britain any of the following Articles, viz. Bulls, Cows, Oxen, Calves, Sheep, Lambs, Swine, Beef, Pork, Mutton, Veal, Lamb, whether salted or otherwise, or any Bacon, Butter, Onions, or Pulse of any Sort, or any Barley hulled, or Pearl Barley, unless Proof shall first be given to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs that the Articles so to be exported as aforesaid were not of British Growth, Produce, or Manufacture; But it was His Majesty's Pleasure nevertheless, that nothing contained in the said Order should extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent the Exportation or carrying out of such and so much of any of the said Articles as should be necessary to be carried in any Ship or Vessel, on its Voyage out and Home, for the Sustenance, Diet, and Support of the Commander, Master, Mariners, Passengers, and others on board such Ship or Vessel, or for the Use and Sustenance of the Cattle, Live Stock, or other Animals on board such Ship or Vessel; or for the necessary victualling or providing any of His Majesty's Ships of War, or other Ships and Vessels in His Majesty's Service; or for the necessary victualling or providing any of His Majesty's Forts, Ports, or Garrisons; nor to prohibit, at any Time, the Exportation of such and so much of any of the said Articles as might be necessary for the Supply of the British Forts, Castles, or Factories in Africa, or of British Ships trading upon that Coast, which have usually been supplied with the same from Great Britain; nor to prohibit the Exportation by the East India Company, or any Agent employed by them, of any of the said Articles for the necessary Supply of their Garrisons at St. Helena, Bombay, and Bencoolen, or for the necessary Use of the Ships belonging to the said Company; nor to prohibit the Exportation of any of the said Articles to the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man; or to any of His Majesty's Colonies, Islands, or Plantations in America or the West Indies; or to the Town or Port of Gibraltar, for the necessary Use of the Inhabitants of the same respectively: Provided that the Merchant Exporter, in each Case, should first make Oath of the true Destination of the same to the Places for which they were entered Outwards before the Entry of the same should be made, and should give full and sufficient Security, by Bond, in treble the Value of the said Articles, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said Articles to the Places for which they were so entered out, and for the Purposes specified and none other; such Bond not to be cancelled or delivered up until Proof should be made to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the Production, within a Time to be fixed by the said Commissioners, and specified in the Bond, of a Certificate or Certificates, in such Form and Manner as should be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said Articles had been all duly landed at the Places for which they were so entered Outwards:

And whereas it is judged expedient that the said Order should continue in Force for some Time longer, His Majesty doth, therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, and pursuant to the Powers given by the above recited Act, passed in the present Session of Parliament, order, and it is hereby ordered, That from and after the Thirty-first Day of this instant March, and until the Thirtieth Day of June next, no Person or Persons whatsoever shall export, or shall load, or lay on board any Ship or Vessel, with Intent to export from any Port or Place of Great Britain, any Bulls, Cows, Oxen, Calves, Sheep, Lambs, Swine, Beef, Pork, Mutton, Veal, Lamb, whether salted or otherwise, or any Bacon, Butter, Onions, or Pulse of any Sort, or any Barley hulled, or Pearl Barley, save and except the Exceptions contained in His Majesty's said Order in Council, bearing Date the Thirty-first of December last, allowing the Exportation of the several Articles mentioned, for the Purposes mentioned in the said Order, under the Provisos, Rules, and Regulations therein contained:

And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

W. Fawkenor.

City of Coventry.

Peter Moore, Esq; in the Room of Nathaniel Jefferys, Esq; whose Election for the said City, has been declared void.

Luna, 28^o Die Martij. 1803.

WHEREAS the Select Committee, appointed to try and determine the Merits of the Petition of John Maitland, Esq; and also of the Petition of Henry Guy, Henry Poole, and the several other Persons whose Names are thereunto subscribed, severally complaining of an undue Election and Return for the Borough of Chippenham, in the County of Wilts, have this Day reported to the House of Commons,

‘ That it appeared to the said Select Committee that the Merits of the Petitions did depend upon the Right of Election; and that therefore the said Committee required the Counsel for the several Parties to deliver to the Clerk of the said Committee Statements, in Writing, of the Right of Election for which they respectively contended:

‘ That, in consequence thereof, the Counsel for the Petitioners delivered in a Statement as follows:

“ Borough of Chippenham.—The Petitioner states the Right of Election to be in the Bailiff, Burgesses, and Freemen, being Householdors of, and resident in, the ancient Burgage Houses, within the Borough of Chippenham:”

‘ That the Counsel for the Sitting Member, Charles Brooke, Esq; delivered in a Statement as follows:

"The Right of Election is in the Bailiff and Burgeſſes at large (that is to ſay, being Inhabitants) within the Borough, paying, or liable to pay, the Poor's Rates:"

"That, upon the Statement delivered in by the Counſel for the Sitting Member, the ſaid Select Committee have determined,

"That the Right of Election, as ſet forth in the ſaid Statement, is not the Right of Election for the ſaid Borough of Chippenham:"

"That, upon the Statement delivered in by the Counſel for the Petitioners, the ſaid Select Committee have determined,

"That the Right of Election, as ſet forth in the ſaid Statement, is the Right of Election for the ſaid Borough of Chippenham:"

I do hereby give you this Notice, in purſuance of the Directions of the Act made in the Twenty-eighth Year of the Reign of His preſent Maſteſty, intituled "An Act for the further Regulation of the Trials of controverted Elections, or Returns of Members to ſerve in Parliament."

Given under my Hand this Twenty eighth Day of March One thouſand eight hundred and three.

CHAS. ABBOT, Speaker.
To the Returning Officer of the Borough of Chippenham.

Whitehall, March 29, 1803.

Whereas it has been humbly repreſented to the King, that on Tueſday Morning, the 22d Inſtant, about Three o'Clock, a Fire broke out in the Workshop of Meſſrs. Churchill and Jones, Curriers, in Cow Lane, Daventry, in the County of Northampton, which entirely conſumed the Building, with the Goods therein, and that there is every Reaſon to believe that the ſame was wilfully and maliciously ſet on Fire by ſome Perſon or Perſons unknown;

His Maſteſty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Juſtice the Perſons concerned in the above Felony, is hereby pleaſed to promiſe His moſt gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Perſon who actually ſet Fire to the ſaid Premises,) who ſhall diſcover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, ſo that he, ſhe, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PELHAM.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Bailiff and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Daventry, to any Perſon making ſuch Diſcovery as aforeſaid, (except as is before excepted) to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders, by Edm. Burton, Town Clerk.

Navy-Office, March 19, 1803.

THE Right Honorable the Lords Commiſſioners of His Maſteſty's Treasury having appointed Money for the Payment of Half-Pay to Sea Officers, from the 1st of July to the 31st of December 1802, according to His Maſteſty's Eſta bliſhment on that Behalf, theſe are to give Notice, that the ſeveral Payments will begin to be made at the Pay-Office, by the Treasuſer of His Maſteſty's Navy, at Ten o'Clock in the Morning on the following Days, viz.

On Monday the 28th Inſtant; to Admirals, Captains, and their Attornies:

On Tueſday the 29th and Wedneſday the 30th Inſtant, to Lieutenants and their Attornies:

On Thuſday the 31st Inſtant, to Maſters and Surgeons, and their Attornies:

After which the Liſt will be recalled the firſt and third Wedneſdays in every Month, that all Perſons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and not only bring with them the Affidavit required touching their not having enjoyed the Benefit of any Public Employment, either at Sea or on Shore, during the Time they are to be paid their Half-Pay, but alſo to produce Certificates that they have ſubſcribed to the Teſt, and taken the Oaths of Allegiance, required by Act of Parliament, to His preſent Maſteſty: And in caſe any of the ſaid Officers ſhould not be able to attend themſelves, but employ Attornies for that Purpoſe, that the ſaid Attornies do produce the like Certificates and Affidavits from the Perſons they are employed by.

Where Officers are abroad on Leave, their Agents are to produce atteſted Copies of ſuch Leave before the Half-Pay can be paid.

And, as by Act of Parliament paſſed in the Thirty-fifth Year of His preſent Maſteſty's Reign, intituled "An Act for eſta bliſhing a more eaſy and expeditious Method for the Payment of Officers belonging to His Maſteſty's Navy," it is enacted by the 20th Clauſe of the ſaid Act, "That if any Commiſſioned or Warrant Naval Officer who ſhall be entitled to receive Half-Pay, and ſhall be deſirous to receive and be paid the ſame at or near to the Place of His Reſidence, he may apply to the Treasuſer of His Maſteſty's Navy in London, to have ſuch Half-Pay paid at or near the Place of his Reſidence, in the Manner pointed out by the ſaid Act:" Notice is hereby further given, that the Half-Pay ending the 31st Day of December 1802, will commence paying on the 28th Inſtant; and all Perſons deſirous of having their Half-Pay remitted to them may apply as above directed.

R. A. Nelson.

Navy Office, March 31, 1803.

THE Principal Officers and Commiſſioners of His Maſteſty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that on Wedneſday the 13th of April, at One o'Clock, they will be ready to treat with ſuch Perſons as may be willing to contract for the ſupplying His Maſteſty's Yards at Deptford, Woolwich, Chatham, Sheerneſs, Portſmouth, and Plymouth, and this Office, with

From Saturday April 2, to Tuesday April 5, 1803.

St. James's, March 30, 1803.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Addrcs of the Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Leicester.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Leicester, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the sincerest Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the atrocious Designs of the late Traitors against your Majesty's Person and Government.

Truly sensible of the Blessings we derive from our excellent Constitution, and the constant Attention of your Majesty towards the Happiness and Welfare of your People, we view with Horror and Detestation the Wickedness of the late Attempt; and pray most cordially that the same infinite Power, which has hitherto preserved your Majesty from every open and secret Enemy, may still continue to defend your Majesty during the Remainder of a long, happy, and prosperous Reign.

Signed by the Order and on Behalf of the Meeting,
J. P. Hungerford, Chairman.

[Presented by George Anthony Legh Keck, Esq; and Sir Edmund Cracluck Hartopp, Bart. Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the Stewartry of Kirkcudbright, deeply sensible of the unparalleled Felicity we enjoy under your mild and auspicious Government, and full of the most zealous and unalterable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Family, humbly beg Leave to express our sincere Joy that a traitorous and detestable Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person has been detected and frustrated. We rely that the just and necessary Punishment of the principal Actors in that wicked and frantic Combination will have a salutary Influence upon the future Conduct of such misguided Persons as may have been seduced from their Duty and Loyalty to the best of Princes. We devoutly pray that your Majesty's invaluable Life may continue to be guarded and protected as heretofore by the Interposition of an overruling Providence; and we beg Permission to offer our most earnest Assurance, that we are ready with our Lives and Fortunes to defend to the uttermost your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government against all Attacks, either from the Malice of domestic Traitors, or from the Ambition of foreign Enemies.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, and Landholders of the County of Stirling, beg Leave to approach your Throne, with Hearts full of the warmest and sincerest Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Escape from, and on the providential Discovery and Disappointment of the late daring and atrocious Designs of Traitors against your Majesty's sacred Person, and the faithful Guardians of our happy and envied Constitution.

Unalterably attached to that Constitution, and sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and paternal Reign, we return our unfeigned Thanks to the Great Disposer of all Events for frustrating and bringing to nought, the nefarious Schemes of those Conspirators against your Majesty's Person and Government; and our earnest Prayer to the Almighty God is, that he may long preserve your Majesty in Health and Prosperity to rule over a free, an united, and happy People.

We embrace this Opportunity to assure your Majesty, that in the Event of your Majesty's being compelled to have again Recourse to Arms, that we are ready, with our Lives and Fortunes, to stand forward in Defence of your Majesty's sacred Person, and of our excellent Constitution.

Subscribed in Presence, and by Appointment of the Meeting, by Sir William Bruce, of Stenhouse, Baronet, Convener of the County, at Stirling, this Eighteenth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The most humble Address of the Bailiffs, High Steward, Recorder, and Freemen of your Majesty's ancient Corporation of Kingston-upon-Thames, in the County of Surrey.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Bailiffs, High Steward, Recorder, and Freemen of the very ancient and loyal Corporation of Kingston-upon-Thames, beg Leave to approach your Throne with our most earnest and heartfelt Congratulations on the Deliverance of your Majesty's Royal Person from the unprincipled Attempts of a daring Band of Traitors.

In returning our Thanks to the Divine Providence for the Safety of your Majesty, we offer up the same Thanks for our own; as the Interest, the Welfare, and the Prosperity of your Majesty are closely implicated with those of all your Majesty's Subjects.

That your Majesty may long reign the paternal Monarch of a free and loyal People, ever zealous to defend your Person and Government from all evil Designs of domestic or foreign Enemies, is, and always will be, the warmest Wish of our Hearts.

Given under the Common Seal, in the Guildhall of the said Town, the Sixteenth Day of March, in the Forty-third Year of your Majesty's Reign, and in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by Thomas Ewance, Esq; the Recorder, accompanied by Mr. F. Searle, Senior Bailiff.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital and other Burgesses of the Borough of Stafford, beg Leave to approach your Throne, and to offer our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on your Escape from the late traitorous Conspiracy against your sacred Person. We have often had Occasion to remark that the uninterrupted Continuance of Blessings lowers them in the Estimation of the Possessor; and possibly, if no Attempt had been made against your Majesty's Life, we might not have appreciated so correctly the Value of that National Blessing. We have long been impressed with a serious Conviction that the Divine Providence does, in a peculiar Manner, exert itself for your Majesty's Protection, and we have now a fresh Cause for Gratitude to Heaven, and a new Proof in Confirmation of our former Opinion.

We sincerely lament with your Majesty the probable Interruption of that Harmony, which has subsisted only for so short a Time, between this Nation and its Continental Neighbours; but if the gigantic Ambition of an Individual will impel us, however reluctantly, to the Contest, though we may wish to regard him as a Friend, we are not afraid to meet him as an Enemy. The Objects for which we contend are such as may well rouse all the Ardour of Britons; a Constitution, the Envy of surrounding Nations, and at the Head of it a patriot King. Much as we may wish for Peace, and greatly as we may deprecate the Horrors of War, yet we are not afraid to commit our Cause to that Supreme Being, who has so often, and so visibly, interposed in your Majesty's Behalf. We are perfectly aware, Sire, that Addresses of this Nature are frequently considered as containing more of Compliment than of Truth, we beg Leave, however, to assure your Majesty that we transmit on the present Occasion the genuine Effusion of our Hearts.

Given under the Common-Seal of the Borough of Stafford the Fifteenth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by the Honorable E. Monckton and R. B. Sheridan, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and faithful Subjects, the Bailiffs, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Town of Cardiff, and the Bailiffs, Portreeves, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Contributory Boroughs of Cowbridge, Swansea, Aberavon, Neath, Kenfig, Lougher, and Llantrissant, in the County of Glamorgan, humbly request Permission to approach the Throne with the most dutiful Respect, and to express the same Sentiments as are universally felt throughout your Dominions on the timely Discovery of the wicked and traitorous Designs lately concerted against your sacred Person. With heartfelt Gratitude, likewise, we offer up our unfeigned Thanks to Providence for this timely Interposition in preserving to us the Guardian of our Holy Religion, and the Bulwark of our happy Constitution; praying, at the same Time, that we may long enjoy under your Auspices a Continuance of that uninterrupted Felicity which has so eminently distinguished your Majesty's happy Reign.

[Presented by the High Sheriff of the County of Glamorgan.]

S I R E,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Pontefract, in the County of York, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on the Discovery and Prevention of the late traitorous and wicked Designs of evil-disposed Men, conspiring against your Majesty's sacred Person, and our glorious and invaluable Constitution in Church and State.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our utter Abhorrence of the detestable Machinations, so deliberately projected, to overturn the established Laws of these Kingdoms, and with them the Happiness and Welfare of your Majesty's Subjects.

We also beg your Majesty to accept a Declaration of our continued and unfeigned Attachment to your Royal Person and Family, and our Wishes for your Majesty's long and happy Reign in the Hearts of your People.

[Presented by the Right Honorable John Smyth and Michael Benyon, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgeses, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Carnarvon, at the Guildhall assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgeses, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Carnarvon, do humbly solicit your Majesty to accept our most lively and heartfelt Congratulations on the Protection with which it has pleased Almighty God to shield your Royal Person and Government from the late wicked and traitorous Conspiracies.

Whilst we reflect with indignant Horror upon so foul and atrocious an Attempt to rob Religion of its brightest Ornament, and Virtue of its most elevated Example, our Hearts glow with pious Gratitude for the signal Interposition of Providence in averting a Blow which might have given such a Shock to the Empire as to endanger its Independence, and shake its Security; but which has happily been the Means of calling into Action the patriotic and generous Enthusiasm of a free People, in whose Hearts your Majesty sits enthroned.

Participating in the general Joy, it is our most ardent Prayer, that neither secret Conspiracy nor open Violence may ever abridge a Reign, distinguished by so mild and salutary an Exercise of Power as to have left no other Sentiments in the Breast of every honest Briton than those of Love, Respect, Gratitude, and pure Attachment for your Royal Person and Government.

Signed at the Request of the Meeting.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, Capital Burgeses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Bridport, in the County of Dorset.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Capital Burgeses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Bridport, in the County of Dorset, beg Leave to present to your Majesty our most lively and heartfelt Congratulations for the timely Discovery and Defeat of the late traitorous Designs against your Royal Person.

Grateful to Providence for the Protection of your Majesty, and sensible of the Happiness we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, we cannot, in Terms sufficiently expressive of our Feelings, declare our Abhorrence and Detestation of those diabolical and wicked Plans, which were intended to involve your Majesty's personal Safety, and our most excellent Constitution, in one common Ruin.

We trust that the firm, just, and decided Punishment of those desperate and deluded Wretches will effectually deter and prevent any guilty Attempts in future, to disturb the public Tranquillity.

May the Almighty guard the Throne of this Realm from every Enemy foreign and domestic: and may your Majesty's Reign be long, happy, and prosperous.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Alderman, Burgeses, and other Inhabitants of the ancient Town and Corporation of Wokingham, in the Counties of Berks and Wilts, in Common Hall assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, after offering up our unfeigned Thanks to the Great Disposer of all Events, beg Leave most sincerely to congratulate your Majesty on the Deliverance of yourself and People from the direful Effects meditated by the late most wicked, traitorous, and execrable Plot and Conspiracy against the sacred Person of your Majesty, and the happy Constitution of this Country.

We beg also to assure your Majesty of our unalterable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and earnestly hope that the All-merciful God will long continue to preserve and defend the Life of our beloved Sovereign from all secret Conspiracy and open Violence, and that the Imperial Crown may flourish in your Majesty's Family to the latest Posterity.

Signed by Order, and in the Name of the Meeting.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Braybrooke, High Steward.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Burgeses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Christchurch.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE beg Leave most humbly to approach your Majesty with our most hearty and unfeigned Congratulations on the Escape your Majesty and this whole Nation have lately had from a Conspiracy of the most horrid and atrocious Nature, levelled equally against the sacred Life of your Majesty and the Happiness of your People. Deeply sensible of the invaluable Blessings we and all your Subjects enjoy under your Majesty's watchful Care of our civil and religious Liberties, we shall never cease to pray for the Preservation of your sacred Person.

The Punishment which has been most justly inflicted upon the desperate and wicked Persons who were concerned in the late detestable Conspiracy, will, we are persuaded, be an useful Warning; though we trust there can be very few, living under the mild, just, and equal Government of your Ma-jeſty, who are capable of harbouring for an Inſtant a Thought of engaging in a Deſign as hopeleſs as it was wicked.

May the Almighty grant to your Maſteſty a Continuance of Health, and of every earthly Bleſſing.

Given under our Common-Seal at Chriſtchurch, this Twenty-ninth Day of March One thouſand eight hundred and three.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Maſteſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Corporation of the Borough of Richmond, in the County of York, in Common-Hall aſſembled.

WE, your Maſteſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor and Aldermen of the Borough of Richmond aforeſaid, unite with the utmoſt Zeal in the general Teſtimony of Congratulation, and of Thankfulneſs to Divine Providence for the happy Deliverance of your Maſteſty's Royal Perſon, and our happy Conſtitution from the horrid Conſpiracy which the Wiſdom and Activity of your Maſteſty's Miniſters have ſo lately brought to Deſtruction.

That your Maſteſty may long continue to witneſs the Triumph of your affectionate Subjects over our Enemies Abroad, and the diſcontented few in theſe Kingdoms who are inſenſible to the Bleſſings we enjoy under the beſt of Princes, and the mildeſt of Governments, and that by the Firmneſs and Unanimity of all who retain their proper Senſe of Attachment we may ultimately obtain and preſerve the Bleſſings of permanent and honorable Peace, is our ſincere Prayer.

Given under our Corporate Seal, at Richmond aforeſaid, the Nineteenth Day of March One thouſand eight hundred and three.

[Preſented by Captain G. Dundas.]

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Maſteſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Free Burgeſſes, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Eaſt Loos, humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne with our moſt ſincere Congratulations on the Detection of the late moſt atrocious Conſpiracy.

Truly grateful for the Benefits we have received during your Maſteſty's auſpicious Reign, we muſt feel ourſelves particularly intereſted in every Circumſtance that regards the Welfare of the beſt of Sovereigns; and permit us to aſſure your Maſteſty of our utmoſt Abhorrence and Detestation of every treaſonable Attempt againſt your Maſteſty's ſacred Perſon, or the public Tranquillity of your Dominions.

We ſupplicate the Supreme Being to grant your Maſteſty a long and happy Reign; to pour down every Bleſſing on your Royal Houſe; and to continue the Crown of theſe Realms to your illuſtrious Family unto the lateſt Poſterity.

[Preſented by John Buller, Eſq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for, and Recorder of, the ſaid Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Maſteſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, and Commonalty of the Town and Borough of Ipſwich, in Great Court aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Maſteſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, and Commonalty of your ancient and loyal Town and Borough of Ipſwich, after having offered up to that Divine Power, by whom Kings reign, our moſt grateful Thankſgivings for bringing to Light, and defeating, the malignant and traitorous Deſigns of wicked Men againſt your ſacred Perſon, and our excellent Conſtitution in Church and State, beg Leave to preſent at the Foot of your Throne our ſincere Congratulations thereon, not only to your Maſteſty but to the whole Realm, to whom it is apparent that your Maſteſty's Enemies are only thoſe of the State.

We alſo beg Leave to aſſure your Maſteſty, that our faithful and zealous Exertions, collectively and individually, ſhall not be wanting to diſappoint and defeat the Attempts of either our foreign or domeſtic Enemies; and we will continue to implore that, by the ſpecial Protection of Divine Providence, we may long enjoy the Bleſſings which all your liege Subjects derive from your gracious Government and illuſtrious Example.

Given under our Common-Seal this Seventeenth Day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand eight hundred and three.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Maſteſty's dutiful and affectionate Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Capital Burgeſſes of the Borough of Sudbury, in the County of Suffolk, in Common Hall aſſembled, beg Leave to approach the Throne with our heartſelt Congratulations on your Maſteſty's providential Deliverance from the daring and traitorous Conſpiracy lately formed againſt your Maſteſty's ſacred Perſon and Government.

May the Divine Providence ever guard your Maſteſty from the Machinations of your Enemies, and may this united Realm ever continue to enjoy the tranſcendant Bleſſings of our glorious Conſtitution, under the ſolſtering Government of a juſt and pious King.

Signed by me the ſaid Mayor, by the Appointment of the Recorder, Aldermen, and Capital Burgeſſes of the Borough of Sudbury; and given under the Common Seal of the ſaid Borough, this Nineteenth Day of March, Eighteen hundred and three. William Oliver.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Maſteſty,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Maſteſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Aſſiſtants, and Commonalty of the Town of Penzance, humbly crave Leave to exprefs to your Majesty our Detestation and Abhorrence of the foul Conspiracy lately projected againſt your Majesty's Royal Perſon and Government, and to entreat that your Majesty will vouchſafe to accept our hearty Congratulations on its providential Failure and Detection. We are deeply ſenſible that the atrocious Machinations of impious Traitors againſt your Majesty's ſacred Perſon cannot be affected without depriving us at the ſame Time of the Source of thoſe eminent Bleſſings, the Enjoyment of which, under Providence, we aſcribe to the paternal Exerciſe of the ſacred Power and Authority of your Majesty, in whoſe Hands we fervently and gratefully pray that it may pleaſe Almighty God, on whom your Majesty places his firm Reliance, long to continue it for the Advancement of His Glory, and the Promotion of the Interests and Happineſs of your Majesty's Dominions. And we beg to aſſure your Majesty, that our Zeal and Loyalty for the Preſervation of your Majesty's inſeſtimable Perſon and Government can be equalled only by our profound Admiration of the noble and exalted Virtues, which, in every Relation of Life, moſt conſpicuouſly adorn your Majesty's Royal Character, and that we ſhall ever conſider the Maintenance of our happily eſtabliſhed and envied Conſtitution, a glorious and grateful Duty, as eſſential to the Interests of ourſelves, as to thoſe of our lateſt Poſterity.

Signed on Behalf of the Meeting.

J. Batten, Mayor.

[Preſented by Viſcount Falmouth, Recorder.]

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Wallingford, in the County of Berks, preſume humbly to approach your truly paternal Throne with our moſt fervent Congratulations on the Detection and Defeat of the late and other atrocious Deſigns upon your auſpicious Perſon, in which the Interference of Divine Providence hath ſo ſignally appeared, that we truſt your Majesty's invaluable Life will long be preſerved as a Bleſſing to your Subjects. And as the Machinations of deſperate Traitors have been aimed, not ſo much at the Removal of your Majesty, as at the Subverſion of the Empire, we humbly hope that the ſame Divine Protection will continue to preſerve our Conſtitution in Church and State to the lateſt Poſterity.

[Preſented by Sir Francis Sykes, Bart. one of the Representatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majesty,

The humble Addreſs of the Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Capital Burgeſſes, (in Common-Council aſſembled) of your Majesty's ancient Borough of Denbigh.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Capital Burgeſſes of the Borough of Denbigh, beg Leave to preſent our heartfelt Congratulations upon your Majesty's providential Eſcape from the black Conspiracy formed againſt your Majesty's moſt valuable Life, your illuſtrious Family, and the glorious Conſtitution of this Land.

We are truly ſenſible that, in the long Line of Monarchs who have ſwayed the Sceptre of theſe Realms, no one was ever more entitled to the Affections of his People than your Majesty.

Under this Impreſſion permit us, Sire, to declare our Determination to ſupport the beſt of Kings, your Royal Family, and our happy Conſtitution in Church and State; and to aſſure your Majesty that we ſhall uſe our ſtrenuous Endeavours to promote civil and religious Order, to watch the Deſigns of the Son of Wickedneſs, and to avert every Evil from your Royal Perſon, your Royal Family, and Government.

May every Bleſſing attend your Majesty; and may you long continue to be defended, as with a Shield, by Him who has, evidently to us and to the whole World, been the Protector of your Royal Perſon, your People, and your Dominions.

Signed by Order of the Court,

William Simon, Town Clerk.

Borough of Denbigh, March 5, 1803.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, and Common-Councilmen of the Town and Port of Dover, in the County of Kent, in Common-Council aſſembled, deeply impreſſed with Gratitude to the Almighty for having ſhielded your Majesty's Perſon from the traitorous Deſigns of thoſe deſperate Conſpirators who have lately ſuffered the juſt Vengeance of the Law, beg Leave to offer our moſt heartfelt Congratulations to your Majesty on the happy Fruſtration of their abominable Machinations.

The Mildneſs of your Majesty's Government, that paternal Regard which your Majesty hath invariably ſhewn for the Happineſs of your People, and the Exerciſe of thoſe private Virtues by which your Majesty is ſo eminently diſtinguiſhed, have long endeared you to your faithful Subjects, and taught them to conſider the Preſervation of your Majesty's Life as cloſely interwoven with their own Happineſs; and we cannot in ſufficient Terms expreſs our Abhorrence and Detestation at a Crime deliberately formed to have deprived us of a Life ſo juſtly dear to us, and profiting by the Horror and Confuſion into which that fatal Stroke would have plunged the Nation, to have attempted the Overthrow of our glorious Conſtitution.

May the Punishment of theſe wretched Men warn others (if any exiſt,) of the inevitable Conſequences of traitorous Attempts againſt a King ſo juſtly beloved, and may the Almighty prolong your Majesty's Days to the lateſt Period of human Exiſtence, that your Majesty may continue to reign in the Hearts of your People, undiſturbed by the ambitious Schemes of foreign Powers, and the unnatural Attempts of domeſtic Traitors.

Given under our Common Seal, this Twelfth Day of March One thouſand eight hundred and three.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Freemen of the Borough of Sunderland.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freemen of the Borough of Sunderland near the Sea, in the County of Durham, beg Leave to offer our warmest Congratulations upon your Majesty's providential Escape from the late treasonable Conspiracy. With the deepest Gratitude we adore the Goodness of Almighty God in having protected your Majesty's Life; sincerely disapproving of the Attempts of seditious and desperate Persons to raise Tumults and Disorders in the Kingdom, by inflaming the Minds of the People. We beg to assure your Majesty that we will exert our best and constant Endeavours to frustrate such wicked Designs, and will heartily unite with our Fellow-Subjects to support good Order in the Community, to promote Respect to the Laws, and Submission to public Authority, as the most effectual Means of transmitting to latest Posterity unimpaired our excellent Constitution, the Admiration of the World, the Source of inestimable Blessings to all your Majesty's Subjects, and which we have had the Happiness to see your Majesty uniformly manifest a paternal Anxiety to preserve inviolate.

That your Majesty may long continue to reign over a loyal, free, and happy People is the fervent Prayer of your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the Freemen of this ancient Borough.

Given under the Corporate-Seal, by Order of the Freemen in Corporate-Body assembled, this Fifteenth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Doncaster, in the West Riding of the County of York, beg Leave to offer you our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on the timely Discovery and Defeat of the late wicked and traitorous Conspiracy against your Majesty's invaluable Life, and the Liberty of this Kingdom.

We cannot fail being sincerely attached to our excellent Constitution, which we have experienced the full Enjoyment of under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, we therefore feel the utmost Abhorrence of those diabolical Machinations, which were so deliberately planned for the Destruction of both, and the firm and decided Execution of the Laws upon the guilty, will, we trust, put an End to all future Attempts of the like atrocious Kind.

We feel the utmost Thankfulness for the providential Protection which has so frequently been vouchsafed to your sacred Person, and we sincerely pray for the Continuance of it; and that your Majesty and your Descendants may long reign over a free, happy, and independent People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Beverley, in the County of York.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of Beverley, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave unanimously to approach your Throne with our most sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Deliverance from the traitorous Conspiracy formed against your Majesty's Person and Government.

Sensible, as we are, of the Happiness and Security we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, we fervently implore that the Almighty, who hath brought to Light and defeated that horrid Conspiracy, will long preserve the Life of our beloved Sovereign from every Danger.

And be assured, Royal Sire, that we, your faithful Subjects, will zealously and unanimously support your Majesty in maintaining the Honor and Dignity of your Crown, and the Safety of your Dominions, against the wicked Machinations and ambitious Designs of both your foreign and domestic Enemies.

Given under our Common Seal this Fourteenth Day of March, in the Forty third Year of your Reign. W. Middleton, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiff, Burgesses, and Commonalty, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Daventry, in the County of Northampton.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff, Burgesses, and Commonalty, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Daventry, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon the Discovery and Defeat of the late traitorous Conspiracy against your Royal Person and Government.

Impressed with a lively Sense of your Majesty's exalted Virtues, feeling the most unfeigned Affection to your Royal Person, and zealously attached to the true Interests of our Country; we regard with Horror and Indignation the daring and atrocious Conduct of those Persons, who, unmindful of their Duty to your Majesty, and regardless of the Blessings of your auspicious Government, have vainly endeavoured to overthrow our excellent Constitution.

We acknowledge, with humble Gratitude, the Goodness of Almighty God, in hitherto frustrating the Attempts of those wicked Men, and we fervently pray, that He will, in Mercy to ourselves and our Country, continue to preserve your Majesty and your Royal House from the secret as well as open Attacks of all your Enemies.

And further we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we shall, at all Times, and upon all Occasions, be zealous to prove our affectionate Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and our Sense of the great Blessings we enjoy under them by opposing our determined and active Resistance to every Attempt which may be made against the Honor of your Crown, and the Interests of your People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council, and others the Burgesses and Inhabitants, of the Town and County of Haverfordwest, having heard with inexpressible Concern the traitorous Attempt intended against your Majesty's sacred Person, with a View to overturn the glorious and happy Constitution under which we and our Ancestors have so long and happily lived, we beg Leave most heartily to congratulate your Majesty on the timely Discovery and Defeat of so diabolical a Design; and trust that the Execution of the Laws upon the base and treacherous Projectors of so bloody a Deed, and that Spirit and Loyalty for which your Majesty's Subjects are now so eminently distinguished, will, in future, prevent any similar Attempt.

We also beg to assure your Majesty, that we will upon all Occasions most readily use every Exertion in our Power to the Support and Protection of your Majesty's Person and Government.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town-Clerk, Brethren, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Derby, in the County of Derby, in Common-Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town-Clerk, Brethren, and Capital Burgesses of the ancient Borough of Derby, in Common-Council assembled, impressed with strong Sentiments of dutiful Attachment to your Royal Person, beg Leave to approach the Throne with fervent Congratulations, on the Detection and Defeat of the late daring and atrocious Conspiracy, involving the most treasonable Designs against the invaluable Life of your Majesty, and the very Existence of our glorious and envied Constitution.

We have viewed with inexpressible Horror and Indignation the dark and guilty Attempts of desperate and abandoned Traitors, which the Vigilance of your Majesty's Ministers (under Divine Providence,) have so happily frustrated; and we earnestly hope, that the Punishment so justly incurred by the Perpetrators of such enormous Crimes, may, by its Example, secure the august Person of your Majesty from future Danger, and ensure the internal Tranquillity of your United Kingdom.

Long, Sire, may you reign, happy in the domestic Comforts of your Royal House, and in the Affections of a grateful and united People, proected by the Almighty Arm from the insidious Attacks of secret Enemies, and the rude Assaults of open Violence.

Given under the Common Seal of the Borough of Derby, the Fourteenth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three.

Thos. Lowe. Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Banbury, in the County of Oxford.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Banbury, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence with our most sincere and hearty Congratulations on the late Discovery and Prevention of the traitorous and diabolical Plot, aimed at your Majesty's most sacred Person, and the Subversion of the best of all Governments.

That your Majesty's Reign may be long, and flourish uninterrupted by the malignant Machinations of Traitors and evil-designing Men, is the most cordial Wish of us your Majesty's very loyal and dutiful Subjects.

Given under our Seal this Twenty-third Day of March, in the Year One thousand eight hundred and three.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Burgesses and other Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Stafford, beg Leave to approach your Throne to offer our sincere Congratulations on your happy Escape from the late treasonable Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person.

We have long been convinced that Divine Providence has, in a peculiar Manner, protected your Majesty: And we return Thanks to the Almighty for the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's most excellent Government: And may the all ruling Providence continue to protect and prolong your Majesty's Life, so invaluable to all your Subjects, against Enemies foreign and domestic.

[Presented by the Honorable Edward Monckton and R. B. Sheridan, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Bailiffs, Aldermen, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Town of Bridgnorth, humbly beg Leave to present our sincere Congratulations upon your Majesty's happy Escape from that horrible Conspiracy, which was planned against your sacred Person and the venerable Constitution under which we live.

Deeply impressed with Sentiments of the truest Loyalty to your Majesty, and fully sensible of the invaluable Blessings we enjoy under the best Government upon Earth, we reflect with Horror and Altonishment upon those dismal Designs which have been so seasonably discovered, and so properly punished. Whilst we readily join our Fellow-Subjects in declaring the most unshaken Attachment to your Majesty, and the greatest Abhorrence of all Attempts to disturb the public Peace; we cannot but express our Hope that the late Detection and Punishment of Treason will convince the Disorderly that Evil-minded Men are carefully watched, and have nothing to expect but the Severity of the Law.

Most thankful to the Almighty for his merciful Protection of us and our King, we earnestly pray that the Divine Shield may be ever extended over your Majesty, your Royal House, and this highly favoured Country.

Richard Corbett and Francis Pierpont, Bailiffs.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and principal Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Chepping Wycombe.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and principal Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Chepping Wycombe, in the Guildhall assembled, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the happy Discovery and Frustration of a late wicked and traitorous Conspiracy against your sacred Person and Family, and the established Government of the Country; and it is with the deepest Concern we behold any of your Majesty's Subjects so deluded as to engage in the Machinations of artful and designing Men.

Thankful to the Divine Providence for the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, we beg Leave humbly to assure your Majesty, we are ready upon all Occasions to hazard our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of your sacred Person and Family, and in Support of our excellent and invaluable Constitution. And we do most ardently pray that your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous, over a free, happy, and united People.

Thomas Rose, Mayor.

[Presented by Sir John Dashwood King, Bart. and Sir Francis Baring, Bart. Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble and dutiful Address of the Recorder, Mayor, Capital Burgesses, Assistants, Town-Clerk, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Wareham, in the County of Dorset.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Recorder, Mayor, Capital Burgesses, Assistants Town-Clerk, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Wareham, humbly beg Permission to approach your Majesty with our sincere and dutiful Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the late atrocious Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government.

Filled with Indignation at the daring and desperate Plan to overwhelm our beloved Constitution, we cannot sufficiently admire the Wisdom and Energy of your Majesty's Councils, under the Divine Providence, in timely defeating the diabolical Designs of wicked and misguided Traitors.

May the same good and gracious Providence continue to guard and protect your Majesty from all treasonable Machinations, and long preserve to your Majesty and your august Family every Blessing and Happiness.

[Presented by John Colcraft, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the Borough of Lancaster, in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the Borough of Lancaster, in Council assembled, impressed with the most zealous Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, beg Leave to approach the Throne with the warmest Sentiments of heartfelt Congratulation on the providential Discovery of a most wicked and atrocious Conspiracy against your sacred Person, your illustrious House, and the Religion, Laws, and Liberties of this Country.

We are truly sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and gracious Government; and are fully convinced that our religious and political Establishment, the Happiness of the United Kingdom, the Preservation of our glorious Constitution, and all our nearest and dearest Interests, both national and individual, are inseparably connected with your Majesty's personal Safety; viewing, therefore, the late diabolical Machinations of wicked and bloody-minded Men, we cannot be sufficiently grateful to that Providence, whose gracious Interposition averted the dreadful Calamity.

May the protecting Arm of Almighty Power be still, as in the late and former Instances, extended over your august Person; may you long sway the Imperial Sceptre; long reign over the Persons and in the Hearts of your faithful and loyal Subjects; and to Length of Days may the Great Disposer of Events grant you an Extent of Happiness adequate to our Wishes.

May Religion, Morality, and a sincere Attachment to yourself and Family, continually flourish and increase amongst us; may intestine Divisions and party Rage be for ever extinguished; and may domestic Harmony and public Peace bless your Majesty's Empire in all its Connections.

Given under the Seal of the Borough of Lancaster this Seventeenth Day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by the Marquis of Douglas and John Dent, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Wilts.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Wilts, humbly beg Leave to express our unanimous Abhorrence of the late treasonable Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government. We sincerely rejoice, that, by the Vigilance of your Majesty's Ministers under the Divine Providence, these traitorous Designs have been effectually frustrated; and we humbly offer to your Majesty our heartfelt Congratulations.

At the same Time we earnestly desire to assure your Majesty of our Attachment to your Royal Person and to our most excellent Constitution, which hath for Ages been the Envy of surrounding Nations, and which we shall at all Times be ready to maintain and preserve, both against domestic Foes and foreign Enemies.

Signed in pursuance of a Resolution made at a Meeting of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Wilts, held in the Town Hall in Devizes, on Wednesday the Twenty-third Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three, pursuant to public Advertisement from the High Sheriff.

Thos. Henry Hele Phipps, High Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Assistants, Common-Council, Free Burgesses, Gentlemen, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Colchester, in the County of Essex.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

IMPRESSED with the most lively Sense of the Blessings which we enjoy under your Majesty's paternal Government, and sympathizing in those generous Sentiments of Patriotism, which are inseparable from our Characters as Englishmen, we, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Assistants, Common-Council, Free Burgesses, Gentlemen, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Colchester, in Common-Hall assembled, beg Leave to approach your Throne with the most sincere and ardent Congratulations on your Majesty's Escape from the atrocious and sanguinary Attempts of a desperate Faction. We view their dark Designs with Horror and Detestation. Instigated by those fallacious Systems, which set all Religion and Morals at Defiance, and are calculated to sap the most solid Foundations of political Happiness, their shameless Plans were directed against your Majesty's sacred Person, and against the Constitution of this United Kingdom, which are equally endeared to us by every pure Sentiment of Nature and Gratitude.

May the Almighty Protector of Kings and Empires long continue your Majesty's auspicious Reign, and preserve the venerable Fabric of our Constitution undisturbed by the unprincipled Ambition of foreign Enemies, or the intidious Designs of domestic Traitors!

In Testimony whereof we, the said Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Assistants, Common-Council, and Free Burgesses, have put our Common Seal, and we the said Inhabitants have set our Hands, this Twenty-fourth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by Robert Thornton and John Denison, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Portreeve, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Tavistock, in the County of Devon.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Portreeve, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of your Majesty's ancient and loyal Borough of Tavistock, impressed with every Sentiment of Detestation and Horror at any Attempt against your Majesty's most sacred Person, crave Permission to offer your Majesty our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations upon the recent Escape of your Majesty from a heinous and diabolical Conspiracy.

Fully sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, we view with inexpressible Concern the Existence of any Principles which may have a Tendency to deprive us of those Privileges, or to make Inroads on our happy Constitution; and these Considerations strongly demand from us, as a Duty, our imploring a long Continuance of your Majesty's Life.

We earnestly hope that the same overruling Providence, which hath hitherto averted the Shaft of the Assassin, will mercifully continue its Care over your Royal Person, your Life, and Health; and that every Blessing Heaven can bestow be showered down on your Majesty to the latest Period of Existence.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lieutenant General Fitzpatrick, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The most humble Address of the French and Dutch Churches in London, established by King Edward the Sixth.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

THE Ministers, Elders, and Deacons of the French and Dutch Churches in London, established by King Edward the Sixth, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Royal Person, with the most heartfelt Congratulation on the Providential Deliverance from the malignant Designs of the late traitorous Conspiracy aimed against your sacred Life, and intended to subvert our invaluable Constitution.

We reflect, with equal Indignation and Horror, on an Attempt of such an atrocious Nature, and return our most fervent Thanks to the Omnipotent Ruler of the Universe in the Detection of so foul a Treason.

May the God of All Mercies continue to protect your Majesty's sacred Person in Health, long Life, and Prosperity.

May the choicest Blessings attend your Royal Family and Government; and may our Churches (the oldest foreign Protestant in this Kingdom,) continue to enjoy your Majesty's most powerful and gracious Protection.

[Presented by the Reverend John Werninck, Daniel Milten, Esq; John Finney, Esq.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the States of the Island of Jersey.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the States of your Majesty's Island of Jersey, most humbly crave your gracious Acceptance of our sincere Congratulations on the timely Detection and subsequent Suppression of a Conspiracy, wearing Features of such peculiar and transcendent Deformity, as scarcely to be paralleled in the Annals of History.

With the highest Indignation and Abhorrence do we observe, that this foul Conspiracy had for its Object, the Destruction of a Sovereign, justly endeared to a loyal People by every public and domestic Virtue, of his august Family, and of a Constitution formed by the Wisdom of Ages, and productive of Welfare and Security to every Rank and Order of Society.

To these Sentiments of Detestation, which pervade the breasts of your Majesty's faithful Subjects of this Island, are added those of Astonishment, that Men should have been found of such enormous Depravity, so inimical to their Country's best Interests and their own; so lost to every Sense of Religion and Morality as to attempt by the most atrocious Treason, to substitute, in the Room of inestimable Blessings, all the desolating Horrors of Anarchy and Carnage.

Gratitude, however cordial, Praises, however fervent, can never sufficiently acknowledge the Mercies of Providence, so visibly manifested on the late perilous Occasion, in the Preservation of a Life, on which depends the Happiness of Millions.

That the Almighty Ruler of the World may continue his watchful Care over your Majesty and your Royal House, is a Prayer put up with an Earnestness suited to the Importance of the Favor implored by this Portion of your Dominions, small indeed in its Extent of Territory, but not so in the Extent of its Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person.

By Order of the States,
John De Veulle, Gref.

Jersey, 19th March 1803.

[Presented by Marquis Townshend the Governor, and Sir John Dumaresq, the Chief Magistrate of the said Island.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the High Sheriff and Grand Jury at the Assizes for your County of Norfolk, beg Leave to approach your Throne to express our Detestation and Abhorrence of the late traitorous Conspiracy, aimed at the Destruction of our Government and happy Constitution, by a deliberate and atrocious Design against the sacred Life and Person of your Majesty.

We congratulate your Majesty and the Country on the Detection of so nefarious a Plot; and that the Contrivers of it have been subjected to a just and exemplary Punishment. May their Example prevent the Repetition of so malignant and diabolical an Attempt: And may your Majesty live long, very long, the Sovereign and Father of a loyal, free, and affectionate People.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 30th of March 1803,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, in pursuance of the Powers vested in His Majesty, by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to continue, until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and four, several Laws relating to the prohibiting the Exportation and permitting the Importation of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision without Payment of Duty; to the Relief of Captors of Prizes, with respect to the bringing and landing certain Prize Goods in this Kingdom; and to the regulating the Trade and Commerce to and from the Isle of Malta;" His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council, bearing Date the Thirty-first of December last, to order, and it was thereby ordered, That the Prohibition laid, by Order of His Majesty in Council, bearing Date the Twelfth Day of December One thousand eight Hundred and one, upon the Exportation from any Port or Place in Great Britain of any Wheat, Rye, Barley, Beer or Bigg, Pease, Beans, Oats, or any Meal or Flour, or Bread, Biscuit, or Malt made thereof, or of any Indian Corn or Maize, or Meal or Flour made thereof; and also the Liberty, granted by the said Order in Council, bearing Date the Twelfth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and one, to import and take out of Warehouse Foreign Corn and other Articles as aforesaid, and likewise to import sundry other Articles of Provision Duty free, should be further continued until the Thirty-first Day of this instant March inclusive, save and except the Importation, Duty free, of the Articles of Rice and Malt; and save and except, as it was declared by the said Order, that nothing therein contained was intended to extend, or should be construed to extend, to affect or apply to any Exportation of Seed Corn from Great Britain to Ireland, or any Importation of Malt from Ireland to Great Britain, in the Manner authorized by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for continuing, until the First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, an Act made in the Forty-second Year of

“ the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An
 “ A& for regulating, until the Fifteenth Day of “ February One thousand eight hundred and three,
 “ the Prices at which Grain, Meal, and Flour may

 “ from Ireland to Great Britain; and for permit“ ting, from and after the passing thereof, until
 “ the said First Day of July One thousand eight “ hundred and three, the Exportation of Seed “ Corn from Great Britain to Ireland, and the “ Importation of Malt into Great Britain from “ Ireland:”

And whereas it is judged expedient that the said Prohibition to export, and the said Permission to import, should be continued for some Time longer, His Majesty, therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance of the Powers given by the First of the above-recited Acts, passed in the present Session of Parliament, hath thought fit to order, and it is hereby ordered, That the said Order in Council, bearing Date the Thirty-first of December last, and all the Exceptions, Provisoos, Rules Regulations, and Restrictions, specified and enforced by the said Order, respecting such Exportation and Importation, and taking out of Ware-house, shall be, and continue in Force until the Thirtieth Day of April next inclusive, in the same Manner as the same are now in Force by the said Order, bearing Date the 31st Day of December last.

And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

W. Faulkener.

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, in pursuance of the Powers vested in His Majesty by an Act, passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled “ An Act
 “ to continue, until the First Day of January One “ thousand eight hundred and four, several Laws “ relating to the prohibiting the Exportation and “ permitting the Importation of Corn; and for “ allowing the Importation of other Articles of “ Provision without Payment of Duty; to the “ Relief of Captors of Prizes, with respect to the “ bringing and landing certain Prize Goods in this “ Kingdom; and to the regulating the Trade and “ Commerce to and from the Isle of Malta;” His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance of the Powers given by the said Act, was pleased, by His Order in Council, bearing Date the Thirty-first of December last, to order, That, from the First Day of January then next, until the Thirty-first Day of this instant March, no Person or Persons whatsoever should export, or should load or lay on board any Ship or Vessel, with the Intent to export from any Port or Place of Great Britain any of the following Articles, viz. Bulls, Cows, Oxen, Calves, Sheep, Lambs, Swine, Beef, Pork, Mutton, Veal, Lamb, whether salted or otherwise, or any Bacon, Butter, Onions, or Pulse of any Sort, or any Barley hulled, or Pearl Barley, unless Proof shall first be given to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs that the Articles so to be exported as aforesaid were not of British Growth, Produce, or Manufacture; But it was His Majesty's Pleasure nevertheless, that nothing contained in the said Order should extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent the Exportation or carrying out of such and so much of any of the said Articles as should be necessary to be carried in any Ship or Vessel, on its Voyage out and Home, for the Sustenance, Diet, and Support of the Commander, Master, Mariners, Passengers, and others on board such Ship or Vessel, or for the Use and Sustenance of the Cattle, Live Stock, or other Animals on board such Ship or Vessel; or for the necessary victualling or providing any of His Majesty's Ships of War, or other Ships and Vessels in His Majesty's Service; or for the necessary victualling or providing any of His Majesty's Forces, Forts, or Garrisons; nor to prohibit, at any Time, the Exportation of such and so much of any of the said Articles as might be necessary for the Supply of the British Forts, Castles, or Factories in Africa, or of British Ships trading upon that Coast, which have usually been supplied with the same from Great Britain; nor to prohibit the Exportation by the East India Company, or any Agent employed by them, of any of the said Articles for the necessary Supply of their Garrisons at St. Helena, Bombay, and Bencoolen, or for the necessary Use of the Ships belonging to the said Company; nor to prohibit the Exportation of any of the said Articles to the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man; or to any of His Majesty's Colonies, Islands, or Plantations in America or the West Indies; or to the Town or Port of Gibraltar, for the necessary Use of the Inhabitants of the same respectively: Provided that the Merchant Exporter, in each Case, should first make Oath of the true Destination of the same to the Places for which they were entered Outwards before the Entry of the same should be made, and should give full and sufficient Security, by Bond, in treble the Value of the said Articles, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said Articles to the Places for which they were so entered out, and for the Purposes specified and none other; such Bond not to be cancelled or delivered up until Proof should be made to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the Production, within a Time to be fixed by the said Commissioners, and specified in the Bond, of a Certificate or Certificates, in such Form and Manner as should be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said Articles had been all duly landed at the Places for which they were so entered Outwards:

And whereas it is judged expedient that the said Order should continue in Force for some Time longer, His Majesty doth, therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, and pursuant to the Powers given by the above recited Act, passed in the present Session of Parliament, order, and it is hereby ordered, That from and after the Thirty-first Day of this instant March, and until the Thirtieth Day of June next, no Person or Persons whatsoever shall export, or shall load, or lay on board any Ship or Vessel, with Intent to export from any Port or Place of Great Britain, any Bulls, Cows, Oxen, Calves, Sheep, Lambs, Swine, Beef, Pork, Mutton, Veal, Lamb, whether salted or otherwise, or any Bacon, Butter, Onions, or Pulse of any Sort, or any Barley hulled, or Pearl Barley, save and except the Exceptions contained in His Majesty's said Order in Council, bearing Date the Thirty-first of December last, allowing the Exportation of the several Articles mentioned, for the Purposes mentioned in the said Order, under the Provisoes, Rules, and Regulations therein contained :

And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

W. Fawcener.

TO the PUBLIC, MERCHANTS, and IMPORTERS of GOODS to the Port of London.

IN consequence of the Whole of the Importation from the West India Islands having been removed, by virtue of an Act of Parliament, from the Legal Quays to the Wet Docks at the Isle of Dogs, those Quays, and the Warehouses attached thereto, have, to a great Extent, become unoccupied; the Wharfingers of the Legal Quays think it proper to inform all those interested in the Importation of Goods to the Port of London, which have been usually landed at the Sufferance Wharfs, that they are now ready to receive them at the Legal Quays, where, by Act of Parliament, they can only legally (without a special Sufferance being obtained from the Honorable the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs) be permitted to be landed; and that the Charge for Wharfage will be made agreeable to an Order issued for that express Purpose by His Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council; and the Warehouse Rent will not exceed what has been usually paid at the Sufferance Wharfs.

April 4, 1802.

ALL Persons having any Claim or Demand on the Estate or Effects of the late Mrs. Sarah Field, of Field-Place, in the County of Middlesex, deceased, are hereby required without Delay to make the same known to her Executors, Mr. William Thistleton, of Goodge-Street, and Mr. John Morris, of Paradise-Street, Battle-Bridge, St. Pancras; and all Persons who were anywise indebted to the Deceased are likewise required forthwith to pay the same to the above-mentioned Executors, or they will be sued without further Notice.

March 26, 1803.

ALL Persons having any Demand against the Estate of Joseph Coxon and Co. Wine and Brandy Merchants, late of No. 30, Queen-Street, Cheap-side, are requested to make Application to me at No. 5, Baldwin's-Court, Cloak-Lane, for the same, on or before the 25th of April next, as the Trustees of said Estate are about to make a Final Dividend, and hereby exclude all Demands not made within the said Period.

GEORGE DEWEY.

WHEREAS Francis Higgins, late of St. John in Bedwardine, near Worcester, Gentleman, deceased, devised certain Premises in St. John aforesaid, and in Sidbury, in the City of

St. James's, April 6, 1803.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Dean of the Collegiate Church of St. Peter's at Westminster, together with the Lord High Steward, Deputy Steward, High Bailiff, Chief Burgesses, Burgesses, High Conitabie, and Burgesses Assistants of your ancient City and Liberty of Westminster, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne, and, in Conjunction with the common Voice of the Nation, collectively and individually, to congratulate your Majesty upon the Discovery of a Conspiracy against your sacred Person, equally wild and desperate as wicked and malignant.

In the Preservation of your Majesty's Life we feel the Security of our Religion, our Laws, and Constitution; and we are persuaded that none but those who wish to abolish all the Restraints of Law and Religion, can have been implicated in Crimes so atrocious and insatuated; in short, the Madness of a few cannot have any other Effect than to testify the general and spontaneous Loyalty of the Nation, and to prove that there is but one Wish that your Majesty's Reign may be prolonged, under Providence, for the Happiness of your People, and that your august Family may perpetuate the Blessings all enjoy under a mild Government, by following the Steps, and imitating the Virtues and Example, of your Majesty as long as the British Empire shall endure.

[Presented by the Dean of Westminster.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Councillors of your ancient City of Saint Andrews, in Council assembled, beg Leave, most humbly to approach the Throne, with the Expression of our sincere and unalterable Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government.

We desire to join your Majesty's other loyal and affectionate Subjects, in unfeigned Congratulation on your Majesty's late happy Escape from the premeditated Machinations of wicked and abandoned Traitors; and we, with grateful Hearts, return our sincere Thanks to that Providence which has in this, as in former Instances, watched over the sacred Person of the illustrious Protector of our glorious and unrivalled Constitution. That the same Almighty Arm may continue to shield, and long preserve your Majesty as a Blessing to a free, happy, and grateful People, is our most earnest Prayer.

Signed in Name, and in Presence of the Council, by Kellie, Provost.
Saint Andrews, March 25, 1803.

[Presented by the Right Honorable William Dundas.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the County of Kincardine, North Britain.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, and Heritors of the County of Kincardine, (convened in a Meeting called by the Right Honorable the Earl of Kintore, Lord Lieutenant of the County, for the Purpose,) beg Leave to approach the Throne with our humble and most sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's late happy Escape from the wicked and desperate Designs of most abandoned and traitorous Assassins. We heard with Astonishment, Horror, and Indignation of the Existence of such a Plot, and returned our Thanks to that Providence, which, most happily for the Peace and Tranquillity of your United Kingdom, watched over and protected your sacred Person.

Deeply sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under our excellent Constitution from your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, our most ardent Prayer is, that your Majesty may long reign over us, happy in the domestic Comforts of your Royal House, and in the Affections of a grateful and united People, secure from the Attacks of secret Enemies at Home, and the more open Assaults of foreign Foes.

Signed at Stonehaven, Head Burgh of said County, by our Appointment in our Name and Presence, by Alexander Burnett, of Strachan, Esq; Sheriff Depute of the County, our Preses, this Thirty-first Day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three. Al. Burnett, Preses.

[Transmitted by Sir John Stuart, Bart. and presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, other Heritors, and Justices of the Peace of the County of Inverness.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

REMOTE in Situation from the Seat of your Government, in our Hearts we are ever near your Majesty. The Influence of your mild and paternal Rule has reached us your distant but grateful Subjects; and we acknowledge, with Thankfulness to Divine Providence, the Blessings we have enjoyed under your virtuous and exemplary Reign.

With inexpressible Horror and Indignation we learn that a Traitor's Blow has been meditated at our Sovereign's Life, but that Almighty Care, which guards your People, has preserved that Life so essential to their Happiness, and to the best Interests of this Empire.

Accept, Sire, the Love and Loyalty of your faithful Highlanders. Rely on their Attachment to your Person, to your Family, and to our glorious Constitution. And may the King of Kings long preserve your Life and protract your Reign: May it please your Majesty, your faithful Subjects, the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, other Heritors, and Justices of the Peace of the County of Inverness.

Signed by our Appointment, and in our Presence, by Alexander Macdonell, of Glengarry, Esq; Preses of our General Meeting held at Inverness this Eleventh Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three.

A. Macdonell, Preses.

[Presented by Charles Grant, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lieutenant-Governor, Council, Deemsters, and Keys of your Majesty's Island of Man.

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Lieutenant-Governor, Council, Deemsters, and Keys of your Island of Man, beg Leave to approach your Throne with a Tender of our warmest Congratulations on the Detection and Defeat of the late treasonable Conspiracy, which menaced equal Outrage against your Majesty and our happy Constitution.

May the ignominious Forfeit these Miscreants have paid to the violated Laws of their Country, be an awful Lesson to deter others from the like atrocious Attempts; and should any Partisans of Anarchy and Innovation still remain, may the Almighty incline their Hearts to weigh with due Consideration the civil Liberty they enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Reign; that, having learnt to appreciate its Worth, and your Majesty's Virtues, they may be led to look up with Reverence and Affection to the Father of his People, and direct their Enthusiasm to the Support of a Constitution not to be paralleled in the Annals of the World.

May the same good Providence, which has hitherto guarded your Majesty, still continue to protect your Majesty from the Danger of secret Conspiracy and open Violence; and may your Majesty long reign over a flourishing, happy, and loyal People.

Alex. Shaw, Lieut. Governor.

17th March 1803.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Guild Stewards and Burgesses of the ancient Borough of Calne, in the County of Wilts.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Guild Stewards and Burgesses of the Borough of Calne aforesaid, with all Humility beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Presence to offer our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations to your Majesty on the Detection and (we hope) total Extinction of the late wicked and traitorous Conspiracy, aimed at the Subversion of our Government, and the Destruction of our excellent and revered Constitution, by a deliberate and diabolical Design against the sacred Person of your Majesty.

Providence and the Vigilance of your Majesty's Ministers have combined to defeat this nefarious Enterprize; and we trust that the just and exemplary Punishment inflicted on the Ringleaders of it will effectually operate to prevent any future Attempts of so atrocious a Nature; and that your Majesty will continue long, very long, to reign over your free and happy People.

Given under the Common Seal of the Borough aforesaid, at the Guildhall within the same Borough, the Twenty-third Day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Henry Petty.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Borough of New Shoreham, in the County of Sussex.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Borough of New Shoreham, most humbly beg Leave to present our unfeigned Congratulations on your Majesty's Escape from the late daring and wicked Attempt against your Majesty's sacred Life and Government, as well as to express our Abhorrence and Detestation of the diabolical Motives which actuated those desperate Traitors. Inspired with Reverence for those Virtues which so eminently distinguish your Royal Character, and impressed with a due Sense of the many and great Blessings we have enjoyed under your Majesty's just and mild Government, we are particularly solicitous to give your Majesty the strongest Assurances of our inviolable Attachment; and we make it our most earnest Prayer to that Almighty Power (whose Mercies we so lately experienced) that he will continue to guard and protect your Majesty's sacred Life; that whenever the traitorous Arm may be raised against it his Goodness may arrest the murderous Weapon from the Assassin's Hand, and turn the meditated Mischief on himself.

At the Request of every Householder within this Borough.

(Signed) George Tate, High Constable of the Borough of New

March 26, 1803. Shoreham.

[Presented by Sir Cecil Bishopp, Bart. one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Provost, Burgesses, Commons, and Freemen of the Corporation of Bandon, (of early and approved Loyalty,) humbly presume to offer to your Majesty the unfeigned Assurance of our heartfelt Congratulations on the providential Defeat of the late treasonable Designs against the Life of a Monarch endeared to his People by every Tie of Duty, Gratitude, and Affection.

Penetrated with a deep Sense of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's paternal Government, we cannot contemplate without Horror and Indignation, the atrocious and execrable Project of domestic Conspirators, conspired to overthrow, in the Person of your sacred Majesty, the Bulwark of our glorious Constitution in Church and State, and to involve in utter Ruin our Laws and Liberties, and every Thing that is dear to a free and happy People.

We trust that the Fate of those desperate Conspirators, whose unnatural Depravity has justly drawn upon them the Vengeance of the insulted Law, may tend to check effectually the pernicious Principles which have so long disturbed the Repose of the World; and wherever they have prevailed, have been marked with Anarchy and Wretchedness.

That your Majesty's Reign may continue long and prosperous, uninterrupted by the Machinations of internal Enemies, and secure against the Assaults of foreign Foes; and that the Sceptre of the United Kingdom may be transmitted through your Majesty's illustrious Family, with undiminished Lulre, to latest Posterity, is our fervent Prayer, as it is, no Doubt, the ardent Wish of all your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects throughout the British Empire.

Samson Jervois, Provost.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of Montrose.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of the Burgh of Montrose, in Council assembled, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the most sincere Congratulations on your fortunate Escape from the late traitorous Designs against your Majesty's Royal Person.

Impressed with the warmest Attachment to the present happy Constitution, we cannot view but with Abhorrence the Attempts of disaffected or misguided Men to disturb the Tranquillity and Happiness of the Kingdom. While we consider the Stability of the Government as depending in a great Measure upon the Security of your Majesty's Royal Person, we reflect upon the Discovery of the late treasonable Conspiracy with Gratitude to Providence for its seasonable Interposition to protect your Majesty, and to prolong the many Blessings we enjoy under your mild and equitable Reign.

Signed and sealed by our Appointment this Seventeenth Day of March, in the Year One thousand eight hundred and three.

James Lyall, Provost.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of your ancient Burgh of Air, in Council assembled, most humbly beg Leave to offer your Majesty our warmest Congratulations upon the providential Escape which your Majesty has made from the late atrocious Attempt formed against your Majesty's sacred Person and Family, and Conspiracy against your Government.

On a retrospective View of the Whole of your august and auspicious Reign, our Hearts overflow with Gratitude in contemplating the Goodness or Divine Providence in watching over a Life so valuable to this Nation, and protecting it alike from the Hands of foreign Enemies, and the secret Machinations of domestic Foes.

That your Majesty may long be preserved to diffuse through every Corner of your United Kingdom the Blessings we have so long and so happily enjoyed (the Envy and the Admiration of the World) under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, is our anxious and fervent Prayer.

Signed in our Name and by our Appointment this Thirtieth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three George Charles, Provost.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Parish of Halifax, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our sincerest Congratulations on the providential Delivery of your sacred Person from a treasonable and most barbarous Conspiracy.

We lament that, after the many dreadful Effects of revolutionary Syllens, so severely experienced in other Kingdoms, there should still be found in this happy Empire of Great Britain the Aiders and Abettors of such wild and wicked Infatuation, endeavouring by Plots and Contrivances too horrible to be defined, to deprive our highly-favoured Country of its inestimable Government, and to involve us and our Families in one undistinguished Scene of Blood, Slaughter, and Desolation.

Yet we, with the Rest of your Majesty's liege Subjects, are thankful for the Blessings which we enjoy under an excellent Sovereign, and an excellent Constitution; and feeling, as we do, the Benefits of a Government active, vigilant, and upright, and of Laws sound, just, and merciful, equally protecting and restraining the lowest and the highest Individual; it is our earnest Prayer that your Majesty may long sway the Imperial Sceptre of these Realms with undiminished Happiness to yourself, and with all the Comforts of real and substantial Liberty to your faithful Subjects.

Signed by Order of the Meeting,

H. W. Coulthurst, D. D. Chairman.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Town and Parish of Portsea.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town and Parish of Portsea, humbly approach your Royal Presence with our heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the late traitorous Conspiracy against your sacred Person.

Sensible how intimately our Happiness is connected with your Majesty's Dignity and personal Safety, we cannot see any Attempt against your Royal Person without feeling the utmost Abhorrence.

With these Sentiments, therefore, we devoutly pray, that the Almighty will long preserve a Life so deservedly dear to us, that we may further continue to feel the Mildness of your Majesty's Government.

At the same Time we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we are ever ready with our Lives and Fortunes to protect your Royal Person, Crown, and Dignity; and to support and maintain the Succession of your Majesty's illustrious House on the Throne of these Realms in the full Exercise of those Powers which the Wisdom of our Ancestors established, and made one of the great Outlines of our glorious Constitution,—a Constitution which we are convinced by Experience it is equally your Majesty's Wish to preserve unimpaired.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble and unanimous Address of the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty of the Town of Folkestone, in Common-Hall assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty of the Town of Folkestone, deeply impressed by a due Sense of the Divine Goodness to us and to all your faithful Subjects, displayed in its Protection of your Majesty's most sacred Person from the recent wicked and traitorous Conspiracy, humbly presume to offer our Expressions of unfeigned Abhorrence and Detestation of a Design equally and desperately criminal in its Means and in its End.

We trust that the awful Sentence of the Law, under which its depraved Contrivers have suffered, together with the Duty and Loyalty of an affectionate and united Nation, will effectually deter others from engaging in such guilty Courses, by proving to them that their Attempts are not only criminal but impracticable, and can only recoil in Ruin on themselves, instead of reaching a Sovereign enthroned in the Hearts of his People; and a Constitution revered by them as their patrimonial Inheritance of Liberty, and farther endeared by having enabled them, as a firm and tried Anchor, to ride in Safety through the Storms in which so great a Part of Europe has been shipwrecked.

We beg to assure your Majesty that it is no less our Wish than we conceive it to be our Duty, to exert our utmost Vigilance in the Prevention and Detection of any treasonable or seditious Designs against your Majesty's Person, or the Constitution of the Country, being convinced that all we hold dear, our Liberties, our Properties, and Lives depend on their Preservation.

Given under our Common-Seal this Twenty fifth Day of March. in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Shrewsbury, humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our fervent Congratulations on the timely Discovery and Defeat of the late treasonable Designs against your Majesty's Person and Government.

Attached to your Majesty by the strongest Ties of Affection and Respect, and by a lively Sense of the Blessings enjoyed under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, we are unable to express, in Terms adequate to our Feelings, the Indignation and Horror excited by those Machinations, so wickedly conceived and so deliberately planned for the Purpose of destroying your Majesty's sacred Life, and introducing into our happy Country a wild Scene of Anarchy, Bloodshed, and Confusion.

We entertain too just a Value for the Benefits derived from our venerable and excellent Constitution, and for that Establishment of wise, equal, and salutary Laws by which we are governed, not to feel in its full Force the intimate Connection that subsists between the Safety of your Majesty's Person, and the Preservation of all those Interests on which the Prosperity of our Empire, and the Enjoyment of our internal Peace and Felicity, so essentially depend.

Deeply impressed with these Sentiments, while we gratefully acknowledge the signal Protection vouchsafed to your Majesty by Divine Providence, and the vigilant Exertions of your Majesty's Ministers in detecting and bringing to Light this foul Conspiracy, our Minds rest in full Assurance that the same unremitting Watchfulness, supported by the vigorous Attachment of your Majesty's loyal Subjects throughout the Kingdom, will effectually shield your Majesty's Person and Government against all Attempts, whether of secret or open Enemies, and maintain unimpaired that System of genuine Liberty, Security, and Happiness by which we are distinguished above all other Nations upon Earth.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty, and other principal Inhabitants of the ancient Town and Port of Rye.

WE, your Majesty's most humble and dutiful Subjects, beg Leave, with the highest Respect, to approach your Royal Person with our united Address of Congratulation on your late happy Escape from the most traitorous Designs of wicked and desperate Men.

We reflect with Horror, that such a Degree of Vice and Malignity should have existed in the human Mind, but with Admiration on the Constitutional Mildness and Clemency of the Laws by which these base Offenders have been convicted.

Your Majesty's Mercy and Goodness so conspicuously shewn in permitting that Part of the Sentence of the Law to be executed which was indispensable with common Justice, claims our Esteem and Admiration.

By your Majesty's great Example we are taught to place our Confidence on the Supreme Being, the Guardian of Virtue who, in his infinite Mercy, has so frequently turned aside those Hands that would have taken away your Majesty's Life, in the Hope, that consequent Confusion might aid their further traitorous Maclinations for the Ruin of our Country.

For this most providential Interposition we offer up our Thanksgivings to Heaven with our fervent Prayers, that its omniscient and all-powerful Protection may be continued to your Majesty and to every Branch of your Royal House; and permit us humbly to assure your Majesty of our most dutiful and faithful Attachment, Respect, and Regard for your Royal Person and Government.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Town of Ludlow, in the County of Salop.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Town of Ludlow, humbly approach your Majesty with our cordial Congratulations on the timely Detection of the late treasonable and traitorous Designs against your sacred Person, and the Constitution of this Realm.

We are impressed with a due Sense of this fresh Mark of the Continuation of the Divine Favor; we thankfully acknowledge God's Goodness in setting over and preserving to us a Prince, endowed with such affectionate Sentiments of Government and just Principles of Religion; a Prince, by a virtuous and holy Life commanding our Veneration, as Christians; by Moderation, Justice, and Equity, our Allegiance, as Subjects.

We observe, with no ordinary Degree of Pleasure, the heartfelt Joy, which, on Occasion of your Majesty's Safety in this, as in former Instances, pervades all Ranks of Men in your Dominions; we pray ardently that these Kingdoms may long enjoy the various Blessings which, under your Majesty's mild and equitable Government are bestowed on them; that your Majesty may live long in perfect Health, in the Exercise of all those amiable Dispositions and laudable Acts which constitute a patriot King. And we are unanimous and earnest in our Wish, that when it shall please the Divine Being to call your Majesty, full of Years, and rich in good Works, unto himself, a Prince of your august House may, to the latest Posterity, sit upon your Throne, and, copying after your good Example, reign in the Hearts of a free, loyal, and united People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Ship Owners, Merchants, and Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Sunderland and its Neighbourhood.

May it please your Majesty,

TO accept the sincere Congratulations of your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Ship Owners, Merchants, and Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Sunderland and its Neighbourhood, upon your Majesty's providential Preservation from the late treasonable Conspiracy. With Gratitude we adore the Goodness of God so signally manifested to this Kingdom in the Discovery and Defeat of the dark Designs of the atrocious Traitors. Happy in the Security and Freedom we experience under your Majesty's paternal Reign, we view with Abhorrence every Attempt of factious Men to propagate Opinions tending to disturb the Tranquillity of your Majesty's Dominions, and to subvert our excellent Constitution, the Admiration of surrounding Nations. It is our Determination to resist all such Attempts, and to recommend, both by our Influence and Example, Respect to the Laws, and Submission to public Authority.

Firmly attached to your Majesty's Person and Family, we humbly approach the Throne, offering with unfeigned Loyalty, our utmost Endeavours to co-operate with your Majesty's unvarying Sollicitude for the Welfare of your People. We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we will, at this momentous Crisis, heartily concur with the Executive Government in such Measures as may be necessary for the Support of the Dignity of the Crown, and for the Security and Independence of the United Kingdom; and as our best Security, under Divine Providence, for the uninterrupted Possession of the invaluable Blessings Englishmen enjoy, we fervently unite in praying to the Supreme Being, that your Majesty may long wear the Crown which your Virtues, public and private, so exemplarily adorn, and continue to reign in the Hearts of an affectionate and loyal People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Members of the Freemen and Gentlemen's Society of the City of Durham.

Most gracious and august Sire,

WE, your most dutiful and loyal Subjects, impressed with a strong Sense of the inestimable Blessings daily showered upon us by the Almighty through the Dispensation of your Majesty's paternal Care; and of that Almighty's dispensing Providence, by whose wonderful Workings the whole Nation is filled with Joy for your happy Deliverance from the Hand of the Assassin, and from the Snares of the Wicked, beg Leave to approach your Throne in the Fulness of mingled Joy and Gratitude; at the same Time we feel ourselves utterly unable, by the Power of Language, to express our Feelings of Joy upon the eventful Occasion which threatened the Life of your Majesty, and the Subversion of our happy Constitution: And it is with equal Zeal we present ourselves before your Majesty with loyal Assurance, that, should the present Negotiations carrying on between this Country and France be ultimately unavailing, and War should in Consequence ensue, that we will with our Lives, and every Thing we possess, most cheerfully come forward in Support of your Majesty's Person and Government, being well assured that upon the Existence of the one, and the Preservation of the other, depend every earthly Blessing we enjoy or can hope to enjoy in this World.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common-Council of Newcastle-upon-Tyne.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common-Council of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave to offer our most sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Deliverance from the late meditated Assassination of cruel and desperate Traitors. The timely Discovery of this most detestable Conspiracy, which had for its avowed Object the Subversion of the State, to be effected by an immediate Attack upon your Majesty's Royal Person, impresses our Minds with the deepest Gratitude to Divine Providence for the gracious Preservation of a Life so dear to us all, and so intimately connected with the Welfare of this United Kingdom. We most earnestly hope and trust that the Vigilance of your Majesty's Ministers, and the zealous Attachment of the People in general to your Majesty's Person and Government, will at all Times be found active to detect the Projects of those who shall attempt to raise the Banners of Treason and Infidelity upon the Ruin of the civil and religious Constitution of our Country: And we humbly assure your Majesty that we will make it our constant Care to watch over and to defend to the utmost of our Power those invaluable Blessings, which this Nation hath so long enjoyed under the mild and excellent Government of your Majesty's illustrious Family, and by which it has hitherto been enabled to defy the Malice, and confound the Devices, of all its Enemies.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects, the Master, Wardens, Assistants, and Brethren of the Corporation of the Master Pilots and Seamen of the Trinity-House in Newcastle-upon-Tyne, beg Leave humbly to approach the Throne with sincere and affectionate Congratulations on the happy Discovery and Disappointment of a late wicked and atrocious Conspiracy against the Life of your sacred Majesty, and for the Subversion of our mild and equitable Laws, and inestimable Constitution.

Blessed, as we are, in the benign and auspicious Government of your Majesty, and experiencing the Happiness, Safety, and Content arising from the present political Establishment in this Realm, we are heartily thankful to the Almighty Ruler of the Universe for the Preservation of your sacred Person, by the well-timed Detection of this and all such malignant and infernal Designs against your Majesty's Life and Reign. And we hope the Examples of just Punishment inflicted on the Contrivers, Instigators, and Abettors of the late intended Mischief to your Majesty and this Kingdom, and the particular Protection of Divine Providence exemplified in this Instance, will for ever deter, or as fortunately avert, others from conspiring against, or accomplishing any Interruption to, the Peace and Security of your Majesty's Life and Government, or the Welfare of the Royal Family.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of St. Patrick, Dublin, beg Leave to offer our most sincere Congratulations on your Preservation from the late daring Conspiracy formed against your sacred Life, and the Constitution of this Realm.

Convinced that the Tranquillity, the Properties, the Liberties, religious and civil, and the general Happiness of the People, are all inseparably connected with the Preservation of your Majesty's Life, and the Stability of the Monarchy, we gratefully acknowledge the timely Detection of that atrocious Design as an additional Instance and Proof of the Protection vouchsafed by a good Providence to the People of this United Kingdom.

These Sentiments are as strongly impressed on our Hearts as on those of your Majesty's Subjects who have the Happiness of being placed nearer to your sacred Person; and we fail not to join with them in fervent Prayer to the King of Kings for the long Continuance of a Life so justly dear to all your Subjects.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Chancellor, Rector, Principal, and Professors of the University and King's College of Aberdeen.

MAY it please your Majesty graciously to accept the heartfelt Congratulations of your Majesty's ever dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Rector, Principal, and Professors of the University and King's College of Aberdeen, on the Detection of an atrocious Conspiracy against your Majesty's Person, and the Constitution of this Country.

Filled with Indignation and Horror, that, in a Nation like Britain, blessed with a Government free and lenient beyond any other on Earth, there should have been found Men capable of so daring and flagitious an Attempt. We are at the same Time deeply impressed with Gratitude to the Supreme Disposer of all Events, that their infamous Endeavours have been frustrated.

It shall be our constant Study to instil into the rising Generation, along with a Love of Learning, the congenial Love of social Order, and those Principles of well-regulated Freedom, which have made the British Constitution the Envy of all other Nations.

That a gracious Providence may continue to watch over your sacred Person, and that, under the Protection of the Almighty, your Majesty may be long preserved as the Guardian of our happy Constitution, and a Pattern of Virtue to a free, grateful, and loyal People, are our sincere and fervent Prayers.

The Address and Congratulation of the Chancellor, Rector, Principal, and Professors of the Marischal College and University at Aberdeen.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Rector, Principal, and Professors of the Marischal College and University at Aberdeen, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the most profound Respect, and the strongest Sentiments of Attachment, Affection, and Fidelity to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government; and to present to your Majesty our warmest and heartfelt Congratulations on the Discovery and Prevention of the late atrocious Conspiracy against our happy Constitution, and even against the Life of a Sovereign so justly dear to all his People.

We join with our Fellow-Subjects in expressing our strongest Horror of this Treason, and in offering up to the Supreme Disposer of all Events our sincerest Thanks for that gracious Providence, which, on this recent and on preceding Occasions, has interposed to avert the Danger which threatened your Majesty's sacred Person, and to frustrate the wicked Design against that excellent Form of Government under which your Majesty's Subjects have the Happiness to live.

We most fervently implore the Almighty Governor of the World, who has hitherto extended to your Majesty his protecting Arm, to continue to defend your sacred Person, and your Royal House, against all secret and open Machinations; to shed down on your Majesty, your Family, and your Government, his most precious Blessings; to maintain inviolate, to the latest Posterity, our happy Constitution; and constantly to render your Reign quiet and prosperous, signally glorious to yourself, and universally beneficent to your People; these are the earnest Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, Auckland, Chancellor.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects, the Protestant Dissenting Ministers in and about the Cities of London and Westminster, approach your Royal Presence, to express our utter Abhorrence of the late wicked and traitorous Conspiracy formed against your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government; and to offer our most cordial Congratulations on its providential Detection and Overthrow.

May the awful Punishment, which was deservedly inflicted upon its Authors, together with a just Sense of your Majesty's distinguished Virtues, and of the invaluable Privileges which we and our Fellow-Subjects have so long enjoyed, contribute to the Stability of your Majesty's Throne, and to the future Quiet of the Empire.

Permit us, on this Occasion, to renew our Assurances of affectionate Regard to your illustrious House, and our unalterable Attachment to the venerable and excellent Constitution of our Country.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that it will be our zealous Endeavour, so far as the Influence of our Exhortations and Example may extend, to promote a solicitous Attention to the Safety of your Majesty's Person, a cheerful Submission to legal Authority, and an ardent Concern for the general Interests of Virtue and Religion.

Animated with the purest Sentiments of Loyalty and Attachment, we commend your Majesty to the continued Protection and Favour of Providence, earnestly praying that you may yet, for many Years, wield the Sceptre over a free, united, and flourishing People; and that when, at length, by Divine Appointment, you lay aside an earthly Crown, you may receive from the King of Kings, that Crown of Glory which fadeth not away.

[Presented by the Reverend Mr. Palmer, accompanied by Dr. Rees, Dr. Rippon, and Sixteen other Ministers.]

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:

I Thank you for this fresh Instance of your Attachment to My Person and Government. The providential Deliverance which has been afforded to Me and My People from a most desperate and wicked Design to destroy our free and happy Constitution, cannot fail to animate our united Exertions in its Support, and to strengthen our Determination to transmit so great and invaluable a Blessing unimpaired to our Posterity.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Common-Council of the Burgh of Dumfries, in Common-Council assembled, humbly approach the Throne, offering our sincere Congratulations for the timely Discovery and Defeat of the late traitorous Conspiracy formed against your Royal Person and Government.

Convinced, as we are, of the Happiness we enjoy, as well as of the Happiness and Security enjoyed throughout the Whole of the United Kingdom under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, we are unable, in Terms adequate to our Feelings, to express our Detestation of Designs so wickedly planned for the Destruction of your august Person, and of every Thing dear to your affectionate Subjects. We beg Leave, however, to assure your Majesty of our sincere and firm Attachment to your Person, Family, and Government; of our Determination to support and defend them; and of our Gratitude to Almighty God for protecting from the Blow of the Traitors a gracious Sovereign, whose Life is so essential to the Welfare and Prosperity of this Empire at large: And we pray your Majesty may be long preserved to wield the Sceptre over a free, a loyal, and a happy People.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, in Council assembled, at Dumfries, this Eighth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three. Gabriel Richardson, Provost.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Bideford, in the County of Devon, humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our most cordial Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Escape from the late treasonable Conspiracy.

We are thankful to the Almighty, and consider ourselves as highly favoured by Providence, for having defeated the Attempts of wicked and ill-designing Persons intended against your Majesty's sacred Life, and to overthrow the envied Constitution of this Kingdom.

Sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, we will upon all Occasions be ready to exert our utmost Endeavours in Defence of our excellent Constitution, and your Majesty's most sacred Person, against the Attempts of all foreign and domestic Enemies.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Montgomery, beg Leave most humbly to congratulate your Majesty upon the Failure of the late traitorous and detestable Conspiracy, a Conspiracy of which the Malignity and Wickedness are scarcely to be paralleled in History.

The Virtues by which your Majesty, through the Course of a long and auspicious Reign, has adorned and upheld the ancient and inestimable Constitution of your Kingdom, have made your Person the general Object of Attack from every Enemy of the Peace, Happiness, and Independence of this Country.

The same Conduct, however, which has exposed your Majesty to the Hostility of every Traitor, has doubly endeared you to the Hearts of your Subjects; and in Addition to the natural Feelings of Loyalty and Duty, has excited those of Affection, Gratitude, and Veneration.

Permit us further to reiterate to your Majesty those Assurances which, even in the Moment of Peace, we thought it our indispensable Duty to offer, that, should the restless and inordinate Ambition of our late Enemy induce him to persist in any Encroachment upon the Honor, the Independence, or just Rights of your Majesty's United Kingdom, we will be neither lulled by Artifice, nor intimidated by Power, from supporting your Majesty in repelling every Attack with the same Zeal, Energy, and Constancy which were so eminently displayed by your Majesty's Subjects in the Course of the late just and necessary War; and that there are no Sacrifices, however painful, which may be necessary for that Purpose, to which we shall not look forward with Firmness and Alacrity.

John Winder, High Sheriff for the County.

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, in pursuance of the Powers vested in His Majesty, by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to continue, until the First Day of January

" One thousand eight hundred and four, several Laws relating to the prohibiting the Exportation and permitting the Importation of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision without Payment of Duty; to the Relief of Captors of Prizes, with respect to the bringing and landing certain Prize Goods in this Kingdom; and to the regulating the Trade and Commerce to and from the Isle of Malta;" His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council, bearing Date the Thirty-first of December last, to order, and it was thereby ordered, That the Prohibition laid, by Order of His Majesty in Council, bearing Date the Twelfth Day of December One thousand eight Hundred and one, upon the Exportation from any Port or Place in Great Britain of any Wheat, Rye, Barley, Beer or Bigg, Pease, Beans, Oats, or any Meal or Flour, or Bread, Biscuit, or Malt made thereof, or of any Indian Corn or Maize, or Meal or Flour made thereof; and also the Liberty, granted by the said Order in Council, bearing Date the Twelfth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and one, to import and take out of Warehouse Foreign Corn and other Articles as aforesaid, and likewise to import sundry other Articles of Provision Duty free, should be further continued until the Thirty-first Day of this instant March inclusive, save and except the Importation, Duty free, of the Articles of Rice and Malt; and save and except, as it was declared by the said Order, that nothing therein contained was intended to extend, or should be construed to extend, to affect or apply to any Exportation of Seed Corn from Great Britain to Ireland, or any Importation of Malt from Ireland to Great Britain, in the Manner authorized by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled " An Act for continuing, until the First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and thirce, an Act made in the Forty-second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for regulating, until the Fifteenth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and three, the Prices at which Grain, Meal, and Flour may be exported from Great Britain to Ireland, and from Ireland to Great Britain; and for permitting, from and after the passing thereof, until the said First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and thirce, the Exportation of Seed Corn from Great Britain to Ireland, and the Importation of Malt into Great Britain from Ireland:"

And whereas it is judged expedient that the said Prohibition to export, and the said Permission to import, should be continued for some Time longer, His Majesty, therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance of the Powers given by the First of the above-recited Acts, passed in the present Session of Parliament, hath thought fit to order, and it is hereby ordered, That the said Order in Council, bearing Date the Thirty-first of December last, and all the Exceptions, Provisoos, Rules Regulations, and Restrictions, specified and enforced by the said Order, respecting such Exportation and Importation, and taking out of Warehouse, shall be, and continue in Force until the Thirtieth Day of April next inclusive, in the same Manner as the same are now in Force by the said Order, bearing Date the 31st Day of December last.

W. Fawcener.

WHEREAS, in pursuance of the Powers vested in His Majesty by an Act, passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled " An Act to continue, until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and four, several Laws relating to the prohibiting the Exportation and permitting the Importation of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision without Payment of Duty; to the Relief of Captors of Prizes, with respect to the bringing and landing certain Prize Goods in this Kingdom; and to the regulating the Trade and Commerce to and from the Isle of Malta;" His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance of the Powers given by the said Act, was pleased, by His Order in Council, bearing Date the Thirty-first of December last, to order, That, from the First Day of January then next, until the Thirty-first Day of this instant March, no Person or Persons whatsoever should export, or should load or lay on board any Ship or Vessel, with the Intent to export from any Port or Place of Great Britain any of the following Articles, viz. Bulls, Cows, Oxen, Calves, Sheep, Lambs, Swine, Beef, Pork, Mutton, Veal, Lamb, whether salted or otherwise, or any Bacon, Butter, Onions, or Pulse of any Sort, or any Barley hulled, or Pearl Barley, unless Proof shall first be given to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs that the Articles so to be exported as aforesaid were not of British Growth, Produce, or Manufacture; But it was His Majesty's Pleasure nevertheless, that nothing contained in the said Order should extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent the Exportation or carrying out of such and so much of any of the said Articles as should be necessary to be carried in any Ship or Vessel, on its Voyage out and Home, for the Sustenance, Diet, and Support of the Commander, Master, Mariners, Passengers, and others on board such Ship or Vessel, or for the Use and Sustenance of the Cattle, Live Stock, or other Animals on board such Ship or Vessel; or for the necessary victualling or providing any of His Majesty's Ships of War, or other Ships and Vessels in His Majesty's Service; or for the necessary victualling or providing any of His Majesty's Forces, Forts, or Garrisons; nor to prohibit, at any Time, the Exportation of such and so much of any of the said Articles as might be necessary for the Supply of the British Forts, Castles, or Factories in Africa, or of British Ships trading upon that Coast, which have usually been supplied with the same from Great Britain; nor to prohibit the Exportation by the East India Company, or any Agent employed by them, of any of the said Articles for the necessary Supply of their Garrisons at St. Helena, Bombay, and Bencoolen, or for the necessary Use of the Ships belonging to the said Company; nor to prohibit the Exportation of any of the said Articles to the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man; or to any of His Majesty's Colonies, Islands, or Plantations in America or the West Indies; or to the Town or Port of Gibraltar, for the necessary Use of the Inhabitants of the same respectively: Provided that the Merchant Exporter, in each Case, should first make Oath of the true Destination of the same to the Places for which they were entered Outwards before the Entry of the same should be made, and should give full and sufficient Security, by Bond, in treble the Value of the said Articles, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said Articles to the Places for which they were so entered out, and for the Purposes specified and none other; such Bond not to be cancelled or delivered up until Proof should be made to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the Production, within a Time to be fixed by the said Commissioners, and specified in the Bond, of a Certificate or Certificates, in such Form and Manner as should be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said Articles had been all duly landed at the Places for which they were so entered Outwards:

And whereas it is judged expedient that the said Order should continue in Force for some Time longer, His Majesty doth, therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, and pursuant to the Powers given by the above recited Act, passed in the present Session of Parliament, order, and it is hereby ordered, That from and after the Thirty-first Day of this instant March, and until the Thirtieth Day of June next, no Person or Persons whatsoever shall export, or shall load, or lay on board any Ship or Vessel, with Intent to export from any Port or Place of Great Britain, any Bulls, Cows, Oxen, Calves, Sheep, Lambs, Swine, Beef, Pork, Mutton, Veal, Lamb, whether salted or otherwise, or any Bacon, Butter, Onions, or Pulse of any Sort, or any Barley hulled, or Pearl Barley, save and except the Exceptions contained in His Majesty's said Order in Council, bearing Date the Thirty-first of December last, allowing the Exportation of the several Articles mentioned, for the Purposes mentioned in the said Order, under the Provisos, Rules, and Regulations therein contained:

And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

W. Fawkenor.

Westminster, April 7, 1803.

THIS Day the Lords being met, a Message was sent to the Honorable House of Commons by Sir Francis Molyneux, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorized by virtue of His Majesty's Commission for declaring His Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate Attendance of this Honorable House in the House of Peers to bear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to Barrack-Office, March 30, 1803.

Notice is hereby given to all Persons willing to supply Candles for the Troops stationed, or to be stationed in the Barracks in Great Britain, and the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, and Alderney, for Twelve Months, to commence on the 25th June 1803, that separate Proposals for the same, in Writing, sealed up, will be received by the Barrack-Master-General, on or before the 1st of May next.

The Terms of the Contract may be known upon Application at this Office, any Day, (Sunday excepted,) between the Hours of Twelve and Three, or to the Barrack-Masters at each of the several Barracks.

The Proposals must specify the Prices per Dozen Pounds, distinguishing the Moulds from the Dips, and be separate for each Barrack, and the Prices must be specified in Words at length, and not in Figures; they are also to be in Conformity to the Terms of the Contract, or they will not be attended to.

Stamps to be paid for by the Contractor.

Adequate Security will be required for the due Performance of each Contract, and the Names of Two Persons, as Sureties for the same, with Referees, are to be given in with the Proposals.

Office of Ordnance, April 5, 1803.

THE Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give Notice, that they will be ready at their Office, in St. Margaret-Street, Westminster, on Thursday the 21st Day of this instant April, to receive Proposals from such Persons as may be willing to undertake the Supply of Harnes, Saddlery, and Collar-

Maker's Articles for the Service of this Department, upon a Contract for Three Years, conformable to Patterns and Specimens of the different Articles, which may be inspected at the Tower, upon Application to the Chief Clerk, under the Principal Storekeeper of the Ordnance; and at Woolwich, upon Application to the respective Officers of the Ordnance there, at both which Places printed Terms and Conditions of the Contract, and Schedules of the Articles to be furnished under such Contract, may be received by Persons applying for the same.

The Proposals to be delivered at the Secretary's Office, in St. Margaret-Street, Westminster, sealed up, and marked on the Outside, "Proposals for the Supply of Harnes, &c." on or before the said 21st Day of April instant, after which Day no Proposals will be admitted.

By Order of the Board,

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Dublin, (convened by the High Sheriff,) beg Leave to approach your Majesty with most heartfelt Congratulations on the providential Discovery of the late traitorous Conspiracy against your Majesty's Royal Person, and the happy Constitution of the United Kingdom. Permit us to add our Assurances, that to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government our Attachment remains firm and invariable; and that it is our earnest Prayer, that the same Providence that has hitherto shielded your sacred Person, and preserved our happy Constitution and Laws, may continue thus to bless and unite this Kingdom to the latest Posterity.

Hans Hamilton, Sheriff of the County of Dublin.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The Address of the Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Monaghan, at Lent Assizes, March 28, 1803.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Monaghan; beg Leave, with Sentiments alive to the most ardent Feelings of Loyalty, Attachment, and Zeal, to approach your Throne, and to entreat Permission, to mingle our most heartfelt Congratulations at the Overthrow of the late Machinations of Treason and Sedition, which, however wild in Theory, have nevertheless been averted by that Divine Providence which appears at all Times the vigilant Guardian of the best of Kings, whose benificent Reign over a grateful People, we pray may long continue to be happy and prosperous.

John Johnston, Sheriff.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Principal and Professors of the University of Edinburgh, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majesty's Throne, and to present, with profound Respect, our unanimous and warm Congratulations on the Detection and Defeat of a late nefarious and desperate Conspiracy formed against your Majesty's sacred Life, and against the British Constitution as by Law established.

Deeply impressed with Affection for a Sovereign who guards with paternal Solicitude the Rights, the Liberties, and the Happiness of his People, and inspired with Veneration for our invaluable Constitution, we reflect on this traitorous Attempt with Indignation and Horror; and we pledge to your Majesty invariable Perseverance in our Efforts to inculcate, both by our Instructions and Example, on the Minds of the Youth under our Care those Principles of Loyalty and Patriotism which may produce in them stedfast Allegiance to your Majesty's Person and Government; and may, by the Providence of God, contribute to promote and maintain all those public Blessings which have, under your Majesty's auspicious Reign, so conspicuously distinguished the British Empire.

Signed in Name and by Appointment of the Senatus Academicus.

George Baird, Principal.
College of Edinburgh, March 29, 1803.

[Transmitted by the Lord Advocate of Scotland, and presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

St. James's, April 15, 1803.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The dutiful and loyal Address of the Grand Jury, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Brecon, assembled in their Shire-Hall, at Brecon, this first Day of April One thousand eight hundred and three.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Grand Jury, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of your County of Brecon, with grateful Hearts for the many Blessings which we, in common with our Fellow Subjects of the United Kingdom have so long enjoyed under your Majesty's paternal Government, presume humbly to approach the Throne.

Permit us, Sire, in the unadorned Language of Sincerity and Truth, to express our firm Attachment to your Royal Person and Family, and to the excellent Constitution established in these Realms.

Accept our warmest Congratulations upon the providential Discovery of that malignant and atrocious Conspiracy which has dared to raise its bloody Arm against your sacred Life, and threatened to deprive the Nation of its best and dearest Support.

Ever may Treason be thus detected and defeated.

Long may the Divine Providence continue to your People the Blessings of to good a Government, and so good a King; and may the House of Hanover never fail to supply a just and worthy Successor to fill that Throne which we now see so happily filled by your Majesty.

Signed at the Request of the Meeting,

Edward Kendall, Sheriff.

[Presented by His Grace the Duke of Beaufort, Lord Lieutenant, and the Right Honorable Sir Charles Morgan, Bart. Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Kilkenny, beg Leave to approach your Majesty, with Sentiments of the most inviolable Affection and Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Family; and to express, in common with your Majesty's loyal Subjects of this Part of the United Kingdom, our utter Detestation and Abhorrence of the late traitorous Conspiracy formed against your sacred Person, and Royal House.

However mad the Design, pitiful the Characters concerned, and impracticable the atrocious Purpose, yet we cannot but feel grateful to that Providential Power which interposed in rescuing from their wicked Designs, a Life so justly dear to, and so essentially connected with the Interest and Happiness of every Description of your Majesty's faithful Subjects.

At this important Crisis, when our Country and Constitution seem to be menaced by foreign Foes, we feel ourselves called upon to assure your Majesty of our most firm Determination and decided Resolution, to support, at the Hazard of all that we hold dear, your Majesty's sacred Life, our glorious Constitution, and the Dignity and Independence of the British Empire, against all Attacks of foreign or domestic Foes.

Will. Bayly, Sheriff.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Bailiff, Recorder, Aldermen, Common-Council, Town Clerk, and Burgeses of the Borough of Brecon.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff, Recorder, Aldermen, Common-Council, Town Clerk, and Burgeses of the Borough of Brecon, beg Leave to offer our unfeigned and heartfelt Congratulations on the Detection and Defeat of the late daring and atrocious Conspiracy against your Majesty's most sacred Person, and of the treasonable Attempts of evil-minded Persons against the Existence of that envied Constitution, and of that mild and equitable Government which your Majesty's paternal Care, under Divine Providence, has so effectually secured.

May your Majesty long continue to reign over a loyal and united People conscious of the Blessings they enjoy, and by their grateful Acknowledgements meriting a Continuance of them.

In Testimony whereof we have caused our Common Seal to be affixed hereto, this Second Day of April One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by Charles Morgan, Esq; Bailiff of the said Town and Borough, and the Right Honorable Sir Charles Morgan, Bart. Representative in Parliament for the County of Brecon]

Preston, April 16, 1803.

THE First and Second Cousins of Ann Calland, late of Preston, in the County of Lancaster, Widow, deceased, both on the Part of her Father and Mother, are requested to send in their Names and Additions, and state how such Relationship arises to Messrs. Blanchard and Carr, of Preston, on or before the 1st Day of May next, in order that they may receive their respective Shares of the Purchase-Money arising from the Sale of the Real Estate late of the said Ann Calland.

THIS is to give Notice, that the Dividend of the Estate and Effects of Thomas Rudderforth, of St. Paul's Church-Yard, in the City of London, Stay-Maker, Dealer and Chapman, advertised to be made on the 25th of April instant, at Guildhall, London, is postponed until further Notice.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery made in a Cause Lovegrove versus Smith, the Creditors of Rowland Fuller, of Bromley, in the County of Middlesex, Distiller, deceased, are, personally or by their Solicitors, to come in and prove their Debts before Sir William Weller Pepys, Baronet, one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on or before the 30th Day of May next, or in Default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the Benefit of the said Decree.

THE Creditors of Robert Arthur, late Purser of the Ship Phoenix, in the Service of the Honorable United East India Company, deceased, who have not executed an Indenture of Assignment, bearing Date the 8th Day of April 1790, whereby the said Robert Arthur assigned over all his Effects to Trustees, for the Benefit of his Creditors, are requested to call at the Counting-House of Messrs. Wilkinsons, Crosthwaite and Co. of Fenchurch-Street, London, Wine-Merchants, and execute the same, on or before the 1st Day of July next, as a Dividend is intended to be then made of his Effects amongst such of his Creditors as shall have executed the said Indenture of Assignment.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Jacob Ainsley, of the Town and County of the Town of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, Woollen-Draper, are desired to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's Estate and Effects, on Tuesday the 10th of May next, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Shakespear Tavern, in Newcastle-upon-Tyne, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any Suit or Suits at Law or in Equity, for Recovery of any Part of the said Bankrupt's Estate and Effects; or to the compounding, submitting to Arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any Matter or Thing relating thereto; and on other special Affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued against Benjamin Mellows Hadden, of Clifford's-Inn, London, Scrivener, are desired to meet the Assignee of the said Bankrupt's Estate and Effects, on Saturday next, the 23d Day of April, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, at the Office of Mr. Robinson, No. 32, Charterhouse-Square, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee agreeing to the Delivery into the Possession of the said Bankrupt the several Deeds, Papers, and Writings now in the Custody of the Administrators to the late Assignee; and the authorising the said Bankrupt to make out the Bills due to the Estate, and to collect in the Debts; and as to the Bankrupt's being allowed a Commission out of the Monies to be collected; and on other special Affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Henry Arkinstall and Samuel George, of Burslem, in the County of Stafford, Potters, Dealers and Chapman, and Copartners, are desired to meet the Assignee of the Estate and Effects of the said Bankrupts, on Thursday the 28th of April instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, at the Shakespear Tavern, in Newcastle-under-Lyme, in the said County of Stafford, to take into Consideration and determine upon the several Matters following, namely: As to giving the said Assignee a discretionary Power to purchase Raw Materials, and carry on the Manufactory of Earthenware; for the Purpose of assorting the present Stock in Trade, and to dispose of such Stock, and the Utensils and Effects, late belonging to the said Bankrupts, by private Contract, and on Credit, and to accept Bills or Notes in Payment; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee accepting Terms of Composition offered on the Part of the principal Debtor to the said Bankrupt's Estate; and as to the Propriety of permitting such of the Creditors of the said Bankrupts, who hold Acceptances of the same Debtor, to take the Benefit of such Composition; also as to the Steps proper to be taken respecting the Copartnership Concern between the Bankrupts and William Arkinstall; and as to certain Payments appearing upon the Bankrupts' Examination to have been made by them to particular Creditors, in order to give them a Preference over the Creditors at large; and also as to the Measures to be pursued in respect to the other outstanding Debts due to the said Bankrupts' Estate; and as to giving the said Assignee a discretionary Power to settle, adjust, submit to Arbitration, give up, and compound for the same; and to employ some fit and proper Person or Persons under the said Assignee, as well in respect to the several Matters before-mentioned, as generally in the said Bankrupts' Affairs; and on other special Business.

Pursuant to an Order made by the Right Honorable John Lord Eldon, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, for Enlarging the Time for John Drayton, of Carshalton, in the County of Surrey, Victualler, Dealer and Chapman, (a Bankrupt,) to surrender himself and make a full Discovery and Disclosure of his Estate and Effects, for Forty-nine Days, to be computed from the 19th Day of April instant; This is to give Notice, that the Commissioners in the said Commission named and authorized, or the major Part of them, intend to meet on the 7th of June next, at Eleven in the Forenoon, at Guildhall, London, where the said Bankrupt is required to surrender himself between the Hours of Eleven and One of the same Day, and make a full Discovery and Disclosure of his Estate and Effects, and finish his Examination, and the Creditors, who have not already proved their Debts, may then and there come and prove the same, and assent to or dissent from the Allowance of his Certificate.

St. James's, April 20, 1803.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Inhabitants of the City of Kilkenny, duly for the Purpose convened by the Mayor.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Inhabitants of the City of Kilkenny, humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne with our most sincere Congratulations on the timely Discovery and Defeat of the late traitorous Designs against the Life of our beloved Sovereign. We acknowledge with the most unfeigned Gratitude, the signal Interposition of Divine Providence under which the Conspirators were timely arrested, and their Treasons most happily frustrated. And we sincerely hope that the Punishment so justly inflicted on the Traitors may secure our beloved Monarch from future Danger, and preserve to your Subjects the inestimable Blessings of our happy Constitution.

Deeply sensible of our Happiness under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Reign, and viewing with Abhorrence the Attempts of Domestic Traitors against your sacred Person, and with Indignation the insidious Machinations of foreign Powers against your Majesty's Dominions; we cheerfully offer our Lives and Fortunes in Support and Defence of our revered King and Constitution against the malignant Efforts of Domestic or foreign Enemies.

Done under the Common Seal of the City of Kilkenny, this Fourth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and three.

John Enery. Mayor.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Coventry.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Coventry, in Council assembled, beg Leave most humbly to congratulate your Majesty on the happy Failure of the late malignant and Traitorous Conspiracy against your Majesty's Person and Government.

We contemplate with Pride those Virtues which adorn your Majesty's Reign; and we admire that Firmness of Mind which has supported our inestimable Constitution; a Constitution which we love and adore, and which has hitherto secured Happiness and Independence to your Empire.

We consider every Design against your Majesty's Person as exciting from the Hearts of your loyal Subjects renewals of Affection, Gratitude, and Veneration; and we rejoice that the late Examples of wicked and misguided Traitors afford an awful Picture of the Inflexible Justice of the Country.

We most earnestly pray for a long Continuance of your Majesty's Reign over a free and loyal People.

In Testimony of the above we have caused our Common Seal to be hereto affixed, the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and three.

F. Perkins, Mayor.

[Presented by Captain Barlow, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said City, accompanied by Captain Stratton.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the City and County of the City of Coventry.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the City and County of the City of Coventry, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty, our most sincere and lively Congratulations on the timely Discovery and Defeat of the late traitorous Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government.

Attached as we are, to your Majesty, by Inclination as well as Duty, living as we do, in the Enjoyment of every Right, under your Majesty's benign Influence and our invaluable Constitution, we view with the utmost Abhorrence and Detestation the wicked Attempts that have been made to destroy our Government and our Happiness, and to introduce in their Place, Anarchy, and Revolution.

Whilst we pray, for a long Continuance of your Majesty's mild and prosperous Reign over a free and happy People, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that our Affection and Loyalty can only receive additional Strength from every Attempt that may be made against your Royal Person.

[Presented by the Earl of Warwick.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the City of Elgin.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Community of the City of Elgin, in Common-Council assembled, humbly offer to your Majesty our most sincere Congratulations on the late providential Discovery and Defeat of the horrid Plot and Conspiracy formed against your Majesty's sacred Person, and all the constituted Authorities of the Kingdom.

Feeling the Blessings we derive from your Majesty's guardian Care of our civil and religious Liberties, and of the Constitution so well calculated to secure them, and united by every Tie that can bind a grateful and affectionate People, we were deeply penetrated with Horror at the atrocious Plan, tending to overwhelm our dearest Interests, the Life of our most gracious Sovereign, and the Stability of our Constitution.

That your Majesty may long enjoy the Fruits of those domestic Virtues which you have cultivated with so much pious Care; that the bright Example of them may long and successfully operate on the Hearts and Conduct of your Majesty's grateful and affectionate Subjects; and that those princely Virtues which have raised to so exalted a Height the Power, Prosperity, and Renown of Great Britain, may long continue to display themselves triumphantly at the Head of a great Nation, and a glorious Constitution, in the Maintenance of true Religion, Liberty, and social Order, is, in the utmost Fervor of our Hearts, the Prayer we offer up for your Majesty to the Author of all Good.

Signed, in Presence of, and by Appointment of the Council,
Jos. King, Provost.

[Presented by Lieutenant-Colonel Grant, Representative in Parliament for the Boroughs of Elgin, Banff, &c.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Citizens of the City of Carlisle, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave to offer our most sincere Congratulations on the Detection of the late atrocious Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person and Authority.

While we express our Regret and Astonishment that any of your Majesty's Subjects could be guilty of harbouring treasonable Designs, we rejoice that those who have suffered the just Punishment of the Law, should, with one Exception, have belonged to the lowest Classes of Society, and that their Crimes may reasonably be imputed to wild and delusive Expectations operating on Minds incapable of estimating the Blessings of your just and paternal Government.

We trust that the Event of this, and of all other Attempts directed against your Majesty will produce a suitable Impression on the Enemies of our Constitution, and convince them that the Divine Providence will always signally interpose in the Preservation of a Life so intimately connected with the Happiness of a great People.

Given under the Seal of the said City, the Twenty-fifth Day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.
R. Hodgson, Mayor.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Viscount Louther.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Limerick.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Limerick, beg Leave to approach the Throne with Sentiments of the sincerest Congratulation for the Detection and Failure of the dreadful Conspiracy that so lately threatened your sacred Person.

Permit us to assure your Majesty, that there is no Part of your Majesty's Dominions more sensible of the Blessings of your Reign, or more zealously actuated by Loyalty than your Subjects of the County of Limerick; and that in Proportion to those Feelings is the Horror with which we are impressed by any Attempt upon your Majesty's Life, and the Energy with which we will arm ourselves to resist any Attack upon your Majesty's Government. And we further beg Leave to take this Opportunity of declaring, that should the wise and benevolent Disposition of your Majesty's Councils towards Peace be frustrated, we will stake all that is most dear to us for the Security of your Majesty's Territories, and the Preservation of our happy Constitution.

Bolton Waller, Sheriff.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Waterford, assembled at Spring Assizes 1803.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Waterford, beg Leave to approach your Majesty to express our sincere and hearty Congratulations upon your late providential Escape from the traitorous Machinations of the Enemies of your sacred Person and our happy Constitution, which we view with the utmost Horror and Detestation; and to assure your Majesty, that we shall at all Times be zealous and active in our Exertions for the Protection of your Majesty's Person, your illustrious Family, and the Maintenance of our happy Constitution and Government.

*Grice Smyth, High Sheriff.
John Palliser, Foreman.*

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Cavan, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the warmest Congratulations, for the Discomfiture of the Machinations of wicked and presumptuous Traitors, who, from the Depravity of their Nature, rejecting Blessings within their Power, had formed visionary Plans of the Deepest die; and our Abhorrence of them is the greater, as their Attempts were directed against the Life of a Sovereign, whose shining Virtues render him the Idol of his People, and give Lustre to the Enjoyment of the happy Constitution under which we live; and, fully sensible of such high Advantages, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we shall be ever ready to stand forward against all Traitorous Innovations, under whatever delusive Form they may be attempted, being clearly convinced that our glorious Constitution approaches as near to Perfection as any human Institution can admit, thereby endearing to its Support all wise and virtuous Men.

Tho. Burrows, High Sheriff.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Meath, beg Leave to approach your Majesty, to express our sincere and earnest Congratulations upon your providential Escape from the traitorous Machinations of the Enemies of your sacred Person, and our happy Constitution, which we view with the utmost Horror and Detestation; and to assure your Majesty, that we shall, at all Times, be zealous and active in our Exertions for the Support of your Majesty's Person, your illustrious Family, and the Maintenance of our happy Constitution and Government.

Lent Assizes, 1803. James O'Reilly, High Sheriff.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Berwick, assembled at a General Meeting, beg Leave to approach your Royal Person with the warmest Congratulations to your Majesty, and the sincerest Thanks to Heaven for the Providential Discovery of the late traitorous Conspiracy against every Thing dear to us as Subjects, and as Britons, the Life of our beneficent Sovereign, and the Constitution of our Country.

Firmly attached to your Majesty, and deeply sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under your mild and paternal Government, we avail ourselves of this Opportunity to join the general Voice of the Nation in our Prayers to the Almighty, that he may long preserve your Majesty for the Happiness of your People, and for the Defence of our glorious and free Constitution against foreign Enemies and domestic Traitors.

Signed in Presence of the Meeting, and by their Appointment.

Home, Preses.

Greenlaw, April 11, 1803.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, and Grand Jury of the County of Longford, at this Time assembled, impressed with the warmest Sentiments of respectful Veneration for your Royal Person, and devoted Attachment to our most excellent Constitution, beg Leave to approach the Throne, with fervent Congratulations on the Detection and Defeat of the late atrocious and treasonable Conspiracy against the inestimable Life of the best of Kings, and the Existence of our envied Constitution.

We have viewed with Abhorrence and Indignation the guilty Attempts of desperate and abandoned Traitors, and we earnestly hope, that the Punishment so justly incurred by the Perpetrators of such enormous Crimes, may, by its Example, secure the august Person of your Majesty from future Danger, and ensure the undisturbed Tranquillity of your United Kingdom.

Long, Sire, may you reign, blessed in the Enjoyment of your domestic Comfort, happy in the Affections of an united People, and protected by the Agis of Divine Omnipotence from the insidious Attacks of secret Enemies, and the open Assaults of hostile Violence.

John Hancford Jessop, Sheriff.

Thos. Featherston, for Self and Fellow Jurors.
Spring Assizes, April 2, 1803.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, and Justices of the Peace of the County of Dumbarton.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, and Justices of the Peace of your County of Dumbarton, beg Leave to approach the Throne, and to offer to your Majesty our warmest Congratulations on your Majesty's Escape from the Dangers of a diabolical Conspiracy against your sacred Person.

We cannot be sufficiently thankful to God, that, out of his Mercy to this Nation, he has interposed to preserve your Majesty's invaluable Life. And that it may be long continued for the Good of all your People is our most fervent Wish.

Dumbarton, April 8, 1803. Elphinstone, Preses.

[Presented by J. Colquhoun, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's ever dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Wicklow, impressed with unalterable Attachment and heartfelt Zeal for your Majesty's sacred Person and for our glorious Constitution, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majesty with our most sincere Congratulations on the timely Discovery and providential Defeat of the late detestable Conspiracy against your Majesty's Royal Person and Government.

And we embrace this Opportunity to renew the Assurances of our unshaken Loyalty to your Majesty's Person and to your illustrious House, our Readiness at all Times to defend, to the utmost of our Power, your Majesty's invaluable Life against the Attempts of secret or avowed Enemies, and our firm Determination to exert ourselves at all Times to bring to light, and to defeat any traitorous Attempt to disturb the public Tranquillity, or to excite Sedition amongst your Majesty's Subjects.

Signed at the Request, and on the Behalf of the County of Wicklow, at a Meeting held in Wicklow, April Fifth, One thousand eight hundred and three.

William Heighington, Sheriff of the County of Wicklow.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Warwick.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Warwick, beg Leave to approach the Throne with the sincerest Sentiments of Congratulation on the Detection and Failure of the late horrible Conspiracy against the Person and Government of your sacred Majesty.

We deplore the dangerous and treasonable Spirit which actuated those worthless and guilty Individuals; and contemplate with unbounded Gratitude the signal Interposition of an all-gracious Providence, so often manifested in the Preservation of a Life endeared to the Subjects of this Realm by your Majesty's public and private Virtues.

We have a just and proper Sense of the Blessings we enjoy under the mild and paternal Government of your Majesty: We know the Superiority of our glorious Constitution; and we hereby declare our firm Resolution to resist to the utmost of our Ability all treasonable, all hostile Attempts, whether domestic or foreign, that may be made by wicked Men or ambitious Governments against the Person of your Majesty, and the Safety of your Dominions.

We earnestly pray that your Majesty may long continue to reign in perfect Health and undisturbed Security over this free, loyal, and happy Nation.

Henry Grefswold Lewis, High Sheriff.

[Presented by D. S. Dugdale, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Nobility, Clergy, Gentlemen, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Galway, assembled pursuant to public Notice.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, cannot view in silent Abhorrence the late unnatural Conspiracy against your sacred Person, and the Liberties of your People. We are grateful for the signal Interposition of Divine Providence which has defeated a Purpose so atrocious, and preserved our beloved Sovereign, and the Tranquillity of the Empire.

We deplore that any Subjects living under the freest and happiest Government in the World, could be lost to Gratitude and their Allegiance so far, as to conspire against a Life rendered dear by its virtuous Influence, and sacred by our ancient Laws.

Your faithful Subjects are firmly persuaded that their Liberties are identified with the Safety, Honour, and Dignity of your Majesty's Crown; and we acknowledge with Gratitude the manifold Benefits which we have received during your auspicious Reign. Sensible of the Blessings of external Peace and internal Security, we view unawed, but not without Regret, those recent Appearances which menace Interruption of public Tranquillity. We assure your Majesty, however, that should the Aggression of any other Power renew those Troubles which we deprecate, we are ready to defend, by every generous Exertion of Loyalty, your Majesty's sacred Person, and the Honor of the British Constitution.

N. Blake, High Sheriff of the County of Galway.

[Presented by Lord Viscount Dunlo, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Pembroke.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Pembroke, beg Leave to approach your Throne with our warmest Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the wicked Designs of Blood-thirsty Conspirators. Truly sensible of the Blessings we have long enjoyed under your mild Government, we solemnly pledge ourselves to hazard every Thing that is dear to us in the Support of it, as well against foreign as domestic Enemies. And whilst many other States tamely submit to the galling Yoke, we will convince the haughty Ruler of a Great Nation, that Britons never will be Slaves.

Signed at the Request, and in the Name of the Meeting. Geo. Bowen, Sheriff.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Milford.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Commissioners of Supply, and other Heritors of the County of Fife, in a general Meeting assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, and other Heritors of the County of Fife, beg Leave to approach your Throne with most sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's Escape from a daring and wicked Plot against your Majesty's sacred Person, and our valuable Constitution.

Highly sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and benevolent Government, our Hearts are unfeignedly thankful for the Defeat of the diabolical Designs of those Conspirators against your Majesty's Person and Government, who were so justly brought to condign Punishment: And it is our earnest Prayer that your Majesty may be long preferred to rule over a free and happy People.

We embrace this Opportunity of assuring your Majesty, that, if Recourse to Arms is again necessary, we will be ready to come forward with our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of your Majesty, and of our excellent Constitution.

Signed in Name and by Appointment of the Meeting, by Leven and Melville.

[Presented by Sir William Erskine, Bart Representative in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the High-Sheriff, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Cornwall, beg Leave to approach your sacred Person to offer our most heartfelt Congratulations on your providential Escape from a late desperate and traitorous Conspiracy against your Majesty's Person and Government.

May the same Divine Power, which hath so eminently watched over your Majesty, ever guard a Life so endeared to all your Subjects by your constant and unwearied Attention to their Prosperity and Honor: And may the Blessings of our invaluable Constitution be continued to us and our Posterity under the protecting Influence of your Majesty's most illustrious House.

In the Name and at the Request of the Freeholders and Inhabitants, Thomas Rawlings, Sheriff.

[Presented by the High Sheriff and the Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Northumberland, beg Leave to approach your Majesty to offer our heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the Machinations of Treason; and with the deepest Sense of Gratitude to the Almighty we acknowledge this among the many signal Instances of his Divine Interposition, and that a timely Detection of the Conspiracy was permitted to prevent the awful Consequences, which the Completion of such a Scheme must inevitably have produced; and we sincerely hope that the same Almighty Power, which has hitherto protected your Majesty's invaluable Life, will continue to guard and preserve it, that you may long reign the beloved Sovereign of a loyal, free, and happy People.

On Behalf of the County,

Shafto Crafter, Sheriff and Chairman

[Presented by the Honorable Charles Grey, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and others of the County of Carnarvon, assembled at the Grand Jury Room in the Town of Carnarvon, on Monday the Twenty-eighth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three, humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne with our dutiful and heartfelt Congratulations on the recent Detection and Defeat of the nefarious and treasonable Designs upon your Majesty's Life.

In this Instance, as in others peculiarly affecting the well-being of these Realms, we recognise the Interposition of a merciful and just Providence watching over the Life of a beloved Sovereign, the Safeguard of our civil and religious Liberties, and of all the political Happiness, which, as a Nation, we so eminently enjoy under your Majesty's most auspicious Government: At the same Time we cannot help experiencing the deepest Regret and Astonishment in reflecting there have been found among the Subjects of a Prince, who deserves their warmest Affections, Persons capable of engaging in a Plot so strange and unnatural; and such as only could have been engendered in the most depraved Mind, and fostered only in a callous Heart. But still we feel a grateful Conviction of our own Security in the mild but effective Operation of those Laws, which guard equally the Frame of our happy Constitution, and the Lives and Liberties of all your Majesty's Subjects.

G. Ll. Wardle, Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Wexford, convened by the High-Sheriff on Wednesday the Thirtieth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three, holding in Abhorrence and extreme Detestation every Attempt which could endanger the Life of our beloved and revered Sovereign, beg Leave humbly to offer our heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from a late wicked and traitorous Conspiracy, intended against your Royal Person and Government. To your Majesty's transcendent Virtues we attribute that, under your auspicious Reign, we have for a Series of Years enjoyed every Blessing which could be expected, while Wildness and Anarchy prevailed in neighbouring Nations; and we still entertain a confident Hope that the same Almighty Power, which has been your Majesty's Shield and Defence from former traitorous Machinations, will continue his gracious Protection, and preserve to us, for Years to come, a Life of inestimable Value to your Majesty's faithful and grateful People.

Henry Archer, High-Sheriff of the County of Wexford.

[Presented by the Marquis of Ely.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Heritors of the County of Lanark.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of Peace, and Heritors of the County of Lanark, have heard with Horror and Indignation of the atrocious and daring Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person; and therefore humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the most earnest Assurances of the firmest Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, deeply impressed with a true Sense of the many Blessings we enjoy under our excellent Constitution, and your Majesty's parental Care; and with Hearts filled with Gratitude to Almighty God for your Majesty's providential Escape.

That your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous, freed from the wicked Designs of your Majesty's foreign and domestic Enemies, is our most earnest Prayer.

Signed in Presence and by Appointment of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of Peace, and Heritors of the County of Lanark, convened at Hamilton this Seventh Day of April, One thousand eight hundred and three Years.

Belhaven.

[Presented by the Marquis of Douglas.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Deputy-Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Banff, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Preservation from the late detestable Conspiracy, which was formed to destroy the sacred Life of our beloved Sovereign, and to overturn the revered Constitution and Government of this Realm.

We rely with Confidence, as it is our fervent Prayer, that the same Providence, which has never ceased to watch over your precious Life, will continue to guard your Majesty against all Assaults foreign or domestic, and long preserve to your faithful Subjects a Monarch, whose chief Care has ever been the Welfare and Happiness of his People.

Signed in our Name, and by Appointment, in a General Meeting of the said County, held at Banff this Twenty-ninth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three, by

Geo. Abercromby, Preses.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Sir William Grant, Master of the Rolls, and Representative in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Derby, deeply abhorring and execrating the late traitorous Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our warmest Congratulations on the Detection of that most mischievous and atrocious Design, and on the happy Preservation of your Majesty. Truly sensible, as we are, of your Majesty's ever watchful Attention to the Security of your People, the Security of your Majesty must always be our dearest Concern. With Hearts filled with Gratitude, Reverence, and affectionate Attachment, we humbly beg Leave to offer our most earnest Wishes for the long Continuance of your Majesty's Life.

Signed by the Order, and in the Name of a General County Meeting, held at Derby, the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and three.

Robert Wilnot, Sheriff.

[Presented by His Grace the Duke of Devonshire, the Right Honorable Lord G. H. Cavendish, and Edward M. Mundy, Esq.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Lancaster, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne with our most heartfelt Congratulations on the Detection and Failure of the late atrocious and daring Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government. We offer our sincere Thanks to that Almighty Providence which has in this, as well as in former Instances, guarded and protected your Majesty's sacred Life from the Attempts of Traitors; and we cannot but lament, that in these Dominions there could exist Principles capable of giving Birth to a Crime of such Enormity, and Persons capable of putting it into Execution. While in common with the Rest of your Majesty's Subjects, we feel highly sensible of the many Blessings which we enjoy under your mild and beneficent Government, our Duty and our Interest equally concur in teaching us, that the Prosperity of this great and important Country, and even the Existence of our Manufactures and Commerce are peculiarly involved in the Support of our invaluable Constitution. We heartily pray, that the Divine Providence may continue to watch over your Majesty's Life, and preserve it for many Years from the Violence of open Enemies or the Attempts of secret Conspirators, for the Happiness of your faithful and affectionate People.

In the Name of the Meeting,

Isaac Blackburne, Sheriff.

Preston, March 31, 1803.

[Presented by Colonel Stanley and John Blackburne, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and other Landholders of the County of Caithness.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and other Landholders of the County of Caithness, beg Leave to approach the Throne with the most heartfelt Congratulations on the timely Discovery of the late traitorous Designs against your Royal Person.

Sensible, as we are, how closely united the Happiness of all your Majesty's Subjects is with the Preservation of your most valuable Life, we cannot view without Abhorrence the detestable and traitorous Plans that were laid by a few daring and desperate Persons to make an Attempt on it, or think of the happy Discovery of that Plot, by which a Life so valuable to all your Majesty's Subjects was preserved, without returning the Supreme Director of all Things our most fervent Thanks for the Discovery and final Discomfiture of it.

We trust that the firm and decided Execution of the Laws upon the unnatural Projectors of so black a Deed will deter others from Attempts of the same Kind: That the Solemnity and Impartiality of their Trial will convince the whole World of the Happiness enjoyed by all Ranks under your Majeſty's juſt and mild Government, where even the fouleſt Traitor meets a fair Trial, and where Punishment only follows Conviction.

While we thus approach the Throne with our humble Congratulations for the happy Failure of ſo dreadful a Conſpiracy, which only our remote Situation prevented being ſooner conveyed to your Maſteſty, we hope that we may be permitted to add to them our unalterable Attachment to your Maſteſty's Perſon and Government, and our Determination to ſupport both with our Lives and Fortunes, ſhould the Enemies of our Country provoke a Renewal of Hoſtilities.

Signed in Preſence and by Appointment of a General Meeting at Thurſo, the Firſt Day of April One thouſand eight hundred and three Years, by Caitheſſ, Preſes.

[Preſented by Sir John Sinclair, Bart.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Maſteſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, and Commiſſioners of Supply for the County of Ayr.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Maſteſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Juſtices of Peace, Freeholders, and Commiſſioners of Supply for the Shire of Ayr, aſſembled here this Day by public Adverſement for that Purpoſe, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne with our heartfelt Congratulations on the ſignal Interpoſition of Divine Providence, owing to which the late foul and treacherous Conſpiracy againſt your Maſteſty's ſacred Perſon has been timely diſcovered and happily fruſtrated.

Inviolably attached to our excellent Conſtitution, and deeply impreſſed with a Senſe of the invaluable Bleſſings we enjoy under your Maſteſty's mild and auſpicious Reign, we could not, without indignant Horror, ſee an Attempt made to deprive us of theſe invaluable Benefits; an Attempt in which the deſperate and unprincipled, as well as the deluded, Traitors have perished; and we confidently truſt that ſuch ſhall be the End of every ſimilar Treason, convinced that your Maſteſty reigns in the Hearts of a free and united People.

We earneſtly pray to Almighty God that your Maſteſty may long continue to reign over us; and that we may long enjoy the Bleſſings we have experienced under the paternal Care of our preſent beloved Sovereign.

Signed by our Preſes, in our Name, and by our Appointment, at Ayr, the Twenty-fifth of March One thouſand eight hundred and three.

Ad Fergusſon, Preſes.

[Preſented by the Earl of Eglinton.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Maſteſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff and Freeholders of the County of Kerry.

WE, your Maſteſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff and Freeholders of the County of Kerry, beg Leave to offer to your Maſteſty our moſt ſincere Congratulations upon your late happy Eſcape from the deſperate and wicked Conſpiracy aimed againſt your ſacred Perſon; and, at the ſame Time, to expreſs our heartfelt Satisfaction, that thoſe wicked Men engaged in that atrocious Deſign, have been brought to condign Punishment, and made a ſalutary Example.

We humbly hope, that this Tribute of our Loyalty will be received with Favour by your Maſteſty, as coming from a Quarter untainted by Rebellion, and which, whiſt Inſurrection and Outrage prevailed in other Parts, maintained its Allegiance inviolate.

Juſtly ſenſible of the many Bleſſings we enjoy under your Maſteſty's benignant Government, it is our ſervent Prayer, that the ſame Providence, which hath already ſo often interpoſed to preſerve ſo valuable a Life, may continue to defend it, granting you a long and proſperous Reign over a grateful and a united People.

William Meredith, Sheriff.

[Preſented by the Earl of Glandore.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Maſteſty.

WE, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Flint, at a Meeting held this Twenty-fiſt Day of March One thouſand eight hundred and three, beg Leave to offer at this Period our ſincere Congratulations to your Maſteſty on the Diſcovery of the late treaſonable and traitorous Conſpiracy, which, by the Interpoſition of Divine Providence, hath been ſo fortunately and timely prevented, as to render the dreadful and dire Machinations of evil-diſpoſed and wicked Men of no Effect, and thereby has not only ſecured to us that moſt valuable Bleſſing to theſe Kingdoms, your Maſteſty's ſacred Life, but alſo the Lives and Properties of your Maſteſty's faithful Subjects, and our excellent Conſtitution in Church and State, which hath ſo nobly withſtood the Convulſion that had threatened the Peace and Tranquillity of the whole World.

We alſo beg Leave to expreſs our firm Loyalty and Zeal for your Maſteſty's Perſon and Government; and to aſſure your Maſteſty that this your loyal County will, whenever the Situation of public Affairs require it, with the utmoſt Ardour in our Power, defend the Honor and Dignity of the Crown, and the Interests and Security of theſe Kingdoms, againſt all Enemies, whether foreign or domeſtic.

And we moſt humbly implore that your Maſteſty's Reign may continue long and proſperous, as it has hitherto been to theſe Kingdoms, under the mild and temperate Adminiſtration of thoſe Laws, which have proved the Guardian of our Proſperity, and the Protection of the civil Rights and Liberties of a free, happy, and independent People.

Signed Owen Molynux Wynne, Sheriff.

[Preſented by Sir Thomas Moſlyn, Bart. Representative in Parliament for the ſaid County.]

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Maſteſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Cumberland, beg Leave moſt humbly to congratulate your Maſteſty with heartfelt Sincerity and Satisfaction on the Diſcovery, and, we hope, total Exinction of the late treaſonable and wicked Conſpiracy, intended to overthrow and destroy our excellent and revered Government and Constitution by a deliberate and atrocious Design against the sacred Person of your Majesty.

Deeply impressed with the great Happiness we enjoy under the paternal Government of your Majesty, in the impartial Protection of our Persons and Properties, and the Exercise of true Liberty, we cannot sufficiently express our Indignation and Abhorrence of the traitorous Machinations of the late infatuated and wicked Conspirators; and we feel a renewed, and, if possible, an additional Impulse for the Preservation of your Majesty's inestimable Life.

We consider the late Attempt as one of the last Heads of that Hydra of Faction and Anarchy which has menaced civil Society in these portentous Times; and trust that, under Divine Providence, and by the united Vigilance and Exertions of your Majesty's Ministers and loyal Subjects, your Majesty may long live to reign in the Hearts of a free People, and preserve the Independence, Honor, Prosperity, and Peace of the United Kingdom against all treasonable or ambitious Projects both of domestic and foreign Enemies.

Signed on Behalf of the County this Thirty-first Day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

Rob. Warwick, Sheriff.

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Seventh Day of March last, to promise and declare, that the Bounties of Three Pounds for every Able Seaman, and Two Pounds for every Ordinary Seaman, fit for His Majesty's Service, should be paid in the Manner thereby directed to every such Able and Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should, on or before the Thirtieth Day of April then following, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships, or Officers employed in Tenders, or at Rendezvous on Shore for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His said Proclamation, to declare, that all Able-bodied Landmen, not above the Age of Thirty five nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should so enter themselves as aforesaid, should receive the Sum of Twenty Shillings each Man as His Majesty's Royal Bounty: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing equal Date, to promise and declare, that a Reward of Twenty Shillings for every Able and Ordinary Seaman, fit to serve on board His Majesty's Ships, should be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen, who might conceal him or themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's Service, on or before the Thirtieth Day of April then next, by any of His Majesty's Sea-Officers employed for raising Men: And whereas the Time limited by the said Proclamations respectively, for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward, will expire upon the Thirtieth Day of this instant April; and it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service that the said Bounties and Reward should be continued to be paid for some Time longer, His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward be prolonged and extended from the said Thirtieth Day of this instant April to the Thirtieth Day of June next inclusive; whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice and govern themselves accordingly.

Steph. Cottrell.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 20th of April 1803,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, in pursuance of the Powers vested in His Majesty, by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to continue, until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and four, several Laws relating to the prohibiting the Exportation and permitting the Importation of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision without Payment of Duty; to the Relief of Captors of Prizes, with respect to the bringing and landing certain Prize Goods in this Kingdom; and to the regulating the Trade and Commerce to and from the Isle of Malta;" His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council, bearing Date the Thirty-first of December last, to order, and it was thereby ordered, That the Prohibition laid, by Order of His Majesty in Council, bearing Date the Twelfth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and one, upon the Exportation from any Port or Place in Great Britain of any Wheat, Rye, Barley, Beer or Bigg, Pease, Beans, Oats, or any Meal or Flour, or Bread, Biscuit, or Malt made thereof, or of any Indian Corn or Maize, or Meal or Flour made thereof; and also the Liberty, granted by the said Order in Council, bearing Date the Twelfth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and one, to import and take out of Warehouse Foreign Corn and other Articles as aforesaid, and likewise to import sundry other Articles of Provision Duty free, should be further continued until the Thirty-first Day of March last, save and except the Importation, Duty free, of the Articles of Rice and Malt; and save and except, as it was declared by the said Order, that nothing therein contained was intended to extend, or should be construed to extend, to affect or apply to any Exportation of Seed Corn from Great Britain to Ireland, or any Importation of Malt from Ireland to Great Britain, in the Manner authorized by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for continuing, until the First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, an Act made in the Forty-second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for regulating, until the Fifteenth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and three, the Prices at which Grain, Meal, and Flour may be exported from Great Britain to Ireland, and from Ireland to Great Britain; and for permitting, from and after the passing thereof, until the said First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, the Exportation of Seed Corn from Great Britain to Ireland, and the Importation of Malt into Great Britain from Ireland:" And whereas His Majesty's said Order in Council of the Thirty-first Day of December last has been further continued until the Thirtieth Day of this instant April:

And whereas it is judged expedient that the said Prohibition to export, and the said Permission to import, should be continued for some Time longer, His Majesty, therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance of the Powers given by the First of the above-recited Acts, passed in the present Session of Parliament, hath thought fit to order, and it is hereby ordered, That the said Order in Council, bearing Date the Thirty-first of December last, and all the Exceptions, Provisoos, Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions, specified and enforced by the said Order, respecting such Exportation and Importation, and taking out of Warehouse, shall be, and continue in Force until the Thirty-first Day of May next inclusive, in the same Manner as the same are now in Force by the said Order, bearing Date the Thirty-first Day of December last. And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

Rape-Seed - -	3	9	7	Average Price per Quarter on the last Six Weeks.

And do hereby order and direct, that the said General Average Prices be published in the London Gazette once in Four several Weeks immediately succeeding this present Session.

By the Court,
THOMAS SHELTON.
Clerk of the Peace.

Creditors of THOMAS ARNOLD.

ALl and every of the Creditors of Thomas Arnold, now or late of Canterbury in the County of Kent, Cheesemonger, Dealer and Chapman, (a Bankrupt,) are hereby requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's Estate and Effects, at the City Coffee-House, Cheap-side, on Wednesday next the 27th Instant, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, to consider of the Proposals made for perfecting the Commission of Bankrupt against the said Thomas Arnold, on taking Security for Seven Shillings in the Pound; and on other Affairs. Dated the 20th of April 1803.

To the Creditors and Debtors of WILLIAM BUDDEN, late of Crewkerne, in the County of Somerset, Mercer, deceased.

SUCH of the Creditors of the said Deceased, as have not already sent in their Accounts, are requested to transmit the Particulars thereof to Messrs. Haydon and Beard, Attornies, Crewkerne, on or before the 9th of May next, or they will be excluded the Benefit of a Dividend which is then intended to be made; and all Persons indebted to the Estate and Effects of the said Deceased are desired to pay the Amount of their respective Debts to the said Messrs. Haydon and Beard immediately, or they will be sued for the Recovery thereof without further Notice; by Order of the Administrator.

TO be sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery made in a Cause intitled Parker against Parker, The Freehold and Copyhold Estates formerly belonging to James Parker, Esq; deceased.

The said Estates consist of a Mansion-House, called Storth-House, situate in the Parish of Slaidburn, in the County of York, and of several Parcels of Land in the said Parish; and also of Houses and Barns at Newton in Bowland, near Settle, in the said County of York, and will be sold before Peter Holford, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Public Sale-Room of the said Court in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on the 28th of June 1803, between the Hours of Two and Three o'Clock in the Afternoon, in Five separate and distinct Lots.

Particulars whereof may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers in Southampton-Buildings aforesaid; of Messrs. Tilbury and Bedford, Solicitors, Bedford-Row, where a Plan of the Estate may be seen; of Henry Barker, Esq; Gray's-Inn-Square; of Mr. Earnshaw, Solicitor, Red-Cross-Street, London; of Mr. Lee, Solicitor, Tanfield-Court, Temple; of Mr. White, Solicitor, Lincoln's-Inn Old-Square; of Martin Richardson, Esq; Clithero, Lancashire; and of Mr. Cottam, Land Surveyor, Whalley, near Clithero.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery made in a Cause wherein George Owen Cambridge, Clerk, and Cornelia his Wife, are Plaintiffs, and Robert Rous, Esq; and others are Defendants, the Creditors of Martha Kuych Van Mierop the Younger, late of Twickenham, in the County of Middlesex, Spinster, (who died in the Month of March 1799,) and the Creditors of Sarah Maria Kuych Van Mierop, late of Chelsea, in the said County of Middlesex, Spinster, (who died in the Month of April 1799,) are forthwith to come in and prove their Debts, before Peter Holford, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in Default thereof they will be excluded the Benefit of the said Decree.

THE Creditors of Samuel August, late of Basinghall-street, London, Silk-Manufacturer, deceased, (who died about the Year 1758,) are desired to apply, before Midsummer-Day next, to Mr. Baker, Solicitor, Lincoln's-Inn-Fields, with the Particulars of their Claims, and to receive a final Dividend, which will then be made.

THE Creditors of Joseph Bennet, of Braintree, in the County of Essex, Shopkeeper, who have not yet executed the Deed of Assignment made by him to Trustees, for the Benefit of his Creditors, are hereby requested to call at the Office of Messrs. The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday April 23, to Tuesday April 26, 1803.

St. James's, April 20, 1803.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Norfolk, beg to offer our Congratulations upon the Detection of the late treasonable Conspiracy.

Sensible of the Blessings which we enjoy under our excellent Constitution, and of the truly paternal Interest evinced on all Occasions by your Majesty for the Welfare of your People, we have heard with Horror and Indignation of the Attack which was meditated upon your sacred Person.

We could not indeed have believed that the Mind of Man was capable of conceiving so atrocious a Design, had not the Guilt of those Traitors, who have so justly forfeited their Lives, been so fully and clearly proved in the mildest Court of Judicature.

The Names of those desperate and daring Conspirators will be held in eternal Execration, whilst their diabolical Intentions will only serve to increase (if it be possible) the affectionate Regard for your Majesty, which animates every Class and Description of your Subjects.

Done at a General Meeting of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Norfolk, convened by the Lord Lieutenant, and held in the Shire-House at the Castle of Norwich, on Saturday the Sixteenth Day of April, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three, and signed at the Request of the said Meeting,

J. Wodehouse, Chairman.

[Presented by Marquis Townshend, Lord Lieutenant of the said County.]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of Perthshire learnt with Astonishment, that, while your Majesty was surrounded by a loyal People, zealously attached by Affection and Gratitude to their Sovereign, and cordially devoted to their happy Constitution, a traitorous wicked Conspiracy had been formed against your Majesty's Life, and against the Government of this Country, by Men equally depraved in their Principles as infatuated in their Conduct. We, united with our Fellow-Subjects of all Ranks and Descriptions in Feeling, grateful to Heaven for preserving a Life so dear and so valuable, and for saving us from a Scene of Blood and temporary Confusion, which might have been produced in the vain Hope of erecting Anarchy and Despotism on the Ruins of that free Constitution which is so justly the Object of our heartfelt Attachment, and of our high Veneration. While we continue to feel, and shall still express, our Gratitude to Almighty God, by whose Blessing the desperate Conspiracy was brought to Light, and the active Exertions employed for its Detection were crowned with Success, we beg to present at your Majesty's Throne our sincere Congratulations, and to assure you, that no dutiful Endeavour on our Part shall be wanting in the Protection of your Majesty's Person, and in the Defence of the British Empire over which you reign, against the Machinations or Attacks of domestic or foreign Foes.

Signed by our Prefes, in our Name, and by our Appointment, at Perth, the Fifteenth of April One thousand eight hundred and three.

Thos. Graham, Prefes.

[Presented by His Grace the Duke of Atholl.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and others, the Inhabitants of the County of Carmarthen.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and others, the Inhabitants of the County of Carmarthen, (assembled at a Meeting convened by the High Sheriff of the said County, at the Guildhall in the Town of Carmarthen,) being conscious of the many invaluable Blessings which we uniformly have derived under your Majesty's most mild and auspicious Government, and knowing and feeling, with infinite Satisfaction, how much your Majesty has always at Heart the Welfare and Happiness of all the Subjects within your Majesty's Dominions, beg Leave to express in the strongest Terms our zealous Attachment, not only to your Majesty individually but also to that glorious Constitution under which we fortunately enjoy every Blessing, a Constitution which has long since become the Admiration of all Europe, and the Envy of neighbouring Powers, and which we and every true and loyal Briton consider with inestimable Value.

Whilst we contemplate with the utmost Abhorrence and Detestation the late atrocious Conspiracy against your Majesty's most sacred Person and Government, we are bound to offer up, with all the Fervour of sincere and pious Devotion, our grateful Thanks to the Supreme Disposer of all Events for having, at the critical Moment of Danger, brought to light so horrid a Conspiracy, whereby your Majesty's sacred Person was preserved to us from premeditated Destruction, and our glorious and invaluable Constitution from being overthrown or shaken, a Constitution grounded by such just and wise Laws, as brought the villainous Conspirators to just and condign Punishment for the villainous and execrable Intentions of their horrid Conspiracy.

We deeply lament there should be found in any Part of your Majesty's Dominions Men so totally insensible to the Amiability of your Majesty's Character, to the fatherly Love which your Majesty bears towards your Subjects in general, and of Dispositions so vile, that could even for a Moment harbour the Design, and endeavour to exercise the Means of depriving us, of the best and most virtuous of Sovereigns, and overturn the best and wisest of Constitutions.

Be assured, Sire, that we shall not fail to exert ourselves at all Times to the utmost of our Power in inculcating the Necessity of holding inviolate the sacred Person of your Majesty, and of preserving the Blessings derivable from that peaceable and orderly Manner which it is the Duty of all your Majesty's good Subjects to cherish and adopt.

That your Majesty may enjoy a long and prosperous Reign, and the Fruition, in the highest Degree, both of temporal and eternal Felicity, are the cordial Wishes of us, who, with the utmost Deference and Veneration, subscribe ourselves your Majesty's most dutiful, loyal, and faithful Subjects.

John Jones, for himself, and the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the said County of Carmarthen, assembled at the said Meeting.

Guild-Hall, Carmarthen,

[Presented by James Hamlyn Williams, Esq; accompanied by the Right Honorable Lord Dynevor and Gwynne, Esq.]

The humble Address of the Mayor and Burgesses of the Borough and Parish of Southmolton, in the County of Devon.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

THE Interposition of Divine Providence to save this Nation from the Mischief of a diabolical and treasonable Conspiracy against your sacred Person, and the venerable Constitution of our Country, in Church and State, claims from all Classes of your People Acknowledgments suitable to so signal a Blessing.

We, therefore, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, and Burgesses of the Borough and Parish of Southmolton, humbly beg Leave to express our sincere Satisfaction on observing the Sensation which this Event has so justly excited throughout your united Empire. Such Token of loyal Attachment to your Majesty and of fixed Regard for that Establishment of social Order, which has been matured by the Wisdom of Ages within this Realm, meets with our entire Approbation, and our most hearty Concurrence.

We trust, Sire! that neither the Wiles of Sedition at Home, nor the inveterate Malice and frantic Arrogance of any foreign Potentate, will ever avail to abridge the Security of your Throne, or the Welfare of your Dominions.

Guildhall, Southmolton,
2d April 1803.

[Transmitted by Earl Fortescue, and presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Borough of Queenborough, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on the providential Discovery, and complete Failure, of the detestable and horrid Conspiracy which has been lately formed against your Royal Person and Government.

We assure your Majesty of our firm and affectionate Loyalty, and of our steady Attachment to the Principles on which your illustrious Family was placed on the Throne of these Realms, for the Protection and Preservation of our Religion, Laws, and Liberties, and of our Determination to support your Majesty against every Attempt of domestic Traitors; against every Oppression of any Foreign Power on the Interest, Honor, and Independence of the Nation.

That your Majesty may long reign in the Hearts and Affections of a free, loyal, and united People, is our earnest and constant Prayer.

Given under the Corporation-Seal of this Borough the Twenty-eighth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by J. Prinsep and G. P. Moore, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Recorder, Town Clerk, Bailiffs, and Common-Council, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Kidwelly, in the County of Carmarthen, humbly beg Leave with Protections of the most profound Respect heartily to congratulate your Majesty on your signal and providential Preservation from the late wicked and detestable Conspiracy which was formed for the Destruction of your Majesty's most sacred Life, and the Subversion of our free and happy Constitution and Government.

The more we reflect with Horror and Indignation at the late atrocious and diabolical Designs against your most sacred Life, endeared to us by the manifold Blessings we have pre-eminently enjoyed above all Nations in the World, during the Reign of a Sovereign, whose Government has been marked with the greatest Mildness, and constantly and uniformly directed to the public Welfare, the more heinous it appears to our View, consequently we want Words to express, with sufficient Energy our Indignation and Abhorrence towards the miserable Authors of so diabolical an Attempt, and are confident in ourselves that the happy and timely Discovery and Defeat thereof has diffused the greatest Joy throughout the Whole of your Majesty's Dominions.

Truly sensible, as well of the great Importance of the Preservation of your Majesty's sacred Life to the Welfare of your Majesty's Dominions, and the Security of our glorious Constitution, as of the great and inestimable Benefits which all your Subjects derive under your Majesty's just and mild Government. We rely with Confidence, that the Vigilance of your Majesty's Government which has frustrated the Designs of those wicked and traitorous Conspirators may never cease; and that your Majesty's Life, so providentially protected, a Life so important to our Welfare, may be very long preserved.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our most ardent Wishes, that your Majesty's Subjects may be ever loyal and grateful, and ever emulous of gaining your Royal Favour and Protection; that your Majesty's Reign may long continue, and in future be undisturbed by any Conspiracies and Attempts against your Majesty and our glorious Constitution; and that your People may remain undisturbed in those Blessings, which, from your paternal Care and Attention they have hitherto constantly enjoyed.

[Presented by Hamlyn Williams, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the County of Carmarthen]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the High-Steward, Bailiffs, and Burgeses of the ancient Borough of Montgomery, humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our heartfelt Congratulations upon the providential Failure of the late treasonable Machinations against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government.

Impressed with a lively Sense of your Majesty's amiable Character, and viewing with Admiration both the Stability and Lustre which our matchless Constitution derives from your Majesty's splendid Virtues, we are thankful to that Providence which so signally watches over your Majesty, for preserving to us a Life so justly endeared to every good Briton: And we humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we will not only readily resent any direct Attack upon your Majesty's venerated Person and Government, but that we will also vigilantly observe, and openly expose, to the Indignation of all true Britons, the insidious Intrigues of any fanatical or desperate Anarchist, who may dare to offer the least indirect Violence to our inestimable Constitution, under which we are duly sensible that all Ranks enjoy that substantial and practical Liberty, which a delusive and sanguinary Philosophy must ever seek in vain, and which, under Divine Providence, hath rendered these happy Realms the Admiration and Envy of the World.

Given under our Common Seal this Fifth Day of April, in the Forty-third Year of your Majesty's Reign.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of Forfar, beg Leave to approach your Throne, joining in the Congratulations of our Fellow-Subjects on the Discovery and Overthrow of the late diabolical Designs of wretched Traitors against your Majesty's precious Life, and for overturning the lawful Government of this Realm.

That Law and Justice was allowed to have free Course in the Punishment of Offences so atrocious, and to prevent their Repetition, we consider as highly proper and expedient.

That your Majesty's Repose may never more be interrupted by the desperate Designs of vile Traitors; that your Majesty may long continue in the Administration of a mild Government; and that your Subjects may long enjoy the Blessings of your Majesty's gentle and auspicious Reign, is our most fervent Wish and Prayer.

Signed in our Name, Presence, and by our Appointment, at Forfar, the Seventh Day of April One thousand eight hundred and three.

John Watt, Provost.

[Presented by the Right Honorable William Dundas.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chief Steward, Recorder, Bailiff, Capital Burgeses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Leominster, truly sensible, from long and happy Experience, of the many and substantial Blessings we enjoy under the Protection of your Majesty's auspicious and equitable Government, humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on the providential Discovery and consequent Prevention of the late truly desperate and atrocious Conspiracy; a Conspiracy which had for its avowed and immediate Objects the Destruction of your Majesty's sacred Life, and the total Subversion of our most excellent and invaluable Constitution: Gratefully acknowledging ourselves to be blessed with the practical Enjoyment of every Degree of Liberty consistent with the Preservation of civil Order and good Government, we cannot reflect but with equal Horror and Surprise on every Attempt to deprive us of these most enviable Blessings, from whatever Source such Dangers may arise, whether from the unprincipled and sanguinary Views of determined Enemies to our happy Constitution, or from the visionary and no less alarming Machinations of deluded and misguided Enthusiasts.

From such, and every other Peril, long may the Blessing of God's Providence preserve your Majesty's sacred Person, and long may your Majesty's truly exemplary and acknowledged Virtues continue to be rewarded by the merited Love and Affections of a prosperous, loyal, and united People.

Thomas Harley, Chief Steward.

[Presented by the Earl of Essex, Recorder, John Lubbock, Esq; and the Honorable Charles Kinnaird, Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town-Council of the Royal Burgh of Wick.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Counsellors of your Burgh of Wick, in Common-Council assembled, do humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne, and to offer up our Tribute of Congratulation to your Majesty upon the timely Discovery of those traitorous Designs which were directed against the Life of our beloved Sovereign.

Our Abhorrence of such wicked and daring Plots can only be equalled by our Gratitude to Almighty God for the Preservation of a Life so justly dear and valuable to all your Majesty's faithful Subjects. We hope and trust, that the same protecting Providence will long continue to these Realms those Blessings which they derive from your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, and that the late lawful Example of the Justice of our Laws will serve to convince the secret Enemies of the State, if any such still exist, that the Fabric of our glorious Constitution is not to be shaken by their wicked and desperate Attempts.

Signed in Presence, and by Appointment of the Town-Council, by

Will. Mac Leay, Chief Residing Magistrate.

Wick, April 6, 1803.

[Presented by the Right Honorable William Dundas.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the Borough of Cardigan.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the Borough of Cardigan, in Common-Council assembled, approach your Throne with the most lively and heartfelt Congratulations on the timely Discovery and Defeat of the late treacherous Designs against your Royal Person.

We trust that the firm and decided Execution of the Laws upon the unnatural Projection of so foul a Deed, will, while it warns the Traitor of his Punishment, convince the loyal of the Protection our revered Constitution affords, and effectually secure your Majesty and the United Kingdom, over which the Goodness and Mercy of Providence has placed and preserved you, from such guilty Attempts in future, to disturb the public Tranquillity.

Long may the Almighty guard the Throne of this Realm from the Assaults of Violence, and the insidious Attacks of domestic Treasons; and long may your Majesty, in your Person and Family, enjoy that Quiet and Happiness in governing, which are so intimately interwoven with the dearest Possessions of the free and happy People who obey.

Signed by Order of the Court,

John Bowen, Mayor.

Dated 23d March 1803.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Glenbervie.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Bailiffs, Chief Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Beaumaris, beg Leave to approach the Throne with Sentiments of unfeigned Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the late atrocious and wicked Conspiracy against your sacred Person and Government. Impressed with a just Sense of Abhorrence against those Persons, whose daring and traitorous Designs have, under Divine Providence, by the Vigilance of your Majesty's Ministers, been so effectually frustrated.

Fully sensible of the Blessings which we enjoy under your mild Government, and admiring those Virtues which adorn your Majesty's sacred Character, we cannot but offer up our Thanksgivings to the Supreme Director of Events, who has, by his signal Interposition, averted the fatal Calamity which threatened the Security of our public Happiness, and preserved a Life so justly dear to us.

We also beg to assure your Majesty that our Attachment and Loyalty remains firm and undiminished.

And we earnestly pray that your Majesty may long continue to reign in undisturbed Security over a happy, free, and loyal People.

John Hampton Jones, Mayor.

Common-Council Beaumaris,

5th April 1803.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Bailiff, Justice, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the Borough of Kidderminster, in the County of Worcester, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave to offer our heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's late providential Escape, and the Preservation of our happy Constitution, from the Machinations of designing Traitors.

We contemplate with equal Indignation and Horror Attempts of such atrocious Enormity; and humbly return Thanks to the Almighty for the Discovery of so diabolical a Plot; and most fervently pray that every traitorous Design against your Majesty's precious Life, and our excellent Constitution, may meet with similar Detection and Punishment; and that your Majesty may long reign beloved and revered by your People as their Father and their Sovereign.

Given under the Common-Seal of the said Borough the Twenty-ninth Day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by W. Lygon, Esq; and the Honorable ——— Ward.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Corporation, Portreeve, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Penryn, in Cornwall, beg Leave to join the general Voice of your People, in expressing the Horror we feel at the late daring and wicked Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, and to assure your Majesty, that the Attempts of abandoned Conspirators, or insidious foreign Enemies, will only tend to strengthen in our Hearts, if possible, that dutiful Affection and Veneration so justly due to the Father of his People, and teach us more truly to appreciate the Blessings of our happy and envied Constitution, under which only true and genuine Freedom can be enjoyed.

And we beg Leave further, most dutifully to assure your Majesty, that whether against foreign Enemies or domestic Traitors, we are at all Times ready to shed our Blood in Defence of your sacred Person and Government; and we humbly trust, that Almighty God will continue to grant that evident and immediate Protection so often afforded to our beloved Sovereign, and that He will be graciously pleased long to avert from your Majesty's faithful People, the greatest Calamity they could feel.

Signed by Order, and on Behalf of the Meeting.
Thomas, Town Clerk.

Penryn, 29th March, 1803.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord De Dunstanville, the Recorder, and Sir John Nicholl, Knt. one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Baillies, and Councillors of the Burgh of Irvine.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Baillies, and Councillors of the Burgh of Irvine, in Common-Council assembled, warmly attached to your Majesty, beg Leave to offer our most sincere Congratulations on the providential Discovery and Defeat of the late traitorous Designs against your Majesty's Royal Person.

Our Rejoicing on this Occasion is increased when we consider the Happiness we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, and your assiduous Care in the Protection of our glorious Constitution in Church and State.

And we earnestly pray, that your Majesty's Life may be long preserved to reign over a free and happy People.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, at Irvine, the Seventh Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three.

Rob. Fullerton, Baillie.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Montgomerie.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Freemen of the Corporation of Wexford, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on the providential Discovery and Suppression of the late horrid Conspiracy, formed for the Destruction of your Life, and the Subversion of your Government.

We had fondly hoped, that, when the calm Season of Peace arrived, Disaffection would contemplate with Disgust the Havoc it had made, and, viewing Objects in their natural Proportions and proper Colours, would discern the Beauty, and acknowledge the Excellence, of practical Liberty, regulated by wise and well-executed Laws; and that, by contralling the certain Security and Happiness of the Subjects of this Realm under your Majesty's wise and merciful Administration of our long-trying and unequalled Constitution, with the Uncertainty of every Thing but Misery under new and experimental Forms of Government, it would learn to appreciate the Value of each, and would relinquish every Scheme which might endanger the former or introduce the latter.

We lament the Disappointment of our pleasing Expectations; and see with mingled Indignation and Horror that domestic Traitors still exist, zealous to destroy the Repose we begin to enjoy, to rob us of a Sovereign who lives but for his People, and to subvert a Constitution which other Nations admire and envy, but which only those who are possessed of it can truly estimate the Value of; Wretches who would banish from these Heaven-favoured Islands Virtue, Order, and social Happiness, and introduce in their Stead Discord, Anarchy, and Murder of the blackest Dye, with every Vice and every Crime which the foulest Imagination could devise, the most depraved Heart delight in, or the most savage Hand perpetrate.

Yet still we hope there are but few such Monsters; and that the late horrible Conspiracy was the expiring Effort of democratic Frenzy, on the providential Frustration of which we now congratulate with your Majesty and our Fellow-Subjects, and join in grateful Thanksgiving to Heaven. And we trust that the God, who presides over Kings and Empires, will continue to protect your sacred Person and illustrious Family;—that the Sceptre will long remain in your Hand;—and that when, in Fulness of Years and Honors, you shall be removed to a better Kingdom, it shall be transmitted from Age to Age, unsullied and unimpaired, through a long Line of your illustrious Descendants, Inheritors of your Virtues, and Heirs to your Glory.

In Testimony whereof we have caused the Common-Seal of said Corporation to be hereunto affixed, the Second Day of April, in the Forty-third Year of your Majesty's Reign.

John Elgee, Mayor

[Presented by Richard Nevill, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Town-Councillors of your ancient Borough of Inverkeithing, assembled in Common-Council, beg Leave to approach the Throne, and to offer to your Majesty our humble but heartfelt Congratulations upon the late Failure and Detection of a wicked and treasonable Conspiracy formed against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, to express our Indignation and Horror of the wicked Machinations of those Traitors, whose Hearts could conceive the Perpetration of so enormous a Crime; and to assure your Majesty that it is our most earnest Prayer that Providence will continue long to preserve the Life of a Monarch, whose chief Care has ever been the Happiness and Welfare of his People.

Signed in Name and by Appointment of the Magistrates and Town-Council of Inverkeithing, by John Elder, First Baillie.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgeses of the Borough of Preston, in the County of Lancaster, in Common-Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to approach your Throne with heartfelt Congratulations on the providential Discovery of the late traitorous Conspiracy against your Majesty's Royal Person and Family, and the happy Constitution of this United Kingdom.

We fervently pray, and confidently trust, that Divine Providence will continue to extend that merciful Care and Protection towards your Majesty which has been so wonderfully shewn on this, as on all other Occasions; and that He will be pleased of his infinite Goodness to preserve a beloved Sovereign long to rule over a loyal, affectionate, and happy People.

Given under the Common Seal of the said Borough, the Thirtieth Day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

Samuel Harrocks, Mayor, in Open Council.

[Presented by James Allan Park, Esq; Recorder, accompanied by the Right Honorable Lord Stanley, and John Harrocks, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiffs and Burgeses of the ancient Borough of Scarborough, in the County of York.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs and Burgeses of Scarborough, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave to approach the Throne, and to offer our sincere and ardent Congratulations on the providential Deliverance of your Majesty, from the cruel Machinations of a daring and atrocious Conspiracy.

The Blessings which your Majesty's faithful Subjects experience under a Constitution so enviable, and a Sovereign so beneficent, cannot fail to inspire them with the highest Sentiments of Loyalty and Attachment towards your sacred Person and Government.

Under these Impressions we acknowledge with Gratitude, the providential Care of the Supreme Being, in shielding your Majesty in the Hour of Danger, by defeating the Perpetration of a horrid Design that would have overwhelmed the Nation with a Calamity the most awful. And we fervently implore, that the Almighty may continue to your Majesty his Divine Protection; and that the Blessings now enjoyed by all the Subjects of the British Empire, may descend, inviolate and unimpaired, to the latest Posterity.

Given under our Common Seal, the Fifth Day of April, in the Forty-third Year of your Majesty's Reign.

By Order of the Bailiffs and Burgeses, John Travis, Town Clerk.

[Presented by the Honorable Major-General Phipps, and the Right Honorable Lord Robert Manners, Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Portreeve and Free Burgeses of the Borough of Beeralston, in the County of Devon, sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's just and mild Government, and venerating the distinguished Virtues which adorn your Majesty's Character, do humbly presume to offer our heartfelt Congratulations on the Detection and Defeat of the late atrocious and treasonable Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person and the Constitution of this Kingdom; and at the same Time to express our most fervent Wishes that your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous; and that every Effort of an external Enemy, or domestic Faction, to disturb the Peace and Tranquillity of these Realms, or to subvert our glorious Constitution, may (as we are convinced they will) be crushed by the Bravery and Discipline of your Majesty's Fleets and Armies, and the steady Loyalty and Patriotism of your faithful Subjects. Vaughan May, Portreeve.

28th March 1803.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Lovaine, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Council of your Borough of Culois, beg Permission to approach the Throne with this humble Tribute of our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on the late providential Preservation of your Royal Person, and of a Life so justly dear to the People over whom you reign.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Councilmen of the ancient Borough of Bolton, in the County of Lincoln, in Common-Hall assembled, entreat your Majesty to accept our unfeigned Congratulations on your providential Escape from the imminent Danger that lately awaited your sacred Life, so justly dear to all your Subjects; and by the intended Attack on which was manifestly designed the total Destruction of our happy Constitution,—a Constitution that is the Pride and Glory of this Country, and the Admiration and Envy of the World; and we offer our most grateful Acknowledgements to Almighty God for this additional Instance of his Divine Goodness, in bringing to Light and defeating one of the most atrocious and traitorous Conspiracies ever projected against your Majesty's Life and Government : And we hope and trust that your Majesty's Life will long be preserved to bless your dutiful and loyal Subjects, to whom your gracious Majesty has, during a long and happy Reign, set the brightest Example of Piety and Virtue.

Given under our Common-Seal at the Guildhall of the said Borough, the Twenty-eighth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by W. A. Madocks, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble and dutiful Address of the High Steward, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Chipping Campden, and also of the Inhabitants of the several Hamlets or Tythings of Berrington, Broad Campden, Westington, and Coombe, lying within the Parish of Chipping Campden, in the County of Gloucester.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High-Steward, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the ancient Borough and Parish of Chipping Campden, in the County of Gloucester, sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under our free Constitution ; gratefully appreciating the many Advantages which have accompanied the Progress of your Majesty's Reign, both in Arts, Wealth, Liberty, and every Species of National Prosperity ; and feeling that your paternal Care has been extended to every Class of your Subjects, humbly presume to offer to your Majesty our most hearty Congratulations upon the Failure of that audacious and most wicked Conspiracy, directed against the sacred Person of your Majesty with an Intention of destroying, from its Foundation, the British Constitution.

Roused by the Love we bear your Majesty, and the Veneration with which we regard our established Form of Government, we are of Opinion that, at this important Conjunction, it is the Duty of every Individual of Honesty and Common Sense to express in the most public and efficacious Manner their utter Abhorrence of those Principles, which alone could engender so monstrous a Purpose ; Principles calculated to intigrate to the Perpetration of every Enormity the malignant or misguided Spirits who adopt them, and to eradicate from the human Breast every Sentiment belonging to the Dignity of our Nature.

We reflect with Astonishment upon the miserable Contrivers of this hateful Project, equally contemptible as it is atrocious ; for (aimed at a Life justly endeared to all except themselves and their infamous and most hardened Associates, and against a Form of Government the most excellent in the World) nothing but a Stupidity darkening and confusing, by a most providential Consequence, the Minds of Men which admit the Entertainment of shameful and cruel Designs of Treasons, could have induced them for a Moment to expect its Success, or even to escape Detection before the dreadful Hour of its Explosion : Such a Disposition, however wonderful, having been shewn to exist, must be watched and guarded against in every Quarter of your Majesty's Dominions. And we assure your Majesty that we will oppose to all Enemies of the State, both foreign and domestic, the most energetic Resistance in our Power.

We are thankful, that, by the laudable Vigilance of your Majesty's Administration, this meditated Scene of Riot, Murder, and Plunder has been prevented ; and we earnestly hope that the universal Prayer addressed to the Throne of Grace for a long Continuance of your Majesty's Life may be granted to an affectionate and loyal People.

Dated at Chipping Campden the Sixth Day of April, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble but loyal Congratulatory Address of the Mayor, Corporation, and Principal Inhabitants of Falmouth, in Cornwall.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal, dutiful, and faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Corporation, and Principal Inhabitants of Falmouth, in Cornwall, humbly beg Leave, thus publicly to express to your Majesty and the World, our utmost Abhorrence and Detestation of the late traitorous and atrocious Conspiracies levelled against your Majesty's sacred Person and Family, and the envied Constitution of this Kingdom ; and our sincere Thanks to Almighty God for his providential and timely Detection thereof.

That the same Almighty Providence may continue to preserve to us the Blessings of our present Constitution in Church and State under the mild and auspicious Government of your Majesty, whose Life we hope to see protracted to a late, very late, Period of Time, and of your Royal Race, shall be our constant and ardent Prayer.

And we thus further beg Leave to declare our firm Resolution at all Times, as far as may be in our Power, to defend to the utmost your Majesty's Person against all Enemies public and private, and aid and support your Majesty's uniform Endeavours to preserve inviolate that Constitution, the Blessings of which we have so long enjoyed.

March 28, 1803.

Tippet, Town Clerk.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Warwick, in the County of Warwick.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Warwick, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations, that by the Interposition of Providence the horrid Plot lately laid against the sacred Life of your Majesty has been detected and frustrated.

Conscious that we have long enjoyed many and eminent Blessings under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, we reflect with Abhorrence and Detestation on the Designs of those deluded and abandoned Men against a Life so justly dear to all, and on which the public Prosperity so manifestly depends.

And we earnestly pray, that by the same watchful and kind Providence your Majesty may long be preserved as a common Blessing to your faithful People.

Signed in the Name of the Meeting.

W. Birch, Mayor.

[Presented by Charles Mills, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the Royal Burgh of Kirkcaldy, in Council assembled, for ourselves, and in the Name of the Community of the Burgh, with grateful Thanks to Almighty God, beg Leave to offer our hearty Congratulations on the providential Discovery, and Defeat of the late traitorous Conspiracy against your Royal Person and Government.

Most anxious for the Welfare of our Country, which is so nearly connected with your Majesty's personal Safety, we embrace this Opportunity of renewing our Expressions of sincere Attachment and Affection to your Majesty's Person and Government. And it is our earnest Prayer, that that Providence, which has hitherto watched over your valuable Life, will continue to guard and protect it, and preserve to your Majesty's faithful Subjects, a Monarch, whose chief Care has been the Happiness of his People.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, this Fourth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and three Years.

Walter Fergus, Provost.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers, Tradesmen, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Sheffield, in the County of York.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers, Tradesmen, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Sheffield, in the County of York, beg Leave, with due Humility, to approach your Royal Person, and to offer our heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's late providential Escape from one of the most horrid and atrocious Conspiracies that has ever appeared on the Records of human Depravity.

Had not the Fact been incontestably established by the Verdict of an English Jury, it would have been extremely difficult to have reconciled the Mind to a Belief that the Perpetration of so foul a Deed, a Crime which appals us with Horror and Dismay, could possibly have been in the Contemplation of any human Being, much less in that of any of your Majesty's Subjects.

At a Time when Objects of the greatest National Importance must necessarily occupy your Royal Attention, it would ill become us to presume to add more than humbly to assure your Majesty that we will earnestly offer up our most fervent Prayers to the Almighty, that he may be graciously pleased to continue his superintending Care to protect and guard your Royal Person from every possible Injury; and that your Majesty's Reign may be protracted to a very remote Period of Time, and may, henceforth, prove as uninterruptedly happy to the Monarch as it has been uniformly propitious to the Subjects of the British Empire.

[Presented by the Honorable Henry Lascelles and William Wilberforce, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the County of York.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Counsellors of the Burgh of Queensferry, being truly sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's Government, beg Leave to offer our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations to your Majesty that the wicked and traitorous Conspiracies, which lately threatened to undermine the Constitution, have been discovered, and the daring and most flagitious Attempt to assassinate your Royal Person has been defeated.

The Preservation of your Majesty's Life is so dear to every Class of your Majesty's Subjects, that we shall unceasingly offer up our Thanksgivings to the Almighty for the happy Deliverance from the very imminent Danger with which your Majesty was threatened, and that your Majesty may long live to fill in Glory and Peace that Throne which your Majesty has preserved unshaken, and from which your Majesty has dispensed the most signal Blessings upon a grateful People.

Signed by the Chief Magistrate in Name and by Appointment of the Council, the Common-Seal of the Burgh being also hereto affixed, at Queensferry, the Nineteenth Day of March Eighteen hundred and three Years

John Martin.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Helleston, in the County of Cornwall, assembled at the Guildhall of the said Borough, most humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations upon the Discovery and Failure of the late wicked and treasonable Conspiracy formed against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government.

We cannot in Language sufficiently strong express our Horror and Detestation of so atrocious a Design to destroy our free and happy Constitution by an Attempt against your Majesty's most sacred Life,—a Life rendered invaluable to us by those Virtues which so eminently adorn your Majesty's public and private Character.

We beg to assure your Majesty that it is our fixed Resolution, as it is our most sacred Duty, to defend and protect your Majesty's sacred Person, and to preserve inviolate that excellent Constitution, under which this Kingdom has attained to so exalted a Degree of Happiness and Prosperity.

Signed at the Request and on Behalf of the Meeting,

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects, Free Burgesses and other Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Maldon, firmly attached to your Majesty, beg Leave humbly to offer to you our affectionate Congratulations on the timely Discovery of a base Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person.

Under your Majesty's paternal Care and Solicitude for the Welfare and Happiness of your People, our glorious and free Constitution has remained entire; and it is to the Astonishment of the World that there should have been found Men, calling themselves Subjects, to harbour Designs hostile to your Majesty's Life, which if carried into Effect, would have thrown your Majesty's Dominions into Anarchy and Confusion.

But, we trust, that the wicked Designs of such desperate Men may ever be defeated: and that your Majesty's Life may be long preserved, on which so essentially depends the Safety and Welfare of your People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Aldermen, Recorder, and Burgesses, and others the Inhabitants of the Town of East Retford, in the County of Nottingham, do most sincerely congratulate your Majesty on the providential Escape of your Majesty's sacred Person from the malicious Designs of desperate and wicked Traitors.

Every Attempt to subvert the Constitution of our happy Country serves to increase the Veneration of good Men for it, by calling forth those latent Excellencies, which prove that it is equally adapted to its own Preservation, and the general Happiness of the People living under its Protection.

Convinced that nothing can tend so much to the Happiness and Welfare of your Majesty's Subjects as a long Continuance of your Majesty's important Life, and the Constitution under which we live, we are led to look with the utmost Abhorrence and Detestation on any Attempt that may be wickedly conceived to injure your Majesty's sacred Person, or to subvert our Laws, to the utter Destruction of all social Order.

That your Majesty may long continue to enjoy the Affections and Support of a loyal and united People, will ever be the fervent Prayer of the Bailiffs, Aldermen, Recorder, and Burgesses, and others the Inhabitants of the Town of East Retford, in the County of Nottingham.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Free Burgesses of the Borough of Boscuney, and Trevend, in the Parish of Tintagel, in the County of Cornwall, sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's just and mild Government, and venerating the distinguished Virtues which adorn your Majesty's Character, do humbly presume to offer our heartfelt Congratulations on the Detection and Defeat of the late atrocious and treasonable Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person, and the Constitution of this Kingdom; and at the same Time to express our most fervent Wishes that your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous, and that every Effort of an external Enemy or domestic Faction to disturb the Peace and Tranquillity of these Realms; or to subvert our glorious Constitution, may (as we are convinced they will) be crushed by the Bravery and Discipline of your Majesty's Fleets and Armies. and the steady Loyalty and Patriotism of your faithful Subjects.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Cupar, with Pleasure embrace the earliest Opportunity of our being assembled to express to your Majesty our sincere Congratulations on the Detection and Defeat of the late atrocious and execrable Conspiracy against your Majesty's Life, and the Constitution of the Kingdom. On this awful and memorable Occasion we strongly feel the Sentiments of Gratitude to Divine Providence, of Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and of Detestation of the Principles and Deeds of Traitors. We are happy in having it in our Power to assure your Majesty that these Sentiments are felt and cherished among the People committed to our Care. They cordially join with us in our daily Prayers for the Preservation of your precious Life, and for the Stability and Perpetuity of the Constitution.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Master, Wardens, Searchers, and Assistants of the Company and Corporation of Cutlers, within Hallamshire, in the County of York, in their Common-Hall assembled, humbly beg Leave to present to your Majesty our warmest Congratulations upon your Majesty's late happy and providential Escape from a traitorous and most wicked Conspiracy of evil-minded Men.

When we consider the many Blessings that we have long experienced under your Majesty's mild and paternal Care, and when we reflect upon the dreadful Consequences which must have happened had the Designs of those desperate Men succeeded, we find ourselves unable, in Terms sufficiently strong, to convey to your Majesty a true Sense of our utter Detestation of their diabolical Attempts; however, under these our Reflections we have to console ourselves in believing that the abhorred Conspiracy was not the Conspiracy of vast Numbers, but of a very few, and those, with a single Exception, of the lowest Orders of Men. We most fervently thank Almighty God that their Attempts have been frustrated.

As a commercial Body, and in our corporate Capacity, permit us to take this Opportunity to return your Majesty our most sincere Thanks for the anxious Solicitude your Majesty has uniformly evinced in promoting, encouraging, and protecting the Manufactures and Trade of this blessed Empire.

That your Majesty may ever experience the Divine Protection against every Attack of Violence, either of domestic Treason or of a foreign Enemy, and may always possess the Affections of a loyal and happy People, is our most earnest Prayer.

Sealed by the Master, Wardens, Searchers, and Assistants of the Company and Corporation of Cutlers, within Hallamshire, in their Common-Hall, in Sheffield, assembled, this Thirtieth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three.

Jos. Wilbers, Master Cutler, Chairman.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Fife, embrace the Opportunity of our meeting together to congratulate your Majesty on the timely Detection of a wicked Conspiracy, formed against your Majesty's Royal Person, and the happy Constitution of these Realms.

Interested, in common with all our Fellow-Subjects, in the Preservation of a Life deservedly dear to us, and in the Maintenance of a Constitution under which we enjoy the most distinguished Advantages, we account it an Instance of providential Interposition, which justly claims our warmest Acknowledgements, that a Conspiracy, aiming at Ends so detestable in their Nature, and so destructive of the public Weal, has been completely defeated, and defeated too without any other Sacrifice of Life than what the Laws of our Country demanded.

While we rejoice in this happy Interposition, it is our earnest Prayer to God, that your Majesty may continue to enjoy the protecting Care of his Providence; and that, under his Protection, you may prolong your Days in your Kingdom, you and your Children in the Midst of your People.

Geo. Buist, Moderator.

NOTICE is hereby given, that there will be a Drawing-Room at St. James's on Thursday next the 28th Instant.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 20th of April 1803,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Seventh Day of March last, to promise and declare, that the Bounties of Three Pounds for every Able Seaman, and Two Pounds for every Ordinary Seaman, fit for His Majesty's Service, should be paid in the Manner thereby directed to every such Able and Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should, on or before the Thirtieth Day of April then following, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships, or Officers employed in Tenders, or at Rendezvous on Shore for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His said Proclamation, to declare, that all Able-bodied Landmen, not above the Age of Thirty five nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should so enter themselves as aforesaid, should receive the Sum of Twenty Shillings each Man as His Majesty's Royal Bounty: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing equal Date, to promise and declare, that a Reward of Twenty Shillings for every Able and Ordinary Seaman, fit to serve on board His Majesty's Ships, should be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen, who might conceal him or themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's Service, on or before the Thirtieth Day of April then next, by any of His Majesty's Sea-Officers employed for raising Men: And whereas the Time limited by the said Proclamations respectively, for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward, will expire upon the Thirtieth Day of this instant April; and it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service that the said Bounties and Reward should be continued to be paid for some Time longer, His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward be prolonged and extended from the said Thirtieth Day of this instant April to the Thirtieth Day of June next inclusive; whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice and govern themselves accordingly.

Steph. Cottrell.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 20th of April 1803,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, in pursuance of the Powers vested in His Majesty, by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to continue, until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and four, several Laws relating to the prohibiting the Exportation and permitting the Importation of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision without Payment of Duty; to the Relief of Captors of Prizes, with respect

“ to the bringing and landing certain Prize Goods “ in this Kingdom ; and to the regulating the “ Trade and Commerce to and from the Isle of “ Malta ;” His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council, bearing Date the Thirty-first of December last, to order, and it was thereby ordered, That the Prohibition laid, by Order of His Majesty in Council, bearing Date the Twelfth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and one, upon the Exportation from any Port or Place in Great Britain of any Wheat, Rye, Barley, Beer or Bigg, Pease, Beans, Oats, or any Meal or Flour, or Bread, Biscuit, or Malt made thereof, or of any Indian Corn or Maize, or Meal or Flour made thereof; and also the Liberty, granted by the said Order in Council, bearing Date the Twelfth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and one, to import and take out of Warehouse Foreign Corn and other Articles as aforesaid, and likewise to import sundry other Articles of Provision Duty free, should be further continued until the Thirty-first Day of March last, save and except the Importation, Duty free, of the Articles of Rice and Malt; and save and except, as it was declared by the said Order, that nothing therein contained was intended to extend, or should be construed to extend, to affect or apply to any Exportation of Seed Corn from Great Britain to Ireland, or any Importation of Malt from Ireland to Great Britain, in the Manner authorized by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled “ An Act “ for continuing, until the First Day of July One “ thousand eight hundred and three, an Act made “ in the Forty-second Year of the Reign of His “ present Majesty, intituled An Act for regulating, “ until the Fifteenth Day of February One thou- “ sand eight hundred and three, the Prices at which “ Grain, Meal, and Flour may be exported from “ Great Britain to Ireland, and from Ireland to “ Great Britain; and for permitting, from and “ after the passing thereof, until the said First Day “ of July One thousand eight hundred and three, “ the Exportation of Seed Corn from Great Bri- “ tain to Ireland, and the Importation of Malt “ into Great Britain from Ireland :” And whereas His Majesty’s said Order in Council of the Thirty-first Day of December last has been further continued until the Thirtieth Day of this instant April

And whereas it is judged expedient that the said Prohibition to export, and the said Permission to import, should be continued for some Time longer, His Majesty, therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance of the Powers given by the First of the above-recited Acts, passed in the present Session of Parliament, hath thought fit to order, and it is hereby ordered, That the said Order in Council, bearing Date the Thirty-first of December last, and all the Exceptions, Provisoos, Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions, specified and enforced by the said Order, respecting such Exportation and Importation, and taking out of Warehouse, shall be, and continue in Force until the Thirty-first Day of May next inclusive, in the same Manner as the same are now in Force by the said Order, bearing Date the Thirty-first Day of December last. And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty’s Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

St. James's, April 28, 1803.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Armagh.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Armagh, convened by the High-Sheriff, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on the fortunate and timely Discovery of the late dangerous Conspiracy against your Majesty's Royal Person and Government.

Permit us to assure your Majesty that we hold in due Abhorrence the Machinations of the Traitors concerned in so diabolical a Plot; and that we are too conscious of the inestimable Benefits which we enjoy under the Firmness and Mildness of your Majesty's auspicious Reign not to be ready upon every Occasion to step forward with our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of your sacred Person, and the Constitution of our Country.

John Moore, Sheriff.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Sheriff, Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County Carlow, convened by the High Sheriff by public Advertisement.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County Carlow, beg Leave to approach the Throne with Sentiments of the utmost Horror and Detestation at the traitorous Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, and to express our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulation upon your providential Escape from the desperate Designs of the most atrocious Traitors; and we beg Leave humbly to assure your Majesty, that we shall be at all Times ready to hazard our Lives and Fortunes for the Protection of your Majesty's Person, the Preservation of the Succession in your Majesty's illustrious House, and the Maintenance of our happy Constitution.

Jas. Herring, High Sheriff County Carlow.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Clergy, Gentlemen, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the Town and County of the Town of Galway, assembled pursuant to public Notice.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE assure your Majesty of our deep Regret at discovering that a traitorous Conspiracy existed against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, and the Liberties of your People.

Whilst we regret that any Treason was found to exist in Subjects living under the freest and happiest Government in the World, we cannot but find some Consolation in reflecting that the unnatural Conspiracy was confined, with one degenerate Exception, to the lowest Classes of Society.

Your Majesty's faithful Subjects are anxious on this Occasion to declare their Determination to defend, by the Sacrifice of whatever is most dear to us, the Honor and Dignity of your Majesty's Crown, and to transmit to Posterity unimpaired the Blessings of the British Constitution.

John Strogon and Mich. Dillon, Sheriffs.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Counsellors of the Burgh of Queensferry, being truly sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's Government, beg Leave to offer our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations to your Majesty, that the wicked and traitorous Conspiracies, which lately threatened to undermine the Constitution, have been discovered, and the daring and most flagitious Attempt to assassinate your Royal Person, has been defeated.

The Preservation of your Majesty's Life is so dear to every Class of your Majesty's Subjects, that we shall unceasingly offer up our Thanksgivings to the Almighty for the happy Deliverance from the very imminent Danger with which your Majesty was threatened; and that your Majesty may long live to fill in Glory and Peace that Throne which your Majesty has preserved unhaken, and from which your Majesty has dispensed the most signal Blessings upon a grateful People.

Signed by the Chief Magistrate, in Name and by Appointment of the Council, the Common-Seal of the Burgh being also hereto affixed, at Queensferry, the Nineteenth Day of March, Eighteen hundred and three Years.

John Martin.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Town-Councillors of your ancient Borough of Inverkeithing, assembled in Common-Council, beg Leave to approach the Throne, and to offer to your Majesty our humble but heartfelt Congratulations upon the late Failure and Detection of a wicked and treasonable Conspiracy formed against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government; to express our Indignation and Horror of the wicked Machinations of those Traitors, whose Hearts could conceive the Perpetration of so enormous a Crime; and to assure your Majesty that it is our most earnest Prayer, that Providence will continue long to preserve the Life of a Monarch whose chief Care has ever been the Happiness and Welfare of his People.

Signed in Name, and by Appointment of the Magistrates and Town-Council of Inverkeithing, by John Elder, First Baillie.

[Presented by Sir John Henderson, Bart.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Council of your Borough of Culrois, beg Permission to approach the Throne with this humble Tribute of our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on the late providential Preservation of your Royal Person, and of a Life so justly dear to the People over whom you reign.

[Presented by Sir John Henderson, Bart.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High-Sheriff, Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Donegal, assembled by public Requisition from the High-Sheriff on the first Day of the Assizes, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne with our most sincere Congratulations on your late providential Escape from the desperate and wicked Designs of a few unprincipled Traitors.

We feel impressed with the deepest Sense of Gratitude to the Divine Providence for bringing to Light so horrid a Conspiracy, at a Time when a fatal Security might have arisen from the strong Sentiments of Veneration and Affection for your Majesty's Person and Government, which warm the Hearts of all good Men; and when it might be presumed that recent Examples would have convinced the deluded few that your Majesty's Throne was too firmly fixed on the Basis of the Affections of your Subjects to be shaken by secret Conspiracy, or open Rebellion.

We trust with Confidence that the Virtues which have distinguished your Majesty's Reign will continue to secure the Protection of the Almighty; and, in the present Crisis of public Affairs, should it be necessary to have Recourse to Arms, we are ready to come forward, and use every possible Exertion to support the Honor and Dignity of your Throne, and the Peace and Security of the Empire.

William Todd, High-Sheriff of the County of Donegal.

Lifford, April 14, 1803.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the Queen's County, beg Leave to approach the Throne with sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on the providential Discovery and Defeat of the late most atrocious Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government.

When we contemplate the Detection of this detestable Plot, we are impressed with the warmest Gratitude to the Almighty for his Interposition in continuing to guard the Life of a Sovereign so justly dear to all his Subjects; we embrace with Eagerness this Opportunity of renewing our Proclamations of dutiful Allegiance; and we trust that in declaring our stedfast Resolution to defend, with our Lives and Properties, your Majesty's sacred Person, Crown, and Dignity, we express the universal Sentiment of this loyal County.

Wm. Pigot, Sheriff.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

The humble and unanimous Address of the Nobility, Gentry, and Freeholders of the County of Tipperary.

WE, the Nobility, Gentry, and Freeholders of the County of Tipperary, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne with the most heartfelt and sincere Congratulations on the timely and providential Discovery of those traitorous Designs, which had for their Object the Destruction of your Royal Person, and with it the Overthrow of every Thing valuable to every Description of your People.

Our Abhorrence of these Designs can only be equalled by our Gratitude to that protecting Power, who, in Mercy to this Kingdom, has so signally preserved your Majesty's valuable Life, that it may diffuse amongst your Subjects those Blessings, which, under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, it has long been our peculiar Happiness to enjoy.

We earnestly supplicate and entreat the great Disposer of all Events that your Majesty may be long preserved from every Danger, and may long continue to reign over a loyal, affectionate, and grateful People.

Thomas Going, High-Sheriff, for Self and County.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of Lanark, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majesty with our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations upon your Majesty's happy Escape from the Designs of wicked Men, and on the fortunate Discovery of the late atrocious Conspiracy against your most sacred Person and Government. Enjoying the Blessings of your Majesty's mild and paternal Reign, we cannot but reflect with Astonishment on the Wickedness of the Traitors, and join in our unfeigned Thanks to Almighty God for preserving your Majesty and your Government from their nefarious Designs: And our earnest Wish and Prayer is, that your Majesty's valuable Life may long be preserved for a Blessing to your People, and that our free and happy Constitution may remain unviolated.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and by our Appointment, this Seventh Day of April One thousand eight hundred and three Years.

Richard Vary, Provost.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Camelford, in the County of Cornwall, do humbly presume to offer our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations to your Majesty upon the Failure of a most wicked and treasonable Conspiracy formed against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government; fully sensible of the many Virtues which adorn your Majesty's private Character, affectionately attached to you by the long Experience of your paternal Attention towards us, and firmly convinced of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and just Government, our fervent Wishes are, that Divine Providence may continue to strengthen you against all your Enemies, and that you may long reign in the Hearts of your People.

Wm. Clode, Mayor.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiff, and Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Plympton Earle, in the County of Devon.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of your Majesty's ancient Borough of Plympton Earle, in the County of Devon, humbly beg Leave to unite in the general Sentiments of Abhorrence and Detestation expressed by your Majesty's faithful People at the late atrocious Attempts of wicked and designing Men to subvert our glorious Constitution, rendered still more happy under your Majesty's mild and equal Government. And we sincerely congratulate your Majesty on the providential Detection of those deluded Men, and fully concur in the ample Punishment which the Justice of their Country has inflicted on them.

Feeling, as we do, in Conjunction with all Ranks of your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the invaluable Blessings which we at present enjoy under the Protection of your Majesty's Government, we most earnestly pray for the long Continuance of it, and for the Health and Preservation of your Majesty's sacred Person; and that neither the base Attempts of restless Traitors at Home, nor the Machinations of foreign Enemies, may operate to disturb that Tranquillity which happily has been so lately re-established in your Majesty's Dominions.

Jonathan Elford, Mayor.

[Presented by the Earl of Mount Edgumbe, Recorder of the said Borough.]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town-Council of Kilmarnock, for themselves, and in Name of the Community thereof.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates, Council, and Community of Kilmarnock, deem it our indispensable Duty at this Time to approach the Throne, and to offer our warmest and most heartfelt Congratulations on the Discovery and Defeat of the late traitorous Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, which are deservedly dear to every Briton.

Convinced of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and benign Government, and of the invaluable Benefits resulting from our happy Constitution, we could not but learn with Horror that flagitious Designs had been formed against either. We rejoice that these were frustrated, and the Life of our most gracious Sovereign, and the Constitution of our Country, thereby preserved.

That your Majesty may long be continued to preside and rule over a happy, loyal, and affectionate People, is the sincere Prayer of this Community.

Signed in Name and by Appointment of Council, by William Gregory and T. Greenshields.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Perth and Stirling, met at Stirling this Day, embrace the earliest Opportunity humbly to approach your Majesty's Throne with our heartfelt Congratulations on the Discovery and Discomfiture of the late detestable Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred and valuable Life, and the Existence of our happy and much-envied Constitution in Church and State.

Deeply impressed with a Sense of the paternal Interest your Majesty has constantly felt for the Privileges and Happiness of your People, we cannot reflect without Horror on the recent Workings of Disloyalty and Treason; and we praise the God whom we serve for the Detection of such Wickedness, and offer to your Majesty our solemn Allarance that it will be our unceasing Care to instil, by every Mean in our Power, into the Minds of the People under our Charge the Principles of Loyalty to your Majesty's sacred Person, and a dutiful Submission to your Majesty's Government.

That the God and Father of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ may ever keep your Majesty under his sacred Protection, and defend you from all domestic and foreign Foes; that he may bless the Queen, the Prince and Princess of Wales, and all your Majesty's Royal Family; that the Blessings which this Nation, and the Territories therewith connected, now enjoy under your Majesty's Government, may be continued through many Generations yet to come under the Government of a Race of Protestant Princes descended from your Majesty, are the most earnest and sincere Prayers of.

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Perth and Stirling, met in Stirling this Twentieth Day of April Eighteen hundred and three Years.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, by Rob. Clason, Moderator.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

AT the Court at St. James's, the 20th of April 1803,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Seventh Day of March last, to promise and declare, that the Bounties of Three Pounds for every Able Seaman, and Two Pounds for every Ordinary Seaman, fit for His Majesty's Service, should be paid in the Manner thereby directed to every such Able and Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should, on or before the Thirtieth Day of April then following, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships, or Officers employed in Tenders, or at Rendezvous on Shore for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His said Proclamation, to declare, that all Able-bodied Landmen, not above the Age of Thirty five nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should so enter themselves as aforesaid, should receive the Sum of Twenty Shillings each Man as His Majesty's Royal Bounty: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing equal Date, to promise and declare, that a Reward of Twenty Shillings for every Able and Ordinary Seaman, fit to serve on board His Majesty's Ships, should be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen, who might conceal him or themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's Service, on or before the Thirtieth Day of April then next, by any of His Majesty's Sea-Officers employed for raising Men: And whereas the Time limited by the said Proclamations respectively, for Payment of said the Bounties and Reward, will expire upon the Thirtieth Day of this instant April; and it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service that the said Bounties and Reward should be continued to be paid for some Time longer, His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward be prolonged and extended from the said Thirtieth Day of this instant April to the Thirtieth Day of June next inclusive; whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice and govern themselves accordingly.

Steph. Cottrell.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 20th of April 1803,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, in pursuance of the Powers vested in His Majesty, by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intitled "An Act to continue, until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and four, several Laws relating to the prohibiting the Exportation and permitting the Importation of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision without Payment of Duty; to the Relief of Captors of Prizes, with respect to the bringing and landing certain Prize Goods in this Kingdom; and to the regulating the Trade and Commerce to and from the Isle of Malta;" His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council, bearing Date the Thirty-first of December last, to order, and it was thereby ordered, That the Prohibition laid, by Order of His Majesty in Council, bearing Date the Twelfth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and one, upon the Exportation from any Port or Place in Great Britain of any Wheat, Rye, Barley, Beer or Bigg, Pease, Beans, Oats, or any Meal or Flour, or Bread, Biscuit, or Malt made thereof, or of any Indian Corn or Maize, or Meal or Flour made thereof; and also the Liberty, granted by the said Order in Council, bearing Date the Twelfth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and one, to import and take out of Warehouse Foreign Corn and other Articles as aforesaid, and likewise to import fundry other Articles of Provision Duty free, should be further continued until the Thirty-first Day of March last, save and except the Importation, Duty free, of the Articles of Rice and Malt; and save and except, as it was declared by the said Order, that nothing therein contained was intended to extend, or should be construed to extend, to affect or apply to any Exportation of Seed Corn from Great Britain to Ireland, or any Importation of Malt from Ireland to Great Britain, in the Manner authorized by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intitled "An Act for continuing, until the First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, an Act made in the Forty-second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for regulating, until the Fifteenth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and three, the Prices at which Grain, Meal, and Flour may be exported from Great Britain to Ireland, and from Ireland to

" Great Britain ; and for permitting, from and after the passing thereof, until the said First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, the Exportation of Seed Corn from Great Britain to Ireland, and the Importation of Malt into Great Britain from Ireland : " And whereas His Majesty's said Order in Council of the Thirty-first Day of December last has been further continued until the Thirtieth Day of this instant April :

And whereas it is judged expedient that the said Prohibition to export, and the said Permission to import, should be continued for some Time longer, His Majesty, therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance of the Powers given by the First of the above-recited Acts, passed in the present Session of Parliament, hath thought fit to order, and it is hereby ordered, That the said Order in Council, bearing Date the Thirty-first of December last, and all the Exceptions, Provisoos, Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions, specified and enforced by the said Order, respecting such Exportation and Importation, and taking out of Warehouse, shall be, and continue in Force until the Thirty-first Day of May next inclusive, in the same Manner as the same are now in Force by the said Order, bearing Date the Thirty-first Day of December last. And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

Steph. Cottrell.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Seventh Day of March last, to promise and declare, that the Bounties of Three Pounds for every Able Seaman, and Two Pounds for every Ordinary Seaman, fit for His Majesty's Service, should be paid in the Manner thereby directed to every such Able and Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should, on or before the Thirtieth Day of April then following, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships, or Officers employed in Tenders, or at Rendezvous on Shore for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His said Proclamation, to declare, that all Able-bodied Landmen, not above the Age of Thirty five nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should so enter themselves as aforesaid, should receive the Sum of Twenty Shillings each Man as His Majesty's Royal Bounty: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing equal Date, to promise and declare, that a Reward of Twenty Shillings for every Able and Ordinary Seaman, fit to serve on board His Majesty's Ships, should be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen, who might conceal him or themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's Service, on or before the Thirtieth Day of April then next, by any of His Majesty's Sea-Officers employed for raising Men: And whereas the Time limited by the said Proclamations respectively, for Payment of said the Bounties and Reward, will expire upon the Thirtieth Day of this instant April; and it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service that the said Bounties and Reward should be continued to be paid for some Time longer, His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward be prolonged and extended from the said Thirtieth Day of this instant April to the Thirtieth Day of June next inclusive; whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice and govern themselves accordingly.

Steph. Cottrell.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 20th of April 1803,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, in pursuance of the Powers vested in His Majesty, by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to continue, until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and four, several Laws relating to the prohibiting the Exportation and permitting the Importation of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision without Payment of Duty; to the Relief of Captors of Prizes, with respect to the bringing and landing certain Prize Goods in this Kingdom; and to the regulating the Trade and Commerce to and from the Isle of Malta;" His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council, bearing Date the Thirty-first of December last, to order, and it was thereby ordered, That the Prohibition laid, by Order of His Majesty in Council, bearing Date the Twelfth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and one, upon the Exportation from any Port or Place in Great Britain of any Wheat, Rye, Barley, Beer or Bigg, Pease, Beans, Oats, or any Meal or Flour, or Bread, Biscuit, or Malt made thereof, or of any Indian Corn or Maize, or Meal or Flour made thereof; and also the Liberty, granted by the said Order in Council, bearing Date the Twelfth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and one, to import and take out of Warehouse For-reign Corn and other Articles as aforesaid, and likewise to import sundry other Articles of Provision Duty free, should be further continued until the Thirty-first Day of March last, save and except the Importation, Duty free, of the Articles of Rice and Malt; and save and except, as it was declared by the said Order, that nothing therein contained was intended to extend, or should be construed to extend, to affect or apply to any Exportation of Seed Corn from Great Britain to Ireland, or any Importation of Malt from Ireland to Great Britain, in the Manner authorized by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for continuing, until the First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, an Act made in the Forty-second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for regulating, until the Fifteenth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and three, the Prices at which Grain, Meal, and Flour may be exported from Great Britain to Ireland, and from Ireland to Great Britain; and for permitting, from and after the passing thereof, until the said First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, the Exportation of Seed Corn from Great Britain to Ireland, and the Importation of Malt into Great Britain from Ireland;" And whereas His Majesty's said Order in Council of the Thirty-first Day of December last has been further continued until the Thirtieth Day of this instant April:

And whereas it is judged expedient that the said Prohibition to export, and the said Permission to import, should be continued for some Time longer, His Majesty, therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance of the Powers given by the First of the above-recited Acts, passed in the present Session of Parliament, hath thought fit to order, and it is hereby ordered, That the said Order in Council, bearing Date the Thirty-first of December last, and all the Exceptions, Provisoos, Rules Regulations, and Restrictions, specified and enforced by the said Order, respecting such Exportation and Importation, and taking out of Warehouse, shall be, and continue in Force until the Thirty-first Day of May next inclusive, in the same Manner as the same are now in Force by the said Order, bearing Date the Thirty-first Day of December last. And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

Steph. Cottrell.

St. James's, May 4, 1803.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Rutland.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Rutland, holding in just Abhorrence the late atrocious and diabolical Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, and the Existence of our most invaluable Constitution, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne with our most hearty Congratulations on the Discovery thereof, and timely Punishment of its wicked and contemptible Authors.

We beg Leave, Sire, to express our unalterable Attachment to your Majesty's Family and Government; and we sincerely pray to the Almighty that your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous, attended with neither Alarm or Danger; and we trust our Conduct will, at all Times, prove our Zeal in the Support of the Laws and Constitution of our Country against all traitorous Conspiracies, and all foreign and domestic Enemies.

Signed at the Castle in Oakham, on Monday the Eighteenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and three, at the Request of the Meeting, by the Chairman. Carbery.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Carbery, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Merioneth.

WE, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Merioneth, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our sincerest Congratulations on the Discovery of the detestable Conspiracy against your sacred Person.

Justly appreciating the Value of a mild and wise Administration of the Laws under which we live, we reflect with Surprise and Horror on the Machinations of a desperate Band of Traitors; and we trust the late most just and necessary Example will demonstrate, that they who seek their present Advantage in the Subversion of social Order, will meet the Destruction they merit. The Principles which actuated the atrocious Rebels we detest and execrate; the Vigilance and Energy of those by whom their diabolical Designs were prevented we admire and applaud; and we thank the merciful Ruler of the Universe that he has extended his protecting Arm over this highly-favoured Isle, by preserving a Life, for the Safety of which our Interest, our Duty, and our Gratitude bind us continually to pray.

[Presented by Sir Robert William Vaughan, Bart. Representative in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Grand Jury and Freeholders of the County of Leitrim, assembled at Lent Assizes One thousand eight hundred and three.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Grand Jury and Freeholders of the County of Leitrim, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's late providential Escape from the wicked and daring Conspiracy formed against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government.

Our Abhorrence of the Intention can only be equalled by our Gratitude to Divine Providence for the Detection of a Plot calculated to destroy the Life of our beloved Sovereign, and to overturn the Constitution and Government of the Realm.

We trust that the exemplary and just Punishment inflicted on the Traitors will prevent the Repetition of such atrocious Designs; and that the Vigilance and Energy of your Majesty's Government, aided by the Loyalty of your Subjects, will defeat every Attack upon our glorious and invaluable Constitution.

Signed by Order and on Behalf of the County,
Pat. Dundas, Sheriff.

[Presented by Viscount Clements, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Anglesey, beg Leave to offer our heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's Preservation by a providential Detection and Disappointment of a detestable Conspiracy which was formed for the Destruction of a beloved Sovereign, and to overthrow the Constitution and Government of the Realm.

While we reflect with Horror and Amazement on the atrocious and wicked Designs of those Traitors, whose Hearts could propose the Perpetration of a Crime of such Enormity, we cannot but offer our Thanksgivings to the Supreme Director of Events, who has, by his Interposition, protected your Majesty against the assassinating Hand of the Conspirators.

Feeling the benign Influence of your Majesty's Government uniformly directed to the Welfare of your People, and admiring those estimable Virtues which adorn your Majesty's sacred Character, we are confident that the Spirit of Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and the Constitution continues firm and unaltered.

We hope that the Example of those, whose Lives have been so justly forfeited to the Vengeance of the Law, may be the Means of checking those flagitious Principles, which are subversive of all social Order and legitimate Authority.

We who, in this favoured Nation, know not their baneful Effects, and who enjoy the Blessings of a Constitution and Laws best calculated for the Happiness of a People, must see with painful Concern an Attempt to deprive us of those Privileges, and to introduce amongst us a System of Anarchy and Confusion.

Fortunately, for your Majesty's Subjects, the Designs of wicked Men have, by the Vigilance of Government, been frustrated; and we rely with Confidence that the same Providence, which has never ceased to watch over your gracious Life, will continue to guard and protect it, and to preserve to your Subjects a Monarch, who, we pray, may long continue to reign over a free, loyal, and united People.

W. B. Hughes, Sheriff.

[Presented by William Bulkeley Hughes, Esq; High Sheriff for the said County.]

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Justices, Bailiffs, Burgesse, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Newcastle-under-Lyme, beg Leave most fervently to join in the general Congratulation on the Detection and Defeat of the late treasonable and flagitious Conspiracy formed against your Majesty's Royal Person and Government.

Impressed with a just and grateful Sense of the invaluable Blessings which we enjoy under your Majesty's benign and auspicious Reign, and animated with the warmest Sentiments of personal Attachment towards your Majesty, from the Contemplation of those Virtues, which, whilst they shed Lustre round the Throne, adorn the Path of private Life, and hold forth a bright Example for Imitation, we cannot but regard with proportionate and indignant Abhorrence all Designs and Attempts whatever, tending to endanger these inestimable Benefits; and we ardently pray that the same Almighty Power, who rules the Fate of Empires, and holds in his Hands the Destinies of Men, may long preserve and uphold your Majesty against all your Enemies, and thereby secure the Continuance of the Happiness, Prosperity, and Glory, of a free, loyal, and united People.

John Smith, Mayor.

[Presented by James Caldwell, Esq. Recorder of the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Burgh of Kirkby in Kendal, in the County of Westmorland.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Burgh of Kirkby in Kendal, beg Leave to offer our very sincere Congratulations to your Majesty on your late providential Deliverance from the wicked Conspiracies of traitorous and evil minded Men.

Fully satisfied that we live under the best Constitution this Day existing on the Earth, and under which all Ranks enjoy equal Liberty, and the Protection of equal Laws, administered by the best of Kings, we are truly sensible that we cannot be sufficiently thankful to Almighty God for the manifold Blessings we enjoy; and we most fervently pray that your Majesty may long reign over a People happily united in their Attachment to your Majesty's august Person, Family, and Government, and zealous to support and preserve unimpaired the most excellent Constitution of these Realms.

Given under the Common-Seal of the said Burgh the Thirtieth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and three.

Tho. Hurd, Mayor.

[Presented by Richard Howard, Esq. the Recorder of the said Burgh.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Hythe, in the County of Kent.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Hythe, humbly beg Leave to present to your Majesty our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations upon your happy Preservation from the late horrid Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person, and our invaluable Constitution.

Deeply impressed with the Sense of your Majesty's just and mild Government, and attached to your Royal Person by our Veneration for he many Virtues which adorn your Majesty's Character, and afford a bright Example to your Subjects; we acknowledge with the utmost Gratitude the merciful Interposition of that Providence which has been so signally manifested on the present as on preceding Occasions, and it will be our fervent Prayer to Almighty God, that he will continue to watch over and preserve your Majesty's Life, so justly dear to all your Subjects.

Given under the Common Seal of the said Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty, and under the Hands of us the Inhabitants, the Ninth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by Thomas Godfrey, Esq. one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Town.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses, and Inhabitants of Stamford, in the County of Lincoln; and also the Inhabitants of Saint Martin's, Stamford-Baron, in the County of Northampton.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of your Majesty's ancient Borough of Stamford, and the Inhabitants of the said Borough, and of the Parish of Saint Martin's, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our sincere Sentiments of Congratulation on the providential Discovery and Defeat of a most wicked and atrocious Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person, and our estimable Constitution.

Truly sensible of the Happiness we enjoy under your Majesty's mild, unceasing, and paternal Government, we cannot but feel the greatest Abhorrence of those nefarious Designs, which, by depriving us of a revered and beloved Sovereign, and destroying our Government, would have plunged a prosperous and happy People into Misery.

That Providence, which has hitherto so signally preserved your Majesty, may shield and guard you from all wicked and desperate Men, and long continue your Majesty on the Throne of this Kingdom, is our most sincere and earnest Prayer.

Given under our Common-Seal, at the Town-Hall of the said Borough, the Twelfth Day of April, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

Thomas Harper, Mayor.

[Presented by General Leland and Lieutenant-General Bortie, Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

And also to order, that this His Majesty's Concession and Declaration be registered in His College of Arms, otherwise to be void and of none Effect.

NOTICE.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in this present Session of Parliament, intituled "AN ACT for appointing Commissioners for distributing the “ Money stipulated to be paid by the United States of America, under the Convention made between His Majesty and the said United States, among the Persons having Claims to Compensation out of such Money,” Thomas Macdonald, Esquire, Henry Pye Rich, Esquire, and John Guillemard, Esquire, are constituted and appointed Commissioners for the Purposes aforesaid; and it is enacted that the Adjudication of such Commissioners, or any Two of them, as to all Claims made for Compensation out of such Money, and also as to the Apportionment or Distribution thereof as aforesaid, shall be final and conclusive: And whereas it is thereby further enacted, that no Claim or Request of any Person or Persons under the said Act, shall be received after the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and four: And whereas His Majesty by the said Convention (dated the 8th Day of January 1802,) consented to accept of the said Money so to be paid by the said United States, (amounting in the Whole to SIX HUNDRED THOUSAND POUNDS Sterling,) for the Use of the Persons described in the Sixth Article of the Treaty of Amity, Commerce, and Navigation concluded at London, on the 4th Day of November 1794, between His Majesty and the said United States, in Satisfaction and Discharge of the Money which the United States might have been liable to pay in pursuance of the Provisions of the said Sixth Article.—All Persons who think themselves entitled, as being within the Description of the said Sixth Article of the said Treaty, and the Meaning of the said Convention, to claim under the said Act; and who have not already preferred Claims at this Office under the said Convention, pursuant to and in Terms of the Notice in the London Gazette of the 11th Day of September last, (which Claims so preferred in Terms of the said Notice, will be held and considered by the said Commissioners as Claims under the above Act of Parliament,) are hereby required, without Delay, and at farthest on or before the said First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and four, when the Sum total of Claims will be finally made up and ascertained; to present and deliver at this Office, their respective Claims, in the Form of Memorials, addressed to the Commissioners under the said Act of Parliament, and duly signed by the Parties, or their Agents respectively authorised for that Purpose, with such relative Lists or Schedules of Debts and Debtors as the several Cases may admit of or require; the said Memorials and relative Lists or Schedules distinctly setting forth the several Points enumerated and described in the said former Notice under the Convention; of which former Notice, printed Copies will be delivered at this Office to all who shall apply for the same.

And inasmuch as Claims have already been received, under the said Convention, to a much greater Amount than the Money to be distributed, and the Commissioners, while they prevent, as far as in them lies, all unnecessary Discussion and Delay, will nevertheless proceed so as to ensure as much as possible the Means of full Investigation, and of equal Justice to all concerned, Notice is hereby given, that the several Claims, Schedules, and Accounts, with a List of all the Claimants, will be open at this Office for the Inspection of every Claimant, or the authorized Agent of such Claimant, who may state such Objections in Writing (duly signed by such Claimant or Agent) as he may desire to have submitted to the Consideration of the Commissioners; which Objections the said Commissioners, if they see Cause so to do, will allow the respective Claimants against whose Claims, in the Whole or in Part, the same shall be directed, to see and answer; such Inspection of Claims to be made in the Manner, and according to the Rules, which, with the general Orders of the Board for regulating the Course of the Proceedings before them, will be communicated at this Office.

By Order of the Commissioners,

Hay, Secretary.

Office of the Commissioners for Claims under the Convention with the United States of America, Great Marlborough-Street, No. 7, May 7, 1803.

Navy-Office, April 28, 1803.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that on Wednesday the 11th of next Month, at One o'Clock, they will be ready to treat with such Persons as may be willing to contract for supplying a Steam Engine Boiler of Wrought Iron, for the Use of His Majesty's Yard at Portsmouth.

A Description of the Boiler, with a Form of the Tender, may be seen at this Office.

No Tender will be received after Twelve o'Clock on the Day of Treaty, nor any noticed, unless the Party, or an Agent for him, attends.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary.

East India-House, May 4, 1803.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England, trading to the East Indies, do hereby give Notice,

That a General Court of the said Company will be held at their House, in Leadenhall-Street, on Wednesday the 25th Instant, from Nine o'Clock in the Morning until Six in the Evening, for the Election of a Director of the said Company, in the Room of Sir John Smith Burges, Bart. deceased. William Ramsay, Secretary.

Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich,
April 5, 1803.

THE Commissioners and Governors of the said Hospital, hereby give Notice, that at Salters'-Hall, in London, on Wednesday the 19th Day of October next, or as soon after as conveniently may be, the following Estates will be let on Leases, to commence upon the several Days, and for the respective Terms of Years below mentioned, that is to say, Spindleston Farm, (Lisles Field and Sea Lands not included,) consisting, by Estimation, of Three Hundred and Fifty-eight Acres, Two Roods, and Fourteen Perches of Ground, be the same more or less; and Spindleston and Waren Mills and Ground, (including Lisles Field and Sea Lands,) consisting, by Estimation, of Eighty-four Acres, Two Roods, and Twenty-three Perches, be the same more or less, in the Parish of Bamburgh, otherwise Bambrough, and County of Northumberland; and Five Shops, Eight Butcher's Shambles or Stands at Kewick, the Tolls of Kewick, and Williamson's Close, in the Parish of Crosthwaite, and County of Cumberland.

Spindleston Farm, and Spindleston and Waren Mills and Ground, will be let together, or separate, for the Term of Twelve Years, to commence upon the 12th Day of May 1804, but it is required, that the Buildings for each of those Two Estates shall be made separate; and the Shops, Butchers' Shambles or Stands, and Tolls, will be let separately for the Term of Seven Years, and Williamson's Close, for the Term of Four Years, to commence upon the 5th Day of April 1804.

Such Persons as may be desirous to take any of the said Estates, are requested to deliver or send their Proposals, in Writing, to John Helyson, Esq; at Greenwich Hospital, at any Time before the 19th Day of October next, or on that Day, before the Hour of Eleven o' Clock in the Forenoon, at Sakers'-Hall, in London; after which Hour no Proposals will be received. A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS Patrick Earl of Dumfries was duly elected and returned to be one of the Sixteen Peers of Scotland, to sit in the House of Peers in the present Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain, and Ireland, and is since deceased, in order to the electing another Peer of Scotland to sit in his Room, We do, by the Advice of Our Privy Council, issue forth this Proclamation, strictly charging and commanding all the Peers of Scotland to assemble and meet at Holy-Rood-House, in Edinburgh, on Thursday the Sixteenth Day of June next, between the Hours of Twelve and Two in the Afternoon, to nominate and choose another Peer of Scotland to sit and vote in the House of Peers of this present Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Room of the said Patrick Earl of Dumfries, deceased, by open Election and Plurality of Voices of the Peers that shall then be present, and of the Proxies of such as shall be absent (such Proxies being Peers, and producing a Mandate in Writing duly signed before Witnesses, and both Constituent and Proxy being qualified according to Law); and the Lord Clerk Register, or such Two of the Principal Clerks of the Session as shall be appointed by him to officiate in his Name, are hereby respectively required to attend such Meeting, and to administer the Oaths required by Law to be taken there by the said Peers, and to take their Votes; and immediately after such Election made, and duly examined, to certify the Name of the Peer so elected, and sign and attest the same in the Presence of the said Peers the Electors, and return such Certificate into Our High Court of Chancery of Great Britain: And we strictly charge and command, that this Proclamation be duly published at the Market Cross, at Edinburgh, and in all the County Towns in Scotland, Twenty-five Days at least, before the Time hereby appointed for the Meeting of the said Peers to proceed on such Election.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Fourth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and three, in the Forty-third Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

St. James's, May 9, 1803.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Tyrone, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon the providential Discovery of the late Treason, designed against your sacred Person, and the happy Constitution of this Realm.

Actuated by every Consideration which ought to influence the Mind of Man, in a State where Blessings so great and distinguished are enjoyed, as we possess under your Majesty's auspicious Reign, we shall always be ready, with our most active Services, to oppose any Attempt which may be made against your Royal Person and Government; and we trust in Almighty God, that he may still continue to baffle and defeat all the Machinations of desperate Traitors, who would sacrifice to their private Ambition the Peace, good Order, and public Tranquillity of the happiest Nation on Earth.

George Perry, Sheriff.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The Address of the High Sheriff, Magistrates, and Freeholders of the King's County.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects of the King's-County, impressed with the most zealous Gratitude towards Almighty God for his omnipotent Protection at all Times vouchsafed to your Majesty's most sacred Person, Crown, and Dignity, most humbly and most devoutly congratulate your Majesty on the providential Discovery and Suppression of the late traitorous Conspiracy against your Majesty's most inestimable Life, and unparagoned Government; and being determined to deprecate and resist all such disgraceful and sacrilegious Plots and Attempts, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our increased Attachment and Allegiance to your Majesty's august Family and Succession, and thus publicly to renew our Offers of Military Service for your Support and Defence whenever required.

Viewing, with the most encouraged Satisfaction, the vigilant Superintendence and active Exertions of your Majesty's Ministers at the present Crisis, we are more firmly than ever convinced of our well-placed Confidence in your Majesty's Wisdom and Discernment; and though happy and industrious to cultivate the Blessings of Peace, should your Majesty feel the Necessity of proclaiming it, War is then also our Duty, and we shall as such embrace it with Cheerfulness and Vigour: and whenever the Ambition or Restlessness of your Enemies shall disappoint your Endeavours of maintaining Peace, we shall be ready to co-operate with your Majesty's Forces against all your Foes; and should the Olive be again removed, we trust it may be replaced by new Trophies of Honor and Renown to commemorate to the latest Posterity your Majesty's most glorious Reign, which may God long continue with Health and Prosperity, is our sincere and ardent Prayer.

Jackson Wray Atkinson, High-Sheriff.

Birr, April 29, 1853.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Antrim, convened by the High-Sheriff on the Twenty-second Day of April One thousand eight hundred and three, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our sincere Congratulations on your late providential Escape from the atrocious Conspiracy formed against your sacred Person, and against your Government.

When we review the whole Period of your Majesty's auspicious Reign, we are led to adore the Goodness of Divine Providence in watching over the Life of a King, who, amongst so many crowned Heads, enjoys, almost alone, the high Honor of ruling over a free Nation; a King, who makes his Power consist in being beloved, and his Glory in being just.

We unite in a fervent Prayer, that your Majesty's invaluable Life may be long preserved to diffuse through every Part of your Dominions the Blessings of your mild and paternal Government. We have the Honor to be, with that profound Respect which is due to the most exemplary Virtue, as well as to the highest Rank, your Majesty's most humble and dutiful Subjects.

Signed in the Name and at the Request of the Meeting. Edw. Jones Agnew, Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High-Sheriff and Grand Jury assembled at this Assizes, together with the Noblemen, Clergy, Magistrates, and Freeholders of the County of Down, cannot think of separating without offering our warmest and unfeigned Assurances of unshaken Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government. We approach the Throne to express these Sentiments with unusual Anxiety, when we reflect what Calamity might have overwhelmed the Empire had we not, most gratefully, to acknowledge that Divine Goodness which has providentially aided the Zeal and Activity of your Majesty's Ministers in detecting and frustrating the wicked and daring Plots of a few abandoned Traitors, who, not satisfied with forming Machinations for the Subversion of our free Constitution, possessed Hearts depraved enough to harbour Designs against your sacred Person. We rejoice that such vile Wretches have been brought to condign Punishment as much as we have to lament that any Individuals, born to the Privileges of British Subjects, could be so far lost to all Sense of the many Blessings derived from your Majesty's paternal Goodness, and the Protection experienced under such a Government, as to be capable of engaging in these execrable Deeds. Our Voices unite with the great and general Body of your Majesty's good and faithful Subjects in offering Congratulations on your happy Escape; and in fervently beseeching the Disposer of all human Events to watch over, and to protect, a Life, in the Safety and Preservation of which the whole Community is so deeply interested.

Math. Foulle, High-Sheriff of the County of Down.

Downpatrick, April 14, 1853.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Kildare, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our most heartfelt Congratulations on the providential Discovery of the late treasonable Conspiracy, directed against your Majesty's sacred Person, and the happy Constitution under which we live. We learn with Abhorrence and Astonishment that a Project so wicked and desperate had been entertained by Persons living under the mild and equal Laws which these Countries have to boast; and we are led, by the Detection of such nefarious Designs to reflect on the Value of those Blessings which we enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Reign. We most earnestly beseech that Providence, which has hitherto shielded your Majesty's invaluable Life, to vouchsafe to your Majesty a long Continuance of Health and Prosperity; and to us a Continuance of that Security which we enjoy under your Majesty's paternal Government.

John Joseph Henry, Sheriff.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To His Most Excellent Majesty King GEORGE the Third.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Cardigan, (at a Meeting convened by the High Sheriff,) humbly beg Leave to address your Majesty with every Sentiment of Loyalty and Respect.

We have heard with Astonishment, that Men have been found (Natives of this happy Island,) who, lost to themselves, and forgetful of the Duty and Gratitude they owed to a beneficent King, and a mild and constitutional Government, have dared to conspire in foul Rebellion to murder the one, and overturn the other.

Our Abhorrence of the Fact can only be exceeded by our Astonishment at it.—These Traitors have met with the due Reward of their Crimes.

We have therefore to return our unfeigned Thanks to the Almighty Disposer of all Events, for his Interposition in Favor of a People whom he has taught to appreciate justly the Blessings of a free and legitimate Government.

We have to express to your Majesty our grateful Sense of your Care and Solicitude for the Safety and Welfare of your Subjects, and for the Vigilance of your Government in discovering and bringing to Light these secret Acts of Atrocity, and the Punishment attendant on them.

We further beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our utmost Services against every Enemy open or concealed, foreign or domestic, whenever it shall appear necessary for your Majesty to require them.

[Presented by John Lloyd, Esq; of Mavus, High-Sheriff of the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Sovereign, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of Belfast, beg Leave to approach your Majesty to express our heartfelt Joy upon your late Escape from the treasonable Designs of your Enemies against your sacred Person, and our happy Constitution: We beg Leave to assure your Majesty that our Persons and Fortunes shall at all Times be in Readiness to be brought forward for the Support of your Majesty, your illustrious Family, and the Constitution.

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS an Act of Parliament was passed in the Twenty-ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Salt Petre; and to enforce the Law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms and Ammunition; and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying Coastwise of Salt Petre, Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition:" And His Majesty judging it necessary to prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder or Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition out of this Kingdom, or carrying the same Coastwise, for some Time, doth therefore, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command that no Person or Persons whatsoever, (except the Master General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service,) do at any Time, during the Space of Two Months from the Date of this Order in Council, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coastwise, any Gunpowder or Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, or ship or lade any Gunpowder or Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, on board any Ship or Vessel in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, or carrying the same Coastwise, without Leave or Permission in that Behalf first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted by the aforementioned Act: And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

Steph. Cottrell.

AT the Court at the Queen's-Palace, the 11th of May 1803,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council,

WHEREAS, by an Act passed in the Thirty-third Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the Exportation of Naval Stores, and more effectually to prevent the Exportation of Salt Petre, Arms, and Ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council," it is enacted, amongst other Things, That His Majesty may, by Proclamation or Order in Council, when he shall see Cause, and for such Time as shall be therein expressed, prohibit the exporting, or the attempting to export, Pig-Iron, Bar-Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Oker, Sheet-Copper, and other Naval Stores: And His Majesty, judging it necessary to prohibit the Exportation of the said several Articles for a limited Time, doth therefore, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no Person or Persons whatsoever do at any Time, during the Space of Two Months from the Date of this Order in Council, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom any Pig-Iron, Bar-Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Oker, Sheet-Copper, or other Naval Stores, or do ship or lade any Pig-Iron, Bar-Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Oker, Sheet-Copper, or other Naval Stores, on board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, without Leave or Permission first being had and obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring the Forfeitures inflicted by the aforementioned Act: But it is nevertheless His Majesty's Pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any of His Majesty's Ships of War, or any other Ships or Vessels or Boats in the Service of His Majesty, or employed or freighted by His Majesty's Board of Ordnance, or by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy; nor to prevent any Ship or Vessel from taking or having on board such Quantities of Naval Stores as may be necessary for the Use of such Ship or Vessel during the Course of her intended Voyage, or by Licence from the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners of the Admiralty for the Time being; nor to the Exportation of the said several Articles to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Yards or Garrisons, or to His Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies: Provided, that upon the Exportation of any of the said Articles for the Purposes of Trade to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Yards and Garrisons, or to His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to the Island of Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies, the Exporters of such Articles do first make Oath of the true Destination of the same to the Places for which they shall be entered outwards, before the Entry of the same shall be made, and do give full and sufficient Security, by Bond, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said Articles to the Places for which they are so entered Outwards, and for the Purposes specified, and none other; and such Bond shall not be cancelled or delivered up until Proof be made to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the Production, within a Time to be fixed by the said Commissioners and specified in the Bond, of a Certificate or Certificates, in such Form and Manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said Articles have been duly landed at the Places for which they were entered Outwards: And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Fawcener.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 11th of May 1803.

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this Day ordered by His Majesty in Council, That all Ships and Vessels clearing out for the Coast of Africa for the Purpose of carrying on the Trade there, be permitted to take on board, as an assorted Part of their Cargoes, as much Gunpowder, and as large a Quantity of Trading Guns, Pistols, Cutlasses, Flint, and Lead Balls, Bars, and Shot as the Exporters shall think necessary, notwithstanding any Thing contained in His Majesty's Order in Council of the Sixth Day of April last; provided that sufficient Security be given to the Principal Officers of His Majesty's Customs of the Port in which the Ships are fitted out, and before they proceed on their respective Voyages, in treble the Value of the Articles exported, that the same shall be expended in Trade upon the Coast of Africa; which Security is not to be cancelled until Proof of such Expenditure has been made by the Oath of the Captain or Master of the Ship or Vessel in like Manner as is practised with regard to Spirits and East India Goods used in carrying on that Trade: and His Majesty is further pleased to order, That all Ships and Vessels trading to the said Coast, be allowed to take on board for their Defence whatever Quantity of Carriage Guns, Swivels, and small Arms, shall be judged proper by the respective Masters thereof; provided that no greater Quantity be taken on board any one Ship for her Defence than Twelve Carriage Guns and Twelve Swivels, together with one Musket or Blanderbus, one Pair of Pistols and one Cutlass for every Person of which the Ship's Company shall consist, and Ammunition in Proportion; and provided also, that sufficient Security be in like Manner given to the said Principal Officers of the Customs at the Ports where the Ships shall be fitted out, in treble the Value of the Carriage Guns, Swivels, and small Arms to taken on board for the Defence of the said Ships to bring back the said Carriage Guns, Swivels, and small Arms when the Voyage is completed, and to account upon Oath for the Expenditure of the Ammunition: And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary herein accordingly.

W. Fawcener.

St. James's, May 12. 1803.

This Day Chevalier d'Andagna, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from the King of Spain, had his first private Audience of Her Majesty:

To which he was introduced by the Earl of Morton, Lord Chamberlain to Her Majesty, and conducted by Robert Chester, Esq; Assistant-Master of the Ceremonies.

St. James's, May 12. 1803.

This Day Rufus King, Esq; Minister Plenipotentiary from the United States of America, had his Audience of Leave of Her Majesty:

To which he was introduced by the Earl of Morton Lord Chamberlain to Her Majesty, and conducted by Robert Chester, Esq; Assistant-Master of the Ceremonies.

St. James's, May 12, 1803.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Deputy-Recorder, Justice, Capital Burgesses, and Assistants of the Borough and Parish of Tiverton, in the County of Devon.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Deputy-Recorder, Justice, Capital Burgesses, and Assistants of the Borough and Parish of Tiverton, in the County of Devon, humbly request that you will be pleased to accept our strongest Assurances of our faithful and affectionate Attachment to your Person and Government, and our warmest Congratulations on the providential Discovery of the late treasonable Conspiracy, which has so justly called for the Vengeance of the Law, and for the Indignation and Abhorrence of all your liege Subjects.

We trust that the same Protection which has been afforded in this Instance to your Majesty, and to our Country, will be graciously dispensed by the Ruler of the Universe, if ever a like Attempt shall be made for the Destruction of our best and dearest Interests; and that, in spite of all our Enemies, you will long live to enjoy the Gratification of seeing your Empire prosperous, and your People in general loyal and happy.

John Dickenson, Mayor.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of the ancient Borough of Haddington, beg Leave humbly to approach your Royal Presence, with the most heartfelt Congratulations upon the late providential Escape from the imminent Danger which so lately threatened your Royal Person from the desperate Attempts of Traitors.

Feeling as we do in common with your Majesty's other Subjects the distinguished and peculiar Privileges we enjoy as a Nation and as Individuals, it was with the utmost Indignation that we viewed the late atrocious Conspiracy, which aimed at nothing less than to deprive us of these Blessings, which aimed a Blow at the Life of a Sovereign so justly dear to us all, and, in fine, which threatened to reduce us from the highest State of political Happiness to the opposite Extreme of Anarchy, Confusion, and Distress.

With these Sentiments impressed upon our Hearts, we feel it our bounden Duty to offer to your Majesty this our unfeigned Tribute of loyal Congratulation; and we feel grateful to those Ministers by whose Vigilance and Activity so daring an Enterprize was crushed before it reached Maturity.

Finally, we trust that the late awful Warning, (which the Fate of the wretched and misguided Men who took a Part in that Conspiracy afforded,) may have the salutary Effect of teaching the lower Orders the dreadful Consequences of such Violations of the Law; and that their truest Interest consists in supporting a Constitution and Government which so completely protects them in the Enjoyment of their civil and religious Privileges.

Signed in Name and by Appointment of the Town-Council, in Common-Council, assembled, by Wm. Cunningham, Provost.

[Presented by the Honorable Colonel Maitland.]

CONTRACTS FOR COALS.

Barrack-Office, May 10, 1803.

Notice is hereby given to all Persons willing to supply Coals for the Troops stationed, or to be stationed in certain Barracks in Great Britain, for Twelve Months, from the 25th of July 1803, that Proposals for the same, in Writing, sealed up, will be received by the Barrack-Master-General, on or before the 10th of June 1803.

The Names of the Barracks, and the Terms of the Contract may be known upon Application at this Office, any Day, (Sunday excepted,) between the Hours of Twelve and Three, or to the Barrack-Masters at each of the several Barracks.

The Proposals must specify the particular Places, and the respective Pits, from whence the Coals are to be supplied, and be separate for each Barrack: And they are also to be in Conformity to the Terms of the Contract, or they will not be attended to.

Stamps to be paid for by the Contractor.

Adequate Security will be required for the due Performance of each Contract, and the Names of Two Persons, as Sureties for the same, with Referees, are to be given in with the Proposals.

Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich,

April 5, 1803.

THE Commissioners and Governors of the said Hospital, hereby give Notice, that at Salters' Hall, in London, on Wednesday the 19th Day of October next, or as soon after as conveniently may be, the following Estates will be let on Leases, to commence upon the several Days, and for the respective Terms of Years below mentioned, that is to say, Spindleston Farm, (Lisles Field and Sea Lands not included,) consisting, by Estimation, of Three Hundred and Fifty eight Acres, Two Roods, and Fourteen Perches of Ground, be the same more or less; and Spindleston and Waren Mills and Ground, (including Lisles Field and Sea Lands,) consisting, by Estimation, of Eighty-four Acres, Two Roods, and Twenty-three Perches, be the same more or less, in the Parish of Bamburgh, otherwise Bambrough, and County of Northumberland; and Five Shops, Eight Butchers' Shambles or Stands at Kewick, the Tolls of Kewick, and Williamsons' Close, in the Parish of Crosthwaite, and County of Cumberland.

Spindleston Farm, and Spindleston and Waren Mills and Ground, will be let together, or separate, for the Term of Twelve Years, to commence upon the 12th Day of May 1804, but it is required, that the Buildings for each of those Two Estates shall be made separate; and the Shops, Butchers' Shambles or Stands, and Tolls, will be let separately for the Term of Seven Years, and Williamsons' Close, for the Term of Four Years, to commence upon the 5th Day of April 1804.

Such Persons as may be desirous to take any of the said Estates, are requested to deliver or send their Proposals, in Writing, to John Ibbetson, Esq; at Greenwich Hospital, at any Time before the 19th Day of October next, or on that Day, before the Hour of Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at Salters' Hall, in London; after which Hour no Proposals will be received. And for Particulars of the Two first-mentioned Estates to apply to Mr. John Dinning, of Newlands, near Belford; and of the Estates in the Parish of Crosthwaite, to Mr. John Scott, at Kewick; or for Particulars of any Part of the said Estates to apply to Messrs. Walton and Forster, Receivers for the said Hospital, at their Office, in Newcastle-upon-Tyne.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 16th of May 1803,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, in Consequence of the repeated Insults and Provocations which His Majesty has experienced from the Government of France, His Majesty finds himself compelled to take such Measures as are necessary for vindicating the Honor of His Crown, and the just Rights of His Subjects; His Majesty, therefore, is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that General Reprisals be granted against the Ships, Goods, and Subjects of the French Republic, so that as well His Majesty's Fleets and Ships, as also all other Ships and Vessels that shall be commissioned, by Letters of Marque, or General Reprisals, or otherwise, by His Majesty's Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, shall and may lawfully seize all Ships, Vessels, and Goods belonging to the French Republic, or to any Persons being Subjects of the French Republic, or inhabiting within any of the Territories of the French Republic, and bring the same to Judgment in such Courts of Admiralty within His Majesty's Dominions, as shall be duly commissioned to take Cognizance thereof; and, to that End, His Majesty's Advocate-General, with the Advocate of the Admiralty, are forthwith to prepare the Draft of a Commission, and present the same to His Majesty at this Board, authorizing the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, or any Person or Persons by them empowered and appointed, to issue forth and grant Letters of Marque and Reprisals to any of His Majesty's Subjects, or others whom the said Commissioners shall deem fitly qualified in that Behalf, for the apprehending, seizing, and taking the Ships, Vessels, and Goods belonging to the French Republic, or to any Persons being Subjects of the French Republic, or inhabiting within any of the Territories of the French Republic; and that such Powers and Clauses be inserted in the said Commission, as have been usual, and are according to former Precedents; and His Majesty's said Advocate-General, with the Advocate of the Admiralty, are also forthwith to prepare the Draft of a Commission, and present the same to His Majesty at this Board, authorizing the said Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, to will and require the High Court of Admiralty of Great Britain, and the Lieutenant and Judge of the said Court, His Surrogate or Surrogates, as also the several Courts of Admiralty within His Majesty's Dominions which shall be duly commissioned to take Cognizance of, and judicially proceed upon all and all Manner of Captures, Seizures, Prizes, and Reprisals of all Ships and Goods that are or shall be made, and to hear and determine the same, and according to the Course of Admiralty and the Laws of Nations, to adjudge and condemn all such Ships, Vessels, and Goods as shall belong to the French Republic, or to any Persons being Subjects of the French Republic, or inhabiting within any of the Territories of the French Republic; and that such Powers and Clauses be inserted in the said Commission as have been usual and are according to former Precedents; and they are likewise to prepare and lay before His Majesty at this Board a Draft of such Instructions as may be proper to be sent to the said several Courts of Admiralty in His Majesty's foreign Governments and Plantations for their Guidance herein; as also another Draft of Instructions for such Ships as shall be commissioned for the Purposes above-mentioned.

A PROCLAMATION,

For encouraging Seamen and Landmen to enter themselves on board His Majesty's Ships of War.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS it is Our Royal Intention to give all due Encouragement to all such Seamen and Landmen who shall voluntarily enter themselves in Our Service, We have thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to publish this Our Royal Proclamation: And We do hereby promise and declare, That all such Able Seamen not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, fit for Our Service, who shall on or before the Thirtieth Day of June next, voluntarily enter themselves to serve in Our Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of Our Ships or Vessels, or Officers employed on Shore for raising Men for the Service of Our Navy, shall receive, as Our Royal Bounty, the Sum of Five Pounds each Man: and all such Ordinary Seamen, fit for Our Service, who shall so enter themselves as aforesaid, shall receive the Sum of Two Pounds Ten Shillings each Man; and all such Able bodied Landmen, not above the Age of Thirty-five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who shall so enter themselves as aforesaid, shall receive the Sum of Thirty Shillings each Man, as Our Royal Bounty, in Lieu of the Bounties promised in Our Royal Proclamation dated the Seventh Day of March last; such respective Sums to be paid them by the respective Clerks of the Cheque residing at the Ports where the Ships or Vessels on board which such Seamen and Landmen may be appointed to serve, shall be immediately after the Third Muster of such Seamen or Landmen: And We do declare, that the Qualifications of the Seamen and Landmen so entering themselves, shall be certified by the Captain, Master, and Boatswain of the Ship or Vessel on board which they shall be appointed to serve: And for Prevention of any Abuses, by any Persons leaving the Vessels to which they shall belong, and entering themselves on Board any other Our Ships or Vessels, in order to obtain the said Bounty Money, We do hereby declare and command, That such Seamen and Landmen belonging to any of Our Ships or Vessels, as shall absent themselves from any of the said Ships or Vessels to which they shall belong, and shall enter themselves on board any other of our said Ships or Vessels, in order to obtain the said Bounty, shall not only lose the Wages due to them in the Ships or Vessels they shall leave, but also be punished according to their Demerits.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS We are informed, That great Numbers of Mariners and Seafaring Men, Our natural-born Subjects, are in the Service of divers Foreign Princes and States, to the Prejudice of Our Kingdom: And whereas Attempts may be made to seduce some of Our Subjects, contrary to their Allegiance and Duty to Us, to enter on board Ships or Vessels of War, or other Ships or Vessels belonging to the French and Batavian Republics, with Intent to commit Hostilities against Us or Our Subjects, or otherwise to adhere, or give Aid or Comfort to Our Enemies upon the Sea: Now We, in order that none of Our Subjects may ignorantly incur the Guilt and Penalties of such Breaches of their Allegiance and Duty, have thought it necessary, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to publish this Our Royal Proclamation, hereby notifying and declaring, that all Persons, being Our Subjects, who shall enter or serve, or be found on board any Ships or Vessels of War, or other Ships or Vessels belonging to the French or Batavian Republics, with Intent to commit Hostilities against Us or Our Subjects, or who shall otherwise adhere, or give Aid or Comfort to Our Enemies upon the Sea, will thereby become liable to suffer the Pains of Death, and all other Pains and Penalties of High Treason and Piracy; and We do hereby declare Our Royal Intention and firm Resolution to proceed against all such Offenders according to Law.

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this Day ordered by His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, That no Ships or Vessels, belonging to any of His Majesty's Subjects, be permitted to enter and clear out for any of the Ports of the French or Batavian Republics, or for the Ports of any Country occupied by the Armies of France, until further Order; and His Majesty is further pleased to order, That a General Embargo or Stop be made on all Ships, belonging to the French and Batavian Republics whatsoever, now within or which hereafter shall come into any of the Ports, Harbours, or Roads, within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, together with all Persons and Effects on board the said Ships and Vessels; but that the utmost Care be taken for the Preservation of all and every Part of the Cargoes on board any of the said Ships, so that no Damage or Embezzlement whatever be sustained; and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Fawkenner.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 6th of April 1803,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS an Act of Parliament was passed in the Twenty-ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intitled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Salt Petre; and to enforce the Law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms and Ammunition; and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying Coastwise of Salt Petre, Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition out of this Kingdom, or carrying the same Coastwise, for some Time, doth therefore, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command that no Person or Persons whatsoever, (except the Master General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service,) do at any Time, during the Space of Two Months from the Date of this Order in Council, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coastwise, any Gunpowder or Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, or ship or lade any Gunpowder or Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, on board any Ship or Vessel in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, or carrying the same Coastwise, without Leave or Permission in that Behalf first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted by the aforementioned Act: And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

Steph. Cottrell.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 11th of May 1803,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council,

WHEREAS, by an Act passed in the Thirty-third Year of His Majesty's Reign, intitled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the Exportation of Naval Stores, and more effectually to prevent the Exportation of Salt Petre, Arms, and Ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council," it is enacted, amongst other Things, That His Majesty may, by Proclamation or Order in Council, when he shall see Cause, and for such Time as shall be therein expressed, prohibit the exporting, or the attempting to export, Pig-Iron, Bar-Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Oker, Sheet-Copper, and other Naval Stores: And His Majesty, judging it necessary to prohibit the Exportation of the said several Articles for a limited Time, doth therefore, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no Person or Persons whatsoever do at any Time, during the Space of Two Months from the Date of this Order in Council, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom any Pig-Iron, Bar-Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Oker, Sheet-Copper, or other Naval Stores, or do ship or lade any Pig-Iron, Bar-Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Oker, Sheet-Copper, or other Naval Stores, on board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, without Leave or Permission first being had and obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring the Forfeitures inflicted by the aforementioned Act: But it is nevertheless His Majesty's Pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any of His Majesty's Ships of War, or any other Ships or Vessels or Boats in the Service of His Majesty, or employed or freighted by His Majesty's Board of Ordnance, or by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy; nor to prevent any Ship or Vessel from taking or having on board such Quantities of Naval Stores as may be necessary for the Use of such Ship or Vessel during the Course of her intended Voyage, or by Licence from the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners of the Admiralty for the Time being; nor to the Exportation of the said several Articles to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Yards or Garrisons, or to His Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Ports and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies: Provided, that upon the Exportation of any of the said Articles for the Purposes of Trade to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Yards and Garrisons, or to His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to the Island of Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Ports and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies, the Exporters of such Articles do first make Oath of the true Destination of the same to the Places for which they shall be entered outwards, before the Entry of the same shall be made, and do give full and sufficient Security, by Bond, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said Articles to the Places for which they are so entered Outwards, and for the Purposes specified, and none other; and such Bond shall not be cancelled or delivered up until Proof be made to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the Production, within a Time to be fixed by the said Commissioners and specified in the Bond, of a Certificate or Certificates, in such Form and Manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said Articles have been duly landed at the Places for which they were entered Outwards: And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Fawcener.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 11th of May 1823,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this Day ordered by His Majesty in Council, That all Ships and Vessels clearing out for the Coast of Africa for the Purpose of carrying on the Trade there, be permitted to take on board, as an assorted Part of their Cargoes, as much Gunpowder, and as large a Quantity of Trading Guns, Pistols, Cutlasses, Flint, and Lead Balls, Bars, and Shot as the Exporters shall think necessary, notwithstanding any Thing contained in His Majesty's Order in Council of the Sixth Day of April last; provided that sufficient Security be given to the Principal Officers of His Majesty's Customs of the Port in which the Ships are fitted out, and before they proceed on their respective Voyages, in treble

the Value of the Articles exported, that the same shall be expended in Trade upon the Coast of Africa; which Security is not to be cancelled until Proof of such Expenditure has been made by the Oath of the Captain or Master of the Ship or Vessel in like Manner as is practised with regard to Spirits and East India Goods used in carrying on that Trade; and His Majesty is further pleased to order, That all Ships and Vessels trading to the said Coast, be allowed to take on board for their Defence whatever Quantity of Carriage Guns, Swivels, and small Arms, shall be judged proper by the respective Masters thereof; provided that no greater Quantity be taken on board any one Ship for her Defence than Twelve Carriage Guns and Twelve Swivels, together with one Musket or Blunderbuss, one Pair of Pistols and one Cutlass for every Person of which the Ship's Company shall consist, and Ammunition in Proportion; and provided also, that sufficient Security be in like Manner given to the said Principal Officers of the Customs at the Ports where the Ships shall be fitted out, in treble the Value of the Carriage Guns, Swivels, and small Arms to taken on board for the Defence of the said Ships to bring back the said Carriage Guns, Swivels, and small Arms when the Voyage is completed, and to account upon Oath for the Expenditure of the Ammunition: And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary herein accordingly.

W. Fawcener.

DECLARATION.

HIS MAJESTY's earnest Endeavours for the Preservation of Peace having failed of Success, He entertains the fullest Confidence that He shall receive the same Support from His Parliament, and that the same Zeal and Spirit will be manifested by His People, which He has experienced on every Occasion when the Honor of His Crown has been attacked, or the essential Interests of His Dominions have been endangered.

During the whole Course of the Negotiations which led to the Preliminary and Definitive Treaties of Peace between His Majesty and the French Republic, it was His Majesty's sincere Desire, not only to put an End to the Hostilities which subsisted between the Two Countries, but to adopt such Measures, and to concur in such Propositions, as might most effectually contribute to consolidate the general Tranquillity of Europe. The same Motives by which His Majesty was actuated during the Negotiations for Peace, have since invariably governed His Conduct. As soon as the Treaty of Amiens was concluded, His Majesty's Courts were open to the People of France for every Purpose of legal Redress; all Sequestrations were taken off their Property; all Prohibitions on their Trade, which had been imposed during the War, were removed, and they were placed, in every Respect, on the same Footing with Regard to Commerce and Intercourse, as the Inhabitants of any other State in Amity with His Majesty, with which there existed no Treaty of Commerce.

To a System of Conduct thus open, liberal, and friendly, the Proceedings of the French Government afford the most striking Contrast. The Prohibitions which had been placed on the Commerce of His Majesty's Subjects during the War have been enforced with increased Strictness and Severity; Violence has been offered in several Instances to their Vessels and their Property; and, in no Case, has Justice been afforded to those who may have been aggrieved in consequence of such Acts, nor has any satisfactory Answer been given to the repeated Representations made by His Majesty's Ministers or Ambassador at Paris. Under such Circumstances, when His Majesty's Subjects were not suffered to enjoy the common Advantages of Peace within the Territories of the French Republic, and the Countries dependent upon it, the French Government had Recourse to the extraordinary Measure of sending over to this Country a Number of Persons for the professed Purpose of residing in the most considerable Sea-Port Towns of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Character of Commercial Agents or Consuls. These Persons could have no Pretensions to be acknowledged in that Character, as the Right of being so acknowledged, as well as all the Privileges attached to such a Situation, could only be derived from a Commercial Treaty, and as no Treaty of that Description was in Existence between His Majesty and the French Republic.

There was consequently too much Reason to suppose, that the real Object of their Mission was by no Means of a Commercial Nature; and this Suspicion was confirmed, not only by the Circumstance that some of them were Military Men, but by the actual Discovery that several of them were furnished with Instructions to obtain the Soundings of the Harbours, and to procure Military Surveys of the Places where it was intended they should reside. His Majesty felt it to be His Duty to prevent their Departure to their respective Places of Destination, and represented to the French Government the Necessity of withdrawing them; and it cannot be denied that the Circumstances under which they were sent, and the Instructions which were given to them, ought to be considered as decisive Indications of the Dispositions and Intentions of the Government by whom they were employed.

The Conduct of the French Government, with respect to the Commercial Intercourse between the Two Countries, must therefore be considered as ill suited to a State of Peace, and their Proceedings in their more general Political Relations, as well as in those which immediately concern His Majesty's Dominions, appear to have been altogether inconsistent with every Principle of Good-faith, Moderation, and Justice. His Majesty had entertained Hopes, in consequence of the repeated Assurances and Professions of the French Government, that they might have been induced to adopt a System of Policy which, if it had not inspired other Powers with Confidence, might at least have allayed their Jealousies. If the French Government had really appeared to be actuated by a due Attention to such a System, if their Dispositions had proved to be essentially pacific, Allowances would have been made for the Situation in which a new Government must be placed after so dreadful and extensive a Convulsion as that which has been produced by the French Revolution. But His Majesty has unfortunately had too much Reason to observe, and to lament, that the System of Violence, Aggression, and Aggrandisement, which characterised the Proceedings of the different Governments of France during the War, has been continued with as little Disguise since its Termination. They have continued to keep a French Army in Holland against the Will and in Defiance of the Remonstrances of the Batavian Government, and in Repugnance of the Letter of Three Solemn Treaties. They have, in a Period of Peace, invaded the Territory, and violated the Independence of the Swiss Nation, in Defiance of the Treaty of Luneville, which had stipulated the Independence of their Territory, and the Right of the Inhabitants to chuse their own Form of Government. They have annexed to the Dominions of France, Piedmont, Parma, and Placentia, and the Island of Elba, without allotting any Provision to the King of Sardinia, whom they have despoiled of the most valuable Part of his Territory, though they were bound, by a solemn Engagement to the Emperor of Russia, to attend to his Interests and to provide for his Establishment. It may, indeed, with Truth be asserted, that the Period which has elapsed since the Conclusion of the Definitive Treaty, has been marked with one continued Series of Aggression, Violence, and Insult on the Part of the French Government.

In the Month of October last, His Majesty was induced, in consequence of the earnest Solicitation of the Swiss Nation, to make an Effort, by a Representation to the French Government, to avert the Evils which were then impending over that Country. This Representation was couched in the most temperate Terms; and Measures were taken by His Majesty for ascertaining, under the Circumstances which then existed, the real Situation and Wishes of the Swiss Cantons, as well as the Sentiments of the other Cabinets of Europe. His Majesty learned, however, with the utmost Regret, that no Disposition to counteract these repeated Infractions of Treaties and Acts of Violence was manifested by any of the Powers most immediately interested in preventing them; and His Majesty therefore felt that, with respect to these Objects, His single Efforts could not be expected to produce any considerable Advantage to those in whose Favor they might be exerted.

It was about this Time that the French Government first distinctly advanced the Principle, that His Majesty had no Right to complain of the Conduct, or to interfere with the Proceedings of France, on any Point which did not form a Part of the Stipulations of the Treaty of Amiens. That Treaty was unquestionably founded upon the same Principle as every other antecedent Treaty or Convention, on the Assumption of the State of Possession and of Engagements subsisting at the Time of its Conclusion; and if that State of Possession and of Engagements is materially affected by the voluntary Act of any of the Parties, so as to prejudice the Condition on which the other Party has entered into the Contract, the Change so made may be considered as operating virtually as a Breach of the Treaty itself, and as giving the Party aggrieved a Right to demand Satisfaction or Compensation for any substantial Difference which such Acts may have effected in their relative Situations; but whatever may be the Principle on which the Treaty is to be considered as founded, there is indisputably a General Law of Nations, which, though liable to be limited, explained, or restrained by Conventional Law, is antecedent to it, and is that Law or Rule of Conduct to which all Sovereigns and States have been accustomed to appeal, where Conventional Law is admitted to have been silent. The Treaty of Amiens, and every other Treaty, in providing for the Objects to which it is particularly directed, does not therefore assume or imply an Indifference to all other Objects which are not specified in its Stipulations; much less does it adjudge them to be of a Nature to be left to the Will and Caprice of the Violent and the Powerful. The Justice of the Cause alone is a sufficient Ground to warrant the Interposition of any of the Powers of Europe in the Differences which may arise between other States; and the Application and Extent of that just Interposition is to be determined solely by Considerations of Prudence. These Principles can admit of no Dispute; but if the new and extraordinary Pretension advanced by the French Government to exclude His Majesty from any Right to interfere with respect to the Concerns of other Powers, unless they made a specific Part of the Stipulations of the Treaty of Amiens, was that which it was possible to maintain, those Powers would have a Right, at least, to claim the Benefit of this Principle in every Case of Difference between the Two Countries. The Indignation of all Europe must surely then be excited by the Declarations of the French Government, that, in the Event of Hostilities, these very Powers, who were no Parties to the Treaty of Amiens, and who were not allowed to derive any Advantage from the Remonstrances of His Majesty in their Behalf, are nevertheless to be made the Victims of a War which is alleged to arise out of the same Treaty, and are to be sacrificed in a Contest which they not only have not occasioned, but which they have had no Means whatever of preventing.

His Majesty judged it most expedient, under the Circumstances which then affected Europe, to abstain from a Recurrence to Hostilities on Account of the Views of Ambition and Acts of Aggression manifested by France on the Continent; yet an Experience of the Character and Dispositions of the French Government could not fail to impress His Majesty with a Sense of the Necessity of increased Vigilance in guarding the Rights and Dignity of His Crown, and in protecting the Interests of His People.

Whilst His Majesty was actuated by these Sentiments, He was called upon by the French Government to evacuate the Island of Malta. His Majesty had manifested, from the Moment of the Signature of the Definitive Treaty, an anxious Disposition to carry into full Effect the Stipulations of the Treaty of Amiens relative to that Island. As soon as he was informed that an Election of a Grand Master had taken place, under the Auspices of the Emperor of Russia, and that it had been agreed by the different Priorities assembled at St. Petersburg to acknowledge the Person whom the Court of Rome should select out of those who had been named by them to be Grand Master of the Order of St. John, His Majesty proposed to the French Government, for the Purpose of avoiding any Difficulties which might arise in the Execution of the Arrangement, to acknowledge that Election to be valid: And when, in the Month of August, the French Government applied to His Majesty to permit the Neapolitan Troops to be sent to the Island of Malta, as a preliminary Measure for preventing any unnecessary Delay, His Majesty consented without Hesitation to this Proposal, and gave Directions for the Admission of the Neapolitan Troops into the Island. His Majesty had thus shewn His Disposition not only to throw no Obstacle in the Way of the Execution of the Treaty, but, on the contrary, to facilitate the Execution of it by every Means in His Power. His Majesty cannot, however, admit, that at any Period since the Conclusion of the Treaty of Amiens the French Government have had a Right to call upon Him, in Conformity to the Stipulations of that Treaty, to withdraw His Forces from the Island of Malta. At the Time when this Demand was made by the French Government, several of the most important Stipulations of the Arrangement respecting Malta remained unexecuted: The Election of a Grand Master had not been carried into Effect. The Tenth Article had stipulated that the Independence of the Island should be placed under the Guarantee and Protection of Great Britain, France, Austria, Russia, Spain, and Prussia. The Emperor of Germany had acceded to the Guarantee, but only on Condition of a like Accession on the Part of the other Powers specified in the Article. The Emperor of Russia had refused his Accession, except on the Condition that the Maltese Language should be abrogated; and the King of Prussia had given no Answer whatever to the Application which had been made to him to accede to the Arrangement. But the fundamental Principle, upon the Existence of which depended the Execution of the other Parts of the Article, had been defeated by the Changes which had taken place in the Constitution of the Order since the Conclusion of the Treaty of Peace. It was to the Order of St. John of Jerusalem that His Majesty was, by the First Stipulation of the Tenth Article, bound to restore the Island of Malta. The Order is defined to consist of those Languages which were in Existence at the Time of the Conclusion of the Treaty: The Three French Languages having been abolished, and a Maltese Language added to the Institution. The Order consisted, therefore at that Time of the following Languages, viz. the Languages of Aragon, Castile, Germany, Bavaria, and Russia. Since the Conclusion of the Definitive Treaty, the Languages of Aragon and Castile have been separated from the Order by Spain, a Part of the Italian Language has been abolished by the Annexation of Piedmont and Parma to France. There is strong Reason to believe that it has been in Contemplation to sequester the Property of the Bavarian Language, and the Intention has been avowed of keeping the Russian Languages within the Dominions of the Emperor.

Under these Circumstances the Order of St. John cannot now be considered as that Body to which, according to the Stipulations of the Treaty, the Island was to be restored; and the Funds indispensably necessary for its Support, and for the Maintenance of the Independence of the Island, have been nearly, if not wholly, sequestered. Even if this had arisen from Circumstances which it was not in the Power of any of the Contracting Parties to the Treaty to controul, His Majesty would nevertheless have had a Right to defer the Evacuation of the Island by His Forces until such Time as an equivalent Arrangement had been concluded for the Preservation of the Independence of the Order and of the Island. But if these Changes have taken place in consequence of any Acts of the other Parties to the Treaty; if the French Government shall appear to have proceeded upon a System of rendering the Order, whose Independence they had stipulated, incapable of maintaining that Independence, His Majesty's Right to continue in the Occupation of the Island, under such Circumstances, will hardly be contested. It is indisputable that the Revenues of the Two Spanish Languages have been withdrawn from the Order by His Catholic Majesty; a Part of the Italian Language has, in Fact, been abolished by France, through the unjust Annexation of Piedmont, and Parma, and Placentia to the French Territory. The Elector of Bavaria has been instigated by the French Government to sequester the Property of the Order within his Territories; and it is certain that they have not only sanctioned but encouraged the Idea of the Propriety of separating the Russian Languages from the Remainder of the Order.

As the Conduct of the Governments of France and Spain have, therefore, in some Instances directly, and in others indirectly, contributed to the Changes which have taken place in the Order, and thus destroyed its Means of supporting its Independence, it is to those Governments, and not to His Majesty, that the Non-execution of the Tenth Article of the Treaty of Amiens must be ascribed.

Such would be the just Conclusion if the Tenth Article of that Treaty were considered as an Arrangement by itself. It must be observed, however, that this Article forms a Part only of a Treaty of Peace, the Whole of which is connected together, and the Stipulations of which must, upon a Principle common to all Treaties, be construed as having a Reference to each other.

His Majesty was induced, by the Treaty of Peace, to consent to abandon and to restore to the Order of St. John the Island of Malta on Condition of its Independence and Neutrality. But a further Condition, which must necessarily be supposed to have had considerable Influence with His Majesty in inducing Him to make so important a Concession, was the Acquiescence of the French Government in an Arrangement for the Security of the Levant, by the Eighth and Ninth Articles in the Treaty stipulating the Integrity of the Turkish Empire, and the Independence of the Ionian Islands. His Majesty has, however, since learnt, that the French Government have entertained Views hostile to both these Objects; and that they have even suggested the Idea of a Partition of the Turkish Empire. These Views must now be manifest to all the World, from the official Publication of the Report of Colonel Sebastiani; from the Conduct of that Officer, and of the other French Agents in Egypt, Syria, and the Ionian Islands, and from the distinct Admission of the First Consul himself, in his Communication with Lord Whitworth. His Majesty was, therefore, warranted in considering it to be the Determination of the French Government to violate those Articles of the Treaty of Peace, which stipulated for the Integrity and Independence of the Turkish Empire, and of the Ionian Islands, and consequently He would not have been justified in evacuating the Island of Malta, without receiving some other Security, which might equally provide for these important Objects. His Majesty accordingly feels that He has an incontestable Claim, in consequence of the Conduct of France since the Treaty of Peace, and with Reference to the Objects which made Part of the Stipulations of that Treaty, to refuse, under the present Circumstances, to relinquish the Possession of the Island of Malta.

Yet, notwithstanding this Right so clear and so unquestionable, the Alternative presented by the French Government to His Majesty, in Language the most peremptory and menacing, was the Evacuation of Malta, or the Renewal of War.

If the Views of Ambition and Aggrandizement, which have thus been manifested by the French Government since the Conclusion of the Treaty of Peace, have in so very particular a Manner attracted the Attention of His Majesty, it has been equally impossible for Him not to feel, and not to notice, the repeated Indignities which have been offered by that Government to His Crown and to His People.

The Report of Colonel Sebastiani contains the most unwarrantable Insinuations and Charges against His Majesty's Government, against the Officer who commanded His Forces in Egypt, and against the British Army in that Quarter. This Paper cannot be considered as the Publication of a private Individual; it has been avowed, and indeed bears Evidence upon the Face of it, that it is the official Report of an accredited Agent, published by the Authority of the Government to which it was addressed, who thereby have given it their express Sanction.

This Report had been published a very short Time when another Indignity was offered to this Country, in the Communication of the First Consul of France to the Legislative Body. In this Communication he presumes to affirm, in the Character of Chief Magistrate of that Country, "That Great Britain cannot singly contend against the Power of France;" an Assertion as unfounded as it is indecent, disproved by the Events of many Wars, and by none more than by those of the War which has been recently concluded. Such an Assertion, advanced in the most solemn official Act of a Government, and thereby meant to be avowed to all the Powers of Europe, can be considered in no other Light than as a Defiance publicly offered to His Majesty, and to a brave and powerful People, who are both willing and able to defend His just Rights, and those of their Country, against every Insult and Aggression.

The Conduct of the First Consul to His Majesty's Ambassador at his Audience, in Presence of the Ministers of most of the Sovereigns and States of Europe, furnishes another Instance of Provocation on the Part of the French Government, which it would be improper not to notice on the present Occasion, and the subsequent Explanation of this Transaction may be considered as having the Effect of aggravating instead of palliating the Affront.

At the very Time when His Majesty was demanding Satisfaction and Explanation on some of the Points abovementioned, the French Minister at Hamburg endeavoured to obtain the Insertion, in a Hamburg Paper, of a most gross and opprobrious Libel against His Majesty; and when Difficulties were made respecting the Insertion of it, he availed himself of his official Character of Minister of the French Republic to require the Publication of it, by Order of his Government, in the Gazette of the Senate of that Town. With this Requisition, so made, the Senate of Hamburg were induced to comply; and thus has the Independence of that Town been violated, and a free State made the Instrument, by the Menace of the French Government, of propagating throughout Europe, upon their Authority, the most offensive and unfounded Calumnies against His Majesty and His Government. His Majesty might add to this List of Indignities the Requisition which the French Government have repeatedly urged, that the Laws and Constitution of His Country should be changed relative to the Liberty of the Press. His Majesty might likewise add the Calls which the French Government have on several Occasions made upon Him to violate the Laws of Hospitality with respect to Persons who had found an Asylum within His Dominions, and against whose Conduct no Charge whatever has at any Time been substantiated. It is impossible to reflect on these different Proceedings, and the Course which the French Government have thought proper to adopt respecting them, without the thorough Conviction that they are not the Effect of Accident; but that they form a Part of a System which has been adopted for the Purpose of degrading, vilifying, and insulting His Majesty and His Government.

Under all these Insults and Provocations, His Majesty, not without a due Sense of His Dignity, has proceeded with every Degree of Temper and Moderation to obtain Satisfaction and Redress, while He has neglected no Means, consistent with his Honor and the Safety of His Dominions, to induce the Government of France to concede to Him what is, in his Judgment, absolutely necessary for the future Tranquillity of Europe. His Efforts in this Respect have proved abortive, and He has therefore judged it necessary to order His Ambassador to leave Paris. In having Recourse to this Proceeding it has been His Majesty's Object to put an End to the fruitless Discussions, which have too long subsisted between the Two Governments, and to close a Period of Suspense peculiarly injurious to the Subjects of His Majesty.

But though the Provocations which His Majesty has received might entitle Him to larger Claims than those which He has advanced, yet anxious to prevent Calamities which might thus be extended to every Part of Europe, He is still willing, as far as is consistent with His own Honour, and the Interests of His People, to afford every Facility to any just and honorable Arrangement, by which such Evils may be averted. He has, therefore, no Difficulty in declaring to all Europe, that notwithstanding all the Changes which have taken Place since the Treaty of Peace, notwithstanding the Extension of the Power of France, in Repugnance to that Treaty, and to the Spirit of Peace itself. His Majesty will not avail Himself of these Circumstances, to demand in Compensation all that He is entitled to require, but will be ready to concur, even now, in an Arrangement by which Satisfaction shall be given to Him, for the Indignities which have been offered to His Crown and to His People, and substantial Security afforded against further Encroachments on the Part of France.

His Majesty has thus distinctly and unreservedly stated the Reasons of those Proceedings to which He has found Himself compelled to resort. He is actuated by no Disposition to interfere in the internal Concerns of any other State; by no Projects of Conquest and Aggrandizement; but solely by a Sense of what is due to the Honor of His Crown, and the Interests of His People, and by an anxious Desire to obstruct the further Progress of a System, which, if not resisted, may prove fatal to every Part of the civilized World.

Westminster, May 18, 1803.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 16th of May 1803,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, in Consequence of the repeated Insults and Provocations which His Majesty has experienced from the Government of France, His Majesty finds himself compelled to take such Measures as are necessary for vindicating the Honor of His Crown, and the just Rights of His Subjects; His Majesty, therefore, is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that General Reprisals be granted against the Ships, Goods, and Subjects of the French Republic, so that as well His Majesty's Fleets and Ships, as also all other Ships and Vessels that shall be commissioned, by Letters of Marque, or General Reprisals, or otherwise, by His Majesty's Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, shall and may lawfully seize all Ships, Vessels, and Goods belonging to the French Republic, or to any Persons being Subjects of the French Republic, or inhabiting within any of the Territories of the French Republic, and bring the same to Judgment in such Courts of Admiralty within His Majesty's Dominions, as shall be duly commissioned to take Cognizance thereof; and, to that End, His Majesty's Advocate-General, with the Advocate of the Admiralty, are forthwith to prepare the Draft of a Commission, and present the same to His Majesty at this Board, authorising the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, or any Person or Persons by them empowered and appointed, to issue forth and grant Letters of Marque and Reprisals to any of His Majesty's Subjects, or others whom the said Commissioners shall deem fitly qualified in that Behalf, for the apprehending, seizing, and taking the Ships, Vessels, and Goods belonging to the French Republic, or to any Persons being Subjects of the French Republic, or inhabiting within any of the Territories of the French Republic; and that such Powers and Clauses be inserted in the said Commission, as have been usual, and are according to former Precedents; and His Majesty's said Advocate-General, with the Advocate of the Admiralty, are also forthwith to prepare the Draft of a Commission, and present the same to His Majesty at this Board, authorising the said Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, to will

and require the High Court of Admiralty of Great Britain, and the Lieutenant and Judge of the said Court, His Surrogate or Surrogates, as also the several Courts of Admiralty within His Majesty's Dominions which shall be duly commissioned to take Cognizance of, and judicially proceed upon all and all Manner of Captures, Seizures, Prizes, and Reprisals of all Ships and Goods that are or shall be made, and to hear and determine the same, and according to the Course of Admiralty and the Laws of Nations, to adjudge and condemn all such Ships, Vessels, and Goods as shall belong to the French Republic, or to any Persons being Subjects of the French Republic, or inhabiting within any of the Territories of the French Republic; and that such Powers and Clauses be inserted in the said Commission as have been usual and are according to former Precedents; and they are likewise to prepare and lay before His Majesty at this Board a Draft of such Instructions as may be proper to be sent to the said several Courts of Admiralty in His Majesty's foreign Governments and Plantations for their Guidance herein; as also another Draft of Instructions for such Ships as shall be commissioned for the Purposes above-mentioned.

A P R O C L A M A T I O N,

For encouraging Seamen and Landmen to enter themselves on board His Majesty's Ships of War.

G E O R G E R.

WHEREAS it is Our Royal Intention to give all due Encouragement to all such Seamen and Landmen who shall voluntarily enter themselves in Our Service. We have thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to publish this Our Royal Proclamation: And We do hereby promise and declare, That all such Able Seamen not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, fit for Our Service, who shall on or before the Thirtieth Day of June next, voluntarily enter themselves to serve in Our Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of Our Ships or Vessels, or Officers employed on Shore for raising Men for the Service of Our Navy, shall receive, as Our Royal Bounty, the Sum of Five Pounds each Man: and all such Ordinary Seamen, fit for Our Service, who shall so enter themselves as aforesaid, shall receive the Sum of Two Pounds Ten Shillings each Man; and all such Able bodied Landmen, not above the Age of Thirty-five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who shall so enter themselves as aforesaid, shall receive the Sum of Thirty Shillings each Man, as Our Royal Bounty, in Lieu of the Bounties promised in Our Royal Proclamation dated the Seventh Day of March last; such respective Sums to be paid them by the respective Clerks of the Cheque residing at the Ports where the Ships or Vessels on board which such Seamen and Landmen may be appointed to serve, shall be immediately after the Third Muster of such Seamen or Landmen: And We do declare, that the Qualifications of the Seamen and Landmen so entering themselves, shall be certified by the Captain, Master, and Boatswain of the Ship or Vessel on board which they shall be appointed to serve: And for Prevention of any Abuses, by any Persons leaving the Vessels to which they shall belong, and entering themselves on Board any other Our Ships or Vessels, in order to obtain the said Bounty Money, We do hereby declare and command, That such Seamen and Landmen belonging to any of Our Ships or Vessels, as shall absent themselves from any of the said Ships or Vessels to which they shall belong, and shall enter themselves on board any other of our said Ships or Vessels, in order to obtain the said Bounty, shall not only lose the Wages due to them in the Ships or Vessels they shall leave, but also be punished according to their Demerits.

Given at Our Court at the Queen's Palace, the Sixteenth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and three, and in the Forty-third Year of Our Reign.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS We are informed, That great Numbers of Mariners and Seafaring Men, Our natural-born Subjects, are in the Service of divers Foreign Princes and States, to the Prejudice of Our Kingdom: And whereas Attempts may be made to seduce some of Our Subjects, contrary to their Allegiance and Duty to Us, to enter on board Ships or Vessels of War, or other Ships or Vessels belonging to the French and Batavian Republics, with Intent to commit Hostilities against Us or Our Subjects, or otherwise to adhere, or give Aid or Comfort to Our Enemies upon the Sea: Now

We, in order that none of Our Subjects may ignorantly incur the Guilt and Penalties of such Breaches of their Allegiance and Duty, have thought it necessary, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to publish this Our Royal Proclamation, hereby notifying and declaring, that all Persons, being Our Subjects, who shall enter or serve, or be found on board any Ships or Vessels of War, or other Ships or Vessels belonging to the French or Batavian Republics, with Intent to commit Hostilities against Us or Our Subjects, or who shall otherwise adhere, or give Aid or Comfort to Our Enemies upon the Sea, will thereby become liable to suffer the Pains of Death, and all other Pains and Penalties of High Treason and Piracy; and We do hereby declare Our Royal Intention and firm Resolution to proceed against all such Offenders according to Law.

Given at Our Court at the Queen's Palace, the Sixteenth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and three, in the Forty-third Year of Our Reign.

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this Day ordered by His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, That no Ships or Vessels, belonging to any of His Majesty's Subjects, be permitted to enter and clear out for any of the Ports of the French or Batavian Republics, or for the Ports of any Country occupied by the Armies of France, until further Order; and His Majesty is further pleased to order, That a General Embargo or Stop be made on all Ships, belonging to the French and Batavian Republics whatsoever, now within or which hereafter shall come into any of the Ports, Harbours, or Roads, within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, together with all Persons and Effects on board the said Ships and Vessels; but that the utmost Care be taken for the Preservation of all and every Part of the Cargoes on board any of the said Ships, so that no Damage or Embezzlement whatever be sustained; and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Fawcener.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 6th of April 1803,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS an Act of Parliament was passed in the Twenty-ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intitled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Salt Petre; and to enforce the Law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms and Ammunition; and also to empower

“ His Majesty to refrain the carrying Coastwise of “ Salt Petre, Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or “ Ammunition:” And His Majesty judging it necessary to prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder or Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition out of this Kingdom, or carrying the same Coastwise, for some Time, doth therefore, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command that no Person or Persons whatsoever, (except the Master General of the Ordnance for His Majesty’s Service,) do at any Time, during the Space of Two Months from the Date of this Order in Council, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coastwise, any Gunpowder or Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, or ship or lade any Gunpowder or Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, on board any Ship or Vessel in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, or carrying the same Coastwise, without Leave or Permission in that Behalf first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted by the aforementioned Act: And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty’s Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General of the Ordnance, and His Majesty’s Secretary at War, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain. Steph. Cottrell.

AT the Court at the Queen’s-Palace, the 11th of May 1803,

P R E S E N T,

The KING’s Most Excellent Majesty in Council,
WHEREAS, by an Act passed in the Thirty-third Year of His Majesty’s Reign, intituled “ An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain “ the Exportation of Naval Stores, and more effectually to prevent the Exportation of Salt Petre, “ Arms, and Ammunition, when prohibited by “ Proclamation or Order in Council,” it is enacted, amongst other Things, That His Majesty may, by Proclamation or Order in Council, when he shall see Cause, and for such Time as shall be therein expressed, prohibit the exporting, or the attempting to export, Pig Iron, Bar-Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Oker, Sheet-Copper, and other Naval Stores: And His Majesty, judging it necessary to prohibit the Exportation of the said several Articles for a limited Time, doth therefore, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no Person or Persons whatsoever do at any Time, during the Space of Two Months from the Date of this Order in Council, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom any Pig-Iron, Bar-Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Oker, Sheet-Copper, or other Naval Stores, or do ship or lade any Pig-Iron, Bar-Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Oker, Sheet-Copper, or other Naval Stores, on board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, without Leave or Permission first being had and obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring the Forfeitures inflicted by the aforementioned Act: But it is nevertheless His Majesty’s Pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any of His Majesty’s Ships of War, or any other Ships or Vessels or Boats in the Service of His Majesty, or employed or freighted by His Majesty’s Board of Ordnance, or by the Commissioners of His Majesty’s Navy; nor to prevent any Ship or Vessel from taking or laving on board such Quantities of Naval Stores as may be necessary for the Use of such Ship or Vessel during the Course of her intended Voyage, or by Licence from the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners of the Admiralty for the Time being; nor to the Exportation of the said several Articles to Ireland, or to His Majesty’s Yards or Garrisons, or to His Majesty’s Colonies or Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to Newfoundland, or to His Majesty’s Ports and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies: Provided, that upon the Exportation of any of the said Articles for the Purposes of Trade to Ireland, or to His Majesty’s Yards and Garrisons, or to His Majesty’s Colonies and Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to the Island of Newfoundland, or to His Majesty’s Ports and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies, the Exporters of such Articles do first make Oath of the true Destination of the same to the Places for which they shall be entered outwards, before the Entry of the same shall be made, and do give full and sufficient Security, by Bond, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty’s Customs, to carry the said Articles to the Places for which they are so entered Outwards, and for the Purposes specified, and none other; and such Bond shall not be cancelled or delivered up until Proof be made to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the Production, within a Time to be fixed by the said Commissioners and specified in the Bond, of a Certificate or Certificates, in such Form and Manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said Articles have been duly landed at the Places for which they were entered Outwards: And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty’s Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. W. Fawkenner.

AT the Court at the Queen’s Palace, the 11th of May 1803.

P R E S E N T,

The KING’s Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this Day ordered by His Majesty in Council, That all Ships and Vessels clearing out for the Coast of Africa for the Purpose of carrying on the Trade there, be permitted to take on board, as an afforted Part of their Cargoes, as much Gunpowder, and as large a Quantity of Trading Guns, Pistols, Cutlasses, Flint, and Lead Balls, Bars, and Shot as the Exporters shall think necessary, notwithstanding any Thing contained in His Majesty's Order in Council of the Sixth Day of April last; provided that sufficient Security be given to the Principal Officers of His Majesty's Customs of the Port in which the Ships are fitted out, and before they proceed on their respective Voyages, in treble the Value of the Articles exported, that the same shall be expended in Trade upon the Coast of Africa; which Security is not to be cancelled until Proof of such Expenditure has been made by the Oath of the Captain or Master of the Ship or Vessel in like Manner as is practised with regard to Spirits and East India Goods: used in carrying on that Trade; and His Majesty is further pleased to order, That all Ships and Vessels trading to the said Coast, be allowed to take on board for their Defence whatever Quantity of Carriage Guns, Swivels, and small Arms, shall be judged proper by the respective Masters thereof; provided that no greater Quantity be taken on board any one Ship for her Defence than Twelve Carriage Guns and Twelve Swivels, together with one Musket or Blunderbuss, one Pair of Pistols and one Cutlass for every Person of which the Ship's Company shall consist, and Ammunition in Proportion; and provided also, that sufficient Security be in like Manner given to the said Principal Officers of the Customs at the Ports where the Ships shall be fitted out, in treble the Value of the Carriage Guns, Swivels, and small Arms to taken on board for the Defence of the said Ships to bring back the said Carriage Guns, Swivels, and small Arms when the Voyage is completed, and to account upon Oath for the Expenditure of the Ammunition: And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary herein accordingly.

W. Fawcener.

Westminster, May 17, 1803.

THIS Day the Lords being met, a Message was sent to the Honorable House of Commons by Sir Francis Molyneux, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorised by virtue of His Majesty's Commission for declaring His Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate Attendance of the Honorable House in the House of Peers to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to

And Twenty-two Private Acts.

St. James's, May 18, 1803.

This Day Baron Belmont de Melcor had a private Audience of His Majesty to deliver his Credentials as Minister Plenipotentiary from His Serene Highness the Elector of Wurtemberg :

To which he was introduced by the Right Honorable Lord Hawkesbury, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and conducted by Robert Chester, Esq; Assistant-Master of the Ceremonies.

St. James's, May 18, 1803.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King ; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously :

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiffs and Trustees of the United Towns of Port Glasgow and Newark.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs and Trustees of the United Towns of Port Glasgow and Newark, impressed with the deepest Sense of the Danger of the late diabolical Conspiracy, which your Majesty, under the Protection of Almighty God, escaped, beg Leave most humbly to approach your Throne with the most heartfelt Congratulations to your Majesty, and grateful Thanks to the Divine Goodness, which preserved your sacred Life.

That your Majesty may ever be the special Care of Providence, and long reign, as you have hitherto done, the King and Father of your People, and your Descendants after you to the latest Ages ; and that your Subjects may be sensible of the Blessings they enjoy under your mild and just Government, is our most earnest Prayer.

Signed and sealed with the Seal of the said Towns, in the Name, and Presence, and by Appointment of the Bailies and Trustees of the said Towns, in Council assembled at Port Glasgow, the Eighth Day of April, in the Year One thousand eight hundred and three, by Archd. Falconer, Eldest Bailie.

[Presented by Mr. Macdowall, Lieutenant of Renfrewshire.]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Town-Council of Greenock, in Council assembled, beg to approach your Majesty's Throne with our humble but warm Congratulations on the Exposure and Discomfiture of the late treasonable Conspiracy, directed against your Majesty's most sacred Person, and against that mild and equitable Government, which ought to ensure the Affection, as it secures the Happiness of the whole United Kingdom.

Whilst we deeply lament the Turpitude of the Individuals who sought to disturb the Blessings we enjoy, we give unfeigned Thanks to Heaven for your Majesty's Preservation ; and we offer up our ardent Prayers, that you may long continue to reign with undiminished Glory over a united, free, and affectionate People.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, by the Magistrates, and sealed with the Corporation-Seal, at Greenock, the Fourth Day of April, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

Walter Ritchie and Hugh Craufurd, Magistrates.

[Presented by Mr. Macdowall, Lieutenant of Renfrewshire.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Town-Council of Paisley, experience the most sincere Satisfaction and Felicity in congratulating your Majesty on the fortunate Escape from the late treasonable Conspiracy against your Person and Government, in averting which the Protection of the Omnipotent is most decidedly discernible ; and it is our most fervent Wish and Prayer, that your Majesty may long live in the Enjoyment of personal and domestic Tranquillity ; and that your Subjects may continue to participate, under your Majesty, the Blessings of a mild and well-regulated Government.

Signed and sealed with the Seal of the said Town, in the Name, and Presence, and by Appointment of the Magistrates and Council, at Paisley, this Twenty-eighth of March One thousand eight hundred and three.

Andrew Moody, C. M.

[Presented by Mr. Macdowall, Lieutenant of Renfrewshire.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Justices of the Peace, Freeholders, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Renfrew, humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our heartfelt Congratulations on the Discovery of the late most atrocious Combination against your Majesty's Person and Government.

While we reflect with just Abhorrence on the Formation of a Conspiracy, which involved not only an Assault on your Majesty's sacred Life, but also had for its Object the Subversion of all civil Society within these Realms, we cannot sufficiently acknowledge our Gratitude to Divine Providence for its timely Discovery and Defeat : And we most fervently pray that the same Providence will long continue to preserve your Majesty to your faithful and affectionate Subjects, and enable your Royal House to transmit, to the latest Posterity, the Glory, Independence, and Happiness of the British Empire.

Signed in Name and by Appointment of the Meeting this Second Day of April One thousand eight hundred and three.

George Housoun, Preses.

[Presented by Mr. Macdowall, Lieutenant for Renfrewshire.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, and Heritors of the County of Wigtown.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, and Heritors of the County of Wigtown, beg Leave to approach the Throne with the sincerest Sentiments of Congratulation upon the Detection of a late most wicked and diabolical Conspiracy against your Majesty's Person and Government.

We deplore the treasonable Spirit that actuated some worthless and misled Individuals; and we meditate with Thankfulness the remarkable Intervention of Divine Providence, so often declared in the Preservation of your Majesty's Life, so justly dear to your Subjects.

Fully sensible of the manifold Blessings we so eminently enjoy under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, and sincerely attached to the happy Constitution we live under, we would warmly and cordially express our Willingness to join Heart and Hand in Defence of your Majesty's Person and Government against all Traitors or treasonable Conspiracies. And we earnestly pray that your Majesty may long live to reign in uninterrupted Security the Sovereign of a happy, free, brave, and loyal People.

Signed by Appointment of the Meeting at Wigtown, the Fifteenth of April One thousand eight hundred and three.

Rob. Hathorn Stewart.

[Presented by Mr. Macdowall, Lieutenant of Renfrewshire.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders met in the Provincial Synod of Glasgow and Ayr, beg Leave to approach the Throne with heartfelt Congratulation on the providential Discovery and Defeat of the late traitorous Conspiracy against your Royal Person.

With Gratitude to Almighty God for the Blessings which we enjoy under your Majesty's Government, we are eager to express our Abhorrence of the pernicious and detestable Principles which have prompted wicked Men to Machinations of Treason against the Life of a Sovereign who is the Father of his People.

As the Servants of the God of Order we revere that System of Laws, by which, under your Majesty's paternal Care, our Religion is guarded, our Liberty maintained, and the Enjoyment is secured to us of all that we hold dear as Men, as Citizens, and as Christians; and conscious of our Obligations, and zealous to fulfil them, we will not fail to inculcate upon the People under our Charge affectionate Loyalty to your Majesty's Person, and a steady Attachment to our happy Constitution both in Church and State.

That the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ may prolong your Life, and prosper your Administration; that he may bless the Queen, the Prince and Princess of Wales; and that, after a happy Reign in this World, you may in the future World receive a Crown of Glory, are the earnest Prayers of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders met in the Provincial Synod of Glasgow and Ayr.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, by James Begg, Moderator.

ADDITIONAL STATUTES of the ORDER of the BATH.

GEORGE R.

GEORGE the Third, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, &c. and Sovereign of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, To all to whom these presents shall come, Greeting: Whereas, by the Statutes of our said Order, it is provided that We, the Sovereign thereof, shall have the Power of adding to the same, and of explaining any particular therein; which Additions and Explanations, under Our Sign Manual, shall be taken as Part and Parcel of the Statutes of Our said Order: And whereas, in and by the Fifteenth Statute, certain Rights, Liberties, Privileges, Exemptions and Advantages are granted to the Esquires Governors, and Young Esquires of the Knights of Our said Order, provided that all such Esquires, to be entitled to such Privileges, shall have Certificates of their Qualifications (as Gentlemen of Blood and Coat Arms) before their respective Admissions: We therefore, in Order the more effectually to carry into Execution the Provisions of the said Statute in this Behalf, do hereby command and enjoin, that Our Bath King of Arms of Our said Order do not, nor any Person in his Behalf or otherwise, at the ensuing Installation of our said Order, or at any Time in Future, affix to the Back of the Seats under the Stalls of the Knights respectively, in Our Chapel of King Henry the Seventh, within Westminster Abbey, any Escutcheon of Arms, or other Memorial, of such Esquires, until Certificates of their Qualifications shall have been issued, under the Hands of Our Garter Principal King of Arms, and of Clarenceux or Norroy Kings of Arms, for the Time being, in their Provinces respectively.

Given under Our Sign Manual, this Twelfth Day of February, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Three, in the Forty-Third Year of Our Reign.

GEORGE R.

GEORGE the Third, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, &c. and Sovereign of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath,

To all to whom these Presents shall come, Greeting: Whereas, by the Statutes of Our said Order it is provided that We, the Sovereign thereof, shall have the Power of adding to the same, and of explaining any Particular therein; which Additions and Explanations shall be taken as Part and Parcel of the Statutes of Our said Order: And whereas, by the Fifteenth Article of the said Statutes it is, amongst other Things, declared, ordained, and enjoined, that the Esquires Governors, and Young Esquires, during the Terms of their several Lives, shall enjoy all Rights, Liberties, Privileges, Exemptions, and Advantages, which the Esquires of the Sovereign's Body, or the Gentlemen of the Privy Chamber, do lawfully enjoy, or are entitled to, by Virtue of any Grant, Prescription, or Custom whatsoever: And whereas some Doubts have arisen, whether the Rights, Liberties, Privileges, Exemptions, and Advantages, therein mentioned, do not include, amongst other Things, the Privilege, of Exemption from the Office of Sheriff: We have therefore thought fit to declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure thereupon; and do accordingly, by Virtue of Our Royal Prerogative, and in consequence of the Power reserved to Us in the said Statutes, hereby determine, declare, and ordain, that the Rights, Liberties, Privileges, Exemptions, and Advantages, so granted in the said Fifteenth Article, or in any other Article of the said Statutes, shall not, in future, exempt, nor be deemed or construed to exempt, any Person whatsoever, who from and after the Date of these Presents shall be nominated or appointed to act as an Esquire Governor, or Young Esquire, to any Knight of Our said Order, from serving the Office of Sheriff within Our Realm.

Given under Our Sign Manual, this Fourth Day of May, One thousand eight hundred and three, in the Forty-Third Year of Our Reign.

The Reverend Doctor William Vincent, Dean of Westminster, and Dean of the Order, carrying the Form of the Oath and Admonition.

His Royal Highness the Duke of York, First and Principal Knight Companion, as Great Master; in the full Habit of the Order, his Hat and Feathers on his Head.

Twelve Yeomen of the Guards closed the Procession.

The Staff-Men entered the Chapel, and passed Three on each Side of King Henry the Seventh's Tomb, to the Recesses under the East Windows.

The Drums, Kettle-Drums, and Trumpets, divided at the Gate of the Chapel, and formed a Passage on the Outside.

The Alms-Men entered the Chapel, and having, in the Middle of the Choir, made their Reverences together, first to the Altar, and then to the Sovereign's Stall, passed Six on each Side of King Henry the Seventh's Tomb, to the Recesses of the Windows.

The Messenger, with like Reverences, placed himself between the Altar and the Stall of the Junior Knight.

The Esquires, Three and Three, made like Reverences, and stood before their respective Seats.

The Prebendaries, after like Reverences, placed themselves on Benches on each Side of the Altar within the Rails.

The Sub-Dean, with like Reverences, went also within the Rails.

The Officers of Arms made like Reverences in the Middle of the Choir, and stood near the Foot of the Prince's Stall.

The Band of Music now began to play.

The Knights Elect, and Knights Companions, made their like Reverences singly, or in Pairs, according to the Order observed in the Procession, and retired under their respective Banners, the Knights Companions being covered.

The Register and Secretary, and the Gentleman Usher, made their double Reverences, and stood before their Bench at the Foot of the Sovereign's Stall.

Deputy Garter, the Genealogist and Deputy Bath made their Reverences, and stood before their Bench.

The Dean did the same and went to his Seat in an enclosed Box near the Sovereign's Stall.

His Royal Highness the Duke of York, as Great Master, having made his Reverences, and stood under his Banner covered, when the Anthem began.

The Doors of the Chapel were then closed, and the Yeomen remained on the Outside.

The Anthem being ended, Deputy Bath King of Arms made his double Reverences in the Middle of the Choir, and then bowed to His Royal Highness the Duke of York, who thereupon made his double Reverences under his Banner, ascended into his Stall, repeated his Reverences and sat down covered.

Deputy Bath then bowed to Lord De Blaquiere, who thereupon made his double Reverences, ascended into his Stall, repeated his Reverences and sat down covered.

Deputy Bath then bowed to the Earl of Malmesbury, who took his Stall in like manner.

Deputy Bath then bowed to Sir William Fawcett, who took his Stall in like Manner (his Companion Viscount Galway, remained under his Banner to assist Sir George Yonge, the other junior Knight present, to offer the Banners of the deceased Knights).

The Knights Elect also remained under their Banners.

Then the two Provincial Kings of Arms, making the usual Reverences, repaired to Deputy Bath, who taking up the Banner of the late Earl Beaulieu, Senior, deceased, Knight, and bowing to Viscount Galway, and Sir George Yonge, they came forward, made their double Reverence, received the Banner from Deputy Bath, and being accompanied by the two Provincial Kings of Arms, carried it with the Point to the Altar, where, with one Reverence, they delivered it to the Prebendaries, and then, with double Reverences, returned to Deputy Bath: The Organ, and other Instruments, accompanying this Part of the Ceremony with the Dead March in the Oratorio of Saul.

The Banners of all the other deceased Knights, viz. Lord Dover, Sir George Pocock, Lord Amherst, Lord Howard de Walden, Sir George Warren, Earl of Bellamont, Sir John Lindsay, Sir Charles Hotham, Sir William Hamilton, Sir Robert Murray Keith, Sir George Howard, Sir William Gordon, Sir John Irvine, Sir, Henry Clinton, Sir

Edward Hughes, The Marquis of Antrim, Lord Rodney, Lord Heathfield, Sir Robert Boyd, Sir Frederick Haldimand, and Sir Archibald Campbell, were offered in like Manner by the said two Junior Knights, attended by two Heralds, the Music accompanying throughout: which ended, the Knights ascended into their Stalls, making the usual Reverences, and sat down covered.

Then Deputy Bath bowed to Lord Henley and Sir William Augustus Pitt, the two senior Knights Elect, who thereupon made their Reverences, ascended into their Stalls and stood therein with the Hats and Feathers in their Hands.

In like Manner all the other Knights Elect and Proxies ascended into their Stalls.

Then Deputy Bath, carrying the Book of the Statutes and the great Collar of the Order on a crimson Velvet Cushion, having on his left Hand the Gentleman Usher, and being followed by the Dean proceeded to the Middle of the Choir, where they made their Reverences together.

His Royal Highness the Duke of York, as Great Master, then made his Reverences in his Stall, and descending made his Reverences in the Choir, and being followed by the Dean, proceeded to the Stall of Lord Henley, where, receiving the Book of the Statutes from Deputy Bath, His Royal Highness presented it to the Knight, and the Dean administered the Oath. Then the Collar being delivered to His Royal Highness, he invested the Knight therewith, put the Hat and Feathers on his Head, and placed him in his Seat, the Knight thereupon rising up, and making his Reverences, His Royal Highness gave him the Accolade, and then returned with Deputy Bath, the Usher and the Dean to the Middle of the Choir, the Knight sitting down covered.

All the other Knights and the Proxies having been installed in like Manner, (except that the Proxies were not invested with the Collar, nor covered) His Royal Highness returned to his Stall, where making his Reverences, he sat down covered.

The Officers then returned to their Seats, and the Sanctus being sung, the Dean was conducted to the Altar by the Gentleman Usher. During Divine Service the Knights put their Hats and Feathers on the Cushions before them.

Upon the Sentence of the Offertory, "Let your Light so shine, &c." being read, Deputy Bath proceeded to the Middle of the Choir, and made his double Reverences; then bowing to Sir David Dundas, and Sir John Francis Cradock, they put on their Hats and Feathers, and making their double Reverences together, descended into the Middle of the Choir, repeated their Reverences, and withdrew under their Banners.

In like Manner all the Knights, and the Proxies, were summoned, descended from their Stalls, and stood under their Banners, and Deputy Bath returned to his Bench.

The two Provincial Kings of Arms then making their Reverences, waited on His Royal Highness the Duke of York, who, going from under his Banner, made a Reverence towards the Altar, (but not to the Sovereign's Stall) and another Reverence at the Altar, where taking off his Hat and kneeling down, he made his Offering of Gold and Silver; then rising up and putting on his Hat and Feathers, he returned, making his double Reverences as he passed to his Stall, wherein he repeated the like Reverences, and fat down placing his Hat on the Cushion before him.

The Rest of the Knights, including the Proxies, Seniors first, with their Companions, were in like Manner conducted to the Altar by the Heralds, and, after making their Offerings, returned with the like Reverences to their Stalls.

Divine Service being ended, the Knights put on their Hats and Feathers, but the Proxies remained uncovered, and Deputy Bath summoned them as before under their Banners; and the Knights and Proxies then intalled, were conducted, each with his Companion, by two Heralds to the Altar, as at the first Offering, where each Knight itanding and drawing his Sword, presented it to the Dean, who received it, and laid it on the Altar. The Knight then redeemed it of the Dean, who restored it with the proper Admonition, according to the Oath; which done, they returned under their Banners.

Mr. Handel's Coronation Anthem, GOD SAVE THE KING, being sung, and the Ceremony concluded, a Proceffion was made Back to the Prince's Chamber, in the same Order as it came from thence, except that the Sub-Dean and Prebendaries retired to the Jerusalem Chamber from the Abbey Door, and the Esquires, the Officers of Arms, and the Officers of the Order, when they came out of the Church, were covered.

Within the Door of the Abbey, the King's Master Cook made the usual Admonition to each Knight Companion.

At the Door of the Prince's Chamber a Person was appointed to receive the Mantles from the Proxies.

A PROCLAMATION,

For increasing the Militia.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS it is expedient that the Number of Our Militia Forces should be increased without Delay : And whereas the Occasion thereof hath been communicated to Parliament : We have thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to publish this Our Royal Proclamation ; and We do hereby, in pursuance of the Powers which are vested in Us by an Act passed in the Forty-second Year of Our Reign, intituled " An Act for amending the Laws relating to the Militia in England, and for augmenting the Militia," and of another Act passed in the same Year, intituled " An Act to raise and establish a Militia Force in Scotland," order and direct that, in Addition to the Number of Men already required to be raised under the said Acts by the several Counties, Ridings, Stewartries, Cities, and Places therein mentioned. there shall forthwith be raised and enrolled in the said several Counties, Ridings, Stewartries, Cities, and Places therein mentioned, respectively, such a Number of Men as may amount to, but not exceed the Proportion of One-Half of the whole Number of Men required to be raised by the said Acts in each County, Riding, Stewartry, City, and Place respectively : And We do hereby further order and direct Our Lieutenants and Deputy Lieutenants respectively, of the said several Counties, Ridings, Stewartries, Cities, and Places, immediately to assemble and forthwith proceed to apportion the Number of Men hereby required to be raised in their respective Counties, Ridings, Stewartries, Cities, and Places among the several Hundreds, Rapes, Lathes, Wapentakes, or other Divisions, and also among the several Parishes, Tythings, or Places therein respectively, and thereafter to proceed to raise and enrol such Men on or before the Sixteenth Day of July next ensuing.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Twenty-sixth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three, in the Forty-third Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 25th of May 1803,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, in pursuance of the Powers vested in His Majesty, by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled " An Act to continue, until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and four, several Laws relating to the prohibiting the Exportation and permitting the Importation of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision without Payment of Duty ; to the Relief of Captors of Prizes, with respect to the bringing and landing certain Prize Goods in this Kingdom ; and to the regulating the Trade and Commerce to and from the Isle of Malta ;" His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council, bearing Date the Thirty-first of December last, to order, and it was thereby ordered, That the Prohibition laid, by Order of His Majesty in Council, bearing Date the Twelfth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and one, upon the Exportation from any Port or Place in Great Britain of any Wheat, Rye, Barley, Beer or Bigg, Pease, Beans, Oats, or any Meal or Flour, or Bread, Biscuit, or Malt made thereof, or of any Indian Corn or Maize, or Meal or Flour made thereof ; and also the Liberty, granted by the said Order in Council, bearing Date the Twelfth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and one, to import and take out of Warehouse Foreign Corn and other Articles as aforesaid, and likewise to import sundry other Articles of Provision Duty free, should be further continued until the Thirty-first Day of March last, save and except the Importation, Duty free, of the Articles of Rice and Malt; and save and except, as it was declared by the said Order, that nothing therein contained was intended to extend, or should be construed to extend, to affect or apply to any Exportation of Seed Corn from Great Britain to Ireland, or any Importation of Malt from Ireland to Great Britain, in the Manner authorized by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for continuing, until the First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, an Act made in the Forty-second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for regulating, until the Fifteenth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and three, the Prices at which Grain, Meal, and Flour may be exported from Great Britain to Ireland, and from Ireland to Great Britain; and for permitting, from and after the passing thereof, until the said First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, the Exportation of Seed Corn from Great Britain to Ireland, and the Importation of Malt into Great Britain from Ireland:"

And whereas His Majesty's said Order in Council of the Thirty-first Day of December last, has been further continued until the Thirty-first Day of this instant May:

And whereas it is judged expedient that the said Prohibition to export, and the said Permission to import, should be continued for some Time longer, His Majesty, therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance of the Powers given by the First of the above-recited Acts, passed in the present Session of Parliament, hath thought fit to order, and it is hereby ordered, That the said Order in Council, bearing Date the Thirty-first of December last, and all the Exceptions, Provisoes, Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions, specified and enforced by the said Order, respecting such Exportation and Importation, and taking out of Warehouse, shall be, and continue in Force until the Thirtieth Day of June next inclusive, in the same Manner as the same are now in Force by the said Order, bearing Date the Thirty-first Day of December last. And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

At the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 16th of May 1803,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, in Consequence of the repeated Insults and Provocations which His Majesty has experienced from the Government of France, His Majesty finds himself compelled to take such Measures as are necessary for vindicating the Honor of His Crown, and the just Rights of His Subjects; His Majesty, therefore, is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that General Reprisals be granted against the Ships, Goods, and Subjects of the French Republic, so that as well His Majesty's Fleets and Ships, as also all other Ships and Vessels that shall be commissioned, by Letters of Marque, or General Reprisals, or otherwise, by His Majesty's Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, shall and may lawfully seize all Ships, Vessels, and Goods belonging to the French Republic, or to any Persons being Subjects of the French Republic, or inhabiting within any of the Territories of the French Republic, and bring the same to Judgment in such Courts of Admiralty within His Majesty's Dominions, as shall be duly commissioned to take Cognizance thereof; and, to that End, His Majesty's Advocate-General, with the Advocate of the Admiralty, are forthwith to prepare the Draft of a Commission, and present the same to His Majesty at this Board, authorising the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, or any Person or Persons by them empowered and appointed, to issue forth and grant Letters of Marque and Reprisals to any of His Majesty's Subjects, or others whom the said Commissioners shall deem fitly qualified in that Behalf, for the apprehending, seizing, and taking the Ships, Vessels, and Goods belonging to the French Republic, or to any Persons being Subjects of the French Republic, or inhabiting within any of the Territories of the French Republic; and that such Powers and Clauses be inserted in the said Commission, as have been usual, and are according to former Precedents; and His Majesty's said Advocate-General, with the Advocate of the Admiralty, are also forthwith to prepare the Draft of a Commission, and present the same to His Majesty at this Board, authorising the said Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, to will and require the High Court of Admiralty of Great Britain, and the Lieutenant and Judge of the said Court, His Surrogate or Surrogates, as also the several Courts of Admiralty within His Majesty's Dominions which shall be duly commissioned to take Cognizance of, and judicially proceed upon all and all Manner of Captures, Seizures, Prizes, and Reprisals of all Ships and Goods that are or shall be made, and to hear and determine the same, and according to the Courts of Admiralty and the Laws of Nations, to adjudge and condemn all such Ships, Vessels, and Goods as shall belong to the French Republic, or to any Persons being Subjects of the French Republic, or inhabiting within any of the Territories of the French Republic; and that such Powers and Clauses be inserted in the said Commission as have been usual and are according to former Precedents; and they are likewise to prepare and lay before His Majesty at this Board a Draft of such Instructions as may be proper to be sent to the said several Courts of Admiralty in His Majesty's foreign Governments and Plantations for their Guidance herein; as also another Draft of Instructions for such Ships as shall be commissioned for the Purposes above-mentioned.

A PROCLAMATION,

For encouraging Seamen and Landmen to enter themselves on board His Majesty's Ships of War.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS it is Our Royal Intention to give all due Encouragement to all such Seamen and Landmen who shall voluntarily enter themselves in Our Service, We have thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to publish this Our Royal Proclamation: And We do hereby promise and declare, That all such Able Seamen not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, fit for Our Service, who shall on or before the Thirtieth Day of June next, voluntarily enter themselves to serve in Our Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of Our Ships or Vessels, or Officers employed on Shore for raising Men for the Service of Our Navy, shall receive, as Our Royal Bounty, the Sum of Five Pounds each Man: and all such Ordinary Seamen, fit for Our Service, who shall so enter themselves as aforesaid, shall receive the Sum of Two Pounds Ten Shillings each Man; and all such Able bodied Landmen, not above the Age of Thirty-five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who shall so enter themselves as aforesaid, shall receive the Sum of Thirty Shillings each Man, as Our Royal Bounty, in Lieu of the Bounties promised in Our Royal Proclamation dated the Seventh Day of March last; such respective Sums to be paid them by the respective Clerks of the Cheque residing at the Ports where the Ships or

Vessels on board which such Seamen and Landmen may be appointed to serve, shall be immediately after the Third Muster of such Seamen or Landmen: And We do declare, that the Qualifications of the Seamen and Landmen so entering themselves, shall be certified by the Captain, Master, and Boatswain of the Ship or Vessel on board which they shall be appointed to serve: And for Prevention of any Abuses, by any Persons leaving the Vessels to which they shall belong, and entering themselves on Board any other Our Ships or Vessels, in order to obtain the said Bounty Money, We do hereby declare and command, That such Seamen and Landmen belonging to any of Our Ships or Vessels, as shall absent themselves from any of the said Ships or Vessels to which they shall belong, and shall enter themselves on board any other of our said Ships or Vessels, in order to obtain the said Bounty, shall not only lose the Wages due to them in the Ships or Vessels they shall leave, but also be punished according to their Demerits.

Given at Our Court at the Queen's Palace, the Sixteenth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and three, and in the Forty-third Year of Our Reign.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS We are informed, That great Numbers of Mariners and Seafaring Men, Our natural-born Subjects, are in the Service of divers Foreign Princes and States, to the Prejudice of Our Kingdom: And whereas Attempts may be made to seduce some of Our Subjects, contrary to their Allegiance and Duty to Us, to enter on board Ships or Vessels of War, or other Ships or Vessels belonging to the French and Batavian Republics, with Intent to commit Hostilities against Us or Our Subjects, or otherwise to adhere, or give Aid or Comfort to Our Enemies upon the Sea: Now We, in order that none of Our Subjects may ignorantly incur the Guilt and Penalties of such Breaches of their Allegiance and Duty, have thought it necessary, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to publish this Our Royal Proclamation, hereby notifying and declaring, that all Persons, being Our Subjects, who shall enter or serve, or be found on board any Ships or Vessels of War, or other Ships or Vessels belonging to the French or Batavian Republics, with Intent to commit Hostilities against Us or Our Subjects, or who shall otherwise adhere, or give Aid or Comfort to Our Enemies upon the Sea, will thereby become liable to suffer the Pains of Death, and all other Pains and Penalties of High Treason and Piracy; and We do hereby declare Our Royal Intention and firm Resolution to proceed against all such Offenders according to Law.

Whitehall, May 28, 1803.

The King has been pleased to grant to Howel Holland Edwards, Clerk, Master of Arts, the Place and Dignity of a Prebendary of the Collegiate Church of St. Peter, Westminster, void by the Death of Doctor Robert Poole Finch, late Prebendary thereof:

The King has also been pleased to present the Reverend William Baker, Clerk, Bachelor of Laws, to the Vicarage of Stonehouse, in the County and Diocese of Gloucester, void by the Cession of Thomas Pettat, Clerk, the last Incumbent.

Whitehall, May 28, 1803.

THE following Address of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland having been transmitted by Francis Lord Napier, His Majesty's Commissioner, to the Right Honorable Lord Pelham, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been by him presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

May it please your Majesty,

THE gracious Letter with which your Majesty hath honored this Meeting of the General Assembly of our National Church, we have received with the utmost Respect and Gratitude.

The Re appointment of Lord Napier to be your Majesty's High Commissioner, and to represent your Royal Person in this Assembly, we consider as a distinguished Mark of your Majesty's gracious Attention to our Interest, and to our Wishes. The Proofs he has already given of Zeal for your Majesty's Service, Affection for the Church of Scotland, and firm Attachment to the true Interests of his Country, make this your Majesty's Choice highly acceptable to us.

We rely with equal Gratitude and Confidence upon the Declaration communicated to us by His Grace the Lord High Commissioner, that it is your Majesty's unalterable Purpose and Resolution to maintain the Church we represent in the full Possession and Enjoyment of all its Rights and Privileges as by Law established.

We entreat that we may be permitted to assure your Majesty, that the great Importance of the Objects of our Deliberation shall excite in us the most zealous Endeavours for their Accomplishment. In the Discharge of the sacred Duty with which we are invested, of watching over the religious and moral Principles of the People, we have clearly seen that no Nation can be happy or prosperous without Virtue, nor virtuous without Religion: Impressed with a due Sense of this awful Truth, and consequently aware of the great End to which our Labours ought to be directed, we will apply ourselves to the Discharge of the high Trust reposed in us with Vigour and Fidelity. Our Exertions shall be animated by the Approbation which your Majesty is pleased to express of our past Conduct; by the Assurance that our Success will give Satisfaction to our Sovereign; and by the Trust that we shall at all Times receive His most ready and cordial Support.

We entreat your Majesty to accept of our warmest and most humble Acknowledgements for your Attention to the Advancement of religious Knowledge in the Highlands and Islands of Scotland: your Royal Donation for this Purpose we shall endeavour to apply so as most effectually to promote the Design for which it is bestowed.

That Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, may direct your Majesty's Councils, and prosper your Government; that he may bless our gracious Queen, their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales, and all your Royal Family; that he may long preserve your Majesty to reign over a free, a loyal, and a virtuous People; and that, through Christ, he may bestow upon you hereafter that Crown of Righteousness which fadeth not away, are the Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient, and most loyal Subjects,

The Ministers and Elders met in this General Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, by (Signed) Gilbert Gerard, Moderator.

Admiralty-Office, May 21, 1803.

NOTICE is hereby given to all Sea Officers, who are absent from this Kingdom with Leave from the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that it is their Lordships' Direction they return to England within Six Months after the Date hereof; and that in Failure thereof they will forfeit all the Half Pay that may be due to them.

EVAN NEPEAN.

Admiralty-Office, May 17, 1803.

HIS late Majesty having been graciously pleased, by His Warrant under His Royal Sign Manual, dated the 10th Day of June 1733, to establish certain Rules and Orders for the Relief of Poor Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy; These are to give Notice, that Copies of the said Rules and Orders are lodged with the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy at Chatham, Portsmouth, and Plymouth, as also with the Clerks of the Checque, at Deptford, Woolwich, and Sheerness, and with the Naval Officers at Harwich, Deal, and Kinsale; where all such Widows as intend to lay in their Claims may be informed of all Particulars which entitle them to the Benefit of the said Charity, and receive the proper Certificates for that Purpose. But such Widows as live at too great a Distance from the Places above-mentioned may apply, by Letter to Mr. William Pearce, at the Admiralty-Office, who will send them all necessary Information. And the Governors of the said Charity, intending to distribute to the Widows of Sea Officers, whose Circumstances come within the Rules of the Establishment, such Monies as may be due to them on the 31st of May instant; this is to give Notice, that any Widows, who have not yet applied, and intend to lay in their Claims, may do so as soon as possible; and that all such Widows, whose Claims have been already allowed, may send or bring to this Office, as soon as possible, the Affidavits required by the Rules, in order to their being continued upon their Pension or Bounty.

Navy-Office, May 19, 1803.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that on Monday the 30th Instant, at One o'Clock, they will be ready to treat with such Persons as may be willing to contract for the Land and Water Carriage of about 371 Loads of Oak Timber from Alice Holt Forest to His Majesty's Yard at Deptford.

A Form of the Tender may be seen at this Office.

No Tender will be received after Twelve o'Clock on the Day of Treaty, nor any noticed, unless the Party, or an Agent for him, attends.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary.

Navy-Office, May 23, 1803.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy hereby direct, that such Masters in the Navy, as have had Leave to go into the Merchants' Service, and to be absent from public Employment, do send to this Office immediately an Account of their Place of Abode, or where they may be called upon, observing, that the Leave by which they are so absent, is to cease; and such as are Abroad are to report when the Voyages they are on will probably be completed, and to send to the said Commissioners Notice of their Arrival at any Port in Great Britain or Ireland.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary.

Navy-Office, May 26, 1803.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that on Thursday the 2d of June, at One o'Clock, they will be ready to treat with such Persons as may be willing to contract for supplying His Majesty's Yards at Woolwich, Chatham, and Sheerness with Tar; and also for supplying Chatham and Sheerness Yards with Pitch.

A Form of the Tender, with the Distribution of the Articles, may be seen at this Office.

No Tender will be received after Twelve o'Clock on the Day of Treaty, nor any noticed, unless the Party, or an Agent for him, attends.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary.

Navy Office, May 26, 1803.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that on Monday the 13th June next, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon, Commissioner Hope will expose to Sale, at his Office, in His Majesty's Yard, at Chatham, several Lots of Old Stores, consisting of

Decayed Canvas,

Barrack-Office, May 26, 1803.

NOTICE is hereby given to all Persons willing to supply Coals for the Troops stationed, or to be stationed in the Barracks in Jersey, Guernsey, and Alderney, for Twelve Months, from the 25th of July 1803, that Proposals for the same, in Writing, sealed up, will be received by the Barrack-Master-General, on or before the 16th of June 1803.

The Names of the Barracks, and the Terms of the Contract may be known upon Application at this Office, any Day, (Sunday excepted,) between the Hours of Twelve and Three, or to the Barrack-Masters at each of the several Barracks.

The Proposals must specify the particular Places, and the respective Pits, from whence the Coals are to be supplied, and be separate for each Barrack: And they are also to be in Conformity to the Terms of the Contract, or they will not be attended to.

Stamps to be paid for by the Contractor.

Adequate Security will be required for the due Performance of each Contract, and the Names of Two Persons, as Sureties for the same, with Referees, are to be given in with the Proposals.

Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich,

April 5, 1803.

THE Commissioners and Governors of the said Hospital, hereby give Notice, that at Salters' Hall, in London, on Wednesday the 19th Day of October next, or as soon after as conveniently may be, the following Estates will be let on Leases, to commence upon the several Days, and for the respective Terms of Years below mentioned, that is to say, Spindleston Farm, (Lisles Field and Sea Lands not included,) consisting, by Estimation, of Three Hundred and Fifty-eight Acres, Two Roods, and Fourteen Perches of Ground, be the same more or less; and Spindleston and Waren Mills and Ground, (including Lisles Field and Sea Lands,) consisting, by Estimation, of Eighty-four Acres, Two Roods, and Twenty-three Perches, be the same more or less, in the Parish of Bamburgh, otherwise Bam-brough, and County of Northumberland; and Five Shops, Eight Butcher's Shambles or Stands at Kefawick, the Tolls of Kefawick, and Williamson's Close, in the Parish of Crosthwaite, and County of Cumberland.

Spindleston Farm, and Spindleston and Waren Mills and Ground, will be let together, or separate, for the Term of Twelve Years, to commence upon the 12th Day of May 1804, but it is required, that the Biddings for each of those Two Estates shall be made separate; and the Shops, Butchers' Shambles or Stands, and Tolls, will be let separately for the Term of Seven Years, and Williamson's Close, for the Term of Four Years, to commence upon the 5th Day of April 1804.

Such Persons as may be desirous to take any of the said Estates, are requested to deliver or send their Proposals, in Writing, to John Ibbeson, Esq; at Greenwich Hospital, at any Time before the 19th Day of October next, or on that Day, before the Hour of Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at Salters' Hall, in London; after which Hour no Proposals will be received. And for Particulars of the Two first-mentioned Estates to apply to Mr. John Dinning, of Newlands, near Belford; and of the Estates in the Parish of Crosthwaite, to Mr. John Scott, at Kefawick; or for Particulars of any Part of the said Estates to apply to Messrs. Walton and Forster, Receivers for the said Hospital, at their Office, in Newcastle-upon-Tyne.

NOTICE is hereby given, that there will be a Levee at St. James's on Wednesday next the 1st, and a Drawing-Room on Saturday the 4th, of June, His Majesty's Birth-Day.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 25th of May 1803,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the Sixth Day of April last, for prohibiting the Exportation out of this Kingdom, or carrying Coastwise, Gunpowder or Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, will expire upon the Sixth Day of June next: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, and the Safety of this Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer, His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no Person or Persons whatsoever, (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service,) do at any Time, during the Space of Six Months, to commence from the said Sixth Day of June next, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coastwise, any Gunpowder or Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, or ship or lade any Gunpowder or Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, on board any Ship or Vessel in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, or carrying the same Coastwise, without Leave or Permission in that Behalf first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring and suffering the respective Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted by an Act passed in the Twenty-ninth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the

" Exportation of Salt Petre, and to enforce the " Law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit " the Exportation of Gunpowder, or any Sort of " Arms or Ammunition; and also to empower " His Majesty to restrain the carrying Coastwise of " Salt Petre, Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or " Ammunition:"—And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain. *W. A P R O C L A M A T I O N,

For increasing the Militia.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS it is expedient that the Number of Our Militia Forces should be increased without Delay: And whereas the Occasion thereof hath been communicated to Parliament: We have thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to publish this Our Royal Proclamation; and We do hereby, in pursuance of the Powers which are vested in Us by an Act passed in the Forty-second Year of Our Reign, intituled "An Act for amending the Laws relating to the Militia in England, and for augmenting the Militia," and of another Act passed in the same Year, intituled "An Act to raise and establish a Militia Force in Scotland," order and direct that, in Addition to the Number of Men already required to be raised under the said Acts by the several Counties, Ridings, Stewartries, Cities, and Places therein mentioned, there shall forthwith be raised and enrolled in the said several Counties, Ridings, Stewartries, Cities, and Places therein mentioned, respectively, such a Number of Men as may amount to, but not exceed the Proportion of One-Half of the whole Number of Men required to be raised by the said Acts in each County, Riding, Stewartry, City, and Place respectively: And We do hereby further order and direct Our Lieutenants and Deputy Lieutenants respectively, of the said several Counties, Ridings, Stewartries, Cities, and Places, immediately to assemble and forthwith proceed to apportion the Number of Men hereby required to be raised in their respective Counties, Ridings, Stewartries, Cities, and Places among the several Hundreds, Rapes, Lathes, Wapentakes, or other Divisions, and also among the several Parishes, Tythings, or Places therein respectively, and thereafter to proceed to raise and enrol such Men on or before the Sixteenth Day of July next ensuing.

Given at Our Court at St James's, the Twentieth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three, in the Forty-third Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

At the Court at St. James's, the 25th of May 1803,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, in pursuance of the Powers vested in His Majesty, by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to continue, until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and four, several Laws relating to the prohibiting the Exportation and permitting the Importation of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision without Payment of Duty; to the Relief of Captors of Prizes, with respect to the bringing and landing certain Prize Goods in this Kingdom; and to the regulating the Trade and Commerce to and from the Isle of Malta;" His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council, bearing Date the Thirty-first of December last, to order, and it was thereby ordered, That the Prohibition laid, by Order of His Majesty in Council, bearing Date the Twelfth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and one, upon the Exportation from any Port or Place in Great Britain of any Wheat, Rye, Barley, Beer or Bigg, Pease, Beans, Oats, or any Meal or Flour, or Bread, Biscuit, or Malt made thereof, or of any Indian Corn or Maize, or Meal or Flour made thereof; and also the Liberty, granted by the said Order in Council, bearing Date the Twelfth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and one, to import and take out of Warehouse Foreign Corn and other Articles as aforesaid, and likewise to import sundry other Articles of Provision Duty free, should be further continued until the Thirty-first Day of March last, save and except the Importation, Duty free, of the Articles of Rice and Malt; and save and except, as it was declared by the said Order, that nothing therein contained was intended to extend, or should be construed to extend, to affect or apply to any Exportation of Seed Corn from Great Britain to Ireland, or any Importation of Malt from Ireland to Great Britain, in the Manner authorized by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for continuing, until the First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, an Act made in the Forty-second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for regulating, until the Fifteenth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and three, the Prices at which Grain, Meal, and Flour may be exported from Great Britain to Ireland, and from Ireland to Great Britain; and for permitting, from and after the passing thereof, until the said First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, the Exportation of Seed Corn from Great Britain to Ireland, and the Importation of Malt into Great Britain from Ireland."

And whereas His Majesty's said Order in Council of the Thirty-first Day of December last, has been further continued until the Thirty-first Day of this instant May:

And whereas it is judged expedient that the said Prohibition to export, and the said Permission to import, should be continued for some Time longer, His Majesty, therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance of the Powers given by the First of the above-recited Acts, passed in the present Session of Parliament, hath thought fit to order, and it is hereby ordered, That the said Order in Council, bearing Date the Thirty-first of December last, and all the Exceptions, Provisoos, Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions, specified and enforced by the said Order, respecting such Exportation and Importation, and taking out of Warehouse, shall be, and continue in Force until the Thirtieth Day of June next inclusive, in the same Manner as the same are now in Force by the said Order, bearing Date the Thirty-first Day of December last. And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

W. Fawcener.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 1st Day of June 1803,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS Day the Right Honorable George Tierney, Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, was, by His Majesty's Command, sworn of His Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council, and took his Place at the Board accordingly.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 25th of May 1803,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the Sixth Day of April last, for prohibiting the Exportation out of this Kingdom, or carrying Coastwise, Gunpowder or Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, will expire upon the Sixth Day of June next: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, and the Safety of this Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer, His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no Person or Persons whatsoever, (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service,) do at any Time, during the Space of Six Months, to commence from the said Sixth Day of June next, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coastwise, any Gunpowder or Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, or ship or lade any Gunpowder or Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, on board any Ship or Vessel in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, or carrying the same Coastwise, without Leave or Permission in that Behalf first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring and suffering the respective Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted by an Act passed in the Twenty-ninth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Salt Petre, and to enforce the

" Law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition; and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying Coastwise of Salt Petre, Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition:"—And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain. W. Faulkener.

Extract of a Letter from the Honorable William Cornwallis, Admiral of the Blue, &c. &c. to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated on board the Dreadnought, at Sea, the 24th of May 1803.

CAPTAIN PEARSON, of the Doris, has just joined me with a French National Lugger, which, I am sorry to say, upon his firing at to bring her to, returned the Fire, and continued a running Action, until the French Lieutenant, commanding the Lugger, was killed, with several of his Men: luckily only One Man was wounded on board the Doris. I have the Honor to enclose Captain Pearson's Letter.

S I R,

Doris, at Sea, May 23, 1803.

IHAVE the Honor to acquaint you, that, while in Obedience to your Order of the 18th Instant, cruising off Uthant in His Majesty's Ship Doris, under my Command, I fell in with the French Republican Lugger L'Affronteur, commanded by Monf. Morce André Dutoya, Lieutenant de Vaisseau, mounting Fourteen long Nines, with Ninety-two Men. As she made Sail to escape me I fired a Shot wide of her, with the Hope that she would then have shortened Sail, as I was gaining fast upon her: As this was without Effect I fired a Second, which she returned, and kept up a running Fire till the Instant I laid her alongside; nor did she then give up a Contest so fraught with Temerity, until the First Captain and Eight Men were killed, and Fourteen wounded, One of whom is since dead of his Wounds.

I am happy to add, that the Damage on our Side consists only in One Man wounded, and a few Shot in the Hull and Rigging.

I have the Honor to be, Sir, &c.

R. H. PEARSON.

Honorable Admiral Cornwallis, Commander in Chief, &c. &c. &c.

Admiralty Office, June 4, 1803.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Mansfield, of His Majesty's Ship Minotaur, to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart.
Dated at Sea, 30th May 1803.

SIR,

I BEG Leave to acquaint you, for their Lordships' Information, that I this Evening saw the French Republican Frigate La Française safe off the Dodman, agreeably to Signal made by the Honorable Admiral Cornwallis. She was captured by His Majesty's Ship under my Command, on the 28th of May, in Company with His Majesty's Ship Thunderer, having chased from the Fleet, and during the Chase was joined by the Albion, which Ship had parted from the Fleet some Days before in thick Weather. The Prize proves to be the Republican French Frigate La Française, from Port-au-Prince Thirty-five Days, Captain Jurien. She is pierced for Twenty-eight Twelve-Pounders on her Main-Deck, and Sixteen Nine-Pounders on the Quarter-Deck and Forecastle, Ten of which were in her Hold, and had on board One Hundred and Eighty-seven Men.

Whitehall, June 4, 1803.

THE following Address of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland having been transmitted by Francis Lord Napier, His Majesty's Commissioner, to the Right Honorable Lord Polham, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been by him presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland, met in the General Assembly, humbly approach the Throne to express our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on the providential Discovery and Defeat of the late most atrocious and daring Conspiracy against your Majesty's Person and Government. Enjoying the Blessings of your mild and equitable Administration, witnessing in your Conduct the unceasing Exercise of every public and private Virtue, and convinced by long Experience of your affectionate Concern for the Happiness of all your People; we look back with Astonishment and Indignation on the desperate Plans of the Disaffected, and with grateful Hearts we bless the God of our Fathers, who in his great Goodness, disappointed their Counsels and averted from us the projected Horrors of Insurrection and Rebellion.

While we thus rejoice in the Preservation of our gracious Sovereign, and of the domestic Tranquillity of our Country, we cannot, at this interesting Crisis, reflect without Anxiety on the Renewal of Hostilities with France. As Servants of the Prince of Peace, Lovers of our Country and of Mankind, we feel all the Sentiments of Concern and Regret which become us on the Commencement of War. But when we consider the Spirit of Ambition and Encroachment which actuates the present Governors of the French Nation, their Violation of the Rights of independent States, especially their undisguised Determination to leave no Expedient untried for diminishing the Power and Influence of Great Britain; their repeated and insulting Attempts to interfere with the internal Arrangements of this Kingdom, and to procure by Menaces, an Infringement of our free Constitution; together with the Arrogance or the Neglect with which they have persisted to treat the Remonstrances made in Behalf of the just Rights of your Majesty's Crown and Subjects; we cannot fail to be persuaded, that the hostile Measures to which your Majesty has at last so reluctantly resorted, had become indispensably necessary for maintaining the Honor and Security of the Nation. Deeply impressed with these Considerations we shall omit no Means, becoming our Station, of cherishing in the People committed to our Charge, that Loyalty to the King, that Submission to the Laws, that Zeal for the Defence of their Religion, of their Liberties and Independence, which the Circumstances of the Times so imperiously demand. Proud of the Privileges which Britons enjoy, the People of this happy Land feel, as one Man, the inestimable Value of the great Interests that are now at stake; they see with due Solicitude, but without Dejection or Fear, the Dangers that threaten them; and we are persuaded that, at this Moment, we can do nothing, which will be more acceptable to them, than to convey to the Throne their fixed and unalterable Resolution to defend, at all Hazards, and against every Aggressor, the Honor and Independence of their Country.

We are thankful to Providence that the seditious Spirit which a few Years ago had infected some of your Majesty's Subjects in this Part of the United Kingdom has now ceased to show itself; and we trust that the Unanimity of the People, under the Guidance of your Majesty's paternal Wisdom, will, through the Blessing of Heaven, be effectual for the Protection of our National Security, and for restoring to us at no distant Period, the Blessings of a safe, honourable, and lasting Peace.

That Almighty God may bless your Majesty's Fleets and Armies with Success; that he may direct your Councils, and make your Reign long and prosperous; and that a Race of Kings, of your Royal Line, Friends of Religion, Liberty, and their Country, may always sway the Sceptre of these Lands, are, through Christ, the Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most dutiful, most faithful, and most obedient Subjects,

The Ministers and Elders met in this National Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, by Gilbert Gerard, Moderator. Edinburgh, 28th May 1803.

Admiralty-Office, May 21, 1803.

NOTICE is hereby given to all Sea Officers, who are absent from this Kingdom with Leave from the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that it is their Lordships' Direction they return to England within Six Months after the Date hereof; and that in Failure thereof they will forfeit all the Half-Pay that may be due to them.

EVAN NEPEAN.

NOTICE.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in this present Session of Parliament, intitled "An Act for appointing Commissioners for distributing the Money stipulated to be paid by the United States of America, under the Convention made between His Majesty and the said United States, among the Persons having Claims to Compensation out of such Money;" Thomas Macdonald, Esquire, Henry Pye Rich, Esquire, and John Guillemard, Esquire, are constituted and appointed Commissioners for the Purposes aforesaid; and it is enacted that the Adjudication of such Commissioners, or any Two of them, as to all Claims made for Compensation out of such Money, and also as to the Apportionment or Distribution thereof as aforesaid, shall be final and conclusive: And whereas it is thereby further enacted, that no Claim or Request of any Person or Persons under the said Act, shall be received after the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and four: And whereas His Majesty by the said Convention (dated the 8th Day of January 1802,) consented to accept of the said Money so to be paid by the said United States, (amounting in the Whole to SIX HUNDRED THOUSAND POUNDS Sterling,) for the Use of the Persons described in the Sixth Article of the Treaty of Amity, Commerce, and Navigation concluded at London, on the 4th Day of November 1794, between His Majesty and the said United States, in Satisfaction and Discharge of the Money which the United States might have been liable to pay in pursuance of the Provisions of the said Sixth Article.—All Persons who think themselves entitled, as being within the Description of the said Sixth Article of the said Treaty, and the Meaning of the said Convention, to claim under the said Act, and who have not already preferred Claims at this Office under the said Convention, pursuant to and in Terms of the Notice in the London Gazette of the 11th Day of September last, (which Claims so preferred in Terms of the said Notice, will be held and considered by the said Commissioners as Claims under the above Act of Parliament,) are hereby required, without Delay, and at farthest on or before the said First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and four, when the Sum total of Claims will be finally made up and ascertained, to present and deliver at this Office, their respective Claims, in the Form of Memorials, addressed to the Commissioners under the said Act of Parliament, and duly signed by the Parties, or their Agents respectively authorized for that Purpose, with such relative Lists or Schedules of Debts and Debtors as the several Cases may admit of or require; the said Memorials and relative Lists or Schedules distinctly setting forth the several Points enumerated and described in the said former Notice under the Convention; of which former Notice, printed Copies will be delivered at this Office to all who shall apply for the same.

And inasmuch as Claims have already been received, under the said Convention, to a much greater Amount than the Money to be distributed, and the Commissioners, while they prevent, as far as in them lies, all unnecessary Discussion and Delay, will nevertheless proceed so as to ensure as much as possible the Means of full Investigation, and of equal Justice to all concerned, Notice is hereby given, that the several Claims, Schedules, and Accounts, with a List of all the Claimants, will be open at this Office for the Inspection of every Claimant, or the authorized Agent of such Claimant, who may state such Objections in Writing (duly signed by such Claimant or Agent) as he may desire to have submitted to the Consideration of the Commissioners; which Objections the said Commissioners, if they see Cause so to do, will allow the respective Claimants against whose Claims, in the Whole or in Part, the same shall be directed, to see and answer; such Inspection of Claims to be made in the Manner, and according to the Rules, which, with the general Orders of the Board for regulating the Course of the Proceedings before them, will be communicated at this Office.

By Order of the Commissioners,

J. W. Hay, Secretary.

Office of the Commissioners for Claims under the Convention with the United States of America, Great Marlborough-Street, No. 7, May 7, 1803.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION,

For increasing the Militia.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS it is expedient that the Number of Our Militia Forces should be increased without Delay: And whereas the Occasion thereof hath been communicated to Parliament: We have thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to publish this Our Royal Proclamation; and We do hereby, in pursuance of the Powers which are vested in Us by an Act passed in the Forty-second Year of Our Reign, intituled "An Act for amending the Laws relating to the Militia in England, and for augmenting the Militia," and of another Act passed in the same Year, intituled "An Act to raise and establish a Militia Force in Scotland," order and direct that, in Addition to the Number of Men already required to be raised under the said Acts by the several Counties, Ridings, Stewartries, Cities, and Places therein mentioned, there shall forthwith be raised and enrolled in the said several Counties, Ridings, Stewartries, Cities, and Places therein mentioned, respectively, such a Number of Men as may amount to, but not exceed the Proportion of One Half of the whole Number of Men required to be raised by the said Acts in each County, Riding, Stewartry, City, and Place respectively: And We do hereby further order and direct Our Lieutenants and Deputy Lieutenants respectively, of the said several Counties, Ridings, Stewartries, Cities, and Places, immediately to assemble and forthwith proceed to apportion the Number of Men hereby required to be raised in their respective Counties, Ridings, Stewartries, Cities, and Places among the several Hundreds, Rapes, Lathes, Wapentakes, or other Divisions, and also among the several Parishes, Tythings, or Places therein respectively, and thereafter to proceed to raise and enrol such Men on or before the Sixteenth Day of July next ensuing.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Twentieth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three, in the Forty-third Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 25th of May 1803,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, in pursuance of the Powers vested in His Majesty, by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to continue, until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and four, several Laws relating to the prohibiting the Exportation and permitting the Importation of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision without Payment of Duty; to the Relief of Captors of Prizes, with respect to the bringing and landing certain Prize Goods in this Kingdom; and to the regulating the Trade and Commerce to and from the Isle of Malta;" His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council, bearing Date the Thirty-first of December last, to order, and it was thereby ordered, That the Prohibition laid, by Order of His Majesty in Council, bearing Date the Twelfth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and one, upon the Exportation from any Port or Place in Great Britain of any Wheat, Rye, Barley, Beer or Bigg, Pease, Beans, Oats, or any Meal or Flour, or Bread, Biscuit, or Malt made thereof, or of any Indian Corn or Maize, or Meal or Flour made thereof; and also the Liberty, granted by the said Order in Council, bearing Date the Twelfth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and one, to import and take out of Warehouse Foreign Corn and other Articles as aforesaid, and likewise to import sundry other Articles of Provision Duty free, should be further continued until the Thirty first Day of March last, save and except the Importation, Duty free, of the Articles of Rice and Malt; and save and except, as it was declared by the said Order, that nothing therein contained was intended to extend, or should be construed to extend, to affect or apply to any Exportation of Seed Corn from Great Britain to Ireland, or any Importation of Malt from Ireland to Great Britain, in the Manner authorized by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for continuing, until the First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, an Act made

" in the Forty-second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for regulating, until the Fifteenth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and three, the Prices at which Grain, Meal, and Flour may be exported from Great Britain to Ireland, and from Ireland to Great Britain; and for permitting, from and after the passing thereof, until the said First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, the Exportation of Seed Corn from Great Britain to Ireland, and the Importation of Malt into Great Britain from Ireland."

And whereas His Majesty's said Order in Council of the Thirty-first Day of December last, has been further continued until the Thirty-first Day of this instant May:

And whereas it is judged expedient that the said Prohibition to export, and the said Permission to import, should be continued for some Time longer, His Majesty, therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance of the Powers given by the First of the above-recited Acts, passed in the present Session of Parliament, hath thought fit to order, and it is hereby ordered, That the said Order in Council, bearing Date the Thirty-first of December last, and all the Exceptions, Provisoos, Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions, specified and enforced by the said Order, respecting such Exportation and Importation, and taking out of Warehouse, shall be, and continue in Force until the Thirtieth Day of June next inclusive, in the same Manner as the same are now in Force by the said Order, bearing Date the Thirty-first Day of December last. And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

W. Fawcener.

St. James's, June 7, 1803.

Saturday last being the Anniversary of the King's Birth-Day, the same was observed at Court, where there was a very numerous and splendid Appearance of the Nobility, Foreign Ministers, and other Persons of Distinction, to compliment His Majesty on the Occasion. The Guns in the Park and at the Tower were fired at One o'Clock; and in the Evening there were Illuminations and other public Demonstrations of Joy throughout London and Westminster.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed John Wardell, of Guisborough, in the County of York, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

St. James's, June 1, 1803.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble and unanimous Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Armagh.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Armagh, convened by the High-Sheriff, beg Leave humbly to offer to your Majesty our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on the fortunate and timely Discovery of the late dangerous Conspiracy against your Majesty's Royal Person and Government.

Permit us to assure your Majesty that we hold in due Abhorrence the Machinations of the Traitors concerned in so diabolical a Plot; and that we are too conscious of the inestimable Benefits which we enjoy under the Firmness and Mildness of your Majesty's auspicious Reign, not to be ready upon every Occasion to step forward with our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of your sacred Person, and the Constitution of our Country.

John Moon, High-Sheriff.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Fermanagh.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Fermanagh, beg Leave, with most respectful Duty and Attachment, to approach the Throne, and to offer our sincere Congratulations on the Disconcernment of the late traitorous Conspiracy, so happily discovered and suppressed by the Vigilance of your Majesty's Councils; a Plot as despicable for the insatuated Folly of its ultimate Views, as detestable for the abandoned Wickedness of its Machinations to accomplish them.

May that Providence, which has hitherto guarded your Majesty's Person and Government from the Attempts of all Enemies foreign and domestic, propitiously continue the same gracious Protection; and may all Classes of your Majesty's Subjects (while they contemplate the disastrous and well-merited Fate of those visionary Speculations in Politics through every Portion of the United Kingdom, and their preposterous Issue so fatal to Liberty in that Country where they have had uncontroled Success) learn duly to appreciate the Value of the Constitution under which they have the Happiness to live, and be prepared to defend it with their utmost Efforts, and, if necessary, with their Lives.

Gerard Irvine, High-Sheriff, County of Fermanagh.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Louth, beg Leave to offer our Address of Congratulation to your Majesty on the Detection and Defeat of the late horrid Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government.

We acknowledge with humble Gratitude the Protection of Providence extended on this as on former Occasions to your Majesty and your Subjects; and we repose in confident Hope of its happy Continuance.

John Straton, Sheriff

Lent Assizes, 1803.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town and Parish of Antrim and Grange, of Muckamore, in that Part of your United Kingdom called Ireland, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the most warm and heartfelt Congratulations on your late providential Escape from the wicked and diabolical Conspiracy which was treacherously formed against your Royal Life by unprincipled and blood-thirsty Traitors. We pledge ourselves to your Majesty that we shall, at the Expence of our Lives and Fortunes, support the present Constitution, your Majesty, and your illustrious House, against Enemies of every Description. And we offer our most fervent Prayers to the Great Disposer of all Events, that your Majesty and your Family may wield the Sceptre of the United Kingdom to the latest Posterity, and reign, as you have done, in the Hearts of your People; and that every Attempt tending to interrupt it may prove as abortive as the last.

Maffereene.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Ministers and Elders, in their Synod assembled, of that Body of Dissenters from the Judicatories of the Church of Scotland, commonly called Burgher Seceders.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE have contemplated with deep Concern the desolating Progress of that Spirit of Innovation which hath convulsed the Governments of civilized Nations on the Continent of Europe, and menaced the Prosperity, the Freedom, and the Independence of Britons.

That a Prince, who hath uniformly distinguished himself as the Guardian of that excellent Constitution, which hath exalted our Country to so eminent a Rank among the Nations of the World, sways the Sceptre of the British Empire, is a Blessing which we devoutly ascribe to the peculiar Care of Divine Providence.

Participating in the Joy inspired by the Preservation of your Majesty from the late atrocious Conspiracy against your sacred Person and Government, we embrace this earliest Opportunity to approach your Majesty's Throne with our humble Congratulations; adoring the Providence of God, and recognizing, in the Protection afforded to your Majesty, the gracious Answers of the Prayers of your People.

Under the Influence of our religious Principles, which teach us the Necessity of good Government, and forbid us to meddle with those who are given to change, we shall, by the Grace of God, continue, without ceasing, to present at the Throne of Mercy our fervent Supplications that Providence may continue to guard your Majesty's Person, and frustrate every Attempt to endanger the Safety, or disturb the Tranquillity, of your Empire; that pure and undefiled Religion may flourish among your Majesty's Subjects; and that, after a long and happy Reign, you may exchange an earthly Crown for a Crown of Glory, which fadeeth not away.

Signed in our Presence, and by our Appointment, at Glasgow, this Twenty-eighth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and three Years.

Alexander Harper, Moderator.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

NOTICE is hereby given to all Sea Officers, who are absent from this Kingdom with Leave from the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that it is their Lordships' Direction they return to England within Six Months after the Date hereof; and that in Failure thereof they will forfeit all the Half-Pay that may be due to them.

EVAN NEPEAN.

Whitehall. June 4, 1803.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that some evil disposed Person or Persons, did on the Night of the 9th Ultimo, most cruelly and maliciously put to death, by stabbing a Mare, the Property of James Hall, Esq; of New Place, Kingslympton, in the County of Devon; and on the Night of the 15th of the said Month, another Mare heavy in Foal, was killed in like Manner;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the above-mentioned Felonies, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them (except the Person or Persons who actually killed the said Mares,) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PELHAM.

And, as a further Encouragement a Reward of TWO HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted) to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders.

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, in virtue of the Powers vested in His Majesty by an Act, passed in the Forty-first Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to regulate the Trade and Commerce to and from the Isle of Malta until the signing a Definitive Treaty of Peace, and from thence until Six Weeks after the next Meeting of Parliament, and to declare the Isle of Malta to be Part of Europe:" His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council, bearing Date the Thirtieth of July One thousand eight hundred and one, to order and declare, that the Port of La Valette, in the said Island of Malta, should be taken to be, and the same was thereby made, a free Port for the Importation into, and Exportation from the same, of all Sorts of Goods and Merchandizes in trading Ships or Vessels belonging to Subjects of States in Amity with His Majesty, of whatever Burthen, or in whatever Manner such Ships or Vessels should be navigated; and should continue to be such free Port until the signing of a Definitive Treaty of Peace, and from thence until Six Weeks after the next Meeting of Parliament, unless His Majesty should in the mean Time otherwise order, subject, nevertheless, to such Regulations for the Security of the Possession of the Island of Malta and its Dependencies, and the Protection of the Health of the Garrison, and Inhabitants thereof, as might be then in Force, or should from Time to Time be deemed necessary or expedient in that Behalf; and that the same Drawbacks and Bounties, and upon the same Terms and Conditions which then were, or thereafter might be allowed by Law, upon the Exportation of any Goods and Merchandizes to the Islands of Minorca, or to Gibraltar, should and might be allowed upon the Exportation of the like Goods and Merchandizes to the Port of La Valette, in the Island of Malta: And whereas by an Act, passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to continue, until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and four, several Laws relating to the prohibiting the Exportation and permitting the Importation of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision, without Payment of Duty; to the Relief of Captors of Prizes, with respect to the bringing and landing certain Prize Goods in this Kingdom; and to the regulating the Trade and Commerce to and from the Isle of Malta:" It is enacted, that the said Act, and all the Powers and Provisions therein contained, shall continue in full Force and Effect until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and four; His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Order made by His Majesty in Council on the Thirtieth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and one, shall be, and be deemed, and taken to be, in Force until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and four, unless His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, shall think fit otherwise to order and direct. And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 25th of May 1803,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the Sixth Day of April last, for prohibiting the Exportation out of this Kingdom, or carrying Coastwise, Gunpowder or Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, will expire upon the Sixth Day of June next: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, and the Safety of this Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer, His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no Person or Persons whatsoever, (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service,) do at any Time, during the Space of Six Months, to commence from the said Sixth Day of June next, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coastwise, any Gunpowder or Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, or ship or lade any Gunpowder or Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, on board any Ship or Vessel in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, or carrying the same Coastwise, without Leave or Permission in that Behalf first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring and suffering the respective Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted by an Act passed in the Twenty-ninth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Salt Petre, and to enforce the Law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition; and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying Coastwise of Salt Petre, Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition:"—And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may be respectively appertain. *W. Copy of a Letter from the Honorable Admiral Cornwallis, &c. &c. &c. to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated Dreadnought, at Sea, 3d June 1803.

SIR,

I AM to request you will be pleased to lay before the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty for their Information, the enclosed Letter from Captain Wallis, of His Majesty's Ship the Naiad, dated the 2d Instant, acquainting me of his having, on the 29th of last Month, taken Possession of L'Impatient French National Corvette of Twenty Guns and Eighty Men, commanded by Citizen Hypolite Arnous, Lieutenant de Vaisseau, from Senegal to Rochfort; and on the 31st, at Noon, the French Merchant Ship La Chasseur, from St. Domingo to L'Orient, laden with Sugar, Cotton, Coffee, &c. about Three Hundred and Fifty-nine Tons Burthen.

I am, &c.

W. CORNWALLIS.

His Majesty's Ship Naiad, 2d June 1803.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to inform you, that on the 29th Ultimo, at Eleven P. M. being in Latitude 45 Deg. 50 Min. N. and Longitude 4 Deg. 40

Min. W. I captured the French National Corvette L'Impatient of Twenty Guns and Eighty Men, commanded by Citizen Hypolite Arnous, Lieutenant de Vaisseau, from Senegal bound to Rochfort; she is a very fine Vessel, and is esteemed one of the swiftest Sailers out of France; during the Chace they cut away her Anchors from her Bows, and threw Part of her Guns overboard.

I have likewise the Honor to inform you, that on the 31st, at Noon, I captured the French Merchant Ship La Chasseur, from St. Domingo bound to L'Orient, laden with Sugar, Cotton, Coffee, &c. &c.; she is a very handsome Ship Three Hundred and Fifty-nine Tons Burthen, newly coppered, commanded by Citizen Lamer, Lieutenant de Vaisseau.

I am, Sir, &c.

JAMES WALLIS.

Copy of a Letter from Rear Admiral Dacres, Commanding Officer of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at Plymouth, to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated the 3d Instant.

SIR,

I Enclose, for the Information of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a Letter I have received from Lieutenant Senhouse, of His Majesty's Ship Conqueror, (employed on the Impress Service on board the Hind Revenue Cutter,) stating his having captured La Felicité French Cutter Privateer, and carried her into Portland-Roads, with sundry other Prizes.

I am, &c.

JAS. P. DACRES.

Hind Revenue Cutter, Portland-Roads, June 1, 1803.

SIR,

I Beg Leave to acquaint you, that whilst cruising off Portland, in pursuance of your Orders, I have captured and detained the following Vessels:

La Felicité French Cutter Privateer, armed with Twenty-two Men.

Le Charles French Merchant Brig, laden with Oak Timber for constructing Ships, from Rouen to Rochfort.

A Dutch Galliot, laden with Salt, from the Coast of Portugal bound to Rotterdam.

A Dutch Indiaman, from Surinam, with a very valuable Cargo of Cotton and Coffee.

The fresh Westerly Wind, with the bad Sailing of my Prizes, jointly obliged me to anchor in this Roadstead; as soon, however, as the Wind and Weather will permit, I shall lose no Time in proceeding to Plymouth.

I have the Honor to be, Sir, &c.

(Signed) H. T. SENHOUSE.

ERRATUM in the Gazette of the 21st Ultimo.
For Alexander Young, Esq; "to be Captain in the Renfrew Militia,
Read Adjutant Alexander Young to be Captain, by Brevet. Commission Dated May 6, 1803.

St. James's, June 8, 1803.

THIS Day the Right Honorable the Lord
Mayor, the Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common-Council of the City of London, waited upon His Majesty (being introduced by the Lord in Waiting), with the following Address, which was read by Sir John William Rose the Recorder :

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common-Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave to approach the Throne, at this important Crisis, with our renewed Sentiments of Fidelity and Allegiance to your Majesty's Person, Crown, and Government.

We are fully persuaded of the Necessity for the decisive and dignified Measures adopted by your Majesty, by the Recall of your Majesty's Ambassador from France, and the vigorous Posture of Defence of the United Kingdom to repel the Designs of that Government, whose inordinate and insatiable Views of restless Ambition are manifestly directed to overthrow the glorious Constitution of these

Realms, and give a mortal Stab to our Existence as a free and independent Nation. The Justice of your Majesty's Cause, and the Moderation of your Claims, must be felt and acknowledged by every surrounding Power; and we are convinced that the brave and happy People of this Land, conscious of the Purity of their Freedom, and the inestimable Privileges they enjoy under your Majesty's mild and paternal Rule, will, with one Hand and Heart, resolve to defend and maintain them. Your Majesty's faithful Citizens of London feel a grateful Pride in this Assurance of kindred Loyalty throughout your Majesty's Dominions, and are deeply sensible of the eminent Distinction they are invested with, by this Opportunity of testifying their Fidelity and Attachment to their beloved Sovereign. It is our earnest Prayer that every Blessing may attend and prosper your Majesty's Zeal and Exertions for the Welfare of your People; and should substantial Peace not be attainable but by the Decision of the Sword, may the Calamities of a War not to be averted, be lost in the Success and Glory of its Achievements.

Your Majesty's faithful Citizens cannot, however, refrain from expressing their Satisfaction at the Disposition manifested by your Majesty, of availing yourself of any favourable Circumstance of terminating the subsisting Differences, whenever it can be done consistently with the Honor and Dignity of your Majesty's Crown, and the Security and Welfare of the British Empire.

Signed, by Order of Court,

HENRY WOODTHORPE.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:

I Receive with great Satisfaction this dutiful and loyal Address from My City of London.

My Endeavours to preserve Peace have been unhappily frustrated by the restless Spirit of Aggrandizement which actuates the Councils of the French Government, but I trust the united and vigorous Exertions of the Nation at large, in Support of the just Cause in which we are engaged, will, under the Protection of Divine Providence, enable Me to maintain the Dignity of My Crown, and to defend the Rights and Interests of My People, against every Aggression.

They were all very graciously received, and had the Honor to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

St. James's, June 8, 1803.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Sligo, of every Persuasion and Description.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our Zeal and Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government. We are satisfied it has been your Majesty's earnest Desire to preserve the Peace of the British Empire, so long as it was consistent with the Honor of your Crown and the Welfare of your Dominions; but we have observed, with Grief and Indignation, that your Majesty's best Endeavors have been frustrated by the restless Ambition of the French Government, by its Aggressions on your Majesty's Allies, its Hostility to our Commerce, (even in Time of Peace,) and by its avowed Pretensions, inconsistent with good Faith and with the essential Interests of your Empire. For these Indignities and Provocations your Majesty has demanded Satisfaction and Redress in vain. Fully persuaded, therefore, that it is necessary to call forth the Vigor and Energy of the State, we beg Leave to offer our best Exertions, with our Lives and Fortunes, in Defence of your Majesty's Crown, our invaluable Constitution and the Independence and the Rights of the British Empire.

William Griffith, Sheriff.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

The humble Address of the Provost and Burgesses, and the Merchants and other Inhabitants of the Town of Sligo.

Most Gracious Sovereign.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town of Sligo, of all religious Persuasions, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with renewed Assurances of unshaken Attachment to our beloved Monarch. We sincerely regret, that the Wisdom, the Justice, and the Moderation of your Majesty's Councils have proved ineffectual in preserving to the Empire the Blessings of Peace, and that the restless Ambition of France has again involved us in War, and threatens the Invasion of Great Britain and Ireland.

Fully sensible of the Value of our unrivalled Constitution, and of the Happiness which we enjoy under your Majesty's mild Administration of the wisest and most equitable Laws; we feel it our bounden Duty thus early to come forward and to pledge ourselves to your Majesty and to each other, to uphold and maintain our Constitution, and to protect your Majesty's Person and Government with our Lives and Fortunes.

We feel confident, that those who have been imposed upon by false Ideas of speculative Liberty, convinced of the fatal Example of other Nations will now join Heart and Hand in Support of the British Constitution.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

Westminster, June 11, 1803.

THIS Day the Lords being met, a Message was sent to the Honorable House of Commons by Sir Francis Molyneux, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorized by virtue of His Majesty's Commission for declaring His Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate Attendance of the Honorable House in the House of Peers to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to

June 1803.

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, in virtue of the Powers vested in His Majesty by an Act, passed in the Forty-first Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to regulate the Trade and Commerce to and from the Isle of Malta until the signing a Definitive Treaty of Peace, and from thence until Six Weeks after the next Meeting of Parliament, and to declare the Isle of Malta to be Part of Europe:" His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council, bearing Date the Thirtieth of July One thousand eight hundred and one, to order and declare, that the Port of La Valette, in the said Island of Malta, should be taken to be, and the same was thereby made, a free Port for the Importation into, and Exportation from the same, of all Sorts of Goods and Merchandizes in trading Ships or Vessels belonging to Subjects of States in Amity with His Majesty, of whatever Burthen, or in whatever Manner such Ships or Vessels should be navigated; and should continue to be such free Port until the signing of a Definitive Treaty of Peace, and from thence until Six Weeks after the next Meeting of Parliament, unless His Majesty should in the mean Time otherwise order, subject, nevertheless, to such Regulations for the Security of the Possession of the Island of Malta and its Dependencies, and the Protection of the Health of the Garrison, and Inhabitants thereof, as might be then in Force, or should from Time to Time be deemed necessary or expedient in that Behalf; and that the same Drawbacks and Bounties, and upon the same Terms and Conditions which then were, or thereafter might be allowed by Law, upon the Exportation of any Goods and Merchandizes to the Islands of Minorca, or to Gibraltar, should and might be allowed upon the Exportation of the like Goods and Merchandizes to the Port of La Valette, in the Island of Malta: And whereas by an Act, passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to continue, until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and four, several Laws relating to the prohibiting the Exportation and permitting the Importation of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision, without Payment of Duty; to the Relief of Captors of Prizes, with respect to the bringing and landing certain Prize Goods in this Kingdom; and to the regulating the Trade and Commerce to and from the Isle of Malta:" It is enacted, that the said Act, and all the Powers and Provisions therein contained, shall continue in full Force and Effect until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and four; His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Order made by His Majesty in Council on the Thirtieth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and one, shall be, and be deemed, and taken to be, in Force until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and four, unless His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, shall think fit otherwise to order and direct. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

PROCLAMATION FOR PARDONING DESERTERS FROM THE MILITIA.

War Office, June 14, 1803.

WHEREAS it has been represented to THE KING that there are at this Time many Men, who, having been sworn and enrolled in HIS MAJESTY'S MILITIA FORCES, have made Default, by not appearing and joining their respective Regiments, Battalions, Corps, or Independent Companies when ordered to be embodied, or by deserting or absenting themselves therefrom, and who might be induced to return to their Duty by an Offer of HIS MAJESTY'S GRACIOUS PARDON, and that such an Instance of His Royal Clemency would have a due Influence upon their future Behaviour; HIS MAJESTY has accordingly been graciously pleased to grant HIS FREE PARDON to all MILITIA-MEN having so made Default by not appearing, or by Desertion, or Absence from Duty, who shall return to and join their respective Regiments, Battalions, Corps, or Independent Companies, on or before the 14th Day of July next, or who shall deliver themselves up at the Head-Quarters of any other Regiment, Battalion, Corps, or Independent Company of Militia or to any Detachment of HIS MAJESTY's other Forces, or to any Military Post, on or before the said 14th Day of July next, and be from thence marched to their proper Regiments, Battalions, Corps, or Independent Companies.

Any Soldier who may desert from the Militia after these HIS MAJESTY's gracious Intentions are made public, shall not be included in the above Pardon, but shall be proceeded against with the utmost Severity; as shall also all the said Defaulters, Deserters, and Absentees who shall not have joined their proper Regiments, Battalions, Corps, or Independent Companies of Militia, or delivered themselves up to some other Regiment, Battalion, Corps, or Independent Company of Militia, or to some Detachment of His Majesty's other Forces, or to some Military Post, by the said 14th Day of July next.

And all Justices of the Peace, Magistrates, Constables, and Peace-Officers, and all other Persons whatsoever, are hereby enjoined and required, in pursuance of the Act just passed, "for more speedily completing the Militia of Great Britain;" to apprehend, seize, take, and detain such Defaulters, Deserters, and Absentees, for the Purpose of delivering them into safe Custody at any Military Head-Quarters, or into Gaol near to the Place where they shall be apprehended, in order that they may be dealt with according to Law: and all such of the said Defaulters, Deserters, or Absentees, as were enrolled as Substitutes or Volunteers in the Militia, shall, upon being identified before any General, Regimental, or Detachment Court Martial, be forthwith sent to serve in HIS MAJESTY's Regular Forces stationed Abroad, until duly discharged therefrom; and the Person or Persons who shall apprehend and detain any such Defaulter, Deserter, or Absentee from the Militia, and deliver him into safe Custody as aforesaid, shall receive the Sum of Twenty Shillings over and above the Reward of Twenty Shillings to which such Person or Persons will also be entitled under the Mutiny Act, and shall be paid the same in like Manner as is directed in Respect to the Reward last-mentioned.

By His Majesty's Command,

C. YORKE.

The King has been pleased to grant unto Francis Sheldon, of Wychiffe, in the North Riding of the County of York, Esq; Nephew and Heir at Law of William Constable, late of Burton Constable, in the East Riding of the said County, Esq; deceased, His Royal Licence and Authority that he and his Issue, as they shall respectively become entitled in Possession of the Estates devised by the last Will and Testament of his said late Uncle, may take and use the Surname of Constable only, and also take and bear the Arms of Constable only, instead of the Surname and Arms of Sheldon, in compliance with an Injunction contained in the said Will; such Arms being first duly exemplified according to the Laws of Arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office:

And to order that this His Majesty's Concession and Declaration be registered in His College of Arms.

St. James's, June 8, 1803.

THE following Addressees have been presented to the King; which Addressees His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Merchants, Bankers, Traders, and principal Inhabitants of the City of Cork.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, Bankers, Merchants, Traders, and principal Inhabitants of the City of Cork, beg Leave to approach the Throne with Sentiments of unfeigned Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government.

At this important Crisis, when the Menaces and unjust Aggressions of the French Government, its unparalleled Views of Ambition, and repeated Insults directed against the Honor of your Majesty's Crown, and the Liberties of your People, have compelled your Majesty to appeal to Arms in their Vindication and Defence; we feel ourselves irresistibly called upon to offer to your Majesty these Assurances of Attachment and Support which arise from the fullest Conviction of the Justice of your Majesty's Cause.

Sire, we address you as Men conscious of the transcendent Excellence of the British Constitution, and truly sensible of the Blessings we enjoy in its just and beneficent Administration, under your Majesty's auspicious Reign. In such a Cause your Majesty has the determined Support of Men who have cast an eternal Veil over past Jealousies. In such a Cause your Majesty's Enemies will this Day be told, that Experience of their Perfidy, that Example of their Tyranny have banished Division, and established Union. In such a Cause, supported by the unrivalled Valour of your Majesty's Arms, and seconded by the unanimous Voice of a re-united People, your Majesty cannot fail to be victorious.

May that Being whose Providence has never ceased to shield your sacred Person in the Hour of Peril still protect and guard your Majesty; may His Wisdom direct your Councils, His Strength invigorate your Arms, until your Majesty, having restored Peace and Security to the civilized World, shall shew to Mankind what Glory may be achieved by a free People in a just Cause.

Richard Lane, Mayor.

At the Guildhall of Cork, the 31st of May 1803.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble and unanimous Address of the High Sheriff, Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Cork, assembled at the King's Old Castle, in Cork, on Saturday the Fourth of June One thousand eight hundred and three.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Cork, humbly beg Leave to indulge our Feelings of affectionate Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government, (peculiarly aroused at the present Moment,) and to declare to your Majesty our heartfelt Conviction, of your Majesty's earnest Desire, for the Preservation of Peace with the French Republic, and of the Dignity and Moderation, which has characterised the late Negotiation with that Government.

We deeply regret that the Views of Aggrandisement, the Violation of good Faith, the Zeal for the Subjugation of all other Powers, and for the Extinction of all Civil Liberty manifested by the present Government of France, and above all the Insult and Defiance offered to your Majesty and this Empire have imposed upon your Majesty the painful, but imperious Necessity of vindicating the Dignity of your Crown, and the Laws and Liberties of your Subjects by an Appeal to the Sword; which, however your Majesty cannot doubt the brave and powerful People will resort to with their wonted Valour, and, under Providence, with Success, in so just a Conflict, and against such unprovoked Hostility.

Implicitly confiding in your Majesty's Solicitude for the Peace, Prosperity and Happiness of the United Kingdom, and sensible that the Preservation of all depends on our undaunted and determined Support of your Majesty's dignified Assertion of our Rights and Liberties, and on our firm Adherence to the Principles of that free Government and Constitution under which we have the Happiness to live; we offer our humble but confident Assurance, that in the present Contest we shall be found, in Concert with our free and faithful Fellow Subjects of every Description, unanimous and resolute in defending your Majesty's just Rights and those of our Country against Insult and Aggression.

Sustained by the martial Energy of your People, may your Majesty soon terminate the Conflict with Glory, and enjoy in Peace many happy Returns of a Day auspicious to the Interests of the British Empire.

Robert De Laloue, High Sheriff of the County of Cork.

At the King's Old Castle, in Cork, the 4th of June 1803.

PARLIAMENT.

Town of Nottingham.

Daniel Parker Coke, Esq; in the Room of Joseph Birch, Esq; whose Election for the said Town has been determined to be void.

Whitehall, June 14, 1803.

As several Artificers and Manufacturers, Subjects of Great Britain, have, from Time to Time, gone into Foreign Countries to exercise their several Callings, contrary to the Latency of these Kingdoms, the following Abstracts of Acts of Parliament of Their late Majesties King George the First and Second, and of His present Majesty, for preventing such Practices, are published, for the Information of all Persons who may be ignorant of the Penalties they may incur by Disobedience to them: And it will be observed, that such Penalties likewise extend to those who are any ways concerned or instrumental in the Sending or Enticing Artificers or Manufacturers out of these Kingdoms, or in the Exportation of the Tools and Instruments used by them, as well as to the Artificers or Manufacturers themselves.

Statute 5 George I. Chap. 27.

IF any Person shall contract with, entice, or solicit, any Artificer in Wool, Iron, Steel, Brasses, or other Metal, Clock-maker, Watch-maker, or any other Artificer of Great Britain, to go into Foreign Countries out of the King's Dominions, and shall be convicted thereof, upon Indictment or Information in any of the Courts at Westminster, or at the Assizes or Quarter Sessions, he shall be fined any Sum not exceeding ONE HUNDRED POUNDS for the first Offence, and shall be imprisoned Three Months, and till the Fine be paid. And if any Person having been once convicted shall offend again, he shall be fined at the Discretion of the Court, and imprisoned Twelve Months, and till the Fine be paid.

If any of the King's Subjects, being such Artificers, shall go into any Country out of His Majesty's Dominions, to exercise or teach the said Trades to Foreigners; and if any of the King's Subjects in any such Foreign Country, exercising any of the said Trades, shall not return into this Realm within Six Months after Warning given by the Ambassador, Minister, or Consul of Great Britain, in the Country where such Artificers shall be, or by any Person authorised by such Ambassador, &c. or by one of the Secretaries of State, and from henceforth inhabit within this Realm; such Persons shall be incapable of taking any Legacy, or of being an Executor or Administrator, or of taking any Lands, &c. within this Kingdom, by Descent, Devise, or Purchase, and shall forfeit all Lands, Goods, &c. within this Kingdom, to His Majesty's Use, and shall be deemed Alien, and out of His Majesty's Protection.

Upon Complaint made, upon Oath, before any Justice of Peace, that any Person is endeavouring to seduce any such Artificer, or that any such Artificer hath contracted or is preparing to go out of His Majesty's Dominions, for the Purposes aforesaid, such Justice may send his Warrant to bring the Person complained of before him, or before some other Justice; and if it shall appear by the Oath of One Witness, or by Confession, that he was guilty of any of the said Offences, such Justice may bind him to appear at the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions: And if such Person shall refuse to give Security, the Justice may commit him to Gaol till the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions, and until he shall be delivered by due Course of Law. And if any such Artificer shall be convicted, upon Indictment, of any such Promise, Contract, or Preparation to go beyond the Seas, for the Purpose aforesaid, he shall give such Security to the King not to depart out of His Majesty's Dominions, as such Court shall think reasonable; and shall be imprisoned till Security given.

If any of the above Offences shall be committed in Scotland, the same shall be prosecuted in the Court of Justiciary or the Circuits there.

Statute 23 George II. Chap. 13.

IF any Person shall contract with, or endeavour to seduce any Artificer in Wool, Mohair, Cotton, or Silk, or in Iron, Steel, Brass, or other Metal, or any Clock-maker, Watch-maker, or any other Artificer in any other of the Manufactures of Great Britain or Ireland, to go out of this Kingdom or Ireland into any Foreign Country not within the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain, and shall be convicted, upon Indictment or Information, in the Kings Bench at Westminster, or by Indictment at the Assizes or General Gaol Delivery for the County, &c. wherein such Offence shall be committed in England, or by Indictment in the Court of Justiciary or any of the Circuit Courts in Scotland, or by Indictment or Information in the King's Bench at Dublin, if such Offence be committed in Ireland; the Person so convicted shall, for every Artificer contracted with or seduced, forfeit FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, and shall suffer Imprisonment in the Common Gaol of the County or Stewartry wherein such Offender shall be convicted for Twelve Calendar Months, and until Forfeiture be paid: And in case of a subsequent Offence of the same Kind, the Persons so again offending shall forfeit, for every Person contracted with or seduced, ONE THOUSAND POUNDS, and shall suffer Imprisonment in the Common Gaol of the County or Stewartry wherein such Offender shall be convicted, for Two Years, and until such Forfeiture be paid.

If any Person in Great Britain or Ireland shall put on board any Ship or Boat, not bound directly to some Port in Great Britain or Ireland, or to some other of the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain, any such Tools or Utensils as are commonly used in, or proper for the Preparing, Working up, or Finishing of the Woollen or Silk Manufactures, or any Part of such Tools, he shall, for every Offence, forfeit all such Tools, or Parts thereof, put on board, and TWO HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered by Action of Debt, &c. in any Court of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Session in Scotland, or at any of the Four Courts in Dublin respectively, wherein no Essoin, &c. shall be allowed.

It shall be lawful for any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain, or for any Officer of the Revenue in Ireland, to seize and secure, in some of His Majesty's Warehouses, all such Tools or Utensils prohibited to be exported, as such Officer shall find on board any Vessel not bound directly to some Port in Great Britain or Ireland, or to some other of the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain; and all Tools so seized shall, after Condemnation, be publicly sold to the best Bidder; and one Moiety of the Produce shall be to the Use of His Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Officer who shall seize and secure the same.

If the Captain of any Vessel in Great Britain or Ireland knowingly permit any of the said Tools, prohibited to be exported, to be put on board his Vessel, he shall, for every such Offence, forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as the Penalties inflicted upon Persons exporting the Tools; and, if the Vessel belongs to His Majesty, the Captain shall not only forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, but shall also forfeit his Employment, and be incapable of any Employment under His Majesty.

If any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain or of the Revenue in Ireland, take, or knowingly suffer to be taken, any Entry outward, or sign any Cocket or Suffrance for the Shipping or Exporting of any of the said Tools, or knowingly suffer the same to be done, he shall forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as aforesaid, and also forfeit his Office, and be incapable of any Office under His Majesty.

One Moiety of the Forfeitures shall be applied to the Use of His Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Use of the Person who shall sue for the same.

Statutes 14, 21, 25, and 26 of His present Majesty.

BY these Statutes the like Penalties and Forfeitures as above-mentioned are extended to Persons packing or putting on board any Vessel, not bound directly for some Port in Great Britain or Ireland, any Machine, Engine, Tool, Press, Paper, Utensil, or Implement whatsoever, used in or proper for the working or finishing of the Cotton, Steel, or Iron Manufactures of this Kingdom, or any Part or Parts of such Machines or Implements, or any Models or Plans thereof; and all Captains of Ships and other Persons receiving or being in Possession of any such Articles, with an Intent to export the same to Foreign Parts, and all Custom-house Officers suffering an Entry to be made thereof, are respectively liable to the like Penalties as are above-mentioned, in the case of Tools and Utensils used in the Woollen and Silk Manufactures.

Whitchall. June 4, 1803.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that some evil disposed Person or Persons, did on the Night of the 9th Ultimo, most cruelly and maliciously put to death, by stabbing a Mare, the Property of James Hall, Esq; of New Place, Kingsnympton, in the County of Devon; and on the Night of the 15th of the said Month, another Mare heavy in Foal, was killed in like Manner;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the above-mentioned Felonies, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them (except the Person or Persons who actually killed the said Mares,) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that be, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PELHAM.

And, as a further Encouragement a Reward of TWO HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted) to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders.

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty's most anxious Endeavours to preserve Neutrality and Peace between His Majesty and the Batavian Republic have failed, and the Batavian Republic has become engaged in Measures of Hostility against His Majesty and His Subjects; His Majesty, therefore, is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Prity Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that General Reprisals be granted against the Ships, Goods, and Subjects of the Batavian Republic, so that as well His Majesty's Fleets and Ships, as also all other Ships and Vessels that shall be commissioned, by Letters of Marque, or General Reprisals, or otherwise, by His Majesty's Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, shall and may lawfully seize all Ships, Vessels, and Goods belonging to the Batavian Republic, or to any Persons being Subjects of the Batavian Republic, or inhabiting within any of the Territories of the Batavian Republic, and bring the same to Judgment in such Courts of Admiralty within His Majesty's Dominions, as shall be duly commissioned to take Cognizance thereof; and, to that End, His Majesty's Advocate-General, with the Advocate of the Admiralty, are forthwith to prepare the Draft of a Commission, and present the same to His Majesty at this Board, authorising the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, or any Person or Persons by them empowered and appointed, to issue forth and grant Letters of Marque and Reprisals to any of His Majesty's Subjects, or others whom the said Commissioners shall deem fitly qualified in that Behalf, for the apprehending, seizing, and taking the Ships, Vessels, and Goods belonging to the Batavian Republic, or to any Persons being Subjects of the Batavian Republic, or inhabiting within any of the Territories of the Batavian Republic; and that such Powers and Clauses be inserted in the said Commission, as have been usual, and are according to former Precedents; and His Majesty's said Advocate-General, with the Advocate of the Admiralty, are also forthwith to prepare the Draft of a Commission, and present the same to His Majesty at this Board, authorising the said Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, to will and require the High Court of Admiralty of Great Britain, and the Lieutenant and Judge of the said Court, His Surrogate or Surrogates, as also the several Courts of Admiralty within His Majesty's Dominions which shall be duly commissioned to take Cognizance of, and judicially proceed upon all and all Manner of Captures, Seizures, Prizes, and Reprisals of all Ships and Goods that are or shall be made, and to hear and determine the same, and according to the Course of Admiralty and the Laws of Nations, to adjudge and condemn all such Ships, Vessels, and Goods as shall belong to the Batavian Republic, or to any Persons being Subjects of the Batavian Republic, or inhabiting within any of the Territories of the Batavian Republic; and that such Powers and Clauses be inserted in the said Commission as have been usual, and are according to former Precedents; and they are likewise to prepare and lay before His Majesty at this Board a Draft of such Instructions as may be proper to be sent to the said several Courts of Admiralty in His Majesty's foreign Governments and Plantations for their Guidance herein; as also another Draft of Instructions for such Ships as shall be commissioned for the Purposes above-mentioned.

FREDERICK, Commander in Chief.

PROCLAMATION FOR PARDONING DESERTERS FROM THE MILITIA.

War Office, June 14, 1803.

WHEREAS it has been represented to THE KING that there are at this Time many Men, who, having been sworn and enrolled in HIS MAJESTY'S MILITIA FORCES, have made Default, by not appearing and joining their respective Regiments, Battalions, Corps, or Independent Companies when ordered to be embodied, or by deserting or absenting themselves therefrom, and who might be induced to return to their Duty by an Offer of HIS MAJESTY'S GRACIOUS PARDON, and that such an Instance of His Royal Clemency would have a due Influence upon their future Behaviour; HIS MAJESTY has accordingly been graciously pleased to grant HIS FREE PARDON to all MILITIA-MEN having so made Default by not appearing, or by Desertion, or Absence from Duty, who shall return to and join their respective Regiments, Battalions, Corps, or Independent Companies, on or before the 14th Day of July next, or who shall deliver themselves up at the Head-Quarters of any other Regiment, Battalion, Corps, or Independent Company of Militia, or to any Detachment of HIS MAJESTY'S other Forces, or to any Military-Post, on or before the said 14th Day of July next, and be from thence marched to their proper Regiments, Battalions, Corps, or Independent Companies.

Any Soldier who may desert from the Militia after these HIS MAJESTY'S gracious Intentions are made public, shall not be included in the above Pardon, but shall be proceeded against with the utmost Severity; as shall also all the said Defaulters, Deserters, and Absentees who shall not have joined their proper Regiments, Battalions, Corps, or Independent Companies of Militia, or delivered themselves up to some other Regiment, Battalion, Corps, or Independent Company of Militia, or to some Detachment of His Majesty's other Forces, or to some Military Post, by the said 14th Day of July next.

And all Justices of the Peace, Magistrates, Constables, and Peace Officers, and all other Persons whatsoever, are hereby enjoined and required, in pursuance of the Act just passed, "for more speedily completing the Militia of Great Britain;" to apprehend, seize, take, and detain such Defaulters, Deserters, and Absentees, for the Purpose of delivering them into safe Custody at any Military Head Quarters, or into Gaol near to the Place where they shall be apprehended, in order that they may be dealt with according to Law: and all such of the said Defaulters, Deserters, or Absentees, as were enrolled as Substitutes or Volunteers in the Militia, shall, upon being identified before any General, Regimental, or Detachment Court Martial, be forthwith sent to serve in HIS MAJESTY'S Regular Forces stationed Abroad, until duly discharged therefrom; and the Person or Persons who shall apprehend and detain any such Defaulter, Defeater, or Absentee from the Militia, and deliver him into safe Custody as aforesaid, shall receive the Sum of Twenty Shillings over and above the Reward of Twenty Shillings to which such Person or Persons will also be entitled under the Mutiny Act, and shall be paid the same in like Manner as is directed in Respect to the Reward last-mentioned.

Copy of a Letter from the Right Honorable Lord Keith, K. B. Admiral of the Blue, &c. to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated Sheerness, the 16th Instant.

SIR,

I ENCLOSE, for their Lordships' Information, a Letter which has been addressed to Rear-Admiral Montagu by Captain Owen, of His Majesty's Ship Immortalité, acquainting him with the Capture of Two of the Enemy's Gun-Vessels.

I have the Honor to be, &c. KEITH.

SIR, Immortalité, off Calais, June 14, 1803.

THIS Morning, in Company with the Jalouse and Cruizer Sloops, chased Two French Gun-Vessels on Shore on the East Part of Cape Blanc Nez, and, with the Flood-Tide, ordered the Two Sloops to anchor, and endeavour to destroy or bring them off, sending our Boats to assist in so doing. I am happy to inform you, that, after about an Hour's Firing from them and the Batteries, they were silenced, and taken Possession of by the Boats under a heavy Fire of Musketry from the Cliffs, by which Mr. Charles Adams, Mate of the Jalouse, has been badly wounded.

The Vessels prove to be L'Inabordable Schooner, and Le Commode Brig, carrying each Three Guns, Twenty-four-Pounders, and One Eight-Pounder, and appear very fine Vessels.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

Rear-Admiral Montagu.

E. OWEN.

Copy of a Letter from Rear-Admiral Sir James Saumarez, K. B. &c. to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated on board the Grampus, at Guernsey, the 15th Instant

SIR,

HEREWITH I enclose a Letter from Lieutenant Archbold, commanding His Majesty's Schooner Eling, acquainting me of his having captured, on the 3d Instant, off Cape Frehel, L'Espiegle, a small Lugger Privateer from St. Maloes, manned with Twelve Men, out Eighteen Days, without having made any Capture.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

JAMES SAUMAREZ.

Eling, Guernsey Road,

June 14, 1803.

SIR,

I BEG Leave to acquaint you, that Yesterday Afternoon, Cape Frehel bearing S. S. E. Five or Six Leagues, I fell in with, and after an Hour's Chase captured, the French Lugger Privateer L'Espiegle, (an open Boat,) of St. Maloes, manned with Twelve Men, and armed with small Arms; out Eighteen Days, and had not taken any Thing.

Being Seventeen Men short of Complement, I judged it prudent to see her into Port, and am concerned to state, that in getting a Tow-Rope into her this Morning, through the Neglect of the Man at her Helm, she got under the Bows and was sunk.

I am, &c.

W. ARCHBOLD.

Sir James Saumarez, Bart. and K. B.

Commander in Chief, &c. &c. &c.
Guernsey.

St. James's, June 17, 1803.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons, and Citizens of the City of Dublin, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons, and Citizens of the City of Dublin, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave to approach the Throne with renewed Assurances of our unshaken Loyalty to your Majesty, and of our unalterable Attachment to our glorious Constitution in Church and State.

At this awful Period, when the Injustice, the Insults, the unexampled Aggressions, and the inordinate Ambition of the French Government have roused the indignant Feelings of all true Englishmen, and compelled your Majesty to appeal to Arms in Vindication of the Honor of your Crown, and the Liberties of your People; we would consider ourselves unworthy of the Protection of the best of Kings if our Bosoms did not also glow with the same patriotic Ardour, and if we did not, with equal Unanimity and Firmness, declare our fixed Determination, to dedicate our Lives and Fortunes to the Support of the Honor and Security of our Country, and in Defence of our unrivalled Constitution.

When we contemplate the manifold Excellencies of the British Constitution, and the transcendent Virtues of our beloved Sovereign, we cannot withhold our most fervent and grateful Acknowledgments from that gracious Power who hath so long protected the one and preserved the other; but whilst we exult at the many Blessings we enjoy under our present rational System of Civil Liberty, we feel for the unhappy Situation of a People, who, panting after an imaginary Freedom, have lifted a Tyrant into Power, who, whilst he affects to vindicate their Liberty, only seeks to establish his own Aggrandisement; a man who has entailed Misery upon all who have been so deluded as to seek his Alliance, and again presumes to disturb the Repose of Europe in order to accomplish his Schemes of inordinate Ambition, and though we sincerely deprecate the Calamities of War, yet we must be dead to every patriotic Feeling if we did not consider ourselves most imperiously called on at this important Crisis, to protect, and defend with Energy and Intrepidity, our Property, our Homes, our glorious Constitution, and under those beloved Objects, all that is valuable to Man; in such a Cause, to doubt of Success, would be to question the Justice of Omnipotence.

We cannot but embrace with peculiar Satisfaction the Opportunity now presented to us, of acknowledging with the most lively Sentiments of Gratitude the paternal Regard of our most gracious Sovereign, in the Appointment of our present excellent Chief Governor, whose Virtues add Splendor to the Viceregal Court, diffuse Happiness amongst all your Majesty's Subjects, and reflect the most distinguished Honor on our beloved Sovereign whom he so faithfully represents; but the Voice of Panegyric must be silent in the Description of a Nobleman, whose great and amiable Qualities are superior to our humble Commendation, a Nobleman who will never be thought on by the Irish Nation without Reverence, nor remembered without Regard.

In testimony whereof, we have caused the Common Seal of our said City to be hereunto affixed, the Sixth Day of June, in the Forty-third Year of your Majesty's Reign.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, and Common-Council of the City of Cork, in Council assembled.

WE, the Mayor, Sheriffs, and Common-Council of the City of Cork, in Council assembled, humbly beg Leave, at this momentous Crisis, to reiterate our unshaken Loyalty to your Majesty, to renew our Professions of Attachment to the Constitution, and to declare the fullest Approbation of the Measure your Majesty has adopted to frustrate the avowed Intentions, and repel the unwarranted Aggressions of the Government of France.

In Support of all that is dear to the Monarch and to the Subject, we conceive that your Majesty and your People are now engaged; we feel the Magnitude of the Contest; we are equally sensible that by farther protracted Forbearance, national Honor no longer could be upheld, nor national Security preserved.

In recurring to the awful Alternative to which the arrogant Menaces of the Chief Consul of France forced your Majesty, much Consolation will be afforded by reflecting, that imperious Necessity impelled the Measure—that the Justice of the Cause is manifest to the World—that a magnanimous People, who feel and know the Value of what they are to contend for, with cordial and united Efforts will support your Majesty's Determination.

Deeply impressed with the Importance of Peace to this Country, and anxious as we were for its Continuance, yet we prefer the eventful Chances of open Hostilities to a fallacious Calm, portentous of some violent Convulsion.

The Feuds and Animosities which so long distracted and disgraced this Country we trust have happily subsided, and that the natural Strength which thereby wasted itself will be found concentrated in one common Cause, the Defence of all that is valuable to free Men.

In reflecting on the Moderation of your Majesty's past Conduct, contemplating the general Benignity of the Royal Mind, we feel the strongest Persuasion, that no favorable Opportunity will be lost to restore to us the Blessings of Peace, when it can be attained consistent with the Dignity and Security of the British Empire.

May your Majesty be the favored Instrument of Providence to check the devastating Progress of that Power, which hitherto, with Impunity, has trampled on the Rights of Humanity.

May your Majesty's Reign be commemorated not more for brilliant and successful Achievements in Arms, than for the solid Glory of vindicating Civil Liberty, accomplishing permanent Peace and internal Tranquillity.

Done at the Mansion-House, Cork, the Fourth Day of June, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Aldermen, Free Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Town of Youghall.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Aldermen, Free Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Corporation of Youghall, beg Leave to approach your Throne with Declarations of our warmest and most unfeigned Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person, Family, and Government, and to assure your Majesty of the just Sense we entertain of the Wisdom and Moderation evinced by your Majesty's Councils in endeavouring to preserve the Blessings of Peace, and the Indignation we feel at finding those Attempts rendered abortive by the extravagant and insulting Pretensions advanced by the existing Government of France.

From a Conviction that every Thing dear and valuable to a free and independent Nation is involved in the present Contest, your Majesty may confidently rely upon our firm Loyalty and Zeal; and that we are determined strenuously to maintain and support with our Lives and Fortunes the Honor and Dignity of your Majesty's Crown and Government; the Rights and Liberties of your People, and the general Interests of the United Empire.

Signed, by Order,

William Jenkins, Town-Clerk.

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty's most anxious Endeavours to preserve Neutrality and Peace between His Majesty and the Batavian Republic have failed, and the Batavian Republic has become engaged in Measures of Hostility against His Majesty and His Subjects; His Majesty, therefore, is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that General Reprisals be granted against the Ships, Goods, and Subjects of the Batavian Republic, so that as well His Majesty's Fleets and Ships, as also all other Ships and Vessels that shall be commissioned, by Letters of Marque, or General Reprisals, or otherwise, by His Majesty's Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, shall and may lawfully seize all Ships, Vessels, and Goods belonging to the Batavian Republic, or to any Persons being Subjects of the Batavian Republic, or inhabiting within any of the Territories of the Batavian Republic, and bring the same to Judgment in such Courts of Admiralty within His Majesty's Dominions, as shall be duly commissioned to take Cognizance thereof; and, to that End, His Majesty's Advocate-General, with the Advocate of the Admiralty, are forthwith to prepare the Draft of a Commission, and present the same to His Majesty at this Board, authorising the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, or any Person or Persons by them empowered and appointed, to issue forth and grant Letters of Marque and Reprisals to any of His Majesty's Subjects, or others whom the said Commissioners shall deem fitly qualified in that Behalf, for the apprehending, seizing, and taking the Ships, Vessels, and Goods belonging to the Batavian Republic, or to any Persons being Subjects of the Batavian Republic, or inhabiting within any of the Territories of the Batavian Republic; and that such Powers and Clauses be inserted in the said Commission, as have been usual, and are according to former Precedents; and His Majesty's said Advocate-General, with the Advocate of the Admiralty, are also forthwith to prepare the Draft of a Commission, and present the same to His Majesty at this Board, authorising the said Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, to will and require the High Court of Admiralty of Great Britain, and the Lieutenant and Judge of the said Court, His Surrogate or Surrogates, as also the several Courts of Admiralty within His Majesty's Dominions which shall be duly commissioned to take Cognizance of, and judicially proceed upon all and all Manner of Captures, Seizures, Prizes, and Reprisals of all Ships and Goods that are or shall be made, and to hear and determine the same, and according to the Course of Admiralty and the Laws of Nations, to adjudge and condemn all such Ships, Vessels, and Goods as shall belong to the Batavian Republic, or to any Persons being Subjects of the Batavian Republic, or inhabiting within any of the Territories of the Batavian Republic; and that such Powers and Clauses be inserted in the said Commission as have been usual, and are according to former Precedents; and they are likewise to prepare and lay before His Majesty at this Board a Draft of such Instructions as may be proper to be sent to the said several Courts of Admiralty in His Majesty's foreign Governments and Plantations for their Guidance herein; as also another Draft of Instructions for such Ships as shall be commissioned for the Purposes above-mentioned.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 8th Day of June 1803,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, in virtue of the Powers vested in His Majesty by an Act, passed in the Forty-first Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to regulate the Trade and Commerce to and from the Isle of Malta until the signing a Definitive Treaty of Peace, and from thence until Six Weeks after the

"next Meeting of Parliament, and to declare the "Ile of Malta to be Part of Europe:" His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council, bearing Date the Thirtieth of July One thousand eight hundred and one, to order and declare, that the Port of La Valette, in the said Island of Malta, should be taken to be, and the same was thereby made, a free Port for the Importation into, and Exportation from the same, of all Sorts of Goods and Merchandizes in trading Ships or Vessels belonging to Subjects of States in Amity with His Majesty, of whatever Burthen, or in whatever Manner such Ships or Vessels should be navigated; and should continue to be such free Port until the signing of a Definitive Treaty of Peace, and from thence until Six Weeks after the next Meeting of Parliament, unless His Majesty should in the mean Time otherwise order, subject, nevertheless, to such Regulations for the Security of the Possession of the Island of Malta and its Dependencies, and the Protection of the Health of the Garrison, and Inhabitants thereof, as might be then in Force, or should from Time to Time be deemed necessary or expedient in that Behalf; and that the same Drawbacks and Bounties, and upon the same Terms and Conditions which then were, or thereafter might be allowed by Law, upon the Exportation of any Goods and Merchandizes to the Islands of Minorca, or to Gibraltar, should and might be allowed upon the Exportation of the like Goods and Merchandizes to the Port of La Valette, in the Island of Malta: And whereas by an Act, passed in the present Session of Parliament, intitled "An Act to continue, until the "First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and four, several Laws relating to the prohibiting the Exportation and permitting the Importation of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision, without Payment of Duty; to the Relief of Captors of "Prizes, with respect to the bringing and landing "certain Prize Goods in this Kingdom; and to "the regulating the Trade and Commerce to and "from the Ile of Malta:" It is enacted, that the said Act, and all the Powers and Provisions therein contained, shall continue in full Force and Effect until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and four; His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Order made by His Majesty in Council on the Thirtieth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and one, shall be, and be deemed, and taken to be, in Force until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and four, unless His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, shall think fit otherwise to order and direct. And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Farwaker.

FREDERICK, Commander in Chief

PROCLAMATION FOR PARDONING DEFERTERS FROM THE MILITIA.

War Office, June 14, 1803.

WHEREAS it has been represented to THE KING that there are at this Time many Men, who, having been sworn and enrolled in HIS MAJESTY'S MILITIA FORCES, have made Default, by not appearing and joining their respective Regiments, Battalions, Corps, or Independent Companies when ordered to be embodied, or by deserting or absenting themselves therefrom, and who might be induced to return to their Duty by an Offer of HIS MAJESTY'S GRACIOUS PARDON, and that such an Instance of His Royal Clemency would have a due Influence upon their future Behaviour; HIS MAJESTY has accordingly been graciously pleased to grant HIS FREE PARDON to all MILITIA-MEN having so made Default by not appearing, or by Desertion, or Absence from Duty, who shall return to and join their respective Regiments, Battalions, Corps, or Independent Companies, on or before the 14th Day of July next, or who shall deliver themselves up at the Head-Quarters of any other Regiment, Battalion, Corps, or Independent Company of Militia, or to any Detachment of HIS MAJESTY'S other Forces, or to any Military-Post, on or before the said 14th Day of July next, and be from thence marched to their proper Regiments, Battalions, Corps, or Independent Companies.

Any Soldier who may desert from the Militia after these HIS MAJESTY'S gracious Intentions are made public, shall not be included in the above Pardon, but shall be proceeded against with the utmost Severity; as shall also all the said Defaulters, Deserters, and Absentees who shall not have joined their proper Regiments, Battalions, Corps, or Independent Companies of Militia, or delivered themselves up to some other Regiment, Battalion, Corps, or Independent Company of Militia, or to some Detachment of His Majesty's other Forces, or to some Military Post, by the said 14th Day of July next.

And all Justices of the Peace, Magistrates, Constables, and Peace-Officers, and all other Persons whatsoever, are hereby enjoined and required, in pursuance of the Act just passed, "for more speedily completing the Militia of Great Britain;" to apprehend, seize, take, and detain such Defaulters, Deserters, and Absentees, for the Purpose of delivering them into safe Custody at any Military Head Quarters, or into Gaol near to the Place where they shall be apprehended, in order that they may be dealt with according to Law: and all such of the said Defaulters, Deserters, or Absentees, as were enrolled as Substitutes or Volunteers in the Militia, shall, upon being identified before any General, Regimental, or Detachment Court Martial, be forthwith sent to serve in HIS MAJESTY'S Regular Forces stationed Abroad, until duly discharged therefrom; and the Person or Persons who shall apprehend and detain any such Defaulter, Deserter, or Absentee from the Militia, and deliver him into safe Custody as aforesaid, shall receive the Sum of Twenty Shillings over and above the Reward of Twenty Shillings to which such Person or Persons will also be entitled under the Mutiny Act, and shall be paid the same in like Manner as is directed in Respect to the Reward last-mentioned.

By His Majesty's Command,

C. YORKE.

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Sixteenth Day of May last, to promise and declare, that the Bounties of Five Pounds for every Able Seaman, and Two Pounds Ten Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, fit for His Majesty's Service, should be paid in the Manner thereby directed to every such Able and Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should, on or before the Thirtieth Day of June then following, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels, or Officers employed on Shore for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And whereas His Majesty was graciously pleased, by His said Proclamation, to declare, that all Able-bodied Landmen, not above the Age of Thirty-five nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should so enter themselves as aforesaid, should receive the Sum of Thirty Shillings each Man as His Majesty's Royal Bounty: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Seventh Day of March last, to promise and declare, that a Reward of Twenty Shillings for every Able and Ordinary Seaman, fit to serve on board His Majesty's Ships, should be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen, who might conceal him or themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's Service, by any of His Majesty's Sea Officers employed for raising Men, on or before the Thirtieth Day of April then next: And whereas the Time limited for Payment of the said Reward was, by Order in Council, prolonged and extended from the said Thirtieth Day of April to the Thirtieth Day of this instant June; and it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, that the said Bounties and Reward should be continued to be paid for some Time longer, His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward be prolonged and extended from the said Thirtieth Day of this instant June to the Thirty-first Day of December next inclusive; whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice and govern themselves accordingly. W. Fawcener.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 22d of June 1803,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to continue, until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and four, several Laws relating to the prohibiting the Exportation and permitting the Importation of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision without Payment of Duty; to the Relief of Captors of Prizes, with respect to the bringing and landing certain Prize Goods in this Kingdom; and to the regulating the Trade and Commerce to and from the Isle of Malta;" It is among other Things, enacted, That certain Acts therein mentioned relating to the Exportation and Importation of Corn, and other Articles of Provision should be, and the same were thereby continued until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and four; His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance of the Powers given by the said Acts, is hereby pleased to order, That, from the Thirtieth Day of this instant June, until the Thirtieth Day of September next, inclusive, no Person or Person; whatsoever shall export, or shall load or lay on board any Vessel, with the Intent to export from any Port or Place of Great Britain any of the following Articles, viz. Bulls, Cows, Oxen, Calves, Sheep, Lambs, Swine, Beef, Pork, Mutton, Veal, or Lamb, whether salted or otherwise, or any Bacon, or Butter, unless Proof shall first be given to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs that the Articles so to be exported as aforesaid are not of British Growth, Produce, or Manufacture; But it is His Majesty's Pleasure nevertheless, that nothing contained in this His Majesty's Order shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent the Exportation or carrying out of such and so much of any of the said Articles as shall be necessary to be carried in any Ship or Vessel, on its Voyage out and Home, for the Sustenance, Diet, and Support of the Commander, Master, Mariners, Passengers, and others on board such Ship or Vessel, or for the necessary victualling or providing any of His Majesty's Ships of War, or other Ships and Vessels in His Majesty's Service; or for the necessary victualling or providing any of His Majesty's Forces, Forts, or Garrisons; nor to prohibit, at any Time, the Exportation of such and so much of any of the said Articles as may be necessary for the Supply of the British Forts, Castles, or Factories in Africa, or of British Ships trading upon that Coast, which have usually been supplied with the same from Great Britain: nor to prohibit the Exportation by the East India Company, or any Agent employed by them, of any of the said Articles for the necessary Supply of their Garrisons at St. Helena, Bombay, and Bencoolen, or for the necessary Use of the Ships belonging to the said Company; nor to prohibit the Exportation of any of the said Articles to the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man; or to any of His Majesty's Colonies, Islands, or Plantations in America or the West Indies; or to the Town or Port of Gibraltar, for the necessary Use of the Inhabitants of the same respectively: Provided that the Merchant Exporter, in each Case, shall first make Oath of the true Destination of the same to the Places for which they were entered Outwards before the Entry of the same shall be made, and should give full and sufficient Security, by Bond, in treble the Value of the said Articles, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said Articles to the Places for which they were so entered out, and for the Purposes specified and none other; such Bond not to be cancelled or delivered up until Proof shall be made to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the Production, within a Time to be fixed by the said Commissioners, and specified in the Bond, of a Certificate or Certificates, in such Form and Manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said Articles have been all duly landed at the Places for which they were so entered Outwards:

And His Majesty is hereby further pleased to order, with the Advice aforesaid, That it shall be lawful for and during the said Term beforementioned, to import into any Port or Place of Great Britain any Beans called Kidney or French Beans, Tares, Lentiles, Calavancies, and all other Sorts of Pulse; and also Bulls, Cows, Oxen, Calves, Sheep, Lambs, and Swine; Beef, Pork, Mutton, Veal, and Lamb, whether salted or otherwise; Bacon, Hams, Tongues, Butter, Cheese, Potatoes, Sago, Sago-Powder, Tapioca, Vermicelli, Millet-Seed, Poultry, Fowls, Eggs, Game, and Sour Crout, in any British Ship or Vessel, or in any other Ship or Vessel belonging to Persons of any Kingdom or State in Amity with His Majesty, and navigated in any Manner whatever, without Payment of any Duty whatsoever; provided that a due Entry shall be made of all such Articles as aforesaid, that shall be so imported, with the proper Officer of the Customs at the Port where the same shall be imported, under the Penalties and Forfeitures in the said Acts mentioned.

And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

W. Farwaker.

AT the Court at Windfor, the 16th of June 1803,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty's most anxious Endeavours to preserve Neutrality and Peace between His Majesty and the Batavian Republic have failed, and the Batavian Republic has become engaged in Measures of Hostility against His Majesty and His Subjects; His Majesty, therefore, is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that General Reprisals be granted against the Ships, Goods, and Subjects of the Batavian Republic, so that as well His Majesty's Fleets and Ships, as also all other Ships and Vessels that shall be commissioned, by Letters of Marque, or General Reprisals, or otherwise, by His Majesty's Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, shall and may lawfully seize all Ships, Vessels, and Goods belonging to the Batavian Republic, or to any Persons being Subjects of the Batavian Republic, or inhabiting within any of the Territories of the Batavian Republic, and bring the same to Judgment in such Courts of Admiralty within His Majesty's Dominions, as shall be duly commissioned to take Cognizance thereof; and, to that End, His Majesty's Advocate-General, with the Advocate of the Admiralty, are forthwith to prepare the Draft of a Commission, and present the same to His Majesty at this Board, authorising the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, or any Person or Persons by them empowered and appointed, to issue forth and grant Letters of Marque and Reprisals to any of His Majesty's Subjects, or others whom the said Commissioners shall deem fitly qualified in that Behalf, for the apprehending, seizing, and taking the Ships, Vessels, and Goods belonging to the Batavian Republic, or to any Persons being Subjects of the Batavian Republic, or inhabiting within any of the Territories of the Batavian Republic; and that such Powers and Clauses be inserted in the said Commission, as have been usual, and are according to former Precedents; and His Majesty's said Advocate-General, with the Advocate of the Admiralty, are also forthwith to prepare the Draft of a Commission, and present the same to His Majesty at this Board, authorising the said Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, to will and require the High Court of Admiralty of Great Britain, and the Lieutenant and Judge of the said Court, His Surrogate or Surrogates, as also the several Courts of Admiralty within His Majesty's Dominions which shall be duly commissioned to take Cognizance of, and judicially proceed upon all and all Manner of Captures, Seizures, Prizes, and Reprisals of all Ships and Goods that are or shall be made, and to hear and determine the same, and according to the Course of Admiralty and the Laws of Nations, to adjudge and condemn all such Ships, Vessels, and Goods as shall belong to the Batavian Republic, or to any Persons being Subjects of the Batavian Republic, or inhabiting within any of the Territories of the Batavian Republic; and that such Powers and Clauses be inserted in the said Commission as have been usual, and are according to former Precedents; and they are likewise to prepare and lay before His Majesty at this Board a Draft of such Instructions as may be proper to be sent to the said several Courts of Admiralty in His Majesty's foreign Governments and Plantations for their Guidance herein; as also another Draft of Instructions for such Ships as shall be commissioned for the Purposes above-mentioned.

Extract of a Letter from the Honorable William Cornwallis, Admiral of the Blue, &c. to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated off Ushant, the 15th Instant.

I HAVE the Honor to enclose, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a Letter which I received this Day from Captain Williams, of the Ruffel, informing me that the Vessel he chased on the 3d Instant proved to be the Betsey French National Brig, from Martinique to Brest.

S I R, Ruffel, at Sea, June 5, 1803.

I BEG Leave to inform you, that the Vessel I chased the 3d Instant proved to be the Betsey French National Brig, commanded by Citizen Avouyné, Enseigne de Vaisseau: Sailed from Martinique the 14th of April, bound to Brest, was pierced for Six Guns, but had only Four on board, and Twenty Men, including Officers. I found her in so bad a State, not having either Provisions or Stores on board, that I thought it most advisable to destroy her.

I have also Two Dutch Galliot, and sent them into Plymouth.

I am, &c. R. WILLIAMS.

The Honorable Admiral Cornwallis, &c. &c. &c.

Copy of a Letter from Admiral Montagu, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at Portsmouth, to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated the 24th Instant.

S I R;

BE pleased to inform the Lord Commissioners of the Admiralty, that the Albion Hired Cutter, commanded by Lieutenant Mayson Wright, employed on the Service of raising Men, has brought into this Port, the Marengo French Privateer, of Four Carriage Guns and Twenty-six Men; she had been only Two Days from Cherbourg, and had not made any Capture.

For their Lordships' further Information I enclose them Lieutenant Wright's Letter.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

G. MONTAGU.

I HAVE the Honor to acquaint you, that cruising, pursuant to your Directions, in His Majesty's Hired Armed Cutter Albion, of Six Guns, Twenty-seven Men; at Three P. M. June 24, we saw a Cutter standing towards, made sail in Chace; at Five we brought her to Action, when, after a close Engagement (within Pistol Shot,) of an Hour and Twelve Minutes, she struck her Colours, and proved to be the Marengo French Cutter Privateer of Four Carriage Guns, Twenty-six Men, John Sieur Granger, Captain, belonging to Cherbourg; she is a new Vessel, pierced for Eight Guns, had painted on her Stern "Fly of Cows," Two Days from Cherbourg, and had not taken any Thing; there was not any Person wounded on board the Albion, we had a few Shot in our Hull, and one Gun dismounted; the Marengo had Three Men wounded, one badly, and his Sails and Rigging cut to Pieces.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

FREDERICK, Commander in Chief.

PROCLAMATION FOR PARDONING DESERTERS FROM THE MILITIA.

War Office, June 4, 1803.

WHEREAS it has been represented to THE KING that there are at this Time many Men, who, having been sworn and enrolled in HIS MAJESTY'S MILITIA FORCES, have made Default, by not appearing and joining their respective Regiments, Battalions, Corps, or Independent Companies when ordered to be embodied, or by deserting or absenting themselves therefrom, and who might be induced to return to their Duty by an Offer of HIS MAJESTY'S GRACIOUS PARDON, and that such an Instance of His Royal Clemency would have a due Influence upon their future Behaviour; HIS MAJESTY has accordingly been graciously pleased to grant HIS

FREE PARDON to all MILITIA-MEN having so made Default by not appearing, or by Desertion, or Absence from Duty, who shall return to and join their respective Regiments, Battalions, Corps, or Independent Companies, on or before the 14th Day of July next, or who shall deliver themselves up at the Head-Quarters of any other Regiment, Battalion, Corps, or Independent Company of Militia, or to any Detachment of HIS MAJESTY's other Forces, or to any Military-Post, on or before the said 14th Day of July next, and be from thence marched to their proper Regiments, Battalions, Corps, or Independent Companies.

Any Soldier who may desert from the Militia after these HIS MAJESTY's gracious Intentions are made public, shall not be included in the above Pardon, but shall be proceeded against with the utmost Severity; as shall also all the said Defaulters, Deserters, and Absentees who shall not have joined their proper Regiments, Battalions, Corps, or Independent Companies of Militia, or delivered themselves up to some other Regiment, Battalion, Corps, or Independent Company of Militia, or to some Detachment of His Majesty's other Forces, or to some Military Post, by the said 14th Day of July next.

And all Justices of the Peace, Magistrates, Constables, and Peace-Officers, and all other Persons whatsoever, are hereby enjoined and required, in pursuance of the Act just passed, "for more speedily completing the Militia of Great Britain;" to apprehend, seize, take, and detain such Defaulters, Deserters, and Absentees, for the Purpose of delivering them into safe Custody at any Military Head-Quarters, or into Gaol near to the Place where they shall be apprehended, in order that they may be dealt with according to Law: and all such of the said Defaulters, Deserters, or Absentees, as were enrolled as Substitutes or Volunteers in the Militia, shall, upon being identified before any General, Regimental, or Detachment Court Martial, be forthwith sent to serve in HIS MAJESTY's Regular Forces stationed Abroad, until duly discharged therefrom; and the Person or Persons who shall apprehend and detain any such Defaulter, Deserter, or Absentee from the Militia, and deliver him into safe Custody as aforesaid, shall receive the Sum of Twenty Shillings over and above the Reward of Twenty Shillings to which such Person or Persons will also be entitled under the Mutiny Act, and shall be paid the same in like Manner as is directed in Respect to the Reward last-mentioned.

By His Majesty's Command,

C. YORKE.

St. James's, June 22, 1803.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majesty having been pleased to announce to your People the Commencement of Hostilities between your Majesty and the Government of France, and to condescend to signify the Grounds whereon you have thought fit to exercise this Branch of your Royal Prerogative; we your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the City of Exeter, in Chamber assembled, humbly beg Leave to offer you our most sincere Thanks for this reiterated Proof of your paternal Goodness and unremitting Vigilance for the Welfare of our Country. Thanks to Providence we are blessed with a native Monarch, who, in his Solitude for the common Welfare of his Subjects, is no less anxious for their Rights, than he is attentive to the Dignity of his Crown. We trust, Sire, that during this Contest you will experience the most loyal, cordial, and unanimous Support of every Individual throughout your Empire, and may the God of Battles grant Success to your Arms.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall of the City of Exeter, this Sixteenth Day of June, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by Charles Fanshawe, Esq; Recorder, attended by Sir Charles Warwick Bampfylde, Bart. and James Buller, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for that City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Reading.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Reading, humbly beg Permission to approach your Majesty at this important Crisis, with a Declaration of that active Loyalty and affectionate Attachment to your Royal Person and Government, which have always distinguished the Inhabitants of this ancient Borough.

We have beheld with just Indignation the restless Spirit and ambitious Views of a Power, whom no Concessions can soothe, whom no Treaties can bind. The French Government, not conciliated by the sincere Endeavours of your Majesty to restore the Blessings of Peace to a World wasted with the Ravages of War, have invariably, since the Treaty of Amiens, pursued a System of Hostility to the Commerce and Constitution of this Kingdom, and to the Liberties of Mankind. Conscious that they could not succeed in their Design to subjugate the Continent while Britain interposed her protecting Arm, they have affected to represent her as secluded from the Concerns of the Rest of Europe, and cherished the vain Expectation that they could annihilate her political Influence. The Forbearance and Moderation of your Majesty's Councils, instead of producing reciprocal Sentiments of Amity, and a Communication of good Offices, have been repaid only with personal Insults, and with national Injuries.

In these Circumstances it must be a soothing Consolation to your Majesty to observe the Unanimity displayed by your People in their Determination to resist the common Enemy of the Repose and of the Independence of Europe. And we beg to assure your Majesty that the Inhabitants of Reading yield to no Class of your Majesty's Subjects in the Warmth of their Feelings, and in the Sincerity of their Professions to maintain the noblest Cause in which their Hearts can be engaged—the Honor of their King, and the Prosperity of their Country.

We hope that we may be permitted to express our Approbation of the Conduct of your Majesty's present Ministers, who not only prosecuted the War with Vigour and Success, but embraced the first Opportunity of putting an End to its Miseries, and who have endeared themselves to us by the sacred Regard which they have shewn to the Principles of the British Constitution.

It is our fervent Prayer, that, under the Protection of a wise and gracious Providence, your Majesty may be enabled, by the Valour of your Fleets and Armies, and the zealous Support of your People, to place the Commercial and Political Interests of the Nation on a Basis which cannot be shaken by the Intrigues of secret, or the Violence of open Hostility.

Martin Annesley, Chairman.

[Presented by Francis Annesley, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common-Council of Newcastle-upon-Tyne.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common-Council of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, most humbly assure your Majesty, that we sincerely lament that your Majesty's earnest Endeavours to obtain for your People the Blessings of Peace have been rendered abortive by the ambitious Views of the French Government, whose Plans of Aggrandisement, fatal to the Repose of all Europe, and particularly hostile to the Safety and Welfare of your Majesty's Dominions, we contemplate with Astonishment and Indignation; we are however firmly persuaded that the same loyal Spirit which has hitherto enabled this Country to maintain the Dignity of your Majesty's Crown in unsullied Splendour will again eagerly employ its most powerful Energies to repel the insulting Aggression of our Enemy, and to effectuate your Majesty's gracious Desire of establishing an honorable and permanent Peace.

That your Majesty and your Royal Descendants may long continue to reign over this free and happy Nation, is a Blessing which we fervently pray may be enjoyed by ourselves, and our Posterity to the remotest Ages.

Given under the Seal of our Corporation, this Sixteenth Day of June, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

Tho. Clennell, Mayor.

[Presented by Sir Matthew White Ridley, Bart. Representative in Parliament for the said Town.]

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen of Kingston-upon-Hull.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen of Kingston-upon-Hull, beg Leave to approach your Throne, to express our sincere Regret that your Majesty's earnest Endeavours for the Preservation of Peace have failed of Success, and that the unexampled Temper and Moderation evinced by your Majesty's Ministers during the late Negotiations with France, so far from conciliating the French Government, have meet with no other Return than the most insulting Menaces of War and Destruction from the infatuated Ruler of that unhappy Country.

Impressed with the deepest Sense of the invaluable Blessings we derive from our happy Constitution, and of the Happiness we enjoy under your Majesty's Government; be assured, Royal Sire, we shall most zealously concur in such Measures as the Wisdom and Energy of your Majesty's Councils shall devise, for defending the Honour and Dignity of your Majesty's Crown, the Safety of our Country, and the Preservation of all that is dear to us.

May that Almighty Power, on whose Favour and Protection depends the Fate of Empires, go forth with our Fleets and Armies; and may He be graciously pleased to abate the Pride of our Enemies, to assuage their Malice, and to confound their Devices; and in return for these Blessings, may we never forget, that it is to Him we owe our Safety, the Life of our beloved Sovereign, and the Preservation of our Laws and Liberties.

Given under our Common Seal, this Tenth Day of June, in the Forty-third Year of your Majesty's Reign.

Wm. W. Bolton, Mayor.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Earl Fitzwilliam and Mr. Staniforth, Representative in Parliament for the said Town.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Guild or Brotherhood of Masters and Pilots Seamen of the Trinity-House of Kingston-upon-Hull, in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal Subjects, the Wardens, Elder Brethren, and Assistants of the Guild or Brotherhood of the Trinity-House of Kingston-upon-Hull, beg Leave to approach the Throne to repeat our Sentiments of Fidelity and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

Satisfied that your Majesty would not have sacrificed the Blessings of Peace but to prevent the Sacrifice of every Blessing that a virtuous Monarch or a free and happy People esteem inestimable, and that at this important Crisis the Justice of your Majesty's Cause, and the Moderation of your Claims will be readily and universally admitted; we sincerely assure your Majesty that no Endeavours shall be wanting on the Part of this Maritime Corporation to assist your Majesty's Government in adopting Measures for the Defence and Protection of the United Kingdom against the daring Menaces of unprecedented and presumptuous Ambition.

With grateful Impressions for the many an invaluable Privileges we, in common with the Rest of your Majesty's Subjects, enjoy under your mild and paternal Administration, earnestly pray that the Great Ruler of all Events may bless and prosper your Majesty's Councils and Exertions for the Welfare of your People.

Given under the Common Seal of this Guild, the Fourteenth Day of June, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

Thos. Barmby, James Dewitt, Wardens.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Earl Fitzwilliam and Mr. Staniforth.]

AT the Court at St. James's, the 22d of June 1803,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council,

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the Eleventh Day of May last, prohibiting the transporting into any Parts out of this Kingdom, any Pig-Iron, Bar-Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Oker, Sheet-Copper, or other Naval Stores, will expire upon the Eleventh Day of July next: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, and the Safety of this Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer, His Majesty doth, therefore, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no Person or Persons whosoever do at any Time, for the Space of Six Months from the said Eleventh Day of July next, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom any Pig-Iron, Bar-Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Oker, Sheet-Copper, or other Naval Stores, or do ship or lade any Pig-Iron, Bar-Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Oker, Sheet-Copper, or other Naval Stores, or Ship or lade any of the Articles above-mentioned on board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, without Leave or Permission first being had and obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring the Forfeitures inflicted by an Act passed in the Thirty-third Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the Exportation of Naval Stores, and more effectually to prevent the Exportation of Salt-Petre, Arms, and Ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:"

But it is nevertheless His Majesty's Pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any of His Majesty's Ships of War, or any other Ships or Vessels or Boats in the Service of His Majesty, or employed or freighted by His Majesty's Board of Ordnance, or by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy; nor to prevent any Ship or Vessel from taking or having on board such Quantities of Naval Stores as may be necessary for the Use of such Ship or Vessel during the Course of her intended Voyage, or by Licence from the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners of the Admiralty for the Time being; nor to the Exportation of the said several Articles to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Yards or Garrisons, or to His Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or to the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies: Provided, that upon the Exportation of any of the said Articles for the Purposes of Trade to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Yards and Garrisons, or to His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to the Island of Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or to the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies, the Exporters of such Articles do first make Oath of the true Destination of the same to the Places for which they shall be entered outwards, before the Entry of the same shall be made, and do give full and sufficient Security, by Bond, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said Articles to the Places for which they are so entered Outwards; and for the Purposes specified, and none other; and such Bond shall not be cancelled or delivered up until Proof be made to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the Production, within a Time to be fixed by the said Commissioners and specified in the Bond, of a Certificate or Certificates, in such Form and Manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said Articles have been duly landed at the Places for which they were entered Outwards: And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. W. Fawcener.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 22d of June 1803,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Sixteenth Day of May last, to promise and declare, that the Bounties of Five Pounds for every Able Seaman, and Two Pounds, Ten Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, fit for His Majesty's Service, should be paid in the Manner thereby directed to every such Able and Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should, on or before the Thirtieth Day of June then following, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels, or Officers employed on Shore for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And whereas His Majesty was graciously pleased, by His said Proclamation, to declare, that all Able-bodied Landmen, not above the Age of Thirty-five nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should so enter themselves as aforesaid, should receive the Sum of Thirty Shillings each Man as His Majesty's Royal Bounty: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Seventh Day of March last, to promise and declare, that a Reward of Twenty Shillings for every Able and Ordinary Seaman, fit to serve on board His Majesty's Ships, should be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen, who might conceal him or themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's Service, by any of His Majesty's Sea Officers employed for raising Men, on or before the Thirtieth Day of April then next: And whereas the Time limited for Payment of the said Reward was, by Order in Council, prolonged and extended from the said Thirtieth Day of April to the Thirtieth Day of this instant June; and it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, that the said Bounties and Reward should be continued to be paid for some Time longer, His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward be prolonged and extended from the said Thirtieth Day of this instant June to the Thirty-first Day of December next inclusive; whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice and govern themselves accordingly. W. Fawcener.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 22d of June 1803,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present Session of Parliament, intitled "An Act to continue, until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and four, several Laws relating to the prohibiting the Exportation and permitting the Importation of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision without Payment of Duty; to the Relief of Captors of Prizes, with respect to the bringing and landing certain Prize Goods in this Kingdom; and to the regulating the Trade and Commerce to and from the Isle of Malta;" It is among other Things, enacted, That certain Acts therein mentioned relating to the Exportation and Importation of Corn, and other Articles of Provision should be, and the same were thereby continued until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and four; His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance of the Powers given by the said Acts, is hereby pleased to order, That, from the Thirtieth Day of this instant June, until the Thirtieth Day of September next, inclusive, no Person or Persons whatsoever shall export, or shall load or lay on board any Vessel, with the Intent to export from any Port or Place of Great Britain any of the following Articles, viz. Bulls, Cows, Oxen, Calves, Sheep, Lambs, Swine, Beef, Pork, Mutton, Veal, or Lamb, whether salted or otherwise, or any Bacon, or Butter, unless Proof shall first be given to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs that the Articles so to be exported as aforesaid are not of British Growth, Produce, or Manufacture; But it is His Majesty's Pleasure nevertheless, that nothing contained in this His Majesty's Order shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent the Exportation or carrying out of such and so much of any of the said Articles as shall be necessary to be carried in any Ship or Vessel, on its Voyage out and Home, for the Sustenance, Diet, and Support of the Commander, Master, Mariners, Passengers, and others on board such Ship or Vessel, or for the necessary victualling or providing any of His Majesty's Ships of War, or other Ships and Vessels in His Majesty's Service; or for the necessary victualling or providing any of His Majesty's Forces, Forts, or Garrisons; nor to prohibit, at any Time, the Exportation of such and so much of any of the said Articles as may be necessary for the Supply of the British Forts, Castles, or Factories in Africa, or of British Ships trading upon that Coast, which have usually been supplied with the same from Great Britain; nor to prohibit the Exportation by the East India Company, or any Agent employed by them, of any of the said Articles for the necessary Supply of their Garrisons at St. Helena, Bombay, and Bencoolen, or for the necessary Use of the Ships belonging to the said Company; nor to prohibit the Exportation of any of the said Articles to the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man; or to any of His Majesty's Colonies, Islands, or Plantations in America or the West Indies; or to the Town or Port of Gibraltar, for the necessary Use of the Inhabitants of the same respectively: Provided that the Merchant Exporter, in each Case, shall first make Oath of the true Destination of the same to the Places for which they were entered Outwards before the Entry of the same shall be made, and should give full and sufficient Security, by Bond, in treble the Value of the said Articles, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said Articles to the Places for which they were so entered out, and for the Purposes specified and none other; such Bond not to be cancelled or delivered up until Proof shall be made to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the Production, within a Time to be fixed by the said Commissioners, and specified in the Bond, of a Certificate or Certificates, in such Form and Manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said Articles have been all duly landed at the Places for which they were so entered Outwards;

And His Majesty is hereby further pleased to order, with the Advice aforesaid, That it shall be lawful for and during the said Term beforementioned, to import into any Port or Place of Great Britain any Beans called Kidney or French Beans, Tares, Lentiles, Calavancies, and all other Sorts of Pulse; and also Bulls, Cows, Oxen, Calves, Sheep, Lambs, and Swine; Beef, Pork, Mutton, Veal, and Lamb, whether salted or otherwise; Bacon, Hams, Tongues, Butter, Cheese, Potatoes, Sago, Sago-Powder, Tapioca, Vermicelli, Millet-Seed, Poultry, Fowls, Eggs, Game, and Sour CROUT, in any British Ship or Vessel, or in any other Ship or Vessel belonging to Persons of any Kingdom or State in Amity with His Majesty, and navigated in any Manner whatever, without Payment of any Duty whatsoever; provided that a due Entry shall be made of all such Articles as aforesaid, that shall be so imported, with the proper Officer of the Customs at the Port where the same shall be imported, under the Penalties and Forfeitures in the said Acts mentioned.

And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

W. Fawkenor.

PROCLAMATION FOR PARDONING DE-SERTERS FROM THE MILITIA.

War Office, June 14, 1803.

WHEREAS it has been represented to THE KING that there are at this Time many Men, who, having been sworn and enrolled in HIS MAJESTY'S MILITIA FORCES, have made Default, by not appearing and joining their respective Regiments, Battalions, Corps, or Independent Companies when ordered to be embodied, or by deserting or absenting themselves therefrom, and who might be induced to return to their Duty by an Offer of HIS MAJESTY'S GRACIOUS
 PARDON, and that such an Instance of His Royal Clemency would have a due Influence upon their future Behaviour; HIS MAJESTY has accordingly been graciously pleased to grant HIS FREE PARDON to all MILITIA-MEN having so made Default by not appearing, or by Desertion, or Absence from Duty, who shall return to and join their respective Regiments, Battalions, Corps, or Independent Companies, on or before the 14th Day of July next, or who shall deliver themselves up at the Head-Quarters of any other Regiment, Battalion, Corps, or Independent Company of Militia, or to any Detachment of HIS MAJESTY's other Forces, or to any Military-Post, on or before the said 14th Day of July next, and be from thence marched to their proper Regiments, Battalions, Corps, or Independent Companies.

Any Soldier who may desert from the Militia after these HIS MAJESTY's gracious Intentions are made public, shall not be included in the above Pardon, but shall be proceeded against with the utmost Severity; as shall also all the said Defaulters, Deserters, and Absentees who shall not have joined their proper Regiments, Battalions, Corps, or Independent Companies of Militia, or delivered themselves up to some other Regiment, Battalion, Corps, or Independent Company of Militia, or to some Detachment of His Majesty's other Forces, or to some Military Post, by the said 14th Day of July next.

And all Justices of the Peace, Magistrates, Constables, and Peace-Officers, and all other Persons whatsoever, are hereby enjoined and required, in pursuance of the Act just passed, "for more speedily completing the Militia of Great Britain;" to apprehend, seize, take, and detain such Defaulters, Deserters, and Absentees, for the Purpose of delivering them into safe Custody at any Military Head Quarters, or into Gaol near to the Place where they shall be apprehended, in order that they may be dealt with according to Law: and all such of the said Defaulters, Deserters, or Absentees, as were enrolled as Substitutes or Volunteers in the Militia, shall, upon being identified before any General, Regimental, or Detachment Court Martial, be forthwith sent to serve in HIS MAJESTY's Regular Forces stationed Abroad, until duly discharged therefrom; and the Person or Persons who shall apprehend and detain any such Defaulter, Deserter, or Absentee from the Militia, and deliver him into safe Custody as aforesaid, shall receive the Sum of Twenty Shillings over and above the Reward of Twenty Shillings to which such Person or Persons will also be entitled under the Mutiny Act, and shall be paid the same in like Manner as is directed in Respect to the Reward last-mentioned.

By His Majesty's Command,

C. YORKE.

WHEREAS the Select Committee appointed by the House of Commons to try and determine the Merits of the Petition of Sir John Newport, of the City of Waterford, Baronet, complaining of an undue Election and Return for the said City, have made an Order for the Nomination and Appointment of Commissioners to examine certain Matters and Things referred to them by the said Committee:

And whereas I have this Day received a Copy of the Minutes of the Proceedings of the said Commissioners under their Hands and Seals:

Now I do hereby, and by virtue of an Act passed in the Forty-second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, intitled "An Act for regulating the Trial of controverted Elections or Returns of Members to serve in the United Parliament for Ireland," direct the aforesaid Select Committee to re-assemble and meet again upon Thursday the 7th Day of July next, at Eleven of the Clock in the Morning, to take the Proceedings of the said Commissioners into Consideration:

20. 15596.

For which this shall be to the aforesaid Select Committee a sufficient Warrant.

Given under my Hand, this Twenty-seventh Day of June One thousand eight hundred and three.

CHARLES ABBOT, Speaker.

Edward Christian, Esquire.

Downing-Street, June 28, 1803.

THE King has been pleased to cause it to be signified by the Right Honorable Lord Hawkesbury, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, to the Ministers of Neutral Powers residing at this Court, that the necessary Measures having been taken by His Majesty's Command for the Blockade of the Entrance of the River Elbe, in consequence of the forcible Occupation of Parts of the Banks of that River by the French Troops; the said River is declared to be in a State of Blockade; and that from this Time all the Measures authorized by the Law of Nations and the respective Treaties between His Majesty and the different Neutral Powers will be adopted and executed with respect to all Vessels which may attempt to violate the said Blockade. Lord Hawkesbury has been further commanded by His Majesty to signify to the Ministers of the Neutral Powers, that whenever the French Troops will evacuate the Positions which they now occupy on Parts of the Banks of the Elbe, and will remove to such a Distance from them as to leave the Course of that River perfectly free and secure to the Vessels of His Subjects, as well as of other Nations, His Majesty will immediately direct His Ships of War which may be stationed at the Mouth of the River Elbe, for the Purpose of blockading the same, to be withdrawn.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 22d of June 1803,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council,

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the Eleventh Day of May last, prohibiting the transporting into any Parts out of this Kingdom, any Pig-Iron,

Bar-Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Oker, Sheet-Copper, or other Naval Stores, will expire upon the Eleventh Day of July next: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, and the Safety of this Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer, His Majesty doth, therefore, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no Person or Persons whosoever do at any Time, for the Space of Six Months from the said Eleventh Day of July next, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom any Pig-Iron, Bar-Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Oker, Sheet-Copper, or other Naval Stores, or do ship or lade any Pig-Iron, Bar-Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Oker, Sheet-Copper, or other Naval Stores, or Ship or lade any of the Articles above-mentioned on board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, without Leave or Permission first being had and obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring the Forfeitures inflicted by an Act passed in the Thirty-third Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the Exportation of Naval Stores, and more effectually to prevent the Exportation of Salt-Petre, Arms, and Ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:" But it is nevertheless His Majesty's Pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any of His Majesty's Ships of War, or any other Ships or Vessels or Boats in the Service of His Majesty, or employed or freighted by His Majesty's Board of Ordnance, or by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy; nor to prevent any Ship or Vessel from taking or having on board such Quantities of Naval Stores as may be necessary for the Use of such Ship or Vessel during the Course of her intended Voyage, or by Licence from the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners of the Admiralty for the Time being; nor to the Exportation of the said several Articles to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Yards or

Garrisons, or to His Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or to the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies: Provided, that upon the Exportation of any of the said Articles for the Purposes of Trade to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Yards and Garrisons, or to His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in America, or the West Indies, or to the Island of Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or to the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies, the Exporters of such Articles do first make Oath of the true Destination of the same to the Places for which they shall be entered outwards, before the Entry of the same shall be made, and do give full and sufficient Security, by Bond, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said Articles to the Places for which they are so entered Outwards, and for the Purposes specified, and none other; and such Bond shall not be cancelled or delivered up until Proof be made to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the Production, within a Time to be fixed by the said Commissioners and specified in the Bond, of a Certificate or Certificates, in such Form and Manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said Articles have been duly landed at the Places for which they were entered Outwards: And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Fawcener.

PROCLAMATION FOR PARDONING DESERTERS FROM THE MILITIA.

War Office, June 14, 1803.

WHEREAS it has been represented to THE KING that there are at this Time many Men, who, having been sworn and enrolled in HIS MAJESTY'S MILITIA FORCES, have made Default, by not appearing and joining their respective Regiments, Battalions, Corps, or Independent Companies when ordered to be embodied, or by deserting or absenting themselves therefrom, and who might be induced to return to their Duty by an Offer, of HIS MAJESTY'S GRACIOUS PARDON, and that such an Instance of His Royal Clemency would have a due Influence upon their future Behaviour; HIS MAJESTY has accordingly been graciously pleased to grant HIS

FREE PARDON to all MILITIA-MEN having so made Default by not appearing, or by Desertion, or Absence from Duty, who shall return to and join their respective Regiments, Battalions, Corps, or Independent Companies, on or before the 14th Day of July next, or who shall deliver themselves up at the Head Quarters of any other Regiment, Battalion, Corps, or Independent Company of Militia, or to any Detachment of HIS MAJESTY'S other Forces, or to any Military Post, on or before the said 14th Day of July next, and be from thence marched to their proper Regiments, Battalions, Corps, or Independent Companies.

Any Soldier who may desert from the Militia after these HIS MAJESTY'S gracious Intentions are made public, shall not be included in the above Pardon, but shall be proceeded against with the utmost Severity; as shall also all the said Defaulters, Deserters, and Absentees who shall not have joined their proper Regiments, Battalions, Corps, or Independent Companies of Militia, or delivered themselves up to some other Regiment, Battalion, Corps, or Independent Company of Militia, or to some Detachment of His Majesty's other Forces, or to some Military Post, by the said 14th Day of July next.

And all Justices of the Peace, Magistrates, Constables, and Peace-Officers, and all other Persons whatsoever, are hereby enjoined and required, in pursuance of the Act just passed, "for more speedily completing the Militia of Great Britain;" to apprehend, seize, take, and detain such Defaulters, Deserters, and Absentees, for the Purpose of delivering them into safe Custody at any Military Head-Quarters, or into Gaol near to the Place where they shall be apprehended, in order that they may be dealt with according to Law: and all such of the said Defaulters, Deserters, or Absentees, as were enrolled as Substitutes or Volunteers in the Militia, shall, upon being identified before any General, Regimental, or Detachment Court Martial, be forthwith sent to serve in HIS MAJESTY'S Regular Forces stationed Abroad, until duly discharged therefrom; and the Person or Persons who shall apprehend and detain any such Defaulter, Deserter, or Absentee from the Militia, and deliver him into safe Custody as aforesaid, shall receive the Sum of Twenty Shillings over and above the Reward of Twenty Shillings to which such Person or Persons will also be entitled under the Mutiny Act, and shall be paid the same in like Manner as is directed in Respect to the Reward last-mentioned.

By His Majesty's Command,

C. YORKE.

Crown-Office, July 2, 1803.

MEMBER returned to serve in this present PARLIAMENT.

Borough of Southwark.

The Right Honorable George Tierney.

St. James's, July 1, 1803.

THE following Addresses having been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgessees, and Town Clerk of the Borough of New Windsor, in the County of Berks, in Common-Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgessees, and Town-Clerk of the Borough of New Windsor, in the County of Berks, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave, at this important Crisis, to renew our Sentiments of Fidelity and Allegiance to your Majesty's Person, Crown, and Government.

We are fully satisfied that the present just and necessary War is entered into to preserve the glorious Constitution of these Realms, and to repel the Designs of the Government of France, whose inordinate and insatiable Views of restless Ambition are manifestly directed to deprive us of our Liberties, and our Existence as a free and independent Nation.

May the Event of the War be glorious for this Country, and may your Majesty long live in the Hearts and Affections of a free, loyal, and united People is our most sincere and ardent Prayer.

Signed and sealed by Order of Court, the Twenty-seventh Day of June One thousand eight hundred and three. W. Hanson, Mayor.

[Presented by the Earl of Cardigan, High Steward of the Borough of New Windsor.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Caithness, convened by Edict of the Lord Lieutenant of the County.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Caithness, approach the Throne with every Sentiment of Loyalty and Duty, to assure your Majesty, that we feel as Subjects and Britons, the Injuries offered to the Crown, which has induced your Majesty to withdraw your Ambassador from the French Court.

We are fully sensible, that your Majesty has shewn, during a patient and long protracted Negotiation, the utmost Desire to preserve the Blessings of Peace.

We are confident that the unprovoked Aggression of the Government of France, and a Spirit manifested by it, inconsistent with the general Safety of the Liberties of Europe, has made necessary the energetic Determination of your Majesty's Councils; and we are ready to support, with our Lives and Fortunes, whatever Measures your Majesty shall deem expedient to adopt for the Support of the Dignity of the Crown and the Safety of your People.

Signed in Presence, and by Appointment of the Meeting at Thurso, this Seventh Day of June One thousand eight hundred and three Years, by Benjamin Dunbar, Preses.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

Admiralty-Office, June 27, 1803.

WHEREAS Alexander Scott, late Purser of His Majesty's Ship Iris, stands convicted in His Majesty's Court of King's Bench, at Westminster, upon an Information exhibited against him by His Majesty's Attorney General, for unlawfully conspiring with his Commanding Officer, (also convicted upon the said Information, and now in Custody,) to defraud His Majesty's Government, and in pursuance of such Conspiracy, sending to the Commissioners for Vindictalling His Majesty's Navy, false and fraudulent Vouchers for Monies pretended to have been paid for the Purchase of Provisions, for the Use of the said Ship, at the Island of Shetland, in the Months of September and October 1800; and the said Alexander Scott hath absconded from Justice, and Process of Outlawry hath been awarded against him.

The Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty do hereby offer a Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS to be paid by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, to any Person or Persons who shall apprehend, or give such Information to their Lordships' Solicitor Mr. Bicknell, of Spring Garden Terrace, London, or to Mr. James Horne, Writer to the Signet, at Edinburgh, as shall be the Means of apprehending the said Alexander Scott.

By Command of their Lordships,
EVAN NEPEAN.

N. B. The said Alexander Scott is a Native of North Britain,—about Thirty-five Years of Age,—about Five Feet Eight or Nine Inches high,—dark Eyes,—darkish Complexion,—smooth Face—wears, or lately wore, a dark-coloured jeratch Wig,—walks upright, and has a genteel Appearance. He was formerly Purser of His Majesty's Sloops Scout and Merlin.
